

118TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 9537

To amend title 31, United States Code, to establish the Federal Real Anti-fraud Unified Directorate, to require agencies implement anti-fraud controls for programs susceptible to significant improper payments and high-priority programs, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 11, 2024

Mr. CONNOLLY introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Accountability

A BILL

To amend title 31, United States Code, to establish the Federal Real Anti-fraud Unified Directorate, to require agencies implement anti-fraud controls for programs susceptible to significant improper payments and high-priority programs, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Strengthening Tools 5 to Obstruct and Prevent Fraud Act of 2024” or the 6 “STOP Fraud Act of 2024”.

1 SEC. 2. FEDERAL REAL ANTI-FRAUD UNIFIED DIREC-
2 TORATE.

3 Subchapter I of chapter 5 of title 31, United States
4 Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

5 “§ 508. Federal Real Anti-fraud Unified Directorate

6 “(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—

7 “(1) IN GENERAL.—There is established within 8 the Office of Management and Budget an office to 9 be known as the Federal Real Anti-fraud Unified 10 Directorate or the FRAUD.

11 “(2) ADMINISTRATOR.—There shall be at the 12 head of the FRAUD an Administrator who shall 13 be—

14 “(A) appointed by the President; and 15 “(B) compensated at the rate of pay in ef-

16 fect for level III of the Executive Schedule
17 under section 5314.

18 “(b) DUTIES.—The Administrator shall do the fol-
19 lowing:

20 “(1) Carry out the duties prescribed to the Ad-21 ministrator under section 3360.

22 “(2) Coordinate activities related to reducing 23 and preventing fraud and improper payments—

24 “(A) sharing leading practices and tools
25 with agencies;

1 “(B) providing technical assistance to 2 agencies in implementing the fraud risk man-
3 agement activities described in the GAO Fraud 4 Risk Management Framework; and

5 “(C) assisting agencies in the collection
6 and use of data, including by assisting agencies 7 in—

8 “(i) working to overcome data sharing 9 barriers; and

10 “(ii) establishing metrics and meth-11 odologies to measure the effectiveness of 12 programs and activities employed by agen-
13 cies to prevent and reduce fraud and im-
14 proper payments.

15 “(3) Establish an online, publicly accessible 16 dashboard on the implementation of proactive ana-17 lytics in programs designated as susceptible to sig-
18 nificant improper payments under section 3359
19 that—

20 “(A) promotes transparency;

21 “(B) assists in the oversight of the imple-
22 mentation of proactive analytics in such pro-23 grams; and

1 “(C) tracks cost savings, cost avoidance, 2 and the administrative burden attributable to 3 such programs.

4 “(4) Refer any fraud, waste, or abuse discov-
5 ered by the Administrator to the appropriate Inspec-6 tor General.

7 “(5) Carry out any additional duties that may 8 be prescribed by the Director.

9 “(c) ADDITIONAL AUTHORITIES.—The Adminis-10 trator may—

11 “(1) require agencies administering programs
12 susceptible to significant improper payments to sub-13 mit information as may be necessary to administer 14 the dashboard required to be established by sub-15 section (b)(3), and promulgate regulations that set 16 standards for—

17 “(A) the type of information to be sub-18 mitted; and

19 “(B) the format in which such information
20 is to be submitted;

21 “(2) provide technical assistance to agencies ad-22 ministering a high-priority program, including by—

23 “(A) working on behalf of an agency ad-
24 ministering the program to overcome any issues
25 that prevent the agency from receiving or using

1 data from other governmental and non-govern-
2 mental entities, including by notifying Congress
3 on behalf of the agency of any Federal laws
4 that prevent the agency from receiving or using 5 such data;

6 “(B) facilitating the collection of real-time 7 data to implement proactive analytics, including 8 by—

9 “(i) identifying governmental or com-
10 mercial solutions to facilitate such collec-11 tion; and

12 “(ii) supporting the agency in identi-
13 fying potential sources of funding to facili-
14 tate such collection;

15 “(C) providing non-reimbursable or reim-16 bursable services to agencies administering the 17 programs; and

18 “(D) identifying strategies that may help
19 the program hire individuals with the requisite 20 skills to implement proactive analytics; and 21 “(3) refer any fraud, waste, or abuse discovered

22 by the Administrator to the appropriate Inspector 23 General.

24 “(d) DEFINITIONS.—In this section, the terms ‘ad-
25 ministrative burden’, ‘agency administering a high-priority

1 program’, ‘agency administering a program susceptible to 2 significant improper payments’, ‘anti-fraud control’, 3 ‘data’, and ‘proactive analytics’ have the meanings given 4 those terms in section 3360.”.

5 SEC. 3. ANTI-FRAUD CONTROLS FOR PROGRAMS SUSCEP-
6 TIBLE TO SIGNIFICANT IMPROPER PAY-
7 MENTS AND HIGH-PRIORITY PROGRAMS.

8 Subchapter IV of chapter 33 of title 31, United 9 States Code, is amended by adding at the end the fol-
10 lowing:

11 “§ 3359. Proactive analytics with respect to programs
12 susceptible to significant improper pay-
13 ments

14 “(a) DESIGNATION OF PROGRAMS SUSCEPTIBLE TO 15 SIGNIFICANT IMPROPER PAYMENTS.—Not later than Oc-16 tober 1 of each year, for that fiscal year and the next fiscal 17 year, the head of each executive agency shall designate as 18 a program susceptible significant improper payments each 19 program that meets the following criteria:

20 “(1) With respect any program of the agency
21 established during the preceding two fiscal years, 22 any such program making more than $100,000,000
23 in payments in any one fiscal year.

24 “(2) For any program of the agency not estab-25 lished during the preceding two fiscal years, any

1 such program that had outlays that exceeded
2 $1,500,000,000 in the preceding fiscal year.

3 “(b) IMPLEMENTATION OF PROACTIVE ANALYTICS
4 FOR HIGH-RISK AREA.—An agency administering a pro-5 gram susceptible to significant improper payments shall 6 implement proactive analytics for one high-risk area of the 7 program.

8 “(c) REPORTS ON ACTIONS TO REDUCE IMPROPER 9 PAYMENTS.—Not later than two years after a head of an 10 agency has designated a program as susceptible to im-11 proper payments, the head of the agency administering the 12 program shall submit a report on efforts of the agency 13 to reduce and prevent improper payments and fraud with 14 respect to the program, including the following:

15 “(1) With respect to a program that is not a 16 high-priority program at the time of the submission 17 of the report, the following:

18 “(A) A description of the proactive ana-19 lytics implemented in the two fiscal years pre-20 ceeding the submission of the report to reduce 21 improper payments and fraud with respect to 22 such program.

23 “(B) Metrics demonstrating the effective-
24 ness of the proactive analytics implemented.

1 “(C) An analysis of whether the agency
2 anticipates the program will remain ‘susceptible
3 to improper payments’ and require continued 4 designation as such.

5 “(D) A plan for—

6 “(i) continuing to use proactive ana-
7 lytics with respect to that program;

8 “(ii) improving the proactive analytics 9 used with respect to that program; and 10 “(iii) identifying, in consultation with 11 the Administrator of the FRAUD, addi-

12 tional fraud and improper payment mitiga-13 tion strategies, that could be employed by 14 the agency if the program is redesignated
15 as a program susceptible to significant im-
16 proper payments.

17 “(2) With respect to a program that is a high-18 priority program at the time of the submission of 19 the report, the following:

20 “(A) A copy of the plan approved under 21 section 3359 for the program.

22 “(B) Analysis of whether implementation
23 of that plan has reduced and prevented im-
24 proper payments and fraud.

1 “(C) If the plan has not reduced or pre-
2 vented improper payments or fraud—

3 “(i) an explanation of why the plan
4 has not reduced or prevented improper 5 payments or fraud; and

6 “(ii) a new plan with a different strat-
7 egy developed in consultation with the Ad-8 ministrator of the FRAUD, to reduce or 9 prevent improper payments or fraud.

10 “(D) A statement of whether the agency
11 has what is needed with respect to internal con-
12 trols, human capital, and information systems
13 and other infrastructure, to implement the re-14 quirements described in sections 3359 and 15 3360.

16 “(E) Estimates of—

17 “(i) any costs avoided and dollars
18 saved by the implementation of sections
19 3359 and 3360;

20 “(ii) any change in administrative 21 burden because of the implementation of 22 sections 3359 and 3360; and 23 “(iii) the number of persons eligible to 24 obtain a thing of value that did not receive

1 such thing of value because of the imple-
2 mentation of sections 3359 and 3360.

3 “(3) Whether the information technology (as 4 defined in section 11101 of title 40) used by the 5 agency with respect to the program is capable of de-6 livering real-time data—

7 “(A) to the Administrator of the FRAUD
8 for inclusion in the dashboard required to be es-9 tablished by section 508(b)(3); and 10 “(B) for the purpose of implementing 11 proactive analytics, as required under section

12 3359 and 3360.

13 “(4) A description of the quality of any im-14 proper payment estimates and methodology of the 15 agency relating to the program, including—

16 “(A) challenges to accurately estimating 17 improper payments for the program; and 18 “(B) plans to improve the quality of the 19 estimates.

20 “§ 3360. Anti-fraud controls for high-priority pro-
21 grams

22 “(a) DESIGNATION.—By January 31 of each fiscal 23 year, the Administrator shall designate for the remainder 24 of that fiscal year and the next full fiscal year, any pro-25 gram with outlays in an amount equal to or in excess of

1 $50,000,000,000 with respect to the preceding fiscal year
2 as a high-priority program.

3 “(b) PLAN TO IMPLEMENT ANTI-FRAUD POLICY FOR 4 EACH HIGH-PRIORITY PROGRAM.—

5 “(1) PLAN.—The head of an agency admin-
6 istering a high-priority program shall develop a plan
7 to implement anti-fraud controls for that program, 8 that—

9 “(A) at a minimum includes a plan to 10 use—

11 “(i) any solution that verifies and au-
12 thenticates identity, known as ‘digital iden-
13 tity-proofing solutions’, if determined nec-
14 essary by the Administrator to effectively
15 reduce and prevent fraud and improper
16 payments in the high-priority program;

17 “(ii) threat intelligence, including 18 open source intelligence and intelligence
19 collected from locations on the internet re-
20 ferred to as the ‘deep web’ and ‘dark web’, 21 to identify and mitigate emerging fraud 22 threats; and

23 “(iii) proactive analytics; and 24 “(B) takes into consideration the adminis-

25 trative burden of implementing such anti-fraud

1 controls, including considering the fraud risk
2 profile (as defined in the study of the Govern-
3 ment Accountability Office titled ‘Framework
4 for Managing Fraud Risks in Federal Pro-5 grams’) of the program.

6 “(2) INITIAL SUBMISSION OF PLAN TO ADMIN-
7 ISTRATOR FOR APPROVAL.—

8 “(A) INITIAL SUBMISSION.—Not later than 9 90 days after the date on which a program is 10 designated as a high-priority program under 11 subsection (a), the agency administering the 12 high-priority program shall submit to the Ad-13 ministrator the plan developed under paragraph 14 (1).

15 “(B) APPROVAL OR DENIAL OF PLAN.— 16 Not later than 60 days after the date on which 17 the plan is submitted pursuant to subparagraph
18 (A), the Administrator shall approve or deny 19 such plan.

20 “(3) RESUBMISSION OF PLAN TO ADMINIS-
21 TRATOR FOR APPROVAL IN CASE OF DENIAL.—

22 “(A) IN GENERAL.—An agency that sub-
23 mits a plan that is denied by the Administrator 24 under paragraph (2) shall, until such time as 25 the Administrator approves the plan—

1 “(i) revise the plan; and

2 “(ii) submit the plan as revised under 3 clause (i) to the Administrator.

4 “(B) APPROVAL OR DENIAL OF REVISED
5 PLAN.—The Administrator shall approve or 6 deny a plan submitted under subparagraph (A)
7 not later than 60 days after the Administrator 8 receives the plan.

9 “(C) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Ad-10 ministrator may provide technical assistance to 11 any agency required to revise a plan under sub-12 paragraph (A).

13 “(4) CRITERIA FOR THE APPROVAL OR DENIAL
14 OF PLAN.—Not later than January 31 of each year,
15 the Administrator shall provide to each agency ad-16 ministering a high-priority program criteria on the 17 basis of which the Administrator will approve or 18 deny a plan under this subsection.

19 “(5) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—An agency re-
20 quired to submit a plan for approval under this sub-21 section with respect a high-priority program, and 22 has such plan denied by the Administrator three 23 times, shall submit a report to Congress on why the 24 plan has not been approved by the Administrator.

25 “(c) PROGRAM INTEGRITY FUND.—

1 “(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established in 2 the Treasury of the United States a fund to be 3 known as the Program Integrity Fund.

4 “(2) USE OF FUND.—Amounts in the fund may 5 be allocated by the Administrator to agencies to im-6 plement plans approved by the Administrator under 7 subsection (b).

8 “(3) MANAGEMENT OF THE PROGRAM INTEG-
9 RITY FUND.—

10 “(A) APPLICATION PROCESS.—Not later
11 than 90 days after the date of the enactment of 12 this paragraph, the Administrator shall—

13 “(i) establish a process through which 14 the head of an agency may request that 15 funds be allocated from the Program In-16 tegrity Fund to the agency; and 17 “(ii) submit to Congress a report that 18 describes the process established pursuant 19 to clause (i).

20 “(B) AWARD OF FUNDS.—In determining 21 the amount, if any, of funds to be allocated to 22 an agency from the Program Integrity Fund 23 under paragraph (2), the Administrator shall 24 consider the extent to which the plan approved

1 by the Administrator under subsection (b) of 2 the agency—

3 “(i) implements the use of proactive
4 analytics;

5 “(ii) is likely to significantly reduce or 6 prevent improper payments and fraud; and 7 “(iii) considers the administrative bur-

8 den of implementing the plan, including 9 whether there is a clear indication that the 10 agency considered whether there are any 11 anti-fraud controls other than the anti-12 fraud controls to be implemented under the 13 plan that could be implemented by the 14 agency with less of an administrative bur-15 den on individuals who interact with the 16 program.

17 “(4) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—
18 There are authorized to be appropriated
19 $1,000,000,000 for fiscal year 2025 for the Program
20 Integrity Fund, to remain available until expended.

21 “(d) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

22 “(1) ADMINISTRATOR.—The term ‘Adminis-
23 trator’ means the Administrator of the FRAUD.

24 “(2) ADMINISTRATIVE BURDEN.—The term ‘ad-25 ministrative burden’ means a cost that a person in-

1 curs in interacting with the agency to obtain a thing
2 of value from the agency, including the following:

3 “(A) The amount of time and effort ex-
4 pended by the person to learn about—

5 “(i) the nature of the thing of value;

6 and

7 “(ii) how to gain access to the thing
8 of value, including—

9 “(I) any program or service of 10 the agency through which the person 11 may obtain the thing of value from 12 the agency; and

13 “(II) any requirement and condi-
14 tion that must be satisfied for the 15 person to obtain and maintain posses-16 sion of the thing of value from the 17 government program or service.

18 “(B) The amount of time it takes to—19 “(i) provide information and docu-

20 mentation to satisfy requirements to obtain 21 and maintain possession of the thing of 22 value; and

23 “(ii) respond to discretionary requests
24 of program administrators for the purpose

1 of obtaining and maintaining possession of 2 the thing of value.

3 “(C) Any financial cost to access services 4 that may be necessary to receive the thing of 5 value (such as fees, legal representation, and 6 travel costs).

7 “(3) AGENCY ADMINISTERING A PROGRAM SUS-
8 CEPTIBLE TO SIGNIFICANT IMPROPER PAYMENTS.—
9 The term ‘agency administering a program suscep-10 tible to significant improper payments’ means an 11 agency that is responsible for administering at least 12 one program that is designated as susceptible to sig-
13 nificant improper payments under section 3359.

14 “(4) AGENCY ADMINISTERING A HIGH-PRIORITY
15 PROGRAM.—The term ‘agency administering a high-16 priority program’ means an agency that is respon-17 sible for administering at least one program that is 18 designated as high-priority under this section.

19 “(5) ANTI-FRAUD CONTROL.—The term ‘anti-20 fraud control’ means a process, system, or tech-
21 nology that can be implemented to prevent fraud 22 and improper payments.

23 “(6) DATA.—The term ‘data’ has the meaning 24 given the term in section 3502 of title 44.

1 “(7) DEVICE METADATA.—The term ‘device
2 metadata’ means structural or descriptive data
3 about a connected device (as defined in section 4 902(a) of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021
5 (47 U.S.C. 1306(a))), such as data about the type, 6 model, IP address, and geolocation of the device.

7 “(8) FRAUD.—The term ‘fraud’ means obtain-8 ing a thing of value through willful misrepresenta-9 tion.

10 “(9) PROACTIVE ANALYTICS.—The term
11 ‘proactive analytics’ means the collection and anal-12 ysis of data (including data that is device metadata, 13 administrative data controlled by the agency, and 14 data from other governmental and non-governmental 15 sources) to prevent fraud and improper payments
16 from occurring, including by identifying anomalous
17 or suspicious patterns that might warrant further 18 investigation.”.

19 SEC. 4. AMENDMENTS RELATED TO IMPROPER PAYMENTS
20 PROVISIONS.

21 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 33 of subtitle III of title

23 vulnerabilities, including with respect to payroll, 24 beneficiary payments, grants, large contracts, 25 and purchase and travel cards; and

1 “(C) establishing strategies, procedures,
2 and other steps to curb fraud.

3 “(2) In accordance with the report of the Gov-4 ernment Accountability Office titled ‘Framework for 5 Managing Fraud Risks in Federal Programs,’ published on July 28, 2015, the following:
6

7 “(A) An identification of—

8 “(i) the entity of the agency and the 9 personnel of the entity dedicated to leading 10 the fraud risk management activities of the 11 agency;

12 “(ii) roles and responsibilities of the 13 personnel of such entity, including any pro-
14 gram or operation for which the personnel 15 is responsible for overseeing;

16 “(iii) capacity, including any limita-
17 tion, of such entity to strategically manage 18 fraud risks; and 19 “(iv) any program or operation for 20 which there is not personnel dedicated to 21 leading fraud risk management activities,

22 along with a detailed justification for why 23 the agency does not have an dedicated per-24 sonnel to lead fraud risk management ac-
25 tivities.

1 “(B) The status of the fraud risk profiles
2 of each program and operation of the agency,
3 including—

4 “(i) the date on which the profiles 5 were last updated; and

6 “(ii) the date on which the agency
7 plans to next update the profile.

8 “(C) Any program or operation for which 9 there is not a fraud risk profile, along with a 10 detailed justification for why such program or 11 operation does not have a fraud risk profile.

12 “(D) The status of any anti-fraud strategy
13 for each program and operation of the agency,
14 including—

15 “(i) the date on which any such strat-16 egy was last updated; and

17 “(ii) the date on which the agency
18 plans to next update each such strategy.

19 “(E) Any program or operation for which 20 there is not any anti-fraud strategy, along with 21 a detailed justification for why there is not any 22 anti-fraud strategy for such program or oper-23 ation.”.

1 (b) RECOVERY OF COSTS.—Section 3806(g)(1) of 2 title 31, United States Code, is amended to read as fol-3 lows:

4 “(1) RECOVERY OF COSTS.—

5 “(A) Except as provided in paragraph 6 (2)—

7 “(i) any amount collected under this 8 chapter or chapter 33 shall be used to re-
9 imburse any authority that obligated funds
10 in support of efforts of the authority to re-11 duce or prevent improper payments or 12 fraud, including prosecution of the action, 13 any court or hearing costs, investments in 14 information technologies, or the hiring of 15 additional staff related to such efforts; and 16 “(ii) amounts reimbursed under 17 clause (i) shall—

18 “(I) be deposited in—

19 “(aa) the appropriations ac-
20 count of the authority from 21 which the funds described in sub-
22 paragraph (A) were obligated;

23 “(bb) any other similar ap-
24 propriations account of the au-25 thority; or

1 “(cc) if the authority obli-2 gated nonappropriated funds, an 3 appropriate account other than
