7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

8 (1) the Expedited Funds Availability Act (12 9 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.)—

10 (A) directs the Board to consider estab-
11 lishing regulations requiring Federal reserve 12 banks and depository institutions to provide for 13 check truncation, in order to improve the check 14 processing system;

15 (B) authorizes the Board to regulate all 16 aspects of the payment system, including the 17 receipt, payment, collection, and clearing of

1 checks, and related functions of the payment 2 system pertaining to checks; and

3 (C) directs that the exercise of such au-
4 thority by the Board shall supersede any State
5 law, including the Uniform Commercial Code, 6 as in effect in any State; and

7 (2) check truncation is no less desirable in 2003 8 for both financial service customers and the financial 9 services industry, to reduce costs, improve efficiency
10 in check collections, and expedite funds availability
11 for account holders than it was in 1987, when Con-
12 gress first directed the Board to consider estab-
13 lishing such a process.

14 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

15 (1) to facilitate check truncation by authorizing 16 substitute checks;

17 (2) to foster innovation in the check collection
18 system without mandating receipt of checks in elec-19 tronic form; and

20 (3) to improve the overall efficiency of the Na-21 tion’s payments system.

8 CHECKS.

9 (a) NO AGREEMENT REQUIRED.—A person may de-

14 (b) LEGAL EQUIVALENCE.—A substitute check shall 19 on the front and back of the original check as of the 20 time at which the original check was truncated; and 22 your check. You can use it the same way you would 23 use the original check.”.

4 a substitute check) for forward collection or return.

5 (d) IDENTIFICATION OF RECONVERTING BANK.—A 6 reconverting bank shall identify itself as a reconverting

17 plicable Federal or State law that would apply if the sub-18 stitute check were the original check, to the extent that 19 such provision of law is not inconsistent with this Act.

20 SEC. 5. SUBSTITUTE CHECK WARRANTIES.

21 A bank that transfers, presents, or returns a sub-22 stitute check and receives consideration for the check war-
23 rants to the transferee, any subsequent collecting or re-
24 turning bank, the depository bank, the drawee, the draw-25 er, the payee, the depositor, and any endorser (regardless

1 of whether the warrantee receives the substitute check or 2 another paper or electronic form of the substitute or origi-3 nal check) that—

5 ments for legal equivalence under section 4(b); and

7 dorser will receive presentment or return of the sub-8 stitute check, the original check, or a copy or other 9 paper or electronic version of the substitute check or 10 original check such that it will be asked to make a 11 payment based on a check it has already paid.

12 SEC. 6. INDEMNITY.

13 (a) INDEMNITY.—A reconverting bank and each bank
14 that subsequently transfers, presents, or returns a sub-15 stitute check in any electronic or paper form, and receives 16 consideration for such transfer, presentment, or return 17 shall indemnify the transferee, any subsequent collecting 18 or returning bank, the depositary bank, the drawee, the 19 drawer, the payee, the depositor, and any endorser, up to 20 the amounts described in subsections (b) and (c), as appli-
21 cable, to the extent of any loss incurred by any recipient 22 of a substitute check if that loss occurred due to the re-23 ceipt of a substitute check instead of the original check.

2 RANTY.—The amount of the indemnity under sub-3 section (a) shall be the amount of any loss (includ-

6 breach of a warranty established under section 5.

7           (2) AMOUNT IN ABSENCE OF BREACH OF WAR-
8 RANTY.—In the absence of a breach of a warranty 9 established under section 5, the amount of the in-10 demnity under subsection (a) shall be the sum of—

11                   (A) the amount of any loss, up to the 12 amount of the substitute check; and

13                   (B) interest and expenses (including costs
14 and reasonable attorney fees and other expenses
15 of representation).

16 (c) COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE.—

17           (1) IN GENERAL.—If a loss under subsection
18 (a) results in whole or in part from the negligence 19 or failure to act in good faith on the part of an in-20 demnified party, then the indemnification of that 21 party under this section shall be reduced in propor-
22 tion to the amount of negligence or bad faith attrib-23 utable to that party.

24           (2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 25 subsection reduces the rights of a consumer or any

1 other person under the Uniform Commercial Code or 2 other applicable provision of Federal or State law.

3 (d) EFFECT OF PRODUCING ORIGINAL CHECK OR 4 SUBSTITUTE CHECK.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—If the indemnifying bank
6 produces the original check or a copy of the original 7 check (including an image or a substitute check) 8 that accurately represents all of the information on 9 the front and back of the original check (as of the 10 time at which the original check was truncated), or 11 is otherwise sufficient to determine whether or not 12 a claim is valid, the indemnifying bank shall—

13 (A) be liable under this section only for 14 losses covered by the indemnity that are in-15 curred up to the time that the original check or 16 copy is provided to the indemnified party; and

17 (B) have a right to the return of any funds 18 it has paid under the indemnity in excess of 19 those losses.

21 PLIED WARRANTY.—The production of the original
22 check, substitute check, or copy under paragraph (1)
23 by an indemnifying bank shall not absolve the bank 24 from any liability on a warranty established under 25 this Act or any other provision of law.

1 (e) SUBROGATION OF RIGHTS.—

2 (1) IN GENERAL.—Each indemnifying bank
3 shall be subrogated to the rights of any indemnified 4 party to the extent of the indemnity.

5 (2) RECOVERY UNDER WARRANTY.—A bank
6 that indemnifies a party under this section may at-7 tempt to recover from another party based on a war-8 ranty or other claim.

9 (3) DUTY OF INDEMNIFIED PARTY.—Each in-10 demnified party shall have a duty to comply with all 11 reasonable requests for assistance from an indem-12 nifying bank in connection with any claim that the 13 indemnifying bank brings against a warrantor or 14 other party related to a check that forms the basis 15 for the indemnification.

16 SEC. 7. EXPEDITED RECREDIT FOR CONSUMERS.

17 (a) RECREDIT CLAIMS.—

18 (1) IN GENERAL.—A consumer may make a

25 to the consumer;

1 (B) either—

2 (i) the check was not properly charged

4 (ii) the consumer has a warranty
5 claim with respect to such substitute
6 check;

7 (C) the consumer suffered a resulting loss;

8 and

9 (D) the production of the original check or 10 a better copy of the original check is necessary 11 to determine the validity of any claim described 12 in subparagraph (B).

13 (2) 40-DAY PERIOD.—Any claim under para-
14 graph (1) with respect to a consumer account may 15 be submitted by a consumer before the end of the 16 40-day period beginning on the later of—

17 (A) the date on which the financial institu-18 tion mails or delivers, by a means agreed to by 19 the consumer, the periodic statement of account
20 for such account which contains information 21 concerning the transaction giving rise to the 22 claim; or

23 (B) the date on which the substitute check 24 is made available to the consumer.

1           (3) EXTENSION UNDER EXTENUATING CIR-2 CUMSTANCES.—If the ability of the consumer to 3 submit the claim within the 40-day period under 4 paragraph (2) is delayed due to extenuating cir-
5 cumstances, including extended travel or the illness
6 of the consumer, the 40-day period shall be extended 7 by a reasonable amount of time.

8 (b) PROCEDURES FOR CLAIMS.—

9           (1) IN GENERAL.—To make a claim for an ex-

11 a substitute check, the consumer shall provide to the 12 bank that holds the account of such consumer—

13           (A) a description of the claim, including an 14 explanation of—

16 properly charged to the subject consumer 17 account; or

18                   (ii) the warranty claim with respect to 19 such check;

20           (B) a statement that the consumer suf-21 fered a loss and an estimate of the amount of 22 the loss;

23           (C) the reason why production of the origi-
24 nal check or a better copy of the original check
25 is necessary to determine the validity of the

1 charge to the subject consumer account or the 2 warranty claim; and

3 (D) sufficient information to identify the 4 substitute check and to investigate the claim.

5 (2) CLAIM IN WRITING.—

6 (A) IN GENERAL.—The bank holding the 7 consumer account that is the subject of a claim 8 by the consumer under subsection (a) may, in 9 the discretion of the bank, require the consumer 10 to submit the information required under para-
11 graph (1) in writing.

12 (B) MEANS OF SUBMISSION.—A bank that 13 requires a submission of information under sub-14 paragraph (A) may permit the consumer to 15 make the submission electronically, if the con-16 sumer has agreed to communicate with the 17 bank in that manner.

18 (c) RECREDIT TO CONSUMER.—

19 (1) CONDITIONS FOR RECREDIT.—The bank
20 shall recredit a consumer account in accordance with 21 paragraph (2) for the amount of a substitute check 22 that was charged against the consumer account, if—

- 9 time at which the original check was
- 10 truncated; and
- 11 (ii) demonstrated to the consumer
- 12 that the substitute check was properly
- 13 charged to the consumer account.

14 (2) TIMING OF RECREDIT.—

15 (A) IN GENERAL.—The bank shall recredit

16 the subject consumer account for the amount

17 described in paragraph (1) not later than the 18 end of the business day following the business

19 day on which the bank determines the claim of 20 the consumer is valid.

21 (B) RECREDIT PENDING INVESTIGA-

22 TION.—If the bank has not determined that the 23 claim of the consumer is valid before the end of 24 the 10th business day after the business day on 25 which the consumer submitted the claim, the

1 bank shall recredit the subject consumer ac-2 count for—

22 next business day after the business day on which 23 the bank recredits the consumer account under sub-24 section (c).

1           (2) SAFEGUARD EXCEPTIONS.—A bank may 2 delay availability to a consumer of a recredit pro-3 vided under subsection (c)(2)(B)(i) until the start of 4 either the business day following the business day on 5 which the bank determines that the claim of the con-
6 sumer is valid, or the 45th calendar day following 7 the business day on which the consumer submits a 8 claim for such recredit in accordance with subsection 9 (b), whichever is earlier, in any of the following cir-10 cumstances:

11           (A) NEW ACCOUNTS.—The claim is made 12 during the 30-day period beginning on the busi-13 ness day on which the consumer account was 14 established.

15           (B) REPEATED OVERDRAFTS.—Without 16 regard to the charge that is the subject of the 17 claim for which the recredit was made—

18           (i) on 6 or more business days during 19 the 6-month period ending on the date on 20 which the consumer submits the claim, the 21 balance in the consumer account was nega-22 tive or would have become negative if 23 checks or other charges to the account had 24 been paid; or

1                   (ii) on 2 or more business days during 2                   such 6-month period, the balance in the 3                   consumer account was negative or would 4                   have become negative in the amount of 5                   $5,000 or more if checks or other charges
6                   to the account had been paid.

7                   (C) PREVENTION OF FRAUD LOSSES.—The 8                   bank has reasonable cause to believe that the 9                   claim is fraudulent, based on facts (other than 10                  the fact that the check in question or the con-11                  sumer is of a particular class) that would cause 12                  a well-grounded belief in the mind of a reason-13                  able person that the claim is fraudulent.

14                  (3) OVERDRAFT FEES.—No bank that, in ac-
15                  cordance with paragraph (2), delays the availability 16                  of a recredit under subsection (c) to any consumer 17                  account may impose any overdraft fees with respect 18                  to drafts drawn by the consumer on such recredited 19                  amount before the end of the 5-day period beginning 20                  on the date on which notice of the delay in the avail-21                  ability of such amount is sent by the bank to the 22                  consumer.

23                  (e) REVERSAL OF RECREDIT.—A bank may reverse
24                  a recredit to a consumer account if the bank—

1           (1) determines that a substitute check for which 2           the bank recredited a consumer account under sub-3           section (c) was in fact properly charged to the con-4           sumer account; and

5           (2) notifies the consumer in accordance with 6           subsection (f)(3).

7           (f) NOTICE TO CONSUMER.—

8           (1) NOTICE IF CONSUMER CLAIM NOT VALID.—

9           If a bank determines that a substitute check subject 10          to the claim of a consumer under this section was 11          in fact properly charged to the consumer account, 12          the bank shall send to the consumer, not later than 13          the business day following the business day on which 14          the bank makes the determination—

15                (A) the original check or a copy of the 16                original check (including an image or a sub-17                stitute check) that—

18                       (i) accurately represents all of the in-
19                       formation on the front and back of the 20                       original check (as of the time at which the 21                       original check was truncated); or

22                       (ii) is otherwise sufficient to deter-
23                       mine whether or not the claim of the con-24                       sumer is valid; and

1 (B) an explanation of the basis for the de-
2 termination by the bank that the substitute
3 check was properly charged, including a state-4 ment that the consumer may request copies of 5 any information or documents on which the 6 bank relied in making the determination.

7 (2) NOTICE OF RECREDIT.—If a bank recredits
8 a consumer account under subsection (c), the bank 9 shall send to the consumer, not later than the busi-10 ness day following the business day on which the 11 bank makes the recredit, a notice of—

12 (A) the amount of the recredit; and

13 (B) the date on which the recredited funds 14 will be available for withdrawal.

15 (3) NOTICE OF REVERSAL OF RECREDIT.—In 16 addition to the notice required under paragraph (1), 17 if a bank reverses a recredited amount under sub-18 section (e), the bank shall send to the consumer, not 19 later than the business day following the business
20 day on which the bank reverses the recredit, a notice 21 of—

22 (A) the amount of the reversal; and

23 (B) the date on which the recredit was re-
24 versed.

1           (4) MODE OF DELIVERY.—A notice described in 2           this subsection shall be delivered by United States
3           mail or by any other means through which the con-
4           sumer has agreed to receive account information.

5           (g) OTHER CLAIMS NOT AFFECTED.—Providing a 6           recredit in accordance with this section shall not absolve 7           the bank from liability for a claim made under any other 8           provision of law, such as a claim for wrongful dishonor 9           under the Uniform Commercial Code, or from liability for 10          additional damages under section 6 or 10.

11          (h) SCOPE OF APPLICATION.—This section shall only 12          apply to customers who are consumers.

13          SEC. 8. EXPEDITED RECREDIT PROCEDURES FOR BANKS.

14          (a) RECREDIT CLAIMS.—

15                (1) IN GENERAL.—A bank may make a claim
16                against an indemnifying bank for expedited recredit 17                for which that bank is indemnified, if—

18                        (A) the claimant bank (or a bank that the 19                        claimant bank has indemnified) has received a 20                        claim for expedited recredit from a consumer 21                        under section 7 with respect to a substitute 22                        check, or would have been subject to such a 23                        claim had the subject consumer account been 24                        charged;

1 (B) the claimant bank has suffered a re-
2 sulting loss or is obligated to recredit the con-3 sumer account under section 7 with respect to 4 such substitute check; and

5 (C) production of the original check or a 6 better copy of the original check is necessary to 7 determine the validity of the charge to the con-
8 sumer account or any warranty claim connected 9 with such substitute check.

10 (2) 120-DAY PERIOD.—Any claim under para-
11 graph (1) may be submitted by the claimant bank 12 to an indemnifying bank before the end of the 120-
13 day period beginning on the date of the transaction 14 that gave rise to the claim.

15 (b) PROCEDURES FOR CLAIMS.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—To make a claim under sub-17 section (a) for an expedited recredit relating to a 18 substitute check, the claimant bank shall send to the 19 indemnifying bank—

20 (A) a description of—

21 (i) the claim, including an explanation 22 of why the substitute check cannot be 23 properly charged to the consumer account; 24 or

25 (ii) the warranty claim;

1           (B) a statement that the claimant bank
2           has suffered a loss or is obligated to recredit
3           the subject consumer account under section 7, 4           together with an estimate of the amount of the 5           loss or recredit;

6           (C) the reason why production of the origi-
7           nal check or a better copy of the original check
8           is necessary to determine the validity of the 9           charge to the consumer account or the warranty 10          claim; and

11          (D) information sufficient for the indem-
12          nifying bank to identify the substitute check 13          and to investigate the claim.

14          (2) REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO COPIES OF 15          SUBSTITUTE CHECKS.—If the information submitted 16          by a claimant bank pursuant to paragraph (1) in 17          connection with a claim for an expedited recredit in-18          cludes a copy of any substitute check for which any 19          such claim is made, the claimant bank shall take 20          reasonable steps to ensure that any such copy can-21          not be—

22                 (A) mistaken for the legal equivalent of the 23                 check under section 4(b); or

1 (B) sent or handled by any bank, including 2 the indemnifying bank, as a forward collection 3 or returned check.

4 (3) CLAIM IN WRITING.—

5 (A) IN GENERAL.—An indemnifying bank
6 may, in the discretion of the bank, require the 7 claimant bank to submit the information re-8 quired by paragraph (1) in writing, including a 9 copy of the written or electronically submitted 10 claim, if any, that the consumer provided in ac-11 cordance with section 7(b).

12 (B) MEANS OF SUBMISSION.—An indem-13 nifying bank that requires a submission of in-14 formation under subparagraph (A) may permit
15 the claimant bank to make the submission elec-16 tronically, if the claimant bank has agreed to 17 communicate with the indemnifying bank in 18 that manner.

19 (c) RECREDIT BY INDEMNIFYING BANK.—

20 (1) PROMPT ACTION REQUIRED.—Not later
21 than 10 business days after the business day on 22 which an indemnifying bank receives a claim under 23 subsection (a) from a claimant bank with respect to 24 a substitute check, the indemnifying bank shall—

1 (A) provide, to the claimant bank, the 2 original check (with respect to such substitute 3 check) or a copy of the original check (including 4 an image or a substitute check) that—

5 (i) accurately represents all of the in-
6 formation on the front and back of the 7 original check (as of the time at which the 8 original check was truncated); or

9 (ii) is otherwise sufficient to deter-
10 mine that the claim of the bank is not 11 valid;

12 (B) recredit the claimant bank for the 13 amount of the claim up to the amount of the 14 substitute check, plus interest if applicable; or

15 (C) provide information to the claimant
16 bank as to why the indemnifying bank is not 17 obligated to comply with subparagraph (A) or 18 (B).

19 (2) RECREDIT DOES NOT ABROGATE OTHER LI-
20 ABILITIES.—Providing a recredit under this sub-21 section to a claimant bank with respect to a sub-22 stitute check shall not absolve the indemnifying bank
23 from liability for claims brought under any other law
24 or from additional damages under section 6 or 10 25 with respect to such check.

1           (3) REFUND TO INDEMNIFYING BANK.—If a
2           claimant bank reverses, in accordance with section 3           7(e), a recredit previously made to a consumer ac-
4           count under section 7(e), or otherwise receives a 5           credit or recredit with regard to such substitute 6           check, the claimant bank shall promptly refund to 7           any indemnifying bank any amount previously ad-8           vanced by the indemnifying bank in connection with 9           such substitute check.

10          (d) PRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL CHECK OR A SUFFI-
11          CIENT COPY GOVERNED BY SECTION 6(d).—If the indem-12          nifying bank provides the claimant bank with the original 13          check or a copy of the original check (including an image 14          or a substitute check) under subsection (c)(1)(A) of this 15          section, section 6(d) shall govern any right of the indem-16          nifying bank to any repayment of any funds that the in-17          demnifying bank has recredited to the claimant bank pur-18          suant to subsection (c).

19          SEC. 9. DELAYS IN AN EMERGENCY.

20          Delay by a bank beyond the time limits prescribed 21          or permitted by this Act is excused if the delay is caused 22          by interruption of communication or computer facilities, 23          suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency 24          conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances

1 beyond the control of a bank, and if the bank uses such 2 diligence as the circumstances require.

3 SEC. 10. MEASURE OF DAMAGES.

4 (a) LIABILITY.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in sec-
6 tion 6, any person who, in connection with a sub-
7 stitute check, breaches any warranty under this Act 8 or fails to comply with any requirement imposed by 9 or regulation prescribed pursuant to this Act with 10 respect to any other person shall be liable to such 11 person in an amount equal to the sum of—

12 (A) the lesser of—

13 (i) the amount of the loss suffered by 14 the other person as a result of the breach 15 or failure; or

16 (ii) the amount of the substitute 17 check; and

18 (B) interest and expenses (including costs
19 and reasonable attorney fees and other expenses
20 of representation) related to the substitute
21 check.

22 (2) OFFSET OF RECREDITS.—The amount of 23 damages that any person receives under paragraph 24 (1), if any, shall be reduced by the amount that the

1 claimant receives and retains as a recredit under 2 section 7 or 8, if any.

3 (b) COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—If a person incurs damages
5 that resulted in whole or in part from the negligence 6 or failure of that person to act in good faith, then 7 the amount of any liability due to that person under 8 subsection (a) shall be reduced in proportion to the 9 amount of negligence or bad faith attributable to 10 that person.

11 (2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this
12 subsection reduces the rights of a consumer or any 13 other person under the Uniform Commercial Code or 14 other applicable provision of Federal or State law.

15 SEC. 11. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS AND NOTICE OF CLAIM.

16 (a) ACTIONS UNDER THIS ACT.—

17 (1) IN GENERAL.—An action to enforce a claim
18 under this Act may be brought in any United States 19 district court, or in any other court of competent ju-20 risdiction, before the end of the 1-year period begin-21 ning on the date on which the cause of action ac-22 crues.

23 (2) ACCRUAL.—For purposes of paragraph (1), 24 a cause of action accrues as of the date on which the 25 injured party first learns, or by which such person

1 reasonably should have learned, of the facts and cir-
2 cumstances giving rise to the cause of action.

3 (b) NOTICE OF CLAIMS REQUIRED.—Unless a person
4 gives notice of a claim to the indemnifying or warranting
5 bank, not later than 30 days after the person has reason
6 to know of the claim and the identity of the indemnifying
7 or warranting bank, the indemnifying or warranting bank 8 is discharged from liability in an action to enforce a claim 9 under this Act, to the extent of any loss caused by the 10 delay in giving notice of the claim.

11 (c) NOTICE OF CLAIM BY CONSUMER.—A timely
12 claim by a consumer under section 7 for expedited recredit 13 constitutes timely notice of a claim by the consumer for 14 purposes of subsection (b).

15 SEC. 12. CONSUMER AWARENESS.

16 (a) IN GENERAL.—During the 3-year period begin-17 ning on the effective date of this Act, each bank shall pro-18 vide to each consumer that is a customer of the bank, in 19 accordance with subsection (b), a brief notice about sub-20 stitute checks that describes—

21 (1) how a substitute check is the legal equiva-22 lent of an original check for all purposes, including 23 any provision of any Federal or State law, and for 24 all persons, if the substitute check—

1 (A) accurately represents all of the infor-
2 mation on the front and back of the original
3 check as of the time at which the original check 4 was truncated; and

5 (B) bears the legend: “This is a legal copy 6 of your check. You can use it in the same way 7 you would use the original check.”; and

8 (2) the consumer recredit rights established
9 under section 7 when a consumer believes in good 10 faith that a substitute check was not properly 11 charged to the account of the consumer.

12 (b) DISTRIBUTION.—

13 (1) IN GENERAL.—The notice required by sub-14 section (a) shall be provided—

15 (A) to each consumer that is a customer of 16 the bank as of the effective date of this Act, 17 and that receives original checks or substitute
18 checks along with periodic account statements, 19 not later than together with the first regularly
20 scheduled communication with the customer
21 after the effective date of this Act;

22 (B) at the time at which a customer rela-
23 tionship is initiated, if such relationship is initi-
24 ated on or after the effective date of this Act
25 and such customer will receive original checks

1 or substitute checks along with periodic account 2 statements; and

3 (C) to each customer of the bank that re-
4 quests a copy of a check and receives a sub-5 stitute check, at the time of the request.

6 (2) MODE OF DELIVERY.—A bank may provide 7 the notices required by this subsection by United 8 States mail, or by any other means through which 9 the consumer has agreed to receive account informa-10 tion.

11 (c) MODEL LANGUAGE.—

12 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 9 months
13 after the date of enactment of this Act, the Board 14 shall publish model forms and clauses that a deposi-15 tory institution may use to describe each of the ele-16 ments required by subsection (a).

17 (2) SAFE HARBOR.—A bank shall be treated as 18 being in compliance with the requirements of sub-19 section (a) if the substitute check notice of the bank
20 uses a model form or clause published by the Board, 21 and such model form or clause accurately describes 22 the policies and practices of the bank. A bank may 23 delete any information in the model form or clause 24 that is not required by this Act, or rearrange the 25 format of such form.

1           (3) USE OF MODEL LANGUAGE NOT RE-
2           QUIRED.—This section shall not be construed as re-3           quiring any bank to use a model form or clause that 4           the Board prepares under this subsection.

5 SEC. 13. EFFECT ON OTHER LAW.

6           This Act shall supersede any provision of Federal or 7           State law, including the Uniform Commercial Code, that 8           is inconsistent with this Act, but only to the extent of the 9           inconsistency.

10 SEC. 14. REGULATIONS.

11          The Board may prescribe such regulations as it 12          deems necessary to implement, prevent circumvention or 13          evasion of, or facilitate compliance with the provisions of 14          this Act.

15 SEC. 15. STUDY AND REPORT ON FUNDS AVAILABILITY.

16          (a) STUDY.—In order to evaluate the implementation
17          and the impact of this Act, the Board shall conduct a 18          study of—

19               (1) the percentage of total checks cleared in 20               which the paper check is not returned to the paying 21               bank;

22               (2) the extent to which financial institutions 23               make funds available to consumers for local and 24               nonlocal checks prior to the expiration of maximum 25               hold periods;

1        posits for credit within 1 business day, the impact
2        of fraud losses, and an estimate of consumers' share 3        of the total benefits derived from this Act; and 4            (3) an assessment of consumer acceptance of 5        the check truncation process resulting from this Act, 6        as well as any new costs incurred by consumers who 7        had their original checks returned with their regular 8        monthly statements prior to the date of enactment

9        of this Act.

10        (b) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 5 years
11        after the date of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller 12        General shall submit a report to Congress concerning the 13        findings and conclusions of the Comptroller General in 14        connection with the evaluation conducted pursuant to sub-15        section (a), together with such recommendations for legis-16        lative and administrative action as the Comptroller Gen-17        eral may determine to be appropriate.

18        SEC. 17. VARIATION BY AGREEMENT.

19        (a) SECTION 8.—Any provision of section 8 may be 20        varied by agreement of the banks involved.

21        (b) NO OTHER PROVISIONS MAY BE VARIED.—Ex-
22        cept as provided in subsection (a), no provision of this Act 23        may be varied by agreement of any person or persons.
