September 12, 2023, on page H4246, in the third column, the following appeared: Because of this, this bill would essentially remain in effect indefinitely, regardless of a change in leadership and political or social agenda. In addition, this bill is supported by 3 organizations that have previously advocated for military action against Iran (the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, United Against a Nuclear Iran, and National Union for Democracy in Iran). Although these organizations might support this bill with positive intentions, their methods of seeking change might not be the answer if it includes violence. Iran and its people deserve peace, not additional hardships.

On September 20, 2023, page H4414, in the third column, the following appeared: Mr. GARCIA of California. Madam Speaker, just last week on the House

On September 21, 2023, page H4451, in the first and second columns, the following appeared: Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution. The previous question was ordered. The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on adoption of the resolution. The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.
