A BILL

To prohibit and prevent seclusion and to prevent and reduce the use of physical restraint in schools, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

2 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 3 “Keeping All Students Safe Act”.

4 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for 5 this Act is as follows:

- Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
- Sec. 2. Findings.
- Sec. 3. Purposes.
- Sec. 4. Definitions.
- Sec. 5. Minimum standards; rules of construction.
- Sec. 6. State plan and report requirements and enforcement.
- Sec. 7. Grants for State educational agencies.
- Sec. 8. National assessment.
- Sec. 9. Protection and advocacy systems.
- Sec. 10. Applicability to private schools and home schools.
- Sec. 11. Authorization of appropriations.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Restraint and seclusion have resulted in se-9 rious physical injury, psychological trauma, and 10 death to children in public and private schools. Na-11 tional research shows students have been subjected 12 to restraint and seclusion in schools as a means of 13 discipline, to force compliance, or as a substitute for 14 appropriate educational and behavioral support.

15 (2) All children have the right to be free from 16 physical or mental abuse, aversive behavioral inter-17 ventions that compromise health and safety, and any 18 restraint or seclusion imposed solely for purposes of 19 discipline or convenience.

1 (3) Safe, effective, evidence-based strategies are 2 available to support children who display challenging
3 behaviors in school settings. Training for staff fo-4 cused on the dangers of restraint and seclusion as 5 well as training in evidence-based positive behavior
6 supports, de-escalation techniques, and physical re-
7 straint and seclusion prevention, can reduce the inci-8 dence of injury, trauma, and death.

9 (4) School personnel have the right to work in 10 a safe environment and should be provided training, 11 resources, and support to prevent injury and trauma
12 to themselves and others.

13 (5) Despite the widely recognized risks of re-
14 straint and seclusion, a substantial disparity exists 15 among many States and localities with regard to the 16 protection and oversight of the rights of children 17 and school personnel to a safe learning environment.

18 (6) Children are subjected to restraint and se-19 clusion at higher rates than adults. Physical re-20 straint which restricts breathing or causes other 21 body trauma, as well as seclusion in the absence of 22 continuous face-to-face monitoring, have resulted in 23 the deaths of children in schools.

24 (7) Children are protected from inappropriate
25 restraint and the use of seclusion in other settings,

1 such as hospitals, health facilities, and nonmedical
2 community-based facilities. Similar protections are 3 needed in schools, yet such protections must ac-
4 knowledge the differences of the school environment.

5 (8) Research confirms that restraint and seclu-
6 sion are not therapeutic, nor are these practices ef-7 fective means to calm, discipline, or teach children, 8 and may have an opposite effect while simulta-
9 neously decreasing a child's ability to learn.

10 (9) The effective implementation of schoolwide 11 positive behavior supports is linked to greater aca-12 demic achievement, significantly fewer disciplinary 13 problems, increased instruction time, and staff per-14 ception of a safer teaching environment.

15 (10) The 2015 bipartisan reauthorization of the 16 Elementary and Secondary Education Act requires
17 States to support local educational agencies in im-
18 proving school conditions through reducing the use
19 of aversive behavioral interventions. The report
20 issued by the Committee on Health, Education, 21 Labor, and Pensions of the Senate regarding the au-
22 thorization described aversive behavioral interven-23 tions as including seclusion and restraint. There is 24 bipartisan agreement that schools must reduce seclu-

1 sion and restraint to improve school conditions for 2 all children.

14 days after the date of enactment of this Act, to 15 protect each student from physical or mental 16 abuse, aversive behavioral interventions that

9 (A) The student’s behavior poses an immi-10 nent danger of serious physical injury to the 11 student, school personnel, school security guard, 12 school resource officer, or others.

13 (B) Less restrictive interventions would be 14 ineffective in stopping such imminent danger of 15 serious physical injury.

16 (C) Such physical restraint is imposed by 17 school personnel, or a school security guard or 18 school resource officer, who—

19 (i) continuously monitors the student

4 monitoring the student using a security
5 camera or other system.

6 (D) Such physical restraint is imposed 7 by—

20 immediately available due to the unforesee-
21 able nature of the emergency circumstance.

22 (E) Such physical restraint ends imme-
23 diately upon the cessation of the conditions de-24 scribed in subparagraph (A).

1 (F) The physical restraint does not inter-
2 fere with the student’s ability to communicate 3 in the student’s primary language or primary 4 mode of communication.

5 (G) The physical restraint uses the least 6 amount of force necessary to protect the stu-
7 dent or others from the threatened injury.

8 (4) TRAINING.—Each State, in consultation 9 with local educational agency officials, shall ensure 10 that a sufficient number of school personnel are 11 trained and certified by a State-approved crisis 12 intervention training program to meet the needs of 13 the specific student population in each school.

14 (5) PROHIBITION ON PLANNED INTERVEN-
15 TION.—The use of physical restraint as a planned 16 intervention shall not be written into a student’s 17 education plan, individual safety plan, behavioral 18 plan, or individualized education program (as de-19 fined in section 602 of the Individuals with Disabil-20 ities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1401)), except that 21 local educational agencies or schools may establish 22 policies and procedures for use of physical restraint 23 in school safety or crisis plans, provided that such 24 a plan is not specific to any individual student.

1 (6) PROCEDURES FOLLOWING PHYSICAL RE-
2 STRAINT.—Each school shall establish procedures to 3 be followed after an incident involving the imposition 4 of physical restraint upon a student, which shall in-5 clude each of the following:

6 (A) Procedures to provide to the parent of 7 the student, with respect to such incident—

17 including precipitating events;

18 (II) positive interventions used
19 prior to restraint;

2 dent and the school, as soon as is practicable,

22 discuss the incident, as described by both 23 the student and the school personnel, or 24 the school resource officer or school secu-25 rity guard involved, including—

- 1 (I) any precipitating events;
- 2 (II) how the incident occurred;
- 3 and
- 4 (III) prior positive behavior inter-
- 5 ventions and supports used to de-esca-
- 6 late the situation; and
- 7 (iii) which shall include—
- 8 (I) the discussion of proactive
- 9 strategies to prevent future need for
- 10 the use of restraint;
- 11 (II)(aa) for a student identified
- 12 as eligible to receive accommodations
- 13 under section 504 of the Rehabilita-
- 14 tion Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794) or

13 was not directly involved in such re-14 straint; and

15 (IV) an assurance that in a case 16 in which the student attends the 17 meeting, the information commu-
18 nicated by the student in that meeting 19 will be for purposes of debriefing an 20 incident where restraint was imposed 21 upon the student, and—

22 (aa) may only be shared to
