TITLE I—CLEAN MONEY FINANC ING OF HOUSE ELECTION CAMPAIGNS

4 SEC. 101. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS.

5 (a) UNDERMINING OF DEMOCRACY BY CAMPAIGN 6 CONTRIBUTIONS FROM PRIVATE SOURCES.—The Con-7 gress finds and declares that the current system of pri-8 vately financed campaigns for election to the House of 9 Representatives has the capacity, and is often perceived 10 by the public, to undermine democracy in the United 11 States by—

- (1) violating the democratic principle of "one person, one vote" and diminishing the meaning of the right to vote by allowing monied interests to have a disproportionate and unfair influence within the political process;
- 17 (2) diminishing or giving the appearance of di18 minishing a Member of the House of •HR 1637 IH

compelling legislators to be accountable to the major contributors who finance their election campaigns;

4 (3) creating a conflict of interest, perceived or 5 real, by encouraging Members to take money from 6 private interests that are directly affected by Federal 7 legislation;

8 (4) imposing large, unwarranted costs on tax9 payers through legislative and regulatory outcomes
10 shaped by unequal access to lawmakers for cam11 paign contributors;

(5) driving up the cost of election campaigns, making it difficult for qualified candidates without personal fortunes or access to campaign contributions from monied individuals and interest groups to mount competitive House of Representatives election campaigns;

(6) disadvantaging challengers, because large campaign contributors tend to give their money to incumbent Members, thus causing House of Representatives elections to be less competitive; and

(7) burdening incumbents with a preoccupation with fundraising and thus decreasing the time available to carry out their public responsibilities.

Representatives's accountability to constituents by

(b) ENHANCEMENT OF DEMOCRACY BY PROVIDING CLEAN MONEY.—Congress finds and declares that pro viding the option of the replacement of private campaign contributions with clean money financing for all primary, runoff, and general elections to the House of Representa tives would enhance American democracy by—

7 (1) helping to eliminate access to wealth as a 8 determinant of a citizen's influence within the polit9 ical process and to restore meaning to the principle 10 of "one person, one vote";

(2) increasing the public's confidence in the accountability of Members to the constituents who elect them;

(3) eliminating the potentially inherent conflict of interest caused by the private financing of the election campaigns of public officials, thus restoring public confidence in the fairness of the electoral and legislative processes;

(4) reversing the escalating cost of elections and saving taxpayers billions of dollars that are (or that are perceived to be) currently misspent due to legislative and regulatory agendas skewed by the influence of contributions;

(5) creating a more level playing field for in-cumbents and challengers, creating genuine opportu-

1	nities for all Americans to run for the House of Rep-
2	resentatives, and encouraging more competitive elec-
3	tions; and
4	(6) freeing Members from the constant pre-
5	occupation with raising money, and allowing them
6	more time to carry out their public responsibilities.
