REPORT

REVIEW NO. 11-6574

The Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics, by a vote of no less than four members, on April 29, 2011, adopted the following report and ordered it to be transmitted to the Committee on Ethics of the United States House of Representatives.

SUBJECT: Representative Jean Schmidt

NATURE OF THE ALLEGED VIOLATION: Representative Jean Schmidt may have received free legal services that are considered gifts under House rules. Since 2008, three lawyers for the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”) have represented her in various legal matters related to a complaint that she filed with the Ohio Election Commission against Mr. David Krikorian, a challenger to her congressional seat.

The Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”) has paid the TALDF lawyers a total of approximately $500,000 for the legal services provided to Representative Schmidt during the past three years. TCA currently pays the lawyers to represent her in an ongoing defamation suit that she filed against Mr. Krikorian in Ohio state court. Representative Schmidt has not paid for any of the legal services.

If Representative Schmidt accepted free legal services without establishing a legal expense fund, she may have violated House rules. She also may have violated House rules and federal law by not including the free legal services as gifts on her financial disclosure statements.

RECOMMENDATION: The Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics recommends that the Committee on Ethics further review the above allegations because there is substantial reason to believe that Representative Schmidt: (1) accepted legal services from TALDF without establishing a legal expense fund; and (2) failed to report the legal services on her financial disclosure statements for calendar years 2008 and 2009.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CITATIONS TO LAW

Review No. 11–6574

On April 29, 2011, the Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics (the “Board”) adopted the following findings of fact and accompanying citations to law, regulations, rules, and standards of conduct (in italics). The Board notes that these findings do not constitute a determination that a violation actually occurred.

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In 2008, the Turkish Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”) began providing legal services to Representative Schmidt in connection with a complaint that she filed against Mr. David Krikorian before the Ohio Election Commission.

2. In 2009, TALDF continued to provide the legal services at no charge to Representative Schmidt. In September 2009, Representative Schmidt requested a written advisory opinion from the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct (the “Committee”)¹ concerning payment of the legal services. She did not request a written opinion prior to accepting the legal services.

3. In February 2010, the Committee on Ethics wrote an opinion advising Representative Schmidt that she could pay for the legal services by either establishing an approved legal expense fund to pay for the legal services or using campaign funds. The opinion was based on the facts that Representative Schmidt presented to the Committee. The letter from the Committee expressed its understanding that Representative Schmidt was awaiting a bill from the TALDF lawyers and that the legal services had not been paid.

4. Apparently, relevant information concerning the nature of the payment of the legal services was not provided to the Committee. For example, it was not disclosed that the Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”) had already paid the TALDF lawyers approximately $300,000 for Representative Schmidt’s legal services at the time of the advisory opinion. TCA paid the expenses for Representative Schmidt since 2008 and continues to pay for legal services in 2011.

A. SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

5. The Board finds that there is substantial reason to believe that Representative Schmidt violated House Rule 25, clause 3 by accepting legal services from TALDF, which the TCA paid for prior to her receiving approval from the Committee of a legal expense fund.

¹The Committee on Standards of Official Conduct was renamed the Committee on Ethics in the 112th Congress.

6. The Board finds that there is substantial reason to believe that Representative Schmidt violated House Rule 26, clause 2 and the Ethics in Government Act by failing to report the legal services that she received from TALDF as gifts on her financial disclosure statements for calendar years 2008 and 2009.

B. JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

7. The allegations that are the subject of this review concern Representative Jean Schmidt, a Member of the United States House of Representatives for the 2nd District of Ohio. The Resolution the United States House of Representatives adopted creating the Office of Congressional Ethics (“OCE”) directs that, “[n]o review shall be undertaken . . . by the board of any alleged violation that occurred before the date of adoption of this resolution.”² The House adopted this Resolution on March 11, 2008. Because the conduct under review occurred after March 11, 2008, the OCE has jurisdiction in this matter.

C. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

8. The OCE received a written request for a preliminary review in this matter signed by at least two members of the Board on January 24, 2011. The preliminary review commenced on January 25, 2011.³ The preliminary review was scheduled to end on February 23, 2011.

9. At least three members of the Board voted to initiate a second-phase review in this matter on February 22, 2011. The second-phase review commenced on February 24, 2011.⁴ The second-phase review was scheduled to end on April 9, 2011.

10. The Board voted to extend second-phase review for an additional period of fourteen days on April 5, 2011. The second-phase review ended on April 23, 2011.

11. Representative Schmidt submitted a written statement, under Rule 9(B) of the OCE’s Rules for the Conduct of Investigations, on April 25, 2011.

12. The Board voted to refer the matter to the Committee and adopted these findings on April 29, 2011.

13. This report and findings were transmitted to the Committee on May 18, 2011.

D. SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITY

14. The OCE requested and received documentary and, in some cases testimonial information, from the following sources:

- (1) Representative Schmidt;
- (2) Representative Schmidt’s Chief of Staff;
- (3) TCA President;
- (4) TALDF Lawyer 1;
- (5) TALDF Lawyer 2; and

² H. Res. 895, 110th Cong. § 1(e), as amended (the “Resolution”).

⁴ According to the Resolution, the Board must vote on whether to conduct a second-phase review in a matter before the expiration of the thirty-day preliminary review. If the Board votes for a second-phase, the second-phase begins when the preliminary review ends. The second-phase review does not begin on the date of the Board vote.

II. TALDF LEGAL SERVICES PROVIDED TO REPRESENTATIVE SCHMIDT

A. LAW, REGULATIONS, RULES, AND STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Gifts

15. Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(a)(1)(A)(i), “[a] Member . . . of the House may not knowingly accept a gift except as provided in this clause.”

16. Under House Rule 25, clause 5(a)(3)(E), the gift rule exempts “a contribution or other payment to a legal expense fund established for the benefit of a Member, officer, or employee that is otherwise lawfully made in accordance with the restrictions and disclosure requirements of the [Committee].”

17. The Committee’s Legal Expense Fund Regulations provide that “[n]o contribution shall be solicited for or accepted by a Legal Expense fund prior to the Committee’s written approval of the completed trust document (including the name of the trustee).”⁵

18. “Pro bono legal assistance for other purposes shall be deemed a contribution subject to the restrictions of these regulations.”⁶

Financial Disclosure

19. Under House Rule 26, “the provisions of title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 shall be considered Rules of the House as they pertain to Members, Delegates, the Resident Commissioner, officers, and employees of the House.”

20. The Ethics in Government Act provides that “[e]ach report filed pursuant to section 101 (d) and (e) shall include a full and complete statement with respect to the following . . . The identity of the source, a brief description, and the value of all gifts aggregating more than the minimal value as established by section 7342(a)(5) of title 5, United States Code, or $250, whichever is greater, received from any source other than a relative of the reporting individual during the preceding calendar year”⁷

B. TALDF HAS PROVIDED LEGAL SERVICES TO REPRESENTATIVE SCHMIDT FOR NEARLY THREE YEARS

⁵ Memorandum from Committee on Standards of Official Conduct to All Members, Officers, and Employees Regarding Legal Expense Fund Regulations, dated June 10, 1996 (“Legal Expense Fund Regulations”) (Exhibit 1 at 11–6574–0003).

TALDF in General

21. TCA created TALDF in late 2007 or early 2008.⁸ The purpose of TALDF is to protect the legal rights of Turkish Americans.⁹ TALDF works primarily on defamation and free speech matters.¹⁰

22. TALDF provides legal services to its clients on a pro bono basis.¹¹ The entity is funded by the TCA.¹²

23. If there is a legal matter in which the client is awarded monetary damages, the money is divided between the client and the TCA.¹³ The TALDF lawyers do not receive any portion of a damage award.¹⁴

24. TALDF has two lawyers in Washington, DC: TALDF Lawyer 1 and TALDF Lawyer 2. TALDF Lawyer 1 is employed at the law firm of Bruce Fein & Associates, Inc.¹⁵ TALDF Lawyer 2 is employed at the law firm of Saltzman & Evinch, P.C.¹⁶

25. TALDF Lawyer 3 is local counsel in Ohio for Representative Schmidt and is employed at the law firm of Chester, Willcox & Saxbe.¹⁷

26. The TALDF lawyers are similar to independent contractors for TALDF.¹⁸ Each law firm bills TCA an hourly rate for legal services performed on behalf of TALDF.¹⁹ TCA pays for the services.²⁰

27. TCA retained a registered lobbyist in 2008 until the lobbyist, George Hochbrueckner, terminated the registration effective December 31, 2008.²¹

28. The TCA President told the OCE that he is the head of TCA's congressional outreach group.²² He spends approximately fifty percent of his time working on congressional outreach, which involves meeting with Members of Congress to discuss the Armenian genocide resolution and Greek and Turkish issues.²³

29. The TCA President told the OCE that he has not registered as a lobbyist because he only educates legislators.²⁴

TALDF and Representative Schmidt

30. Since 2008, TALDF has provided legal services to Representative Schmidt related to various legal matters between her and Mr. David Krikorian.²⁵

31. In 2006 or 2007, Mr. Krikorian visited Representative Schmidt's congressional office in Washington, DC.²⁶ He came to the office to meet with Representative Schmidt to request her support for the Armenian genocide resolution.²⁷

32. According to Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff, Mr. Krikorian became belligerent because Representative Schmidt would not commit to voting for the resolution.²⁸

33. In November 2007, the TCA President first met Representative Schmidt when he overheard her discussing the Armenian genocide resolution at a campaign fundraiser at the Capitol Hill Club in Washington, DC.²⁹

34. He introduced himself and offered to provide her with information about the Armenian genocide issue.³⁰

35. The TCA President told the OCE that he saw Representative Schmidt frequently in 2008 as she attended various TCA events and events with the TCA political action committee.³¹

36. During the same period in 2008, the TCA President believes that he spoke with Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff at least once per month.³²

37. Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff explained to the OCE that he first met the TCA President when the TCA President visited Representative Schmidt's office to lobby him on the Armenian genocide resolution.³³

38. In 2008, Mr. Krikorian ran as an independent candidate challenging Representative Schmidt for her congressional seat.

39. The TCA President recalls that in late spring of 2008, Mr. Krikorian circulated an email that criticized Representative Schmidt for attending campaign fundraisers with Turkish Americans.³⁴ The TCA President was furious about the email and there were internal discussions at TCA about whether TALDF should take any legal action in the matter.³⁵

40. During the week before the November 4, 2008 election, Mr. Krikorian placed pamphlets on cars outside of Representative Schmidt's church that accused her of various activities, including accepting “blood money” from the Turkish Government to deny the Armenian genocide.³⁶

41. On November 3, 2008, TALDF posted on its website a statement that it “requested the Attorney General of Ohio, Nancy H. Rogers, to open a criminal investigation under Ohio law into signature Armenian verbal thuggery employed by Armenian American independent candidate David Krikorian against Representative Jean Schmidt.”³⁷

42. TALDF Lawyer 1 remembered that his first meeting with Representative Schmidt about providing legal services occurred in her congressional office in late November 2008.³⁸

2008 Legal Services

43. According to the TALDF lawyers, TALDF first provided legal services for Representative Schmidt in her case against Mr. Krikorian before the Ohio Election Commission.³⁹ She alleged in the case that Mr. Krikorian made false statements about her during the 2008 campaign that violated the Ohio state law prohibiting unfair political campaign activities.⁴⁰

44. The TALDF lawyers began working on this matter in late 2008.⁴¹ The lawyers billed their legal services on behalf of Representative Schmidt to TCA.⁴²

45. The amount of fees and expenses and legal services for 2008 was approximately $3,905.⁴³

46. TCA paid the TALDF lawyers for the legal services performed on behalf of Representative Schmidt.⁴⁴

2009 Legal Services

47. In early 2009, the TALDF lawyers prepared Representative Schmidt’s complaint for the Ohio Election Commission matter, which they filed on April 29, 2009.⁴⁵

48. The lawyers filed an additional complaint with the Ohio Election Commission on behalf of Representative Schmidt on July 21, 2009.⁴⁶

49. On October 1, 2009, the Ohio Election Commission found in favor of Representative Schmidt, concluding that Mr. Krikorian made false statements about her.⁴⁷

50. In 2009, the lawyers also represented Representative Schmidt in Mr. Krikorian's appeals of the Ohio Election Commission decision.⁴⁸

51. The TALDF lawyers billed their 2009 legal services on behalf of Representative Schmidt to TCA.⁴⁹

52. The amount of fees and expenses and legal services for 2009 was approximately $289,280.⁵⁰

53. TCA paid the TALDF lawyers for the 2009 legal services performed on behalf of Representative Schmidt.⁵¹

2010 Legal Services

54. On February 21, 2010, the TALDF lawyers filed a Motion for Leave to file an Amicus Brief on behalf of Representative Schmidt in a federal lawsuit that Mr. Krikorian brought against the Ohio Election Commission in the Southern District Court of Ohio.⁵² The suit challenged whether the Ohio Election Commission had the right to make its findings in the 2009 matters concerning Representative Schmidt.⁵³ Representative Schmidt was not named as a party to the lawsuit.⁵⁴

55. The TALDF lawyers later filed an amicus brief on behalf of Representative Schmidt in the case.⁵⁵

56. On June 8, 2010, the TALDF lawyers filed a defamation lawsuit on behalf of Representative Schmidt against Mr. Krikorian. Representative Schmidt seeks $6.8 million dollars in damages.⁵⁶

57. Mr. Krikorian's federal lawsuit against the Ohio Election Commission was dismissed on October 19, 2010.⁵⁷

63. Representative Schmidt did not request an advisory opinion from the Committee prior to the TALDF lawyers providing her legal services in 2008.⁶³

64. Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff told the OCE that he spoke with staff at the Committee in early 2009 about how to pay for the legal services.⁶⁴

65. On August 31, 2009, Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff was deposed in the matter before the Ohio Election Commission. He was asked whether he had "made some kind of filing with the House Ethics Committee that would allow the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund to fund this legal action against Mr. Krikorian."⁶⁵ Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff answered that he had not made such a filing.⁶⁶

66. On September 17, 2009, Representative Schmidt wrote a letter to the Committee "to seek guidance regarding the payment of legal fees associated with a case in which my campaign and I are now involved."⁶⁷

67. On January 21, 2010, Representative Schmidt amended her request for guidance "due to changed circumstances" since the original letter.⁶⁸

68. On February 26, 2010, the Committee provided Representative Schmidt with an advisory opinion. The scope of the advice is limited to payments for two legal matters, which are "legal work already completed during the [Ohio] Elections Commission proceedings, and future legal work on [Representative Schmidt] behalf in the appellate case in Ohio Court."⁶⁹

⁶⁹ Letter from Chair Lofgren and Ranking Member Bonner to Representative Schmidt, dated February 26, 2010 ("Advisory Opinion") (Exhibit 22 at 11-6574-0274).

69. The Committee advised that “the establishment of a legal expense fund and the use of campaign funds are both permissible options for payment of legal expenses in connection with both past and future proceedings, subject to the limitations [in the advisory opinion].”⁷⁰

70. The Committee also advised that “before you may begin accepting or soliciting for donations to cover past and future legal expenses as described above, the Committee must approve your proposed trust agreement.”⁷¹

D. RELEVANT AND MATERIAL INFORMATION MAY NOT HAVE BEEN PROVIDED TO THE COMMITTEE CONCERNING THE NATURE OF THE LEGAL SERVICES

71. The advisory opinion from the Committee to Representative Schmidt states that the “Committee will take no adverse action against you in regard to any conduct that you undertake, or have undertaken, in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion, so long as you have presented a complete and accurate statement of all material facts relied upon, herein, and the proposed conduct in practice conforms with the information you provided, as addressed in this opinion.”⁷²

72. In the advisory opinion, the Committee also reserved the right to rescind, modify, or terminate the opinion: “However, the Committee will rescind an advisory opinion if relevant and material facts were not completely and accurately disclosed to the Committee at the time the opinion was issued.”⁷³

73. Pursuant to the advisory opinion, “[t]here is no restriction under the Committee’s Legal Expense Fund Regulations that would bar the establishment of such a trust fund to pay past legal expenses, so long as no solicitation or receipt of donations occurred before the Committee’s written approval of the trust agreement.”⁷⁴

74. The advisory opinion relies on facts that Representative Schmidt and her staff provided concerning the prior payments of the legal expenses.

TCA Paid for Representative Schmidt’s Legal Services Prior to Written Approval of a Legal Expense Fund

75. In the advisory opinion, the Committee indicated that it was under the impression that Representative Schmidt’s attorneys had worked approximately 200 hours and have not billed Representative Schmidt or received any payments for their services.⁷⁵

76. The advisory opinion mentions that “[t]o date, Mr. Fein estimates that 200 hours have been worked by the attorneys in your case, but you have not yet been billed as you are awaiting this Committee’s guidance regarding the permissibility of the proposed options for payment of legal expenses in this matter.”⁷⁶

77. The following relevant and material information appears not to have been provided to the Committee as of the date of the advisory opinion: (1) Representative Schmidt’s lawyers had worked more than 500 hours in her cases;⁷⁷ (2) Representative Schmidt's lawyers sent their bills to TCA;⁷⁸ and (3) TCA had paid Representative Schmidt's lawyers approximately $293,000 for services received in 2008 and 2009.⁷⁹

78. The President of TCA told the OCE that TCA pays all of the legal expenses for TALDF from its general operating account.⁸⁰

79. The TALDF lawyers are employed by separate law firms.⁸¹ Each law firm submits its legal bills to TCA.⁸²

80. TCA pays for the legal fees and expenses for each attorney performing legal services for Representative Schmidt.⁸³

81. TALDF provides free legal services to all of its clients.⁸⁴ TCA pays the TALDF lawyers for their services.⁸⁵

TCA Has Not Sought Reimbursement from Representative Schmidt

82. TALDF Lawyer 1 and TALDF Lawyer 2 explained to the OCE that they never send bills to TALDF clients.⁸⁶ TCA pays for their legal fees.⁸⁷

83. TALDF Lawyer 1 and TALDF Lawyer 2 told the OCE that they were under the impression that they were providing their legal services at no cost to Representative Schmidt.⁸⁸

84. TALDF Lawyer 1 testified in a deposition during the matter before the Ohio Election Commission that he told Representative Schmidt and her campaign that "we would not charge them legal fees."⁸⁹

85. The TCA President told the OCE that he does not bill anyone for the payments that TCA gives to TALDF.⁹⁰ TCA has never sought reimbursement for such expenses.⁹¹

86. The TCA President explained that he has not had conversations with Representative Schmidt about payments for the legal services.⁹²

87. Representative Schmidt told the OCE that TALDF did not offer to provide her free legal services and that she discussed the possibility of a contingency fee, but that option was not pursued.⁹³ Her statements are not consistent with the statements of the TALDF lawyers and TCA President about payments for the legal services.

E. TCA HAS PAID APPROXIMATELY $500,000 TO THREE LAW FIRMS FOR THE LEGAL SERVICES PROVIDED TO REPRESENTATIVE SCHMIDT

88. The TALDF lawyers provided the OCE with statements for legal fees and expenses that they billed for Representative Schmidt's legal matters from 2008 through the December 2010.⁹⁴

89. Based on these invoices, the lawyers charged legal fees and expenses totaling approximately $498,587.⁹⁵

90. According to the lawyers, they have received payment for the fees and expenses.⁹⁶ According to the TCA President, TCA paid for these expenses.⁹⁷

91. Representative Schmidt's defamation suit against Mr. Krikorian is ongoing in 2011 and the TALDF lawyers are representing her in this matter.⁹⁸

92. Representative Schmidt has not received any invoice for these services and TCA never intended to send her an invoice for these services.⁹⁹ TCA paid for the services out of its general operating budget in the same manner that it pays for all TALDF clients.¹⁰⁰

F. REPRESENTATIVE SCHMIDT ACCEPTED ADDITIONAL LEGAL SERVICES AFTER RECEIVING THE ADVISORY OPINION

93. As mentioned above, on February 26, 2010, the Committee provided Representative Schmidt with a written opinion advising that she could pay for the TALDF legal services by either establishing a legal expense fund or using campaign funds.

94. With respect to establishing the legal expense fund, the Committee advised Representative Schmidt that "[n]o contribution may be solicited for or accepted by a fund prior to the Committee's written approval of the completed trust document and the trustee."¹⁰¹

¹⁰¹ Advisory Opinion (Exhibit 22 at 11-6574-0275). Under the Legal Expense Fund Regulations, pro bono legal services are considered to be contributions to a legal expense fund and thereby cannot be accepted without the Committee's written approval of the trust document. Legal Expense Fund Regulations (Exhibit 1 at 11-6574-0002-0004). The Legal Expense Fund Regulations allow the acceptance of pro bono legal services under the following limited circumstances: "to file an amicus brief in his or her capacity as a Member of Congress; to bring a civil action challenging the validity of any federal law or regulation; or to bring a civil action challenging the lawfulness of an action of a federal agency, or an action of a federal official taken in an official capacity, provided that the action concerns a matter of public interest, rather than a matter that is personal in nature." Id. at 11-6574-0003.

95. After receiving the February 26, 2010 advisory opinion, Representative Schmidt did not submit a request for approval of a legal expense fund until July 19, 2010.¹⁰²

96. On June 8, 2010, Representative Schmidt filed a defamation lawsuit against Mr. Krikorian seeking $6.8 million in damages.¹⁰³

97. The TALDF lawyers represent her in this matter and TCA pays their legal fees.¹⁰⁴

Request for Approval of Legal Expense Fund

98. On July 19, 2010, Representative Schmidt wrote a letter to the Committee requesting approval of a legal expense fund.¹⁰⁵

99. On August 11, 2010 Representative Schmidt requested that the Committee approve a contingency fee agreement in connection with the $6.8 million defamation lawsuit.¹⁰⁶

100. She also requested permission to use a legal expense fund to pay for legal services that the TALDF provided in connection with the amicus brief filed in Ohio federal court in February 2010.

Request for Approval of Contingency Fee Agreement

101. On August 26, 2010 the Committee requested that Representative Schmidt provide a copy of the proposed contingency fee agreement for the defamation lawsuit.¹⁰⁷ Although the lawsuit was filed on June 8, 2010, the proposed contingency fee agreement is dated August 26, 2010.¹⁰⁸ Based on the information before the OCE, a final contingency fee agreement was not executed.

102. TALDF Lawyer 1, who signed the August 26 proposed contingency fee agreement, told the OCE that the TALDF legal services for the defamation suit are not part of a contingency fee agreement.¹⁰⁹ The services are provided pro bono similar to the other legal services TALDF has provided to Representative Schmidt.¹¹⁰

103. He explained that he and the other lawyers will not receive any part of a monetary judgment from the defamation suit. If damages are awarded, half of the award is for Representative Schmidt and the other half is for TCA.¹¹¹ The TALDF lawyers are paid whether or not there are damages awarded in the matter.

104. As result, the TALDF lawyers' payment is not contingent on the outcome of the case. TCA pays the lawyers based on the hours billed for work on Representative Schmidt's matter.¹¹²

G. REPRESENTATIVE SCHMIDT DID NOT DISCLOSE THE LEGAL SERVICES SHE RECEIVED ON HER FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS FOR CALENDAR YEARS 2008 AND 2009

105. Representative Schmidt filed her Calendar Year 2008 Financial Disclosure Statement on May 13, 2009.

106. Representative Schmidt answers “No” to the question “Did you, your spouse, or a dependent child receive any reportable gift in the reporting period (i.e., aggregating more than $335 and not otherwise exempt)?”¹¹³

107. Representative Schmidt filed her Calendar Year 2009 Financial Disclosure Statement on May 15, 2010. On July 15, 2010, she amended the filing.

108. In the original and amended statements, Representative Schmidt answers “No” to the question “Did you, your spouse, or a dependent child receive any reportable gift in the reporting period (i.e., aggregating more than $335 and not otherwise exempt)?”¹¹⁴

III. CONCLUSION

109. The Committee issued detailed guidance explaining the steps that Members must follow to solicit or receive donations to pay legal expenses.¹¹⁵

110. The Legal Expense Fund Regulations require that a Member first receive approval to establish a legal expense fund before receiving cash or in-kind donations (e.g., pro bono legal services).¹¹⁶

111. The Legal Expense Fund Regulations state that pro bono legal services are contributions to a legal expense fund and cannot be accepted without the Committee’s written approval of a legal expense fund.¹¹⁷

112. For example, the Committee recently responded to a Member’s request for approval to accept pro bono legal services.¹¹⁸ The Committee advised the Member that “it would not be permissible for you to solicit or accept pro bono or reduced-fee legal representation in connection with the ongoing disciplinary proceedings, absent the establishment of a legal expense fund for such purpose.”¹¹⁹

113. In this review, TCA and TALDF told the OCE that legal services were provided to Representative Schmidt on a pro bono basis.

114. TCA has paid approximately $500,000 to three law firms for legal services provided to Representative Schmidt in 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011.

¹¹³ Representative Schmidt Amended Calendar Year 2009 Financial Disclosure Statement, dated July 15, 2010 (Exhibit 28 at 11-6574-0398).

¹¹⁷ Id. The Legal Expense Fund Regulations allow the acceptance of pro bono legal services under the following limited circumstances. See supra note 101.

¹¹⁸ Letter from Chair Zoe Lofgren and Ranking Member Jo Bonner to Representative Charles B. Rangel, dated October 29, 2010 (Exhibit 30 at 11-6574-0432). The Board notes that this advisory opinion to Representative Rangel was issued only to him and cannot be relied upon by any other individual or entity. The letter is cited here only as an example of the application of the Legal Expense Fund Regulations.

115. Representative Schmidt did not receive permission from the Committee to establish a legal expense fund prior to accepting the legal services. Representative Schmidt told the OCE that she has submitted a request to the Committee for approval of a legal expense fund.

116. The Board is not aware of the status of Representative Schmidt's request for approval of the legal expense fund. However, even if a legal expense fund is approved, TCA has already paid for the legal services and does not seek reimbursement.

117. In conclusion, the Board finds that there is substantial reason to believe that Representative Schmidt violated House Rule 25, clause 3 by accepting legal services from TALDF, which TCA paid for prior to her receiving approval from the Committee of a legal expense fund.

118. The Board also finds that there is substantial reason to believe that Representative Schmidt violated House Rule 26, clause 2 and the Ethics in Government Act by failing to report that she received legal services from TALDF as gifts on her financial disclosure statements for calendar years 2008 and 2009.

119. For these reasons, the Board recommends that the Committee further review the allegations described above concerning Representative Schmidt.

Legal Expense Fund Regulations

MEMORANDUM TO ALL MEMBERS, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES¹

From: Committee on Standards of Official Conduct

Nancy L. Johnson, Chairman

Jim McDermott, Ranking Democratic Member

Date: June 10, 1996

The new gift rule exempts “a contribution or other payment to a legal expense fund established for the benefit of a Member, officer, or employee that is otherwise lawfully made in accordance with the restrictions and disclosure requirements of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct,” as long as the contribution is not from a registered lobbyist or an agent of a foreign principal (House Rule 25, clause 5(a)(3)(E)). In light of this new rule, and pursuant to its authority there under, the Committee hereby issues regulations explaining its “restrictions and disclosure requirements” for legal expense funds. The regulations set forth below supersede the Committee’s prior policies under the old gift rule² and take effect as of July 1, 1996. The prior policies remain in effect until that date.

Legal Expense Fund Regulations

1. A Member, officer, or employee who wishes to solicit and/or receive donations, in cash or in kind, to pay legal expenses shall obtain the prior written permission of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.³
2. The Committee shall grant permission to establish a Legal Expense Fund only where the legal expenses arise in connection with: the individual’s candidacy for or election to federal office; the individual’s official duties or position in Congress (including legal expenses incurred in connection with an amicus brief filed in a Member’s official capacity, a civil action by a Member challenging the validity of a law or federal regulation, or a matter before the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct); a criminal prosecution; or a civil matter bearing on the individual’s reputation or fitness for office.

¹ These regulations have been updated in several respects, including to reflect certain Committee policies established after the regulations were originally issued, and the renumbering of the House Rules that occurred at the beginning of the 106th and 107th Congresses.

3. The Committee shall not grant permission to establish a Legal Expense Fund where the legal expenses arise in connection with a matter that is primarily personal in nature (e.g., a matrimonial action).
4. A Member, officer, or employee may accept pro bono legal assistance without limit to file an amicus brief in his or her capacity as a Member of Congress; to bring a civil action challenging the validity of any federal law or regulation; or to bring a civil action challenging the lawfulness of an action of a federal agency, or an action of a federal official taken in an official capacity, provided that the action concerns a matter of public interest, rather than a matter that is personal in nature. Pro bono legal assistance for other purposes shall be deemed a contribution subject to the restrictions of these regulations.
5. A Legal Expense Fund shall be set up as a trust, administered by an independent trustee, who shall oversee fund raising.
6. The trustee shall not have any family, business, or employment relationship with the trust's beneficiary.
7. Trust funds shall be used only for legal expenses (and expenses incurred in soliciting for and administering the trust), except that any excess funds shall be returned to contributors. Under no circumstances may the beneficiary of a Legal Expense Fund convert the funds to any other purpose.
8. A Legal Expense Fund shall not accept more than $5,000 in a calendar year from any individual or organization.
9. A Legal Expense Fund shall not accept any contribution from a registered lobbyist or an agent of a foreign principal.
10. Other than as specifically barred by law or regulation, a Legal Expense Fund may accept contributions from any individual or organization, including a corporation, labor union, or political action committee (PAC).
11. No contribution shall be solicited for or accepted by a Legal Expense Fund prior to the Committee's written approval of the completed trust document (including the name of the trustee). No amendment of the trust document is effective, and no successor or substitute trustee may be appointed, without the Committee's written approval.
12. Within one week of the Committee's approval of the trust document, the beneficiary shall file a copy of the trust document with the Legislative Resource Center (B-106 Cannon House Office Building) for public disclosure.

13. The beneficiary of a Legal Expense Fund shall report to the Committee on a quarterly basis, with a copy filed for public disclosure at the Legislative Resource Center:
- a) any donation to the Fund from a corporation or labor union;
 - b) any contribution (or group of contributions) exceeding $250 in a calendar year from any other single source; and
 - c) any expenditure from the Fund exceeding $250 in a calendar year.

The reports shall state the full name and street address of each donor, contributor or recipient required to be disclosed. Beginning October 30, 1996, these reports shall be due as follows:

| Reporting Period | Due Date |
|-------------------------|-----------------|
| January 1 – March 31 | April 30 |
| April 1 – June 30 | July 30 |
| July 1 – September 30 | October 30 |
| October 1 – December 31 | January 30 |

14. Any Member or employee who established a Legal Expense Fund prior to July 1, 1996 shall make any necessary modifications to the trust document to bring it into compliance with these regulations and shall disclose the trust document with his or her first quarterly report of the 105th Congress on January 30, 1997. Reports of receipts and expenditures shall be due beginning October 30, 1996, as stated in paragraph 13, above.

Use of Campaign Funds for Legal Expenses

This Committee has stated (in Chapter 4 on campaign activity) that Members may use campaign funds to defend legal actions arising out of their campaign, election, or the performance of their official duties. More recently, however, the Federal Election Commission (FEC) issued regulations defining impermissible personal uses of campaign funds, including using campaign funds for certain legal expenses. Any Member contemplating the use of campaign funds for the direct payment of legal expenses or for contribution to a legal expense fund should first contact the FEC.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW

IN RE: TALDF Lawyer 1
REVIEW No.: 11-6574
DATE: March 28, 2011
LOCATION: Bruce Fein & Associates, Inc.
1025 Connecticut Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036
TIME: 10:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. (approximately)
PARTICIPANTS: Kedric L. Payne
Paul J. Solis

SUMMARY: The OCE requested an interview TALDF Lawyer 1, who is an attorney with the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”), on March 28, 2011, and he consented to an interview. TALDF Lawyer 1 (the “witness”) made the following statements in response to our questioning:

1. The witness was given an 18 U.S.C. § 1001 warning and consented to an interview. He signed a written acknowledgement of the warning, which will be placed in the case file in this review.
2. The witness explained that TALDF is a unit of the Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”). The witness believes that TCA was established in 2005 or 2006 and TALDF was established in 2007 or 2008.
3. His firm, Bruce Fein & Associates, Inc. is his current employer. TCA pays the firm for the work that the witness performs on behalf of TALDF. The witness explained that he is more like an independent contractor with TALDF.
4. TALDF was created to protect the legal rights of Turkish Americans and focuses on free speech cases. TALDF receives various requests from individuals requesting legal services.
5. The witness screens potential cases and determines if the cases are consistent with the TALDF mission.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

6. The witness told the OCE that a case usually aligns with the TALDF mission if it supports Turkish Americans being able to participate in open public discourse and protects Turkish Americans from any type of discrimination.
7. TCA funds TALDF. As a result, the witness' law firm bills TCA for the hours he works on behalf of TALDF and TCA pays the law firm. There is no retainer agreement and the bills are based on the amount of time the witness spends working on a matter.
8. TALDF provides legal services at no charge to its clients, on a "pro bono" basis. The witness stated that its customary to think pro bono, although TCA and the client may share damage awards in a specific case.
9. If there is a legal matter where a TALDF client wins a monetary judgment, the money is divided between TCA and the client. Neither the witness nor his TALDF colleague receives any portion of monetary damages awarded in a legal matter.
10. Examples of TALDF clients include a professor who has a defamation suit and a student who has a civil rights case.
11. TALDF has not represented any federal, state, or local or public official other than Representative Schmidt.
12. The witness believes that he first met Representative Schmidt in November 2008.
13. He first learned of Representative Schmidt from Lincoln McCurdy, who is the President of TCA. Mr. McCurdy told the witness that Representative Schmidt was interested in filing a complaint with the Ohio Election Commission against David Krikorian. The witness does not know who initiated the contact between Mr. McCurdy and Representative Schmidt.
14. Near the end of November 2008, the witness met with Representative Schmidt in her Washington, DC office to discuss the complaint. He believes that her current Chief of Staff, Joe Jansen and her former Chief of Staff, Barry Bennett attended the meeting. The witness believes that Joe Jansen was acting as her lawyer at the time. At the meeting, they discussed filing a case with the Ohio Elections Commission.
15. The witness explained that TALDF's legal services were provided at no charge to Representative Schmidt and that was his understanding at their first meeting.
16. Although the complaint was discussed in November 2008, it was not filed until April 2009 because TALDF was waiting for "ethics" approval.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

17. The witness did not know at the time whether “ethics” approval meant approval from a congressional entity or the Federal Election Commission. He did not know what aspect of the representation had to be approved.
18. In April 2009, Mr. Bennett told the witness that ethics approval had been received and action could be filed because it was approved by ethics.
19. The witness had been working on the case while waiting for client approval.
20. The witness hired Donald Brey as local counsel for the Ohio Election Commission matter. The witness told the OCE that Representative Schmidt referred Mr. Brey to him. TCA pays Mr. Brey’s legal fees.
21. TALDF represented Representative Schmidt in matters involving Mr. Krikorian’s appeal of the Ohio Election Commission decision, an amicus brief in federal court, and a defamation suit against Mr. Krikorian. Representative Schmidt was alerted to all of these actions.
22. With all of these matters, the witness understood that TALDF was providing pro bono services to Representative Schmidt. Further, there was no written agreement for scope of services to be provided to Representative Schmidt.
23. He considered each of the matters to be related to the Ohio Election Commission complaint that was discussed in the first meeting of November 2008. The defamation suit was contemplated at the time of the Ohio Election Commission complaint and at other times during discussions with Representative Schmidt.
24. The witness stated that the legal services for the defamation suit are not part of a contingency fee agreement. The services are pro bono like the other services provided. However, there is an understanding that if there is a monetary judgment, it will be equally divided between Representative Schmidt and TCA. The witness will not receive any part of a monetary judgment.
25. When asked about a complaint that Representative Schmidt’s campaign filed before the Federal Election Commission against Mr. Krikorian in 2009, the witness said that he was not involved in this matter.
26. Mr. Bennett mentioned a legal trust fund to the witness, but the witness “does not care one way or the other if a fund pays for the legal expenses.” He will not receive the money, but it will reimburse TCA. The witness stated that the back and forth with ethics lawyers over a legal trust fund was “not an inflection point” in the battery of litigation.

This memorandum was prepared on March 29, 2011, based on the notes that the OCE staff prepared during the interview with the witness on March 28, 2011. I certify that this memorandum contains all pertinent matter discussed with the witness on March 28, 2011.

MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW

IN RE: President of Turkish Coalition of America ("TCA")
 REVIEW No.: 11-6574
 DATE: April 8, 2011
 LOCATION: Turkish Coalition of America
 1025 Connecticut Avenue
 Washington, DC 20036
 TIME: 2:10 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. (approximately)
 PARTICIPANTS: Kedric L. Payne
 Paul J. Solis

SUMMARY: The OCE requested an interview with the President of the Turkish Coalition of America ("TCA"), on April 8, 2011, and he consented to an interview. The TCA President (the "witness") made the following statements in response to our questioning:

1. The witness was given an 18 U.S.C. § 1001 warning and consented to an interview. He signed a written acknowledgement of the warning, which will be placed in the case file in this review.
2. The witness told the OCE that was involved in creating TCA with Dr. Yakin Ayasya. TCA was created in February 2007.
3. TCA is a 501(c)(3) organization that is intended to educate the general public about the Turkish American community; empower the Turkish American community; and bridge gaps between the general public and the Turkish American community.
4. The organization is divided into several groups: Capitol Hill outreach; community outreach; scholarship program; and the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund ("TALDF"). TCA is also involved in organizing trips for Members of Congress and it has a political action committee.
5. The witness is the head of the group involved in Capitol Hill outreach. The group also has one full-time employee and one part-time employee. The witness told the OCE that he spends about 50% of his time working on congressional outreach.
6. This group works with the Turkish Caucus, which is comprised of Members of Congress. The Capitol Hill outreach group encourages Members to join the Turkish Caucus and it provides educational materials to Members concerning Turkey.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

7. The Capitol Hill outreach group meets with legislators concerning the Armenian genocide resolution. The group also meets with legislators concerning Greek and Turkish issues.
8. The witness told the OCE that no one in TCA's Capitol Hill outreach group is registered as a lobbyist. He explained that he is not registered as a lobbyist because he only educates legislators.
9. TALDF was created in late 2007 or the beginning of 2008. The entity was created because Dr. Ayasya wanted an organization to help Turkish Americans that were victims of discrimination.
10. The witness described TALDF as an anti-defamation entity. TALDF becomes involved in legal matters when the lawyers identify a case and decide to accept it or when Turkish Americans request TALDF's legal assistance.
11. The TCA funds TALDF. The witness approves all TCA payments to TALDF and controls the TCA budget.
12. These approvals include all payments to TALDF lawyers Bruce Fein and David Saltzman.
13. The money that TCA uses to pay TALDF comes from TCA's general budget. The witness told the OCE that the TCA does not seek any reimbursements or payments from TALDF clients. TCA also does not solicit funds from any other sources to pay for TALDF expenses.
14. The witness is involved in pre-approving new TALDF legal matters. He attends meetings about new matters. The approval decisions are done by a consensus of the witness; Guler Koknar, TCA Vice President; Bruce Fein; David Saltzman; and the TCA Chairman Dr. Ayasya. This group meets approximately four times per year to make decisions on new matters for TALDF.
15. The witness believes that he first met Representative Jean Schmidt in November 2007 at a fundraiser for Ohio Republicans at the Capitol Hill Club. He attended the fundraiser because the TCA PAC made a campaign contribution for the event.
16. During the event, he overheard Representative Schmidt discussing the Armenian genocide resolution. He introduced himself and explained to Representative Schmidt that he worked for TCA. He offered to provide her with material concerning the Armenian genocide issue.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

17. The witness told the OCE that Representative Schmidt collected information from sources representing all sides of the Armenian genocide issue and independently decided that she could not support the resolution. He believes that she publicly stated that she could not support the Armenian genocide resolution in December 2007.
18. He believes that near late spring 2008, he received an email, possibly from a Turkish American. In the email, David Krikorian criticized Representative Schmidt for attending campaign fundraisers with Turkish Americans. This email had been sent to various recipients and the witness is not sure who sent it to him.
19. The witness was furious when he read this email because it made him feel that Turkish Americans could not participate in the political process like everyone else without being criticized.
20. He recalls that in the summer of 2008 there were internal discussions at TALDF about whether they should take any legal action in the matter.
21. The witness is not certain if he approached Representative Schmidt and offered TALDF services or if she asked him whether TALDF could provide services.
22. He told the OCE that he saw Representative Schmidt a few times after he received the Krikorian email and they discussed news about Mr. Krikorian. During these discussions, the witness may have mentioned TALDF to Representative Schmidt.
23. He saw Representative Schmidt frequently in 2008 because Representative Schmidt attended TCA events. Also, the TCA PAC was involved in events with Representative Schmidt.
24. The witness also spoke with Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff, Barry Bennett, at least once per month in 2008 and they discussed the Krikorian matter.
25. The witness recalled Mr. Bennett asking him something about payment for legal services. He explained that he either told Mr. Bennett to reach out to Bruce Fein or he may have told Bruce Fein to reach out to Mr. Bennett. When asked if Mr. Bennett discussed a contingency fee with him, the witness stated that he did not recall that he did.
26. The witness told the OCE that before TALDF could proceed with assisting Representative Schmidt with filing the complaint with the Ohio Election Commission, Mr. Bennett mentioned something about "ethics."
27. He was not involved in any further discussions about payment for the legal services and never talked to Representative Schmidt about payment for services.

This memorandum was prepared on April 11, 2011, based on the notes that the OCE staff prepared during the interview with the witness on April 8, 2011. I certify that this memorandum contains all pertinent matter discussed with the witness on April 8, 2011.

MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW

IN RE: TALDF Lawyer 2
REVIEW No.: 11-6574
DATE: March 28, 2011
LOCATION: Saltzman & Evinch, P.C.
655 15th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005
TIME: 2:05 p.m. to 2:45 a.m. (approximately)
PARTICIPANTS: Kedric L. Payne

SUMMARY: The OCE requested an interview with TALDF Lawyer 2, who is an attorney with the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”), on March 28, 2011, and he consented to an interview. TALDF Lawyer 2 (the “witness”) made the following statements in response to our questioning:

1. The witness was given an 18 U.S.C. § 1001 warning and consented to an interview. He signed a written acknowledgement of the warning, which will be placed in the case file in this review.
2. The witness is a principle at the law firm of Saltzman & Evinch, P.C. He has been employed with the firm since 1993.
3. He provides legal services to the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”). The services include informing Turkish Americans of their legal rights and reviewing requests for legal representation from Turkish Americans. This litigation part of the work is what the witness does most of the time for TALDF.
4. The TALDF selects legal matters based on whether the cases are within its mission. Also approval from the Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”) was needed before TALDF could accept a legal matter.
5. The witness told the OCE that he is a junior litigator for TALDF and Bruce Fein is the senior litigator.
6. The witness has been with TALDF since it began in 2008.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

7. He believes that TALDF's first litigation matter was a complaint that was filed on behalf of Representative Schmidt against David Krikorian in early 2009.
8. The witness explained that he bills TCA for his legal services, quarterly based on the number of hours worked and TCA then makes payments to Saltzman & Evinch, P.C. The hourly rate is a negotiated hourly rate.
9. He believes that he first became aware of the matter involving Representative Schmidt in January 2009, when he received a phone call from Bruce Fein. On the call, Mr. Fein told the witness that the president of TCA, Lincoln McCurdy, had a conversation with Representative Schmidt about TALDF representing her in the matter.
10. The witness first met Representative Schmidt in the spring of 2009 at a meeting in her office. He was in her office to meet with her then Chief of Staff, Barry Bennett. The witness told the OCE that Mr. Bennett was the main point of contact for Representative Schmidt's office.
11. During the spring of 2009, the witness began drafting an outline of a complaint against Mr. Krikorian to be filed with the Ohio Election Commission ("OEC"), and then waited for approval from Representative Schmidt and TCA. TCA approved the draft complaint in February 2009.
12. The witness stated that it was his impression that TALDF was waiting to file the complaint because Representative Schmidt was seeking approval from the House Ethics Committee. The witness told the OCE that he believed ethics approval was needed to determine if Representative Schmidt could be a plaintiff in a matter and if the legal services could be provided at no charge.
13. The witness stated that at the time, February 2009, TALDF expected no money from Representative Schmidt.
14. TALDF filed the complaint with the OEC in April 2009 after Mr. Bennett told Mr. Fein that ethics approval had been received. Conversations about ethics issues did not continue after this point.
15. There was no written retainer agreement outlining scope of representation for Representative Schmidt. TALDF does not usually enter into written agreements with clients expect in one case.
16. After the OEC issued its decision, Mr. Fein then told the witness to gather his invoices for the legal services because Representative Schmidt may reimburse for the expenses. However, Representative Schmidt's office never requested the invoices.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

17. Once fully engaged in the legal matters, TALDF often interacted with Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff.
18. The witness' involvement in the other matters concerning Representative Schmidt began to diminish. He told the OCE that in connection with the OEC complaint, the TALDF assisted Representative Schmidt with legal matters related to Mr. Krikorian's attempt at appealing the decision, an amicus brief, and a defamation suit.
19. According to the witness, TALDF understood that all of these legal services were provided on a pro bono basis.
20. He also explained that the defamation suit had been contemplated since the initial conversation about filing the OEC complaint. The suit was not filed until 2010 because TALDF was monitoring Mr. Krikorian's response to the OEC decision.
21. The witness did not assist Representative Schmidt with the complaint that her campaign filed against Mr. Krikorian before the Federal Election Commission in 2009.
22. The witness was shown an email concerning "Lawyer Hours on Jean Schmidt Related Litigation", (Schmidt_0015). He explained that the hours included in the email were estimated projections of hours that he would spend on the legal matters. He told the OCE that these hours did not reflect actual hours worked.

This memorandum was prepared on March 31, 2011, based on the notes that the OCE staff prepared during the interview with the witness on March 28, 2011. I certify that this memorandum contains all pertinent matter discussed with the witness on March 28, 2011.

Re: January 27, 2011 Request for Information

Dear Mr. Ashmawy:

Pursuant to your January 27, 2011 Request for Information, enclosed find a CD containing the following documents (in Tiff format):

| Bates Number | Documents |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| DCB_OCE - 0001 through 0002 | DCB February 11, 2011 Cover Letter |
| DCB_OCE - 0003 through 0006 | Brief Description of Legal Matters |

| DCB_OCE - 0008 through 0009 | Ledger History |
| DCB_OCE - 00010 through 00095 | Redacted Copies of Invoices |

On February 2, 2011, I spoke with Investigative Counsel Kedric Payne, who stated that your office is only interested in our redacted bills and the evidence of what we were paid for our legal services. Thus, we have redacted from the bills produced the detailed description of the work performed.

While there are many pleadings, transcripts and exhibits that are in the public record in the cases in which I have represented Jean Schmidt, my understanding is that you are not seeking those documents, but only the documents showing the cost and payment for the legal services provided by us.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF LEGAL MATTERS

Since 2008, Donald C. Brey and his law firm have appeared on behalf of Jean Schmidt before: (1) the Ohio Elections Commission (and administrative appeals from the OEC); (2) federal court; and, (3) Ohio Common Pleas Court. All of these appearances related to Jean Schmidt's efforts to protect herself against David Krikorian's decision to knowingly and recklessly disseminate falsehoods about Jean Schmidt.

I. The Ohio Elections Commission False Statement Cases.

Two days before the November 4, 2008, general election (at which Jean Schmidt was standing for reelection to Congress), David Krikorian disseminated fliers – including at the parking lots of the church where Jean Schmidt worshiped – in which Krikorian said that Jean Schmidt was “taking money from a foreign government [Turkey] that is killing our soldiers”, that “Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Government during World War II”, and that “This information is public record and can be found on the Federal Elections Commission data base” [as this statement references facts that support the statements that Turkish government sponsored political action committees donated $30,000].

Jean Schmidt filed two Complaints before the Ohio Elections Commission regarding these statements, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.21(B)(10), which makes it a violation to “[p]ost, publish, circulate, distribute, or otherwise disseminate a false statement concerning a candidate, either knowing the same to be false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not, if the statement is designed to promote the election, nomination, or defeat of the candidate”. The Complaint in OEC Case No. 2009E-003 was filed on April 29, 2009. The Complaint in OFC Case No. 2009E-012 was filed on July 21, 2009. The two cases were consolidated and tried together.

The two consolidated Ohio Elections Commission cases were hard fought. David Krikorian was represented by experienced Ohio election and first amendment lawyers, as well as by prominent lawyers based in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C.. After months of discovery (including depositions in Ohio, Washington D.C. and Kentucky), motions, procedural arguments and two full days of trial, the Ohio Elections Commission unanimously found that each of the above quoted statements were false and that there was clear and convincing evidence that David Krikorian had lied by making them in violation of R.C. 3517.21(B)(10). That is, the Ohio Elections Commission unanimously found, by clear and convincing evidence, that David Krikorian falsely accused Jean Schmidt of directly or indirectly receiving money from the Turkish government, either knowing that these statements were false, or with reckless disregard of their truth or falsity (which is the standard of New York Times v. Sullivan (1964), 376 U.S. 254).

David Krikorian's administrative appeals of these two Ohio Elections Commission cases to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court (Schmidt v. Krikorian Franklin County C.P. Case Nos. 09CV-11-17707 and 09CV-11-17709) were subsequently dismissed, and David Krikorian chose to forgo any appeal of the February 25, 2010, Judgment Entry of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas dismissing his appeal from the Ohio Elections Commission's findings that he lied about Jean Schmidt.

2. Krikorian's Federal Court Action

Instead, David Krikorian filed a federal lawsuit (Krikorian v. Ohio Elections Commission et al. Southern Dist. Ohio Case No. 1:10-CV-103) in which David Krikorian challenged the Ohio

Elections Commission's right to make findings against him for lying about Jean Schmidt. Originally, David Krikorian filed his federal lawsuit in the Northern District of Ohio under a different case number. But this transparent attempt to "forum shop" resulted in the Northern District promptly transferring the matter to the Southern District of Ohio.

This federal court action was, in effect, an attempt to use the federal courts to void the Ohio Elections Commission's findings that David Krikorian had knowingly and recklessly lied about Jean Schmidt. While David Krikorian did not name Jean Schmidt as a party, we filed amicus curiae briefs on behalf of Jean Schmidt responding to the merits of David Krikorian's claims, and urging the court to dismiss Krikorian's lawsuit on Younger abstention grounds.

On October 19, 2010, Judge Susan Dlott dismissed David Krikorian's federal lawsuit.

3. The Ohio Common Pleas Court Defamation Action

In an ideal world, after the Ohio Elections Commission Complaints were filed, or at least after the Ohio Elections Commission found probable cause that David Krikorian had lied, David Krikorian would have ceased his lies about Jean Schmidt receiving money from the Turkish government or its agents. Unfortunately, Jean Schmidt's hopes that the Ohio Elections Commission cases would deter David Krikorian from continuing his defamations of Jean Schmidt were dashed by David Krikorian's decision to repeatedly state that he "stand[s] by all of the statements that [he] made" about Jean Schmidt, that Jean Schmidt "is a paid puppet of the Turkish government involved in their denial campaign to suppress the truth about the Armenian genocide", that "Schmidt is bought and paid for by the Turkish lobby", that "the Turkish government is behind those contributions" and the like. Thus, on June 8, 2010, about a month before the statute of limitations would have expired on the earliest of Krikorian's republished statements, a defamation complaint was filed in State Court regarding these defamatory statements. Schmidt v. Krikorian, Clermont County (Ohio) Common Pleas Court Case No. 2010-CVC-1217 is a continuation of the two Ohio Elections Commission cases and the Federal case in that it also involves efforts by Jean Schmidt to obtain redress for David Krikorian's lies about her or efforts by David Krikorian to continue to publish those lies with impunity.

Re: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Dear Mr. Ashmawy:

My response to your January 27, 2011 Request for Information in the time frame 2008-present is as follows:

1. TALDF has provided legal services to Representative Jean Schmidt concerning a Complaint she filed with the Ohio Elections Commission under Ohio law alleging intentional misstatements of fact to affect the outcome of her congressional race in 2008 by opponent David Krikorian. The case was adjudicated over two days of hearings in 2009 in favor of Schmidt on three counts of intentional false statements.
2. TALDF provided legal services to Schmidt in the appeal of the OEC's decisions to the Ohio Court of Common Pleas, which concluded in her favor.
3. TALDF provided legal services to Schmidt as amicus curiae in opposing David Krikorian's suit against the Ohio Elections Commission in 2010 in the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio challenging the constitutionality of the OEC and its three rulings against Krikorian. The U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio ultimately dismissed the suit.
4. TALDF has provided legal services to Schmidt in her pending defamation suit against David Krikorian and the Krikorian for Congress Committee in the Ohio Court of Common Pleas, Clermont County. Various motions remain outstanding.
5. The costs of TALDF's legal services, enumerated above and provided by me, are attached as Exhibit 1.

Please alert me if you need anything further.

Re: Request for Information: Legal Services to Rep. Jean Schmidt

Dear Mr. Ashmawy:

Enclosed please find all information in my possession relevant to your request for information of January 27, 2011.

I spoke on January 28, 2011 with Investigative Counsel Kedric Payne, who stated that your office is interested in evidence of what my firm or I was paid for legal services on Rep. Schmidt's behalf. Thus, we have redacted from the invoices produced descriptions of the work performed. As the invoices also include information pertaining to numerous matters unrelated to Rep. Schmidt, such information has also been redacted. The invoices tally 87.3 hours of legal services on Rep. Schmidt's behalf, billed at an hourly rate of $325. Please understand that I have done additional, though not substantial, work on Rep. Schmidt's matters but have not yet submitted invoices for payment.

I will also submit this information via electronic mail in a pdf file to Mr. Payne, as he and I discussed by telephone earlier today.

Please advise me if I can be of further assistance to your office.

Sincerely,

David Saltzman

Brief Description Of Legal Matters on Behalf of Rep. Jean Schmidt

Since 2008, David Saltzman and his law firm have provided legal services on behalf of Jean Schmidt in her actions before: (1) the Ohio Elections Commission (and administrative appeals from the OEC); (2) federal court; and, (3) Ohio Common Pleas Court. All of these related to Jean Schmidt's efforts to protect and preserve her reputation against falsehoods disseminated by David Krikorian, twice a congressional candidate in Ohio's second district.

1. The Ohio Elections Commission False Statement Cases.

Two days before the November 4, 2008, general election (at which Jean Schmidt was standing for reelection to Congress), David Krikorian disseminated fliers – including at the parking lots of the church where Jean Schmidt worshipped – in which Krikorian stated that Jean Schmidt was “taking money from a foreign government [Turkey] that is killing our soldiers”, that “Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Government during World War II”, and that “This information is public record and can be found on the Federal Elections Commission data base” [as this statement purports to reference facts that support the statements that Turkish government sponsored political action committees donated $30,000].

Rep. Jean Schmidt filed two Complaints before the Ohio Elections Commission regarding these statements, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.21(B)(10), which makes it a violation to “[p]ost, publish, circulate, distribute, or otherwise disseminate a false statement concerning a candidate, either knowing the same to be false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not, if the statement is designed to promote the election, nomination, or defeat of the candidate”. The Complaint in OEC Case No. 2009E-003 was filed on April 29, 2009. The Complaint in OEC Case No. 2009E-012 was filed on July 21, 2009. The two cases were consolidated and tried together.

The two consolidated Ohio Elections Commission cases were hard fought. David Krikorian was represented by experienced Ohio election and first amendment lawyers, as well as by prominent lawyers based in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. After months of discovery (including depositions in Ohio, Washington D.C. and Kentucky), motions, procedural arguments and two full days of trial, the Ohio Elections Commission unanimously found that each of the above quoted statements regarding Rep. Schmidt were false and that there was clear and convincing evidence that David Krikorian had lied by making them in violation of R.C. 3517.21(B)(10). That is, the Ohio Elections Commission unanimously found, by clear and convincing evidence, that David Krikorian falsely accused Rep. Jean Schmidt of directly or indirectly receiving money from the Turkish government, either knowing that these statements were false, or with reckless disregard of their truth or falsity (which is also the standard for public figure defamation in New York Times v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 (1964)).

David Krikorian's administrative appeals of these two Ohio Elections Commission cases to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court (Schmidt v. Krikorian, Franklin County C.P. Case Nos. 09CV-11-17707 and 09CV-11-17709) were subsequently dismissed, and David Krikorian chose to forgo any appeal of the February 25, 2010, Judgment Entry of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas dismissing his appeal from the Ohio Elections Commission's findings that he lied about Jean Schmidt.

2. Krikorian's Federal Court Action

Instead, David Krikorian filed a federal lawsuit (Krikorian v. Ohio Elections Commission et al. Southern Dist. Ohio Case No. 1:10-CV-103) in which he challenged the Ohio Elections

Commission's right to make findings against him for lying about Rep. Jean Schmidt. Originally, David Krikorian filed his federal lawsuit in the Northern District of Ohio under a different case number. But this transparent attempt to "forum shop" resulted in the Northern District promptly transferring the matter to the Southern District of Ohio.

This federal court action was, in effect, an attempt to use the federal courts to void the Ohio Elections Commission's findings that David Krikorian had knowingly and recklessly made false statements about Rep. Jean Schmidt. While David Krikorian did not name Rep. Schmidt as a party, we filed amicus curiae briefs on his behalf responding to the merits of David Krikorian's claims, and urging the court to dismiss Krikorian's lawsuit on Younger abstention grounds (Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37 (1971)).

On October 19, 2010, U.S. District Judge Susan Dlott dismissed David Krikorian's federal lawsuit.

3. The Ohio Common Pleas Court Defamation Action

In an ideal world, after the Ohio Elections Commission Complaints were filed, or at least after the Ohio Elections Commission found probable cause that David Krikorian had lied, David Krikorian would have ceased his lies about Rep. Jean Schmidt receiving money from the Turkish government or its alleged agents. Unfortunately, Jean Schmidt's hopes that the Ohio Elections Commission ruling and written reprimands would deter David Krikorian from continuing his defamations were dashed by David Krikorian's decision to repeatedly state that he "stand[s] by all of the statements that [he] made" Rep. Schmidt, that she "is a paid puppet of the Turkish government involved in their denial campaign to suppress the truth about the Armenian genocide", that "Schmidt is bought and paid for by the Turkish lobby", that "the Turkish government is behind those contributions" and the like. Thus, on June 8, 2010, about a month before the statute of limitations would have expired on the earliest of Krikorian's republished statements, Rep. Schmidt filed a defamation complaint in State Court regarding these statements. Schmidt v. Krikorian, Clermont County (Ohio) Common Pleas Court Case No. 2010-CVC-1217 is a continuation of the two Ohio Elections Commission cases and the Federal case in that it also involves efforts by Jean Schmidt to obtain redress for David Krikorian's lies about her or efforts by David Krikorian to continue to publish those lies with impunity.

MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW

IN RE: Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff
REVIEW No.: 11-6574
DATE: April 6, 2011
LOCATION: 425 3rd St., SW
Washington, DC 20024
TIME: 2:00 p.m. to 2:55 p.m. (approximately)
PARTICIPANTS: Kedric L. Payne
Paul J. Solis

SUMMARY: The OCE requested an interview with Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff, who is now her former Chief of Staff, on April 6, 2011, and he consented to an interview. Representative Jean Schmidt, who is a Member of the United States House of Representatives and represents the 2nd District of Ohio. Representative Schmidt's Chief of Staff made the following statements in response to our questioning:

1. The witness was given an 18 U.S.C. § 1001 warning and consented to an interview. He signed a written acknowledgement of the warning, which will be placed in the case file in this review.
2. The witness is currently a partner at BKM Consulting, which provides various services to political campaigns.
3. He has been employed there since approximately May 2010, which is when he left his employment with Representative Schmidt.
4. He became employed with Representative Schmidt shortly after she was elected in 2005. He served as her Chief of Staff from that time until he left in 2010. As Chief of Staff, the witness supervised all functions of the congressional office.
5. Prior to working for Representative Schmidt, the witness worked for at least three other House Members including Representative Kevin DeWine.
6. The witness told the OCE that he volunteered for Representative Schmidt's campaign committee, but the campaign never employed him.
7. The witness first met David Krikorian in Representative Schmidt's office in 2006 or 2007. The witness told the OCE that Mr. Krikorian came to the office claiming he was the President of the Ohio Armenian Association.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

8. Mr. Krikorian came to the office to ask Representative Schmidt to support the Armenian genocide resolution. During the meeting with Representative Schmidt, Mr. Krikorian became belligerent because Representative Schmidt would not commit to voting for the resolution.
9. The witness told the OCE that in 2008 Mr. Krikorian campaigned against Representative Schmidt and constantly attacked her in the Armenian media.
10. During the week before the election in November 2008, Mr. Krikorian put pamphlets on cars at Representative Schmidt's church. The pamphlets criticized Representative Schmidt and included allegations that she accepted "blood money" from the Turkish government. These types of statements occurred after the election as well.
11. As a result of Mr. Krikorian's pamphlets and other statements that he made about Representative Schmidt, the witness and Representative Schmidt began considering possible legal actions against Mr. Krikorian following the election in November 2008. The witness told the OCE that he and Representative Schmidt took no action until January 2009.
12. In January 2009, Mr. Krikorian continued to make public statements about Representative Schmidt.
13. The witness was familiar with the Ohio Election Commission ("OEC") and its ability to adjudicate false statements partly because Mr. Krikorian had filed complaints against Representative Schmidt with the OEC.
14. During the first quarter of 2009, Bruce Fein called the witness and said that he wanted to help Representative Schmidt pursue legal action against Mr. Krikorian and said he worked for the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund ("TALDF"). The witness knew Bruce Fein from his work with Representative DeWine. Mr. Fein then visited Representative Schmidt's office to meet.
15. The witness told the OCE that Mr. Fein suggested that the legal fee arrangement should be a contingency fee. Mr. Fein suggested that Representative Schmidt could sue Mr. Krikorian for millions of dollars based on his statements about her.
16. The witness was not certain whether the services could be provided under a contingency fee based on House ethics rules and federal election law. He contacted the Federal Election Commission ("FEC"), the House General Counsel's Office, and the House Committee on Ethics to get approval of the arrangement for legal services.

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

17. The witness explained to the OCE that Mr. Fein “never” talked about providing legal services at no charge and “definitely wanted to do a contingency fee.” Mr. Fein was the first person to suggest a contingency fee.
18. The witness knew Mr. Fein because Mr. Fein had previously worked for Representative Mike DeWine. The witness had worked for Representative DeWine’s campaign.
19. The witness also knew Lincoln McCurdy of the Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”). Mr. McCurdy had visited the witness in Representative Schmidt’s office to lobby him on the Armenian genocide resolution. He met Mr. McCurdy in 2007 or 2008.
20. The witness never discussed the possibility of filing a complaint against Mr. Krikorian with Mr. McCurdy.
21. Although he was waiting for ethics approval on the legal fees, he did not instruct Bruce Fein to delay filing the complaint with the OEC. The witness stated that at the time he did not know who would pay for the services, but Representative Schmidt wanted to go to court. The witness told the OCE that if the legal services were not approved by the Committee on Ethics he expected that Representative Schmidt would use personal funds to pay for the legal services.
22. The FEC told him that campaign funds could be used to pay for the legal services if the Committee on Ethics approved such use.
23. The witness contacted the Committee on Ethics and had numerous conversations with the staff about how to draft a letter requesting approval of the legal services.
24. The witness asked whether Representative Schmidt could pay for legal expenses with campaign money or have a contingency fee agreement. These conversations lasted several weeks to months.
25. The Committee on Ethics explained to him the possibility of establishing a legal expense fund. At that time, the witness’ personal understanding was that legal expense funds had never been used other than for defense issues. However, the Committee on Ethics’ counsel told him that she thought the fund could be used for Representative Schmidt’s situation as well.
26. The witness told the OCE that the Committee on Ethics counsels told him not to accept any bill for the legal services during this time.
27. The witness’ first formal request for Committee on Ethics approval of the legal fees is in a letter dated September 17, 2009 (Schmidt_0029). He drafted the letter to the

CONFIDENTIAL

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

Committee on Ethics on behalf of Representative Schmidt requesting approval of the legal fees.

28. When asked why there was a time lapse between the first meeting with Mr. Fein and the September 17, 2009 request, the witness stated that he was waiting for the Committee on Ethics to provide him with the final language for the request letter.
29. In response to the letter, the Committee on Ethics asked the witness for information about the amount of hours the attorneys had worked on the legal matters.
30. As a result, the witness wrote a letter to the Committee on Ethics, dated October 8, 2009 (Schmidt_0031), explaining that the attorneys had worked "just shy of 200 hours".
31. The witness also provided the Committee on Ethics with a letter from Bruce Fein to Representative Schmidt stating that the attorneys agreed to represent her on a contingency fee basis. The witness does not know when this letter about the contingency fee was written.
32. The witness told the OCE that he believes on January 21, 2010, he sent a letter or email to the Committee on Ethics to amend the request for approval of a contingency fee. He said that the Committee on Ethics advised him that the approval of the legal services could happen quicker if he removed the request for a contingency fee.
33. He explained that the TALDF attorneys provided legal services for the appeal of the OEC matter as part of the representation in filing the complaint with the OEC.
34. TALDF submitted an amicus brief on behalf of Representative Schmidt in federal court in Ohio without the witness knowing that the brief was going to be filed. He was not alerted to the filing until after it had been done.
35. Although the witness received the advisory opinion from the Committee on Ethics in February 2010, he was not involved in establishing a legal expense fund. He does not know why the request for approval of legal expense fund was not sent to the Committee on Ethics until July 2010. He explained that he was no longer employed with Representative Schmidt by July 2010.

This memorandum was prepared on April 7, 2011, based on the notes that the OCE staff prepared during the interview with the witness on April 6, 2011. I certify that this memorandum contains all pertinent matter discussed with the witness on April 6, 2011.

SUMMARY: Representative Jean Schmidt is a Member of the United States House of Representatives and represents the 2nd District of Ohio. The OCE requested an interview with Representative Schmidt on March 31, 2011, and she consented to an interview. Representative Schmidt (the “witness”) made the following statements in response to our questioning:

1. The witness was given an 18 U.S.C. § 1001 warning and consented to an interview. She signed a written acknowledgement of the warning, which will be placed in the case file in this review.
2. The witness told the OCE that she decided that she wanted to file a complaint with the Ohio Election Commission (“OEC”) against Mr. Krikorian in November 2008. This decision was the result of an extended period of time of Mr. Krikorian making public statements criticizing the witness. At that point the witness felt she had to do something about Mr. Krikorian’s statements.
3. She knew Bruce Fein from her years of serving in Congress. Mr. Fein was aware of Mr. Krikorian’s public statements about the witness. He offered the legal services of the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (“TALDF”) to assist the witness with the complaint against Mr. Krikorian. She could not recall how or when these discussions with Mr. Fein began.
4. The witness has known Lincoln McCurdy, president of the Turkish Coalition of America (“TCA”), for about four or five years from his work on Capitol Hill. The witness stated that she did not have a discussion with Mr. McCurdy about TALDF’s legal representation but does not know whether her previous Chief of Staff had such discussions.

5. The witness was familiar with the TCA through the Congressional Turkish Caucus, which she joined.
6. The witness told the OCE that TALDF did not offer to provide the legal services to her for free. She discussed with Mr. Fein the possibility of a contingency fee, but this option was not pursued. She is not sure why it was not pursued and she does not recall when these conversations occurred.
7. The witness stated that, between her and TALDF, she was the first to discuss paying for the legal services.
8. The parties also discussed the possibility of having the witnesses' campaign committee pay for the legal services or establish a legal expense fund.
9. When asked if she instructed the TALDF attorneys to delay filing the OEC complaint, the witness stated that she did not.
10. The witness stated that Mr. Fein selected the local counsel, Donald Brey. She told the OCE that she knew of Mr. Brey for many years from his work with the Ohio Republican Party. She told the OCE that she did not recommend him and was surprised to learn that he was local counsel.
11. The witness continues to work with the Committee on Ethics to establish a legal expense fund, but the issue has not been finalized because the Committee on Ethics is uncomfortable with the trustee that she initially selected.
12. She told the OCE that ethics advice concerning payment for the TALDF legal expenses was first requested during the summer of 2009. Her then Chief of Staff, Barry Bennett, informally asked for this advice. The advice was requested in order to determine whether everything was right and proper with accepting TALDF legal services.
13. Later in September 2009, a formal written request was submitted to the Committee on Ethics. When asked why she waited until September 2009 to make the formal request, the witness stated that it just felt like the right time to do it.
14. The witness received an advisory opinion from the Committee on Ethics in February 2010. When asked why there was a delay between her receipt of the advisory opinion and her July 2010 request for approval of a legal expense trust, the witness stated that she and Mr. Bennett were trying to select a trustee.
15. Concerning the later legal actions taken by TALDF on her behalf, the witness stated that TALDF continued to be her legal counsel because she did not want to change attorneys unless necessary. The witness stated that there was an understanding that she would pay for all of the legal services rendered.

16. Mr. Bennett was the primary point of contact between the witness' office and TALDF.

This memorandum was prepared on April 4, 2011, based on the notes that the OCE staff prepared during the interview with the witness on March 31, 2011. I certify that this memorandum contains all pertinent matter discussed with the witness on March 31, 2011.

TALDF REQUESTS CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION IN OHIO ARMENIAN AMERICAN VERBAL THUGGERY PROVOKES CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION REQUEST

Washington DC, November 3, 2008 - The Turkish American Legal Defense Fund today requested the Attorney General of Ohio, Nancy H. Rogers, to open a criminal investigation under Ohio law into signature Armenian verbal thuggery employed by Armenian American independent candidate David Krikorian against Representative Jean Schmidt. The Congresswoman represents the 2nd district of Ohio, and is running for re-election. The criminal lies under that Krikorian recently splattered against Ms. Schmidt are emblematic of the religiously and ethnically bigoted campaign tactics that Armenian Americans celebrate, directly or indirectly, against congressional candidates who refuse to salute their narrow, close-minded, fanatical anti-Turkish agenda. Ohio's Revised Code makes criminal intentional falsehoods calculated to impact elections. Other candidates for Congress who have been similarly victimized by Armenian American verbal thuggery in the 2008 election cycle include Steve Cohen (Tenn.), Virginia Foxx (N.C.), Charles Hahn (Calif.), Robert Wexler (Fla.), and Jill Morgenthaler (Ill.).

Krikorian's criminal lies about the Congresswoman and her campaign supporters are posted on the Internet at krikorianforcongress.com. The Armenian American's posting in substance falsely accuses Congresswoman Schmidt of bribery and Turkish Americans who have made campaign contributions for her of paying bribes, i.e., that she bargained for campaign contributions from Turkish Americans in exchange for a promise to take official actions in Congress in opposition to perennial "Armenian genocide" resolution in the House of Representatives: "Representative Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money to deny the genocide of Christian Armenians by Muslim Turks."

Contrary to the Krikorian's lies, there was no quid pro quo or any irregularity whatsoever in the campaign contributions for Congresswoman Schmidt. As is customary in political campaigns, contributors make financial contributions to candidates who support the policy positions of which they approve. In fact, Armenian Americans and their political action committees scrupulously confine their contributions to candidates who support or pledge to support "Armenian genocide" resolutions.

Congresswoman Schmidt's opposition to the Armenian genocide resolution is readily explained by historical facts. Her conclusions accord with renowned Middle East scholar Bernard Lewis of Princeton University, who has been consulted by the White House under President George W. Bush, and others of comparable academic prestige. The Congresswoman, based on her independent research does not believe the tragic events of World War I, in which both Armenians and Turks were killed in harrowing numbers, constituted genocide—an accusation that has never been proven in a court of law. She further maintains that the historical question is not appropriate for Congress to legislate.

The Turkish American Legal Defense Fund has written a letter to Attorney General Rogers urging a criminal investigation and prosecution of David Krikorian under Ohio campaign and false statement laws, Ohio Revised Code, section 3517.02 and section 2921.13(A)(2), respectively. To paraphrase attorney Joseph Welch's rebuke to Communist witch hunting Senator Joe McCarthy, have Armenian Americans no sense of decency, at long last? Have they left no sense of decency?

TALDF will oppose any assault from any quarter on the right of Turkish Americans to participate fully in the American political process, including voicing their opinions on issues impacting Turkish-American relations or otherwise.

OHIO ELECTIONS COMMISSION

v.

Mr. David Krikorian
[REDACTED]
Cincinnati, OH 45243-2206

COMPLAINT

I, Jean Schmidt, file this Complaint under Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.153 and aver the following under oath:

- 1) I have represented the Second Congressional District of Ohio in the United States Congress since January 2007.
- 2) I campaigned for re-election in 2008.
- 3) David Krikorian, running as an independent, was one of my opponents in the general election held on November 4, 2008.
- 4) Each of the false statements enumerated below were designed to promote his candidacy for Congress and to defeat my re-election bid.
- 5) I have never received a donation in order "to Deny the Genocide of Christian Armenians by Muslim Turks." I have never accepted anything of value in return for being influenced in the performance of an official act (including inaction), which would be a federal crime under 18 U.S.C. 201.
- 6) On his 2008 campaign website (<http://www.krikorianforcongress.com/genocide.php>) Mr. Krikorian asserted: "Representative Jean Schmidt Has Taken $30,000 in Blood Money to Deny the Genocide of Christian Armenians by Muslim Turks." Exhibit 1.
- 7) Mr. Krikorian's statement quoted in paragraph 6 above was intentionally falsely stated facts in at least two respects in violation of Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.21(A)(10).

- 8) I have never "denied" an Armenian genocide. My position as a Member of Congress has consistently been that the subject is not a fit question for Congress; and, that based on my knowledge of the historical record I cannot, at present, characterize the tragic events of 1915 in World War I as an Armenian "genocide," which has a very strict meaning. As a Member of Congress, I have never voted on an Armenian genocide resolution. I support the formation of an international independent commission of experts to resolve the matter definitively.
- 9) Mr. Krikorian's campaign website undermines his own false accusation. The website recounts a statement in my office on March 29, 2007, which does not deny genocide, but expresses agnosticism: "At this time [Jean Schmidt] does not have enough information to characterize these deaths as genocide especially when those responsible are long dead." The website also quotes from a statement made in my office on May 11, 2007, in which I do not deny genocide, but make a different point about the exacting standards of proof counseling hesitation before leaping to a conclusion: "The United Nations describes genocide as carrying out acts intended to 'destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial, or religious group.' In this instance, it was very difficult to know intent."
- 10) On November 2, 2008, Mr. Krikorian addressed a letter to, "My Supporters and the People of the Second Congressional District." It contains several knowingly false statements of fact in violation of Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.21(A)(10). Exhibit 2.
- 11) Paragraph 2 of the letter asserts: "I demand [Jean Schmidt's] immediate withdrawal from this race and her apology to the people of the United States of America for the crime she has committed against our American soldiers and humanity by denying the undisputed facts of the Armenian Genocide."
- 12) As elaborated in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Complaint, I have not "denied" the Armenian Genocide. (In addition, the "facts" are not "undisputed." Reputable American scholars who question the appropriateness of the genocide label for the tragic events of 1915-1916 include famed Middle East expert Bernard Lewis of Princeton University, the late Stanford Shaw of U.C.L.A., Justin McCarthy of the University of Louisville, Guenter Lewy of the University of Massachusetts, Norman Itzkowitz of Princeton University, Brian G. Williams of the University of Massachusetts, David Fromkin of Boston University, Avigdor Levy of Brandeis University, Michael M. Gunter of Tennessee Tech, Pierre Oberling of Hunter College, the late Roderic Davison of George Washington University, Michael Radu of Foreign Policy Research Institute, and military historian Edward J. Erickson. Outside of the United States yet more scholars have endorsed a contra-genocide analysis of the history of the Ottoman Armenians, among them Gilles Veinstein of the College de France, Stefano Trinchese of the University of Chieti, Augusto Sinagra of the University of Roma-Sapienza, Norman Stone of Bilkent University, and the historian Andrews Mango of the University of London).

- 13) Paragraph 3 of the November 2, 2008 letter repeats the false assertion that Jean Schmidt "den[is]es" the Armenian Genocide.
- 14) Paragraph 4 of the November 2, 2008 letter further repeats the false assertion that Jean Schmidt insanelly "den[is]es...the Christian Armenian Genocide at the hands of the Muslim Ottoman Empire." It also largely repeats the doubly-false statement in Krikorian's website for the reasons set forth in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Complaint: "Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women, and children by the Ottoman Turkish Government during World War I." In addition, the statement makes the false assertion that I received campaign contributions from "Turkish government sponsored" political action committees. No political action committee that donated to my campaign was "Turkish government sponsored." True copies of the affidavits of Lincoln McCurdy and Demir Karsan, Treasurer and President of Turkish Coalition USA PAC and Turkish American Heritage PAC, respectively, are attached as Exhibit 3.
- 15) Paragraph 7 of the November 2, 2008 letter again falsely accuses me of "den[y]ing" the "Armenian genocide" for the reasons set forth in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Complaint.
- 16) Paragraph 10 of the November 2, 2008 letter falsely asserts: "Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees and Turkish people in 2008 in exchange for helping them to cover-up the mass murder of 1.5 million Christians. This information is public record and can be found on the Federal Election Commission database at <http://www.FEC.gov>." Exhibit 4.
- 17) As set forth in paragraph 5 of this Complaint, I have never accepted a political contribution in return for being influenced in the performance of an official act (including inaction).
- 18) As set forth in paragraph 14, I did not receive any campaign contributions from political action committees "sponsored" by the Turkish government.
- 19) The website <http://www.FEC.gov> does not substantiate that political action committees that made contributions to me were sponsored by the Turkish government, nor does it identify campaign donors by ancestry. In other words, the website does not corroborate that "Turkish people" made donations to my 2008 congressional campaign.
- 20) It would be a crime under federal law for the Turkish government (or any foreign national) to fund a political action committee that made donations to a federal candidate seeking election to Congress, among other federal offices. 2 U.S.C. 437 g(d), 441e.
- 21) It would be a crime under federal law for "Turkish people" to make contributions to federal political campaigns for Congress, among other federal offices, if the donor were not an American citizen or permanent resident alien. 2 U.S.C. 437 g(d), 441e(b).

- 22) Paragraph 14 of the November 2, 2008 letter repeats the false accusation that Jean Schmidt has "deni[ed]" the Armenian genocide for the reasons set forth in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Complaint. Exhibit 2.
- 23) I debated Mr. Krikorian on three occasions during the 2008 campaign. In none of those debates did he assert that I had solicited or received $30,000 from Turkish Americans, Turkish people, or Turkish political action committees for being influenced in the performance of my official duties as a Member of Congress regarding Armenian genocide resolutions.
- 24) I have spoken to Mr. Krikorian face-to-face on 1 occasion in my congressional office. In that meeting he did not accuse me of receiving campaign contributions in return for being influenced in the performance of my official duties as a Member of Congress.
- 25) Neither Mr. Krikorian nor his agents ever inquired of me, my staff, or my campaign committee as to whether I had made any promises or commitments to being influenced in the performance of my official duties about the Armenian genocide resolution in return for campaign contributions from "Turkish people" or "Turkish government sponsored political action committees."
- 26) In Mr. Krikorian's email exchanges with Ben LaRocco of my staff, it was related to him that my knowledge of the facts and the currently available evidence had not convinced me of the Armenian genocide claim. Exhibit 5.

Wherefore, Jean Schmidt for Congress requests that the Commission conduct a hearing and issue a finding that David Krikorian violated Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.21(A)(10) during the 2008 general election campaign in the Second Congressional District of Ohio by knowingly making false statements of fact as set forth in this Complaint, to issue a public reprimand, and to grant such other relief that the Commission find just and equitable in the circumstances.

Further affiant sayeth not.

COMPLAINT

Jean Schmidt, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I have represented the Second Congressional District of Ohio in the United States Congress since January 2007.
2. I was a candidate for reelection in 2008.
3. Respondent, David Krikorian, was one of the candidates opposing me in the campaign for member of Congress from Ohio's Second Congressional District, which was decided at the November 4, 2008, general election.
4. On or about November 2, 2008, as part of his campaign, Respondent David Krikorian drafted and disseminated the letter attached hereto as Exhibit A.
5. Exhibit was designed to influence the result of the election by urging my defeat and by promoting the election of another candidate.
6. Exhibit A contains the following false statement:

"I ask the people of Ohio's second congressional district to ask themselves if our Representative should be taking money from a foreign government that is killing our soldiers?"

7. The above quoted statement is not the only falsehood contained in the attached Exhibit A. Other false statements in the attached Exhibit A, are the subject of pending Ohio Elections Commission Case No. 2009E-003.

8. The above quoted sentence falsely accuses me, Jean Schmidt, of "taking money from a foreign government that is killing our soldiers". The context is clear.

9. The above quoted statement is false.

10. David Krikorian either knows that the above quoted statement is false or has made this false statement with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

11. Moreover, the sentence immediately following the above quoted statement states that "The linked flyer is being widely distributed across the second district in the last days of this campaign season to expose Jean Schmidt as a betrayer of American history and her Christian faith." The linked flyer to which Exhibit A refers is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Thus, the recipients of Exhibit A will understand that Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from a foreign government that is killing our soldiers.

10. Neither I nor my Campaign Committee have ever "tak[en] money from a foreign government", let alone from "a foreign government that is killing our soldiers".

11. It is a violation of R.C. 3517.21(B)(10) to:

"Post, publish, circulate, distribute, or otherwise disseminate a false statement concerning a candidate, either knowing the same to be false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not, if the statement is designed to promote the election, nomination, or defeat of the candidate."

12. David Krikorian has violated R.C. 3517.21(B)(10)

WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that Respondent be found in violation of R.C. 3517.21(B)(10), and that he be appropriately sanctioned.

Further Affiant sayeth nought.

WASHINGTON, DC 20036

Please be advised that on, 10/1/2009 after careful consideration of the evidence, the Ohio Elections Commission adopted the following finding(s) in the above referenced matter:

THE COMMISSION ALLOWED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS TO BE WITHDRAWN BY THE COMPLAINANT:

- 1.) "Representative Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money to deny the Genocide of Christian Armenians by Muslim Turks.
- 2.) I demand her [Jean Schmidt] immediate withdrawal from this race and her apology to the people of the United States of America for the crime she has committed against our American soldiers and humanity by denying the undisputed facts of the Armenian Genocide.
- 3.) ... Jean Schmidt's denial of the Armenian Genocide ...
- 4.) ... Jean Schmidt's insane denial of the Christian Armenian Genocide at the hands of the Muslim Ottoman Empire.
- 6.) The facts of the Armenian Genocide are universally accepted by nations around the world, prominent scholars and statesmen and 40 U.S. states including Ohio. The only deniers of this great tragedy which led to the Holocaust of the Jews by Nazi Germany are the Turkish Government and certain member of the United States Congress including Jean Schmidt.

THE COMMISSION FOUND NO VIOLATION OF R.C. §3517.21(B)(10) AS TO THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT AS IT RELATES TO THE REFERENCE IN THIS STATEMENT TO THE ASSERTION THAT "Turkish people gave $30,000 to Jean Schmidt and or to Schmidt for Congress campaign committee":

- 8.) This information is public record and can be found on the Federal Elections Commission database at <http://www.FEC.gov>. (as this statement references facts that support the statements that Turkish people donated $30,000.)

AN ADMINISTRATIVE DISMISSAL WAS DECLARED AS TO THE STATEMENT:

7.) "Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees and Turkish people in 2008 in exchange for helping them to cover-up the mass murder of 1.5 million Christians."

THE COMMISSION FOUND A VIOLATION OF R.C. §3517.21(B)(10) BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE AS TO THE STATEMENT:

5.) "Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Turkish Government during World War I."

THE COMMISSION FOUND A VIOLATION OF R.C. §3517.21(B)(10) BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE AS TO THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT AS IT RELATES TO THE REFERENCE IN THIS STATEMENT TO THE ASSERTION THAT "Turkish government sponsored political action committees gave $30,000 to Jean Schmidt and or to Schmidt for Congress campaign committee":

JUDGE HADDAD

Case No. 2010 CUC 1217

2010 JUN - 9 PM 1:31
BARBARA A. WERTSCH
CLERK OF COURT
CLERMONT COUNTY, OH

FILED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Jean Schmidt hereby files her complaint against Defendants David Krikorian and the Krikorian for Congress campaign committee and alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. The Complaint alleges causes of action for defamation and seeks compensatory and punitive damages. Defendants' defamatory statements accused Plaintiff, in various respects, of complicity in campaign finance crimes, bribery, perjury, or obstruction of justice. They were published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not. Defendants are serial defamers in the political domain, which justifies a stiff deterrent in punitive damages to prevent chronic contamination of the electoral process.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. The court enjoys subject matter jurisdiction over these tort actions under R.C. Chapter 2305.01. Venue is proper in Clermont County under Civil Rule 3(B)(3) and (6) because it is where Defendants conducted activity which gave rise to Plaintiff's claims for relief or where all or part of the claims for relief arose.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, Jean Schmidt, was a political trailblazer as the first woman to represent southern Ohio in the U.S. House of Representatives. She holds a B.A. in Political Science from the University of Cincinnati. Plaintiff Schmidt has dedicated over 35 years to laboring for the Clermont county Republican Party. Before entering national politics, Plaintiff served for eleven years as a township trustee and for five years in the Ohio House of Representatives. She has been a Member of Congress representing the second district of Ohio in the House of Representatives since she triumphed in a special election in 2005. Plaintiff Schmidt defeated Defendant Krikorian, then an independent, in the 2008 congressional election. She is a candidate again in 2010, seeking a fourth term in Congress. She is a member of the Republican Party.

4. Defendant, David Krikorian, is either the current or former managing member of Parody Productions, LLC, a Cincinnati based producer and distributor of novelty playing cards. In 2009, the Ohio Elections Commission voted to publicly reprimand Defendant Krikorian for malicious falsehoods he published about the Plaintiff on the eve of the 2008 election. He is a senior member and former Chairman of the Armenian National Committee of Ohio, a local branch of the Armenian National Committee of America (ANCA). It is the United States arm of the Armenian Revolutionary Federation, a foreign political party based in the Republic of Armenia and which also holds seats in the national assembly of Lebanon. Krikorian currently resides at 8132 Camargowoods Ct., Cincinnati, Ohio 45243.

5. During the Ohio Elections Commission hearings in 2009, Defendant David Krikorian acknowledged that he is responsible for the actions of the campaign committee entitled "Krikorian for Congress," a Co-Defendant in this case. During Defendant's 2010 campaign, "Krikorian for Congress" was headquartered at 215 Main Street, Milford, OH, 45150. Its treasurer is Nathan Bailey. Hereinafter, Defendant David Krikorian and Krikorian for Congress shall be referred to together as "the Defendant."

BACKGROUND

6. Most Americans of Armenian ancestry take pride in their heritage without disparaging those of other national or ethnic backgrounds. However, certain hate groups have usurped the terms "Armenian" and "Armenian American" in a way that is unrepresentative of the character of most Americans of Armenian ancestry. These self-styled Armenian American leaders and organizations have a long history of accusing any person who declines to endorse the thesis that the Ottoman Armenian tragedy during World War I constitutes the crime of genocide of being a paid dupe of the Government of Turkey or complicit in the alleged genocide itself.

7. Most Armenian Americans do not intimidate, harass, threaten, or resort to violence against persons, organizations, or countries that dispute the Armenian genocide thesis. Nothing in this Complaint is intended to malign or cast aspersion on Armenian Americans as a group or to attribute to them the conduct and character of the hate groups and terrorist organizations that have chosen to label themselves "Armenian" or "Armenian American".

8. Two prominent Armenian terrorist organizations, the Armenian Secret Army for the Liberation of Armenia ("ASALA") and the Justice Commandos of the Armenian Genocide

("JCAG"), the former still extant in Lebanon, were labeled by the FBI as the most dangerous terrorist organizations in the United States in the 1970s and 1980s. They have committed scores of terrorist acts on U.S. soil against Turkish officials, persons of Turkish descent, and persons whom they believed disputed their one-dimensional understanding of Turkish Armenian history. ASALA and JCAG are responsible for 16 killings in North America, including five Turkish diplomats, one law enforcement officer, and ten civilians. Even U.C.L.A. Professor Stanford Shaw's home was firebombed in retaliation for his academic research on the issue.

9. Other, less violent, hate groups and hate group adherents have used different types of intimidation tactics to achieve their goals, including character assassination.

10. The first time Defendant Krikorian met Plaintiff Schmidt was in Plaintiff's congressional offices, prior to the 2008 election cycle. Defendant Krikorian demanded that Plaintiff Schmidt become a co-sponsor of a resolution condemning the government of Turkey and branding as "genocide" the war crimes committed in the Ottoman Empire a century ago. When Plaintiff Schmidt declined to immediately become a sponsor of such a resolution and said she that she would need to study the issue first, Defendant Krikorian began screaming at her, calling her names, and threatening to ruin her politically. The interview ended soon thereafter.

11. During the 2008 election cycle, Defendant Krikorian ran against Schmidt and Democratic nominee Victoria Wulsin, as an Independent and as a self-styled Reagan conservative. He placed third in the contest.

12. On the eve of the 2008 general election, Defendants publicly disseminated materials accusing Plaintiff Schmidt of being a paid dupe, which she is not. These campaign materials falsely accused Plaintiff Schmidt of taking money from the Turkish Government and from Turkish Government political actions committees to deny the Armenian holocaust, and falsely stated that this information was a matter of public record on the Federal Elections Commission's website.

13. Plaintiff Schmidt bravely held her ground and refused to be intimidated into co-sponsoring the anti-Turkey resolution despite Mr. Krikorian's threats and despite her knowledge of the history of terrorism by certain self-styled Armenian groups in the United States.

14. In October 2009, the Ohio Elections Commission found that Defendant Krikorian had lied about Plaintiff Schmidt and voted to issue three public reprimands to Defendant Krikorian for the malicious falsehoods that he published about Plaintiff Jean Schmidt on the eve of the 2008 election.

15. After the 2008 election, Defendant Krikorian became a member of the Democratic Party and entered the 2010 race for the seat held by Representative Schmidt. During his 2010 primary campaign, Defendant Krikorian was censured by state and local leaders of his own party for making disparaging comments about the Asian-Indian name of his opponent, Mr. Yalamanchili. On May 4, 2010, Defendant Krikorian was defeated in the 2010 Democratic Primary by Surya Yalamanchili.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. In 2009, Plaintiff filed two complaints against Defendant David Krikorian before the Ohio Elections Commission for several counts of malicious false statements about Plaintiff intended to influence the outcome of the 2008 election for the second congressional district of Ohio under Ohio Revised Code 3517.21(B)(10). On the eve of balloting in November 2008, Defendant distributed a flyer and an attached letter to voters in his district containing the following statements with factual connotations: (a) Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of

1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Turkish Government during World War I (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 591-606); (b) This information (Turkish government sponsored political action committees gave $30,000 to Jean Schmidt or the Schmidt for Congress campaign committee) is public record and can be found on the FEC database at <http://www.FEC.gov> (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 615-628); and, (c) I ask the people of Ohio's second district to ask themselves if our Representative should be taking money from a foreign government [Turkey] that is killing our soldiers (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-012, 627-630).

17. On October 1, 2009, The Ohio Elections Commission ruled that the three allegations referred to above were false according to clear and convincing evidence; and, that Defendant Krikorian either knew they were false or acted with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not when he published them. (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 2009E-012, 606, 627, 630). The Ohio Elections Commission determined that Defendant Krikorian had knowingly lied about Plaintiff Schmidt in his effort to defeat her in the election, in violation of Ohio's election laws. The Ohio Elections Commission voted to issue letters of reprimand to Defendant Krikorian for making these false statements of fact as reflected in Exhibits 1 and 2 attached hereto.

18. Defendant Krikorian appealed the Ohio Election Commission's decision. The appeals were dismissed, making the OEC's rulings final judgments, which trigger the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel.

19. The respective chairmen of the Democratic Party chapters in Hamilton and Clermont counties recently publicly condemned Defendant Krikorian's patent racial or ethnic bigotry. According to published reports, Krikorian pejoratively commented about Surya

Yalamanchili, his then opponent in the 2010 Democratic Primary campaign, before a veterans group in Clermont County. He uttered words to the effect that anyone with a name like that was unelectable. The two chairmen reacted with a letter characterizing the remark as "at best insensitive and at worst ... racist." They proclaimed their agreement with the views of Republican Party Plaintiff Schmidt: "[W]e have heard from several sources that you have made fun of Surya Yalamanchili's name. Now, for once, we find ourselves in agreement with the comments of Jean Schmidt in the comments she makes in the attached letter. Like you, Surya has put great energy into his campaign, and like you, he has won many friends along the way. It is deeply disturbing to us that you would use his name, which is obviously derived from his ethnic heritage, against him in a denigrating manner, especially given how strongly you value and celebrate your own heritage."

20. Plaintiff Schmidt earlier expressed her views on Defendant's sneering at Mr. Yalamanchili's name and ancestry in a separate letter to Defendant. She wrote: "The purpose of this letter is to give you fair warning that I will not stand by and allow you to use racism to smear your opponent's name as was reported to me by those attending a recent speech you gave. I was recently presented a report on a presentation you made to a veteran's group in Clermont County. Your remarks there were offensive to all who find even the hint of racism appalling. During your presentation you referred to your opponent repeatedly by dramatically and phonetically pronouncing his name. Poking fun at his heritage was appalling enough but your next comment was way over the line. You stated, according to those veterans present, 'Now do you really thing a guy with a name like that has a chance at ever being elected?' Mr. Krikorian, I do not think that the residents of Ohio's Second Congressional District are racists. I am shocked by your behavior. Further, I will not allow your prejudice to go unanswered. You owe Mr. Yalamanchili and the Indian-American community an apology. Though I doubt that one is forthcoming given your history. Please conduct yourself in a manner fitting the office you seek. Racism has no place in the debate, period. Please be assured that I will continue to speak up about such conduct should it continue. I know you are new to the Democratic Party but I would venture to guess that such behavior will be particularly offensive.”

21. When MSNBC’s liberal commentator Keith Olbermann named Defendant Krikorian “the worst person in the world” for this behavior on April 30, 2010, Defendant resorted to his soundtrack that his detractors are invariably financially compromised. Yalamanchili had been employed as a brand manager at Procter & Gamble, Inc. Krikorian had seen an ad paid for by Procter & Gamble, Inc. during Mr. Olbermann’s Countdown show. Defendant instantly charged: “Keith Olbermann is a buffoon for not checking his sources, for not even bothering to check. But here’s one thing I will state for the record: Last night’s program was sponsored by Procter & Gamble’s Oil of Olay brand, which is the exact brand that Surya Yalamanchili worked for. So how did they cover that story last night? Because I’m sure that Keith Olbermann is not reading the Cincinnati press. So our folks think that the Oil of Olay brand people – Procter and Gamble in particular – were advancing their former employee. And that’s how it got in there. [...] I think [Olbermann] was reading from his script. So somehow that got put in there. And how did it get put in there? Well, look at the relationship between the story and the show’s sponsor. I think it’s pretty clear how it got in there.”¹

22. Mr. Olbermann responded: “To flesh this out a bit: a) no advertiser “sponsors” the show. We have commercials, but b) I don’t even see the ads on the show in the studio. We could be sponsored by Crosley Radio and I wouldn’t know. And c) we checked – which evidently Mr. Krikorian didn't know -- and we ran no Oil of Olay ads on Friday; none from Procter & Gamble. A caveat: local cable operators do get a few minutes an hour to sell. It's possible somewhere on Friday an Oil of Olay spot ran during Countdown in a given city. But those spots usually go to smaller advertisers, and even if they don't, we aren't told about them, would never know who they were, and get no money from them." He later added: "OK, now I'm told by an online viewer that P&G ads popped up before the show content on-line."²

23. Defendant Krikorian has publicly declared his passion to promote United States and international acceptance of the thesis that "genocide of Christian Armenians by Muslim Turks" occurred in 1915. Defendant perceives any dissenter from his view as a morally bankrupt enemy. Each of the malicious defamatory false statements published by Defendant about Plaintiff and chronicled below were born of these twin motivations.

24. The criminal and defamatory accusations that Defendant Krikorian has serially leveled against Plaintiff Schmidt are part of a larger endeavor to resort to violence, accusations of crime, or intimidation against persons who challenge any part of their thesis. The endeavor is led in large measure by the Armenian National Committee of America ("ANCA"). Defendant Krikorian has recently served as the chairman of the ANCA's Ohio branch, where he remains a senior member.

25. ANCA's apologia for Armenian terrorism under the banner of the Genocide thesis finds its high water mark in former ANCA Chairman Mourad Topalian. In 1999, the United States indicted Topalian, then an Ohio resident, for terrorist-linked hate crimes. He allegedly possessed machine guns and stored more than 100 pounds of high explosives near a gasoline station adjacent to a day care center in Bedford, Ohio. His indictment connected him to four terrorist attacks in the United States: the bombing of the Turkish Mission at the United Nations Plaza on October 12, 1980; the bombing at the Turkish Consulate in Beverly Hills on November 20, 1981; and, both the attempted bombing of the offices of the Honorary Turkish Consul General in Philadelphia and his assassination on October 22, 1982.³ The indictment also charged Topalian with training Armenian youths at a summer camp in the use of submachine guns and exploding booby traps, stealing munitions, and dispatching individuals to Beirut for training with international terrorists.

26. After Topalian pled guilty to several of the above charges, including those related to the storage of weapons and unstable explosives in Bedford, ANCA-Western Region lauded him with a "Freedom Award" for his dedication to advancing the Armenian Cause.⁴ At the September 24, 2000 banquet in his honor, the master of ceremonies declared, "For more than three decades, Mourad Topalian has been one of the most active, visible, and consistent public advocates for the Armenian Cause. Against powerful opposition and at great personal sacrifice, he has advanced the cause of liberty and justice for the Armenian nation and championed the increased involvement of Armenian Americans in the American political process." Some ten weeks later, the late U.S. District Judge Ann Aldrich, N.D. Ohio, sentenced him to 37 months imprisonment.

27. Defendant Krikorian has tacitly defended or excused Mourad Topalian by his failure to speak out against him, just as silence by Muslim leaders in the United States after the attacks of 9/11 would indicate acquiescence or endorsement of the terrorist abomination. Defendant Krikorian has never voiced disapproval of Mourad Topalian or of terrorism undertaken to bring publicity or avenge the alleged historical grievance of the Armenian people.

28. Defendant Krikorian served as chairman of ANCA's Ohio branch until his entry into politics and remains a senior ANCA member. ANCA published an effusive statement of political support for Defendant on May 6, 2010. Among other things, ANCA's press release stated:

Armenian American Congressional Candidate David Krikorian – a staunch advocate of first amendment speech and an outspoken opponent of genocide denial – garnered 38% of the Democratic primary vote in Ohio's second district – succumbing to baseless attacks by Republican incumbent Rep. Jean Schmidt and Democratic opponents, levied just days prior to the primary vote, reported the Armenian National Committee of America (ANCA.)

"David's commitment to running a positive, grassroots campaign reflecting the views and values of Ohio's 2nd Congressional district were met with incumbent Armenian Genocide denier -- Rep. Jean Schmidt's false accusations and political scheming -- designed to knock out her toughest Democratic opponent from the November general elections," said ANCA Eastern Region Chairman, Steve Mesrobian. "Local Democratic Party leaders followed Schmidt's disinformation campaign in lockstep and in the process did a grave disservice to Ohio 2nd district voters."

Rep. Schmidt, a perennial darling of the Turkish lobby for her opposition to Congressional legislation affirming the Armenian Genocide, has consistently targeted Krikorian -- most notably bringing charges before the Ohio Election Commission in 2009 to cover up references to Turkish American campaign contributions ostensibly submitted in return for her denial of the Armenian Genocide. . . .⁵

29. Plaintiff Schmidt's prior complaints and the three public reprimands issued to Defendant Krikorian by the Ohio Elections Commission in the resolution of cases OEC 2009E-

003 and OEC 2009E-012 were insufficient to deter his implacable campaign of defamation against Plaintiff.

30. On July 2, 2009, Asbarez.com, the online version of the Asbarez newspaper, the self-described official publication of the Armenian Revolutionary Federation of the Western United Central Committee, published an interview with Defendant Krikorian in an article entitled, "Geragos to Represent David Krikorian Against Genocide Denier."⁶ The interviewer asked Defendant Krikorian about his accusations against Plaintiff Schmidt during the 2008 congressional campaign. Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact, among other things, that "She's [Jean Schmidt] threatened by my campaign and is using the OEC (Ohio Elections Commission) to hide her positions and hide who's funding her campaigns." Defendant Krikorian also asserted as fact "Just like she [Jean Schmidt] voted to bailout Wall Street while accepting thousands of dollars from the banking industry, she continues to deny genocide while accepting money from Turkish interest PACs."

31. The statements referenced in paragraph 30 assert or imply the following acts of moral turpitude or crimes that can be proven true or false: (a) that Plaintiff has hidden and continues to hide the sources of her campaign funding in violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441e, 441f, 437g(d); (b) that Plaintiff has knowingly accepted money from a political action committee funded by Turkish nationals in violation of federal campaign finance laws, 2 U.S.C. 441e, 441f, 437g(d); and, (c) that Plaintiff has accepted bribes in the form of campaign contributions from Wall Street and Turkish interest PACs in exchange for official acts in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2).

32. The statements referenced in paragraph 30, individually and taken in the context of the entire interview published by Asbarez.com on July 2, 2009, are defamatory because they falsely impute to the Plaintiff corruption, deceit and the commission of criminal offenses in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. They were factual assertions published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff, and with knowledge of their falsity or with a reckless disregard of whether they were false or not.

33. During the interview published on July 2, 2009, by Asbarez.com, Defendant Krikorian further declared: "I stand by everything my campaign did during the 2008 election."

34. By making the statement referenced in paragraph 33, Defendant Krikorian republished the factual assertions already deemed false and made with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not by the Ohio Elections Commission in 2009 under Ohio Revised Code 3517.21(B)(10). The OEC concluded that the following three assertions were published by Defendant with knowledge of their falsity or with a reckless disregard for whether they were false or not by clear and convincing evidence: (a) Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Turkish Government during World War I (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 591-606); (b) This information (Turkish government sponsored political action committees gave $30,000 to Jean Schmidt and/or to the Schmidt for Congress campaign committee) is public record and can be found on the FEC database at <http://www.FEC.gov> (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 615-628); and, (c) I ask the people of Ohio's second congressional district to ask themselves if our Representative should be taking money from a foreign government that is killing our soldiers (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-012, 627-630). Krikorian's appeals of the OEC's verdicts have been dismissed, and the verdicts are now final and definitive adjudications to be given collateral estoppel effect in this litigation regarding the falsity of the statements and their publication with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not. See Exhibits 1 and 2 attached hereto.

35. The statement referenced in paragraph 33 is defamatory because it accuses Plaintiff Schmidt of violations of 2 U.S.C. 434, 441e, 441f, 437g(d), 5 U.S.C. 7342(h), and the Emoluments Clause of the United States Constitution, Article I, section 9, clause 8.

36. The allegations made by Defendant in 2008 were intended exclusively for voters in the second district of Ohio. The readership of Asbarez.com, however, is not confined to residents of a specific geographical location. By reiterating his three intentional lies about Plaintiff to the readers of Asbarez.com, Defendant effectively republished them before the entirety of the English-speaking world. The statement referenced in paragraph 33 independently damaged Plaintiff's reputation, and was understood by its readers to incorporate, among other things, the three intentional defamatory lies Krikorian had made about Schmidt adjudicated by the OEC in 2009.

37. During an August 27, 2009 interview published by The Armenian Reporter online newspaper in an article entitled "In congressional run, David Krikorian is banking on the people: Says he's 'underwhelmed' with Armenian-American support so far,"⁷ Defendant Krikorian spoke out again against Plaintiff Schmidt, making two more defamatory allegations that can be proven true or false with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not and with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff.

⁷ Available at <http://www.reporter.am/index.cfm?furl=/go/article/2009-09-15-in-congressional-run-david-krikorian-is-banking-on-the-people&pg=1>.

38. Defendant Krikorian said: "What I can't call [the funds Rep. Schmidt received from Turkish interests], some $29,500, "blood money"? Of course it is "blood money"! You have got a representative who is taking money from a foreign lobby. Schmidt said in her deposition that she had no idea why she was the largest recipient of money from the Turkish lobby. Just think how stupid that sounds." Defendant Krikorian also asserted as fact that: "...the Turkish government is behind those contributions and it is my right to feel that way and it is my right to say so."

39. The statements referenced in paragraph 38 are defamatory because they accuse Plaintiff Schmidt of the following acts of moral turpitude or crime: (a) that Plaintiff accepted campaign funding from the Turkish government in criminal violation of 2 U.S.C. 441e, 437g(d); (b) that Plaintiff has hidden and continues to conceal the source of campaign contributions in criminal violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441f, 437g(d); (c) that Plaintiff is guilty of accepting money in exchange for an official act in criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2), and (d) that Plaintiff is guilty of perjury under Ohio Revised Code section 2921.11.

40. The statements referenced in paragraph 38 impute to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption, fraud, and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. They are factual assertions, published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not.

41. In his interview with The Armenian Reporter published on August 27, 2009, Defendant Krikorian also asserted as fact that: "... Schmidt is bought and paid for by the Turkish lobby and people don't like it when their representatives sell out like that."

42. In the statement referenced in paragraph 41, Defendant Krikorian accuses Plaintiff Schmidt of accepting money in exchange for official acts in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2).

43. The statement referenced in paragraph 41 is defamatory because it imputes to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. It is a factual assertion, published with ill-will and spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not.

44. An interview with Defendant Krikorian published by The Armenian Mirror-Spectator on August 28, 2009⁴, contains two more defamatory statements. Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact, among other things, with regard to Schmidt's deposition under oath in the pending case of Schmidt v. Krikorian before the OEC, that "she (Plaintiff Schmidt) suggested that she had no idea that she was the leading recipient of Turkish lobby money in '08... She said that she never spoke of the Armenian Genocide resolution at any of the Turkish lobby fundraisers held on her behalf, which from my perspective is laughable... She's a liar, she's not credible. I think it's obvious that two weeks after receiving $11,000 of Turkish lobby money she joins the Turkish caucus --- and claims there's no quid pro quo. She's an embarrassment to the district and to the country."

45. The statements referenced in paragraph 44 contain the assertion that can be proven true or false that Plaintiff Schmidt accepted bribes and illegal campaign contributions from the Turkish government in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2) and 2 U.S.C. 441e, 437g(d).

and, that she committed perjury and obstruction of justice in her deposition in Schmidt v. Krikorian in violation of Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32.

46. The statements referenced in paragraph 44 assert or imply the following acts of moral turpitude or crimes: (a) that Plaintiff has intentionally concealed the source of campaign contributions in criminal violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441f, 437g(d); (b) that Plaintiff has accepted bribes, a criminal offense under 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2); (c) that Schmidt perjured herself and obstructed justice in her deposition in Schmidt v. Krikorian in violation of Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32; and, (d) that due to Plaintiff's alleged criminality, Plaintiff is a shameful human being unfit for public office.

47. The statements referenced in paragraph 44 are defamatory because they impute to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption, fraud, and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. They are factual assertions, published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or a reckless disregard for whether they were false or not.

48. In his interview with The Armenian Mirror-Spectator published on August 28, 2009, Defendant Krikorian also asserted as fact: "She was basically programmed by the Turkish lobby for that sworn deposition and it's a shame to see a sitting congressional representative act in the way she acted yesterday."

49. The statement referenced in paragraph 48 accuses Plaintiff Schmidt of perjury and obstruction of justice as a puppet of the Turkish lobby in violation of Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32.

50. The statement referenced in paragraph 48 is defamatory because it imputes to Plaintiff acts of deceit, corruption, and criminality. It is a factual assertion made by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or a reckless disregard for whether it was true or false.

51. In a televised interview with Armenian-American activist Peter Mursulian (a partisan journalist for Horizon Armenian Television and Director of the ANCA-Western Region Board of Directors) in September of 2009⁹, Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact, among other things, the following: "I stand by the statements that I made, that my opponent in the last election, the current representative of Ohio's second congressional district, is a paid puppet of the Turkish government involved in their denial campaign to suppress the truth about the Armenian genocide."

52. The statement of fact that can be proven true or false referenced in paragraph 51 is that Plaintiff receives money from the Government of Turkey in exchange for official acts regarding the perennial Armenian genocide resolutions introduced in the U.S. Congress. The statement is defamatory because it accuses Plaintiff of bribery in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2) and of illegal receipt of money from a foreign government in violation of the Emoluments Clause of the Constitution and 5 U.S.C. 7342(b).

53. The statement referenced in paragraph 51 was published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not.

54. The harm that the online publication of such a pernicious accusation can inflict upon the reputation of Plaintiff is both obvious and difficult to overcome. At present, over 11,000 viewers have accessed this video on Youtube.com alone. The video is nearly impossible to remove from circulation.

⁹ Available at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=En7HhLV4oIA&feature=related>.

55. Neither Defendant Krikorian nor any member of Krikorian for Congress had ever inquired of Plaintiff Schmidt, her staff, or her campaign committee as to the truth of Krikorian's accusations of criminality or otherwise. See paragraph 25 of the attached Exhibit 3.

56. Plaintiff Schmidt has never "denied" that the Ottoman Armenian tragedy during World War I might constitute the crime of genocide. Her position as a Member of Congress has consistently been that the subject is not a fit question for Congress; and, that based on her knowledge of the historical record she cannot, at present, characterize the tragic events of 1915 in World War I as an Armenian "genocide," which has a very strict legal meaning under the Genocide Convention of 1948 and the U.S. criminal code, 18 U.S.C. 1091. As a member of Congress, she has never voted on a resolution calling these historical events genocide. She supports the formation of an international independent commission of experts to resolve the matter definitively. See Exhibit 3, paragraph 8; Exhibit 4, page 1.

57. Plaintiff Schmidt has never accepted anything of value in return for the performance of an official act (or the choice not take an official action), which would be a federal crime under 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2). See Exhibit 4, paragraphs 5 & 14; Exhibit 4, pages 1-3.

58. It would be a crime under federal law for the Turkish government (or any foreign national) to fund a political action committee that made donations to a federal candidate seeking election to Congress, among other federal offices. 2 U.S.C. 437 g(d), 441e.

59. It would be a crime under federal law for Turkish people to make contributions to federal political campaigns for Congress, among other federal offices, if the donor were not an American citizen or permanent resident alien. 2 U.S.C. 437 g(d), 441c(b).

60. The defamatory statements enumerated herein are individually and collectively ruinous to Plaintiff professionally, locally, nationally, and abroad. They have each proximately caused Plaintiff general and special damages in the form of permanent and irreparable injury to her reputation.

61. As a direct and proximate result of the defamatory remarks published by Defendant Krikorian, many Ohio citizens were led to believe that Plaintiff Schmidt was guilty of criminally accepting campaign contributions from a foreign government, that she was guilty of bribery, perjury and obstruction of justice, and that her loyalty was to the Republic of Turkey in lieu of the United States. Plaintiff Schmidt's public image has been irreparably damaged.

62. As a direct and proximate result of the defamatory remarks published by Defendant referenced in this complaint, Plaintiff Schmidt is now disliked by many who feel as strongly about the genocide interpretation of Ottoman Armenian history as does Defendant Krikorian, as well as by those who now believe that she took money from instrumentalities of the Turkish government as a quid pro quo. Defendant's defamatory statements have proximately caused Plaintiff stress, emotional distress, and mental pain and suffering.

63. The statements referenced herein stigmatize the Plaintiff as being guilty of crimes of moral turpitude and disloyalty to the United States. They have diminished and will continue to diminish her opportunities to speak, to write, to publish, to be interviewed, and to influence public opinion and views on United States-Turkey relations and the history of Ottoman Armenians.

64. Defendants made the statements referenced herein with actual malice and wrongful and willful intent to harm the Plaintiff. The statements were made with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity or with knowledge of their falsity and with wanton and reckless disregard of the reputation and rights of the Plaintiff. Defendants lacked reasonable ground for making the statements enumerated herein. Indeed, Defendants knew their statements were lies when they made them.

65. Plaintiff Schmidt is entitled to punitive damages in order to deter the use of intentionally false criminal accusations against candidates to mislead the electorate and to inhibit or confound full and fair debate about Ottoman Armenian history both in and out of Congress. The United States Supreme Court elaborated on the evils of intentional lies to the democratic process in Garrison v. Louisiana, 379 U.S. 64, 75 (1964):

Although honest utterance, even if inaccurate, may further the fruitful exercise of the right of free speech, it does not follow that the lie, knowingly and deliberately published about a public official, should enjoy a like immunity. At the time the First Amendment was adopted, as today, there were those unscrupulous enough and skillful enough to use the deliberate or reckless falsehood as an effective political tool to unseat the public servant or even topple an administration. Cf. Riesman, Democracy and Defamation: Fair Game and Fair Comment 1, 42 Col. L. Rev. 1085, 1088-1111 (1942). That speech is used as a tool for political ends does not automatically bring it under the protective mantle of the Constitution. For the use of the known lie as a tool is at once at odds with the premises of democratic government and with the orderly manner in which economic, social, or political change is to be effected. Calculated falsehood falls into that class of utterances which "are no essential part of any exposition of ideas, and are of such slight social value as a step to truth that any benefit that may be derived from them is clearly outweighed by the social interest in order and morality. . . ." Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire, 315 U.S. 568, 572.

66. Krikorian's impenitence after receiving three reprimands from the OEC for intentional lies about Plaintiff is transparent. He has unsuccessfully brought suit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio seeking a legal sanctuary to continue to defame Plaintiff with intentional lies. David Krikorian v. Ohio Elections Commission et al., Case No. 1:10-cv-00103, (attempting to argue that the First Amendment provides a blanket immunity for all speech during a political campaign). Punitive damages are imperative to deter

Defendant from continuing to harass, intimidate, and vex Plaintiff with knowing falsehoods to the detriment of Plaintiff, the democratic process and the voters of Ohio.

COUNT I – DEFAMATION PER SE

67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

68. During the interview published on July 2, 2009, Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact: “She’s (Jean Schmidt is) threatened by my campaign and is using the OEC to hide her positions and hide who’s funding her campaigns.”

69. It can be proven true or false whether Plaintiff has hidden the sources of her campaign contributions. Defendant’s statement accuses Plaintiff of criminality in violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441f, 437g(d). The statement was published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with a reckless disregard for whether it was false or not.

70. The publication of this statement caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statement would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statement has adversely affected the Plaintiff’s professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT II – DEFAMATION PER SE

71. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

72. During the interview published on July 2, 2009, Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact: "Just like she (Jean Schmidt) voted to bailout Wall Street while accepting thousands of dollars from the banking industry, she (Jean Schmidt) continues to deny genocide while accepting money from Turkish interest PACs."

73. Defendant's statement accuses Plaintiff of knowingly accepting money from a political action committee funded by Turkish nationals in violation of federal campaign finance laws, 2 U.S.C. 441e(a)(1)(2); and, of accepting bribes in the form of campaign contributions from Wall Street and Turkish interest PACs in exchange for official acts in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2).

74. This statement was published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with reckless disregard for whether it was false or not.

75. The publication of this statement caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statement would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statement has adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT III -- DEFAMATION PER SE

76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

77. During the interview published on July 2, 2009, by Asbarez.com, Defendant Krikorian declared: "I stand by everything my campaign did during the 2008 election."

78. By making this statement, Defendant republished the factual assertions already deemed false and made with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not by the Ohio Elections Commission in 2009 under Ohio Revised Code 3517.21(B)(10). The OEC concluded that the following three statements had factual connotations and were published by Defendant with knowledge of their falsity or with a reckless disregard for whether they were false or not by clear and convincing evidence: (a) Jean Schmidt has taken $30,000 in blood money from Turkish government sponsored political action committees to deny the slaughter of 1.5 million Armenian men, women and children by the Ottoman Turkish Government during World War I (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 591-606); (b) This information (Turkish government sponsored political action committees gave $30,000 to Jean Schmidt and/or to the Schmidt for Congress campaign committee) is public record and can be found on the FEC database at <http://www.FEC.gov> (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-003, 615-628); and, (c) I ask the people of Ohio's second congressional district to ask themselves if our Representative should be taking money from a foreign government that is killing our soldiers (Schmidt v. Krikorian, OEC 2009E-012, 627-630). See the attached Exhibits 1 and 2.

79. Krikorian's appeals of the OEC's verdicts have been dismissed, and the verdicts are now final and definitive adjudications to be given collateral estoppel effect in this litigation as to the falsity of Defendant's allegations and their publication with malice.

80. The statement referenced in paragraph 77, in context, accuses Schmidt of taking money from a foreign government in violation of 5 U.S.C. 7342(h) and the Emolument's Clause of the U.S. Constitution, Article I, section 9, clause 8; of bribery in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2); and, of receiving illegal campaign contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. 441c, 437g(d). These accusations of crime against Plaintiff were published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not.

81. The publication of the statements caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statements would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statements have adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT IV – DEFAMATION PER SE

82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

83. During an August 27, 2009 interview published by The Armenian Reporter in an article entitled "In congressional run, David Krikorian is banking on the people: Says he's 'underwhelmed' with Armenian-American support so far," Defendant Krikorian made the following statement with a defamatory factual assertion that could be proven true or false: "What, I can't call [the funds Rep. Schmidt received from Turkish interests], some $29,500, "blood money"? Of course it is "blood money"! You have got a representative who is taking money from a foreign lobby. Schmidt said in her deposition that she had no idea why she was the largest recipient of money from the Turkish lobby. Just think how stupid that sounds." Defendant Krikorian also asserted as fact that: "...the Turkish government is behind those contributions and it is my right to feel that way and it is my right to say so."

84. The statements referenced in paragraph 83 are defamatory because they accuse Plaintiff Schmidt of the following acts of moral turpitude or crime: (a) that Plaintiff accepted campaign funding from the Turkish government in criminal violation of 2 U.S.C. 441e, 437g(d); (b) that Plaintiff has hidden and continues to conceal the source of campaign contributions in criminal violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441f, 437g(d); and, (c) that Plaintiff is guilty of accepting money in exchange for an official act in criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2).

85. The statements referenced in paragraph 83 are defamatory because they impute to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption, fraud, and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. They are factual assertions, published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not. Defendant was placed on specific notice that these statements were false during the discovery processing eh OEC hearings held to resolve cases 2009E-003 and 2009E-012. See Exhibit 4 attached hereto.

86. The publication of the statements caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statements would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statements have adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT V -- DEFAMATION PER SE

87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

88. During an August 27, 2009 interview published by The Armenian Reporter in an article entitled "In congressional run, David Krikorian is banking on the people: Says he's 'underwhelmed' with Armenian-American support so far," Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact: "... Schmidt is bought and paid for by the Turkish lobby and people don't like it when their representatives sell out like that."

89. Defendant Krikorian's statement accuses Plaintiff Schmidt of accepting money in exchange for official acts in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2). It is defamatory because it imputes to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. The statement was published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff, and with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard of whether they were false or not. Defendant was placed on specific notice that these statements were false during the discovery processing of OEC hearings held to resolve cases 2009E-003 and 2009E-012. See Exhibit 4 attached hereto, pages 1-3.

90. The publication of this statement caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statement would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statement has adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT VI – DEFAMATION PER SE

91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

92. In his August 28, 2009 interview with The Armenian Mirror-Spectator, Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact, among other things, that "She's (Plaintiff Schmidt is) a liar; she's not credible. I think it's obvious that two weeks after receiving $11,000 of Turkish lobby money she joins the Turkish caucus — and claims there's no quid pro quo. She's an embarrassment to the district and to the country."

93. The statement contains the assertion that can be proven true or false that Plaintiff Schmidt accepted bribes and illegal campaign contributions from the Turkish government in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2) and 2 U.S.C. 441e, 437g(d), and that she committed perjury and obstruction of justice in her deposition in Schmidt v. Krikorian in violation of Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32.

94. The statement referenced in paragraph 92 asserts or implies the following acts of moral turpitude or crimes: (a) that Plaintiff has intentionally concealed the source of campaign contributions in criminal violation of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. 434, 441f, 437g(d); (b) that Plaintiff has accepted bribes, a criminal offense under 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2); (c) that Schmidt perjured herself and obstructed justice in her deposition in Schmidt v. Krikorian in violation of Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32; and, (d) that due to Plaintiff's alleged criminality, Plaintiff is a shameful human being unfit for public office.

95. The statement referenced in paragraph 86 is defamatory because it imputes to Plaintiff Schmidt corruption, fraud, and the commission of criminal acts in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally. They are factual assertions, published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of their falsity or a reckless disregard for whether they were false or not. Defendant was placed on specific notice that these statements were false during the discovery process in the OEC hearings held to resolve cases 2009E-003 and 2009E-012. See Exhibit 4 attached hereto, pages 1-3.

96. The publication of this statement caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statement would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statement has adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT VII – DEFAMATION PER SE

97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

98. In his August 28, 2009 interview with The Armenian Mirror-Spectator, Defendant Krikorian asserted as fact, among other things, that “She (Plaintiff Schmidt) was basically programmed by the Turkish lobby for that sworn deposition and it’s a shame to see a sitting congressional representative act in the way she acted yesterday.”

99. The statement is defamatory because it accuses Plaintiff Schmidt of perjury and obstruction of justice in violation of the Ohio Revised Code sections 2921.11 and 2921.32 in a manner intended to ruin the reputation and esteem of Plaintiff professionally and personally.

100. The statement was published with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not. Defendant was placed on specific notice that these statements were false during the discovery process in the OEC hearings held to resolve cases 2009E-003 and 2009E-012. See Exhibit 4 attached hereto, page 5.

101. The publication of this statement caused general and special damages to the Plaintiff. Defendants knew, anticipated, foresaw, and intended that the statement would be read by persons throughout the United States and the world and would damage the reputation of the Plaintiff. The statement has adversely affected the Plaintiff's professional credibility, speaking, writing, interview, media, and fund-raising opportunities, causing Plaintiff Schmidt psychological trauma and suffering and monetary losses.

COUNT VIII -- DEFAMATION PER SE

102. Plaintiff incorporates by reference into this count the preceding allegations of this complaint.

103. In an interview with Armenian-American activist Peter Marsullian in September of 2009, Defendant Krikorian stated the following: "I stand by the statements that I made, that my opponent in the last election, the current representative of Ohio's second congressional district, is a paid puppet of the Turkish government involved in their denial campaign to suppress the truth about the Armenian genocide."

104. The statement of fact that can be proven true or false is that Plaintiff receives money from the Government of Turkey in exchange for official acts regarding the perennial Armenian genocide resolutions introduced in the U.S. Congress. The statement is defamatory because it accuses Plaintiff of bribery in violation of 18 U.S.C. 201(b)(2) and of illegal receipt of money from a foreign government in violation of the Emoluments Clause of the Constitution and 5 U.S.C. 7342(h).

105. The statement was published by Defendant with ill-will or spite towards Plaintiff and with knowledge of its falsity or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not. Defendant was placed on specific notice that these statements were false during the discovery process in the OEC hearings held to resolve cases 2009E-003 and 2009E-012. See Exhibit 4 attached hereto.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- (a) Compensatory damages in the amount of $500,000 on each Count;
- (b) Punitive damages in the amount of $350,000 on each Count;
- (c) Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on each Count; and,
- (d) Such other and further relief to which Plaintiff may be entitled.

1 Barry P. Bennett 5
 2 being first duly sworn, testifies and says as
 3 follows:
 4 CROSS-EXAMINATION
 5 BY MR. FENNEY:
 6 Q. Can you please state your name and
 7 address for the record?
 8 A. Sure. Barry Bennett, Barry Patrick
 9 Bennett, 14 West Oak Street, Alexandria, Virginia
 10 22301.
 11 Q. And what role do you hold with Jean
 12 Schmidt's Congressional office?
 13 A. I'm the chief of staff.
 14 Q. Okay. And this might seem rudimentary,
 15 but is that the top staff position in that office?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And you oversee all the operations of 18 that office?
 19 A. Oh-huh.
 20 Q. I'm sorry. Have you ever had your 21 deposition taken before?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Okay. When you answer, you need to say
 24 yes or no. Oh-huh's and huh-ohs ---

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

1 A. It's hard to type. Sorry about that. 8
 2 Q. And the other rule is that when I'm
 3 talking, you're not allowed to talk, and when
 4 you're talking, I'm not allowed to talk. This
 5 young lady tells me that she can type very fast,
 6 she just can't type what other people are saying
 7 at the same time.
 8 A. Got it.
 9 Q. Okay. So we violated both of those 10 rules within the first two minutes of your
 11 deposition.
 12 A. Perfect.
 13 Q. So my question is you then oversee all
 14 of Ms. Schmidt's Ohio and Washington operations?
 15 Is that correct?
 16 A. That is correct.
 17 Q. Okay. And you've done that since she
 18 was elected to Congress?
 19 A. No, I didn't come on -- I came on a
 20 little later.
 21 Q. Okay. When was that?
 22 A. I want to say I started in October or 23 November. She was elected I believe in June or 24 July and took office in September. I wasn't there

Barry Bennett

August 14, 2009

1 A. No, I mean --

2 MS. FEIN: This speech of debate

3 clause, you're asking for a position as a member

4 of Congress voting on something that would be on

5 the floor, that's speech or debate at the very

6 heart of her legislative duties.

7 MS. FEINER: Okay. So you are

8 objecting and telling him not to answer?

9 MS. FEIN: Yes, I'm instructing him

10 not to answer that question.

11 MS. FEINER: Okay. Thank you.

12 Q. Has Ms. Schmidt written anything on the

13 Armenian genocide that would not be covered by

14 that privilege, in other words to outside groups

15 or organizations or e-mails to constituents or

16 otherwise?

17 A. If I could inquire, are you talking

18 about the resolution or the issue of what happened

19 in 1915?

20 Q. Let's start with the resolution.

21 A. She's written an article in -- that was

22 published, yes, about the resolution about how we

23 shouldn't take this up right now.

24 Q. What should not what?

Barry Bennett

August 14, 2009

1 in the beginning.

2 Q. When is it that you first got

3 introduced to the issue of the Armenian genocide,

4 what we refer to in this case as the Armenian

5 genocide?

6 A. I don't recall an exact date as to when

7 I became aware of it. I remember the press clips

8 of President Bush asking Speaker Hastert to not

9 have a vote, but I don't even remember when that

10 was. It was a Washington Post story, so that was 11 probably it.

12 Q. And did you have any understanding of

13 the Armenian genocide just from your schooling or

14 your studies prior to that, or did all of your

15 knowledge and understanding about that come after

16 this issue started appearing in Congress and after

17 that request of Bush to Speaker Hastert not to 18 have that vote?

19 A. Yeah, probably post that, uh-huh.

20 Q. Can you tell me what Ms. Schmidt's

21 position is with respect to the resolution before

22 Congress to acknowledge the Armenian genocide?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You don't know what her position is?

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

1 A. We should not take this up in the House.
 3 Q. And is that the article from Today's Zaman or that's elsewhere?
 5 A. Um-huh.
 6 Q. Um-huh's don't transcribe.
 7 A. Yes, sorry, yes.
 8 Q. Okay. So it's Mr. Schmidt's publically stated position that she was against the two resolutions that have been produced in the 110th and the 111th Congress relating to the Genocide?
 10 A. That is correct?
 11
 12 Q. That is incorrect.
 13
 14 A. That is --
 15
 16 Q. I'm sorry, I thought you just said she said it's an issue we shouldn't take up?
 17
 18 A. Well, you assumed that that means that she's against it. That's assumption I'm not making.
 19
 20 Q. Well, why don't you tell me what that means, then.
 21
 22 A. Not hearing a bill is different from whether you support it or not. It's a calendar

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

1 I issue, not -- and a -- a Justice's issue versus a content of the bill issue.
 3 Q. Okay. Let's talk about the Today's Zaman article that's been marked as an exhibit in Mr. Schmidt's deposition.
 5 A. Okay.
 6 Q. And it's been marked as an exhibit in Mr. Fein's deposition.
 10
 11
 12
 13 Q. Now, have you seen this article before?
 14
 15 A. Yeah.
 16 Q. And --
 17
 18 A. I believe, I didn't look at it, yes.
 19
 20 Q. Okay. I had a bunch of copies of that made so I could look at it at the same time, and now I'm not putting my hands on it.
 21
 22 (A short recess is taken.)
 23
 24 Q. Let's just talk about the Today's Zaman article. How is it that that article came about? I had never heard of Today's Zaman before. How is it that your office got involved in writing an

MARK BROWNE August 31, 1995

MARK BROWNE

MARK BROWNE August 31, 1995

MARK BROWNE

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And who sponsored that trip?

3 A. The Rumi Forum.

4 Q. The what?

5 A. The Rumi Forum.

6 Q. What is that?

7 A. Rumi Forum, it's a cultural and

8 education based group based in Turkey.

9 Q. Is that the same one that paid for the 10 Memorial Day -- the one before Memorial Day of 11 this year?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Who paid for the one this year?

14 A. The TCA, Turkish Coalition of America,

15 whatever it's called.

16 Q. Okay. And why don't you tell me about

17 the Rumi Forum.

18 A. Uh-huh.

19 Q. Who funds that? Is that funded by the 20 Turkish government or --

21 A. No.

22 Q. How is that funded?

23 A. It's the Rumi Forum. It's a U.S.-based

24 group that funds it.

1 Article for Today's Times?

2 A. I had met a reporter in Turkey who

3 emailed me and asked if we would be interested in

4 submitting an article.

5 Q. Okay. When did you go to Turkey?

6 A. I've been there twice.

7 Q. Okay. Why don't you tell me about both

8 times.

9 A. The first time was a year ago August

10 for five days. And the second time was this --

11 eight before Memorial Day for seven days.

12 Q. Of this year?

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Uh-huh don't work.

15 A. Yes. I'm sorry. Sorry.

16 Q. Okay. And the one before Memorial Day

17 this year is the one you went along with

18 Ms. Schmidt on, is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And the August of '96 trip, tell

21 me about that. Was that part of your official

22 duties as a staff member --

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. --- for a number of Congress?

BARRY SCHMIDT August 31, 2009

1 Q. A nonprofit organization? 13

2 A. (b)-uhh.

3 Q. And why did they invite you to Turkey

4 in August of '09?

5 A. They invited I don't remember exactly

6 how many chiefs of staff, but a bipartisan

7 delegation of chiefs of staff went over.

8 Q. And what did you do while you were

9 there?

10 A. Toured the country, met with government

11 officials, met with, you know, school's, you know,

12 got a feel for what it's like to live in Turkey.

13 Q. And so it was on that trip that you met

14 a reporter that solicited an editorial from you?

15 A. Yeah. One of our visits as I remember

16 was with local reporters.

17 Q. And this particular editorial was

18 written to coincide with the trip that President

19 Obama took to Turkey; is that right?

20 A. It was published to coincide. I don't

21 know that it was necessarily written --

22 Q. So Mr. Schmidt testified that you

23 participated or took the lead in drafting this; is

24 that right?

BARRY SCHMIDT August 31, 2009

1 A. Correct. 34

2 Q. And did somebody else on your staff

3 write on that, or is that something you wrote?

4 A. I think I wrote with her help most of

5 it.

6 Q. Okay. And at the time it was written,

7 you did not know or contemplate that it would be

8 published in ... to coincide with President Obama's

9 visit?

10 A. I had no idea what day they would

11 publish it.

12 Q. Did you know that President Obama was

13 going to Turkey at the time you were writing it?

14 A. I knew that he was going. I don't know

15 that I knew the dates, but I knew that was going

16 to be his first big trip.

17 Q. So you knew that it was a possibility

18 that they would use it as counterbalance to

19 President Obama's trip?

20 A. I knew that it was a possibility and I

21 knew that it wasn't a possibility, I guess. I

22 don't know.

23 Q. Okay. Okay. Do you know if any other

24 members of Congress also wrote in Today'saman

Barry Bennett

16

1 Q. So she -- you and she, she said,
2 discussed this, and then you ended up writing it.
3 Is that right?
4 A. Yeah. Basically, yes.
5 Q. Did she approve the final draft of 6 this?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Okay. And then the closing paragraph
9 says, "What happened in 1915 must never be
10 forgotten. To quote the great poet Raza Anzelo,
11 "History cannot be un-lived, despite its wrenching
12 pain, but if faced with courage, need not be lived
13 again."
14 A. Uh-huh.
15 Q. What is it that -- so you're -- this is 16 Ms. Schmidt telling the people of Turkey or 17 whoever reads the Daily Aaman what happened in 18 1915 must not be forgotten.
19 A. Uh-huh.
20 Q. And what is it that happened in 1915
21 that she was reminding?
22 A. Hundreds of thousands of people died on
23 both sides. It was awful.
24 Q. And why don't you tell me about that.

1 editorials about US policies toward Turkey?
2 A. I'm not a regular reader of Today's
3 Aaman.
4 Q. Is this something that's fairly common
5 that members of United States Congress would write
6 for local papers of other countries?
7 A. Quite.
8 Q. Has Ms. Schmidt done that in any other
9 country?
10 A. I'm not sure that we've been published.
11 I'm not certain. I'm not certain to tell you the 12 truth. I don't know.
13 Q. Have you submitted editorials for use
14 in other countries?
15 A. I haven't personally, no.
16 Q. Okay. I had asked Ms. Schmidt and X
17 will ask you the same question. She says in the 18 closing paragraph -- well, first of all, her
19 testimony was that she didn't either hand-write
20 anything or do anything on a word processor --
21 A. Right.
22 Q. -- That everything came out of your pen
23 or word processor. Is that right?
24 A. Yeah, she doesn't use a computer.

DARY FEMETT August 31, 2022

1 What did happen? What are the events of 1915 that
 2 you were commemorating?
 3 A. Well, World War I happened. The break
 4 up of the Ottoman Empire happened. I mean, there
 5 was a lot of fighting. A lot of people died.
 6 Atrocities -- I don't know, I don't know what the
 7 definition is, but a lot of things happened.
 8 Q. Okay. And is that the sum and
 9 substance of what your understanding is that we're
 10 supposed to remember about what happened in 1915?
 11 A. I'm not -- I've not been given the task
 12 not executed the task of determining what we 13 should all remember about 1915. I can only tell
 14 you that my understanding is hundreds of thousands
 15 of people on both sides of the issue and a lot of 16 foreign fighters, too, all perished in Turkey. It
 17 was very bloody.
 18 Q. I'm just saying it was you and/or
 19 Mr. Schmidt reminding people we shouldn't forget
 20 those events. I'm just asking you what they were.
 21 What exactly happened in 1915, and how was it that
 22 all of these people died?
 23 MR. BERRY: Objection, foundation. I
 24 think he stated what he knows. But go ahead if

DARY FEMETT August 31, 2022

1 you can answer the question.
 2 A. World War I happened.
 3 Q. Okay. So when Mr. Schmidt says -- or 4 when you said from your pen, "what happened in 5 1915 must never be forgotten..." you're just
 6 referring to World War I?
 7 A. The deaths -- the hundreds of thousands
 8 of deaths on both sides that occurred.
 9 Q. Okay. What was the period of time when
 10 World War I occurred?
 11 A. 1911. I don't know when it ended. I'm
 12 not a history buff.
 13 Q. So why did you pick out 1915
 14 specifically when you wrote this?
 15 A. It's the date that's commonly referred
 16 to in Turkey about what happened.
 17 Q. This event that's referred to is at 18 least by some as the genocide; is that right?
 19 A. Oh-huh.
 20 Q. It has to be yes or no.
 21 A. Yes. I'm sorry. I'm very sorry. I'm
 22 making your job very difficult. I'm sorry.
 23 Q. Now, Mrs. Schmidt -- at least from your 24 -- what you've said is her position on the

1 Q. Was it ---

2 A. I don't know the dates, you know.

3 Q. It was obviously after you went over

4 there in August of '09?

5 A. Yeah. Yeah. I don't know what the ---

6 what was the date of publishing? You know, it

7 would have been in that time frame. I don't know

8 what the ---

9 Q. The ---

10 A. It doesn't seem to have a published

11 date on here.

12 Q. It was published in April of '09. You

13 submitted it just shortly before that?

14 A. Probably, yeah.

15 Q. Okay.

16 MR. BERRY: My copy is dated June --- oh,

17 I see.

18 MR. FINNEY: Actually, it's backwards.

19 MR. BERRY: I'm reading backwards.

20 You're right.

21 Q. Off the record.

22 (A short recess is taken.)

23 Q. I've given you what's been marked as

24 Exhibit B.

1 Armenian genocide resolution is that it just

2 shouldn't be on the House calendar one way or the

3 other? Is that right? It shouldn't be voted on?

4 A. It's being very delicate here. The

5 article says that we should not take up the

6 resolution.

7 Q. Okay. And that's Rep. Schmidt's

8 position on that? Is that right?

9 MR. BERRY: Objection as to relevancy.

10 Her current position or position as of

11 November 2008 are different questions.

12 Q. Okay. Well, let's ask what was her

13 position in November 2008 with respect to taking

14 up the resolution.

15 A. I don't know. I didn't talk to her

16 about it in November 2008.

17 Q. So this just reflects what her position

18 was in April of 2009, is that right?

19 A. That's the first time we sat down and

20 talked about it -- about, you know, this article,

21 yes.

22 Q. When did you finalize that article and

23 submit it to Today's Woman?

24 A. I have no idea.

1 Mr. BRET: Objection. Relevance.

2 The way this works is unless your

3 attorney -- and he can tell you this. Unless he

4 tells you not to answer, you should go ahead and

5 answer after the objection. He's just preserving

6 the objection.

7 A. I believe as I understand her position

8 today is that she can't call it genocide and she

9 can't say it wasn't genocide, that she just

10 doesn't know.

11 Q. Do the affirmative statement saying

12 that the Congresswoman does not believe the tragic

13 events constitute genocide --

14 A. It's a partial truth.

15 Q. It's partially true in what sense?

16 A. That she hasn't called it genocide.

17 Q. Well, it says she does not believe they

18 constitute genocide.

19 A. She has not said -- she has not called

20 it genocide. She has not called it not genocide.

21 Q. Okay. And is it true that -- do you

22 know when --

23 A. Excuse me. I'm sorry. He was

24 distracting me. I mean, that's -- I mean, he can

1 people say a lot of things.

2 Q. And then the next sentence, "The

3 Congresswoman, based upon her independent

4 research, does not believe the tragic events of

5 World War I, in which both Armenians and Turks

6 were killed in barrowing number, constitute

7 genocide..." Do you see that?

8 A. Uh-huh.

9 Q. So to paraphrase the sentence, it says:

10 The Congresswoman does not believe that these

11 events, which we refer to as the Armenian

12 Genocide, constitute genocide. Do you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Does that accurately reflect

15 Mrs. Schmidt's position as of January the -- I'm

16 sorry, November the 4th of 2009?

17 A. Again, I don't know. I didn't have

18 that conversation with her in November of 2009. I

19 just don't remember talking to her about it.

20 Q. Does that -- I'm sorry. Go ahead.

21 A. I just don't remember talking to her

22 about it.

23 Q. Okay. Does that accurately reflect her

24 position as of today?

1 play world games, but I mean that's a perfectly
 2 reasonable position to have in my view. Sorry, I
 3 believe it was the same position your campaign
 4 manager had.
 5 Q. When you went to Turkey either time in
 6 August of '98 or in April or May of '99 --
 7 A. Uh-huh.
 8 Q. ... did you talk to anyone there about
 9 the Armenian genocide issue?
 10 A. I may have. Certainly no one from the 11 government. I mean, I only remember one
 12 government meeting and it was at the Foreign 13 Ministry, and we were much more interested in
 14 Iraq, the PKK and the Israeli peace process.
 15 Q. Are you aware that it's a crime for 16 Turkish citizens to talk about the Armenian
 17 Genocide?
 18 MR. FEIN: Foundation. Pardon?
 19 A. I'm not aware of any of the -- very
 20 many of the laws in Turkey.
 21 Q. So the answer to that question is not
 22 A. The answer --
 23 MR. FEIN: Foundation is -- I object.
 24 There's no foundation laid for the question.

Barry Schwartz August 31, 2003 26

1 MR. FINNEY: Okay. We understood the
 2 objection. Are you instructing him not to answer?
 3 MR. FEIN: No, I'm not instructing him
 4 not to answer, but I just want to make clear --
 5 MR. FINNEY: You were clear, you said
 6 it four times.
 7 MR. FEIN: -- that my objection is
 8 foundation.
 9 MR. FINNEY: Yeah, we got that part.
 10 MR. FEIN: Okay.
 11 Q. So I'm --
 12 A. I would not consider myself familiar
 13 with Turkish law.
 14 Q. Now, tell me how MRS. SCHMIDT's
 15 campaigns are run. I asked her this question, and 16 she said that essentially you're in charge of 17 running the campaign; is that right?
 18 A. Well, we have a campaign manager. Her
 19 name is Sara Olex in the last election.
 20 Q. Really. She told me there was no
 21 campaign manager.
 22 A. If you look at the SEC reports, which
 23 I'm sure you have, you will see that Sara Olex
 24 was the campaign manager.

1 transcript?
 2 A. Not entirely.
 3 Q. From this case you've read parts of it,
 4 thought?
 5 A. Part of it, uh-huh.
 6 Q. And did you disagree with anything that
 7 she said about how her campaign was run based upon
 8 that transcript?
 9 A. No, I can see why she said that.
 10 Q. You can see why she said that you were
 11 the person who manages her campaign?
 12 A. Well, I mean I hired the campaign
 13 manager, I -- you know, sure, I'm ultimately
 14 responsibility in her eyes.
 15 Q. And then are you active then in the 16 fundraising operation of her campaign?
 17 A. I don't think I attended any of the 18 district-based fundraisers.
 19 Q. I don't know if I asked if you attended
 20 fundraisers. Are you active in helping her raise 21 funds for her campaign?
 22 A. Sure.
 23 Q. You are. And how -- what role do you
 24 play in that regard?

August 21, 2009

Barry Bennett

29

1 Q. Is there a reason why Mrs. Schmidt
 2 would not know that?
 3 A. You would have to ask Mrs. Schmidt that
 4 question.
 5 Q. So how are the campaigns run on a
 6 day-to-day basis then?
 7 A. Campaign manager.
 8 Q. What is your role in running the
 9 campaigns?
 10 A. I -- I am a -- I offer my two bits, I
 11 try to stay at the 30,000-foot view and, you know,
 12 I weigh in on advertising and polling, that kind
 13 of stuff, but not from the day-to-day perspective.
 14 I just don't have the bandwidth to do that.
 15 Q. That's remarkable only that completely
 16 contradicts everything that Mrs. Schmidt told me
 17 repeatedly on that topic during her deposition.
 18 MR. BEEZ: I would object to your
 19 statement of her testimony. I don't think that's 20 quite accurate, although the transcript will say
 21 one way or the other. But if you have a question,
 22 you certainly may have a question rather than
 23 stating the testimony.
 24 Q. Have you read Mrs. Schmidt's deposition

DARY PERMITS

August 14, 2009

1 A. Not a day-to-day role by any stretch.
2 But I, you know, like to know what's going on.
3 Q. And why is that something that you
4 would bother yourself with as her chief of staff?
5 A. Well, I think that's -- it's not just
6 me, most chiefs of staff are very involved in
7 knowing what's going on. Goals to reach, I want
8 to make sure we reach our goals.
9 Q. I don't understand that. The campaign
10 has goals to reach or the congressional office --
11 A. The campaign has goals to reach.
12 Q. And you're responsible as the chief of 13 staff of the congressional office to see to it
14 that the campaign goals are reached?
15 A. I'm not responsible as chief of staff.
16 I'm responsible in that, you know, she's a friend
17 and I want her to get re-elected.
18 Q. I see. Who is Phil Greenberg?
19 A. Phil Greenberg is our fundraiser.
20 Q. Okay. And he worked with you on
21 raising funds for the Schwab campaign?
22 A. He did the raising of funds.
23 Q. Okay. Did you work with him on that?
24 A. I don't know -- if you could

DARY PERMITS

August 14, 2009

1 describe -- you know, clarify the question a
2 little bit. "Work with him," what do you mean?
3 Q. Well, would you identify targets for
4 fundraising?
5 A. No, he would do that.
6 Q. Would you identify individuals to talk
7 to about fundraising or groups from which to 8 fund-raise?
9 A. No, he created all those lists.
10 Q. What role would you then have in the 11 fundraising operation?
12 A. I would want to make sure that there
13 was a campaign plan and that the target and whose 14 we are on the target and making sure that we 15 reached our numbers.
16 Q. Okay. Email, when e-mail is addressed
17 to schmidtforscongress@fuse.net, who receives that 18 e-mail?
19 A. I think Peter, but I'm not certain.
20 Q. Do you receive that e-mail?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Do you -- do you --
23 A. I think fuse.net is a service in 24 Cincinnati. I'm not certain. I think that's the

1 case, but I --
 2 Q. You've never logged in to
 3 submittocongressfuse.net?
 4 A. No.
 5 Q. Do you receive campaign related e-mails
 6 at any of your e-mail addresses?
 7 A. Sure.
 8 Q. And what e-mail addresses would you
 9 receive campaign related e-mail?
 10 A. I have a personal BlackBerry, my home
 11 computer.
 12 Q. At what your e-mail address?
 13 A. (Excepted out and bound separately.)
 14 MR. BNEY: I would ask that that
 15 information could be used by you in connection
 16 with this case but not be publically disseminated.
 17 MR. FURNEY: I don't know how. If we
 18 file this transcript, I'm not sure how to prevent
 19 that. But if you want to come up with a mechanism
 20 to do that just to black it out or something, I
 21 don't need to use it. I didn't even write them
 22 down when he said them.
 23 MR. BNEY: I would ask that that be
 24 separately transcribed from the rest of the

1 transcript. If there's some reason why you need
 2 that particular question and answer, we can sort
 3 that out.
 4 (A short recess is taken.)
 5 Q. And so you would receive campaign
 6 related e-mails at those two addresses?
 7 A. Uh-huh.
 8 Q. You have a Congressional office e-mail
 9 address?
 10 A. I do.
 11 Q. And do you receive any campaign-related
 12 e-mails to that address?
 13 A. Not on purpose, but every now and then,
 14 sure. I can't stop people from sending things.
 15 Q. And then do you log into the -- I think
 16 you said it's barrybennett.com account --
 17 A. Uh-huh.
 18 Q. -- do you log into that from the
 19 Congressional office?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. How is it that you then --
 22 A. I don't really -- I can't log-in 23 remotely. Maybe you can, I haven't figure it out
 24 how to do it.

Barry Bennett

August 19, 2009

1 Q. Did you receive phone calls from Phil
2 Greenberg at the Congressional office?
3 A. I'm --
4 Q. Did you during the course of the 2008
5 campaign receive phone calls from Phil Greenberg
6 at the Congressional office?
7 A. I'm sure I got personal calls, yes, on
8 my BlackBerry, my personal BlackBerry.
9 Q. Oh-huh. But not at the Congressional
10 office?
11 A. Well, I don't know where I was
12 physically, but I'm sure I got -- it would be odd
13 that I didn't get one while I was there one day.
14 Q. What about calls through the
15 Congressional office phone system?
16 A. Everybody's instructed not to call me
17 through that number. Again, that doesn't mean a
18 crazy person can't call you, and they do.
19 Q. Okay. And then who is Jennifer
20 Pelestickary?
21 A. Jennifer is the scheduler in the office.
22 Q. She's the scheduler in the
23 Congressional office?
24 A. Oh-huh.

Barry Bennett

August 19, 2009

1 Q. But she also does the scheduling for
2 the campaign?
3 A. Schedulers are permitted to do both.
4 You're allowed to keep one calendar so that the
5 offices are coordinated under House rules.
6 Q. Is she paid by the campaign?
7 A. No, she's paid by the House.
8 Q. And then what was your interaction with 9 the campaign manager throughout the 2008 campaign
10 Sara Creier?
11 A. She would call if she had a question
12 that she needed answered.
13 Q. Would you be involved daily or weekly?
14 Did you get involved --
15 A. Certainly not daily, maybe not even 16 weekly.
17 Q. Okay. And then do you handle media
18 inquiries relating to the campaign as well?
19 A. If someone calls me, I'm permitted to 20 talk to them under House rules.
21 Q. And how many hours a week would you
22 spend working on campaign matters versus
23 Congressional office matters during the 2008
24 campaign?

Barry Bennett August 31, 2006

1 A. Okay. And then the TV guy, meaning the
2 people who are writing and creating your TV
3 commercials?
4 A. Oh-huh.
5 Q. And what interactions would you have
6 with them?
7 A. I would talk to them, I mean, about
8 scripts, maybe about some ideas and production
9 schedules and all that kind of stuff.
10 Q. And when you did those activities, do
11 you do those from the Congressional office --
12 A. No.
13 Q. -- or you have some other office at 14 which you do that?
15 A. Yeah. The way the National Republican
16 Congressional Committee is set up is there's a
17 bullpen of a number of offices that you can go
18 over and grab at any time with a computer and a
19 phone in each, or you could just stay at home and 20 do it at home.
21 I didn't ask what you can do. I asked
22 you --
23 A. That's what I did, both of those.
24 Q. You would never handle any

Barry Bennett August 31, 2006

1 A. I have no idea. I mean I worked -- I
2 love my job. I work a lot.
3 Q. Would you work more than five hours a
4 week, let's say, during the closing three months
5 of the campaign on campaign-related matters?
6 A. I don't know. I don't have a schedule
7 to -- I mean, I don't know how I would go back and
8 tell you definitively how many hours I worked.
9 Q. When we say "worked," you interact with 10 Phil Greenberg?
11 A. Yeah.
12 Q. You interacted with Sara Orier?
13 A. Oh-huh.
14 Q. Who else would you interact with on 15 campaign-related matters?
16 A. The politician, the politician guy, all of 17 those kind of people.
18 Q. And what interaction would you have
19 with -- who is your polster for the campaign?
20 A. Tarzance Company, Tarzance Group.
21 Q. And who would you interact with there?
22 A. It depends. Probably Brian Tringali,
23 but he has several people that work for him, so it
24 could have been any of them.

Barry Bennett August 19, 2008 37

1 Congressional campaign matters from the
 2 Congressional officer?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. And what would you do if you received a
 5 call relating to the campaign?
 6 A. House rules say you can continue the 7 call. You shouldn't insist on a call. You should
 8 try to avoid it.
 9 Q. If somebody calls you at the office,
 10 you're allowed to engage --
 11 A. The New York Times calls me and asks
 12 about political things, I'm allowed to talk about
 13 it.
 14 Q. I wasn't asking about New York Times,
 15 I'm talking about coordinating with the polster,
 16 the TV guy and the fundraiser.
 17 A. Yeah, as long as they didn't call on 18 official resources. They're calling me on my
 19 private cell, I can take the call, I can go
 20 outside, I can go to the HRCC. I do all of those
 21 things.
 22 Q. And are you allowed to take the call
 23 and continue it in the Congressional officer
 24 car.

Barry Bennett August 19, 2008 38

1 Q. And you do that on a regular basis?
 2 A. No.
 3 Q. Okay. Now, did you have the
 4 opportunity to be -- to become aware of the fact
 5 that Ms. Schmidt was raising significant amounts
 6 of money from Turkish FPCs and from Turkish
 7 American individuals during the course of the 2008
 8 Congressional campaign?
 9 A. I would answer no because I don't term
 10 those amounts as significant.
 11 Q. What was the total amount of money you
 12 raised during the 2008 --
 13 A. You know, I don't know. I've seen the 14 numbers that you guys have thrown around, but I
 15 don't -- even that number is not significant in my 16 eyes.
 17 Q. I'm sorry. You need to let me finish
 18 my questions before you answer. If you don't mind,
 19 I'm sorry. You stopped so I thought
 20 you were finished.
 21 Q. What was the total amount of money you
 22 raised during the 2008 Congressional campaign?
 23 A. No time.
 24 Q. Well, you just told me you were

39

1 involved with setting goals and making sure you

2 met those goals. What were those goals?

3 A. I don't know. I don't remember.

4 Q. Okay. And the $30,000 number that we

5 -- that has been brought up as the subject of this

6 complaint you say is not a significant amount of

7 money to raise for Ms. Schmidt?

8 A. Not in, you know, a million-dollar

9 range, no, it's not.

10 Q. Are you aware of the fact that she is

11 the number one recipient of contributions from

12 Turkish PACs and Turkish American individuals in 13 the nation?

14 A. I don't believe that she is.

15 Q. Okay. Do you know why she would

16 attract so much money from Turkish PACs and

17 Turkish American donors?

18 A. Absolutely.

19 Q. Why?

20 A. Because Dr. Krivorian has made her

21 famous.

22 Q. And tell us how that is.

23 A. Because he's calls her a genocide

24 denier and he calls her all of these names, and

Barry Bennett August 11, 2003

40

1 it's all published out there and people see it.

2 Q. Is Ms. Schmidt a genocide denier?

3 A. Not in my eyes.

4 Q. Are you aware of the two fundraisers

5 that Mr. Schmidt had with -- with Turkish donors

6 in the course of the 2006 campaign?

7 A. Which fundraisers are you speaking of?

8 Q. There was one at Care Istanbul in

9 February of 2006 and the second one in New York

10 City in May of 2008.

11 MR. BENT: Objection. By "Turkish," do

12 you mean Turkish-American as those two words as

13 opposed to Turkish nationals?

14 Q. Well, that's an excellent question.

15 Mrs. Schmidt's -- let's see if I can find it here.

16 -- I don't -- those pages got taken off of this

17 document.

18 MR. FINNEY: Do you have the two pages

19 with the donor names from the prior depo?

20 THE REPORTER: This one?

21 MR. FINNEY: Yeah. Let me see it.

22 Why don't we go ahead and make a copy

23 of that.

24 (A short recess is taken.)

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

1 Q. Okay, we're going to mark this as C.

3 Theaupan, defendant's Exhibit C is marked

4 for purposes of identification.

6 Q. I've shown you what's been marked as

7 Exhibit C.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. This has been reprinted to me in

10 prior depositions as part of the document

11 production that we have, and this is your

12 fundraising database of Turkish or

13 Turkish-American donors, but there's a tie --

14 there's an entry in this database that references

15 -- I just had it -- oh, if you look on the third

16 and fourth pages, it says Turkish event 2-18-09.

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Uh-huh.

19 Q. So your campaign refers to these things

20 as Turkish events, right?

21 A. They apparently did, uh-huh.

22 Q. Uh-huh. So when I'm talking about

23 there were two Turkish events held for your

24 campaign, I'm just referring to your own

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

1 terminology?

2 A. Well, one of them is labeled a Turkish

3 event.

4 Q. Right. So can you tell me about --

5 A. They all seem to have American

6 addresses.

7 Q. And your point being?

8 A. Those seem to be Americans.

9 Q. People with American addresses are

10 Americans?

11 A. Largely.

12 Q. So --

13 MR. BREY: That page are we on?

14 THE WITNESS: This is the third page.

15 MR. BREY: Okay. I got you.

16 Q. So I think the question that I had --

17 why don't you read me the question we had before

18 we broke.

19 (The record is read as requested.)

20 Q. All right. Do you know why -- who

21 hosted these two events, do you know?

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. And do you know why these events were 24 hosted?

1 A. I don't have any with me, no.
 2 Q. And why would they have negative things
 3 to say about Mrs. Schmidt in February of '08 and
 4 May of '08 if she had --
 5 A. Mr. Kirkorian was running against her.
 6 He had a lot of negative things to say about her
 7 and always has.
 8 Q. What if I told you Mr. Kirkorian hadn't
 9 even announced he was running in February of '08?
 10 A. I -- it could be, I don't know.
 11 Q. But I thought you said that the reason
 12 that people were giving to Mrs. Schmidt was
 13 that --
 14 A. Mr. Kirkorian had already said things
 15 -- it doesn't mean -- just because he hadn't filed
 16 as a candidate doesn't mean he hadn't said things.
 17 Q. And in what forum? Was he reported in 18 the Enquirer? Did he write letters to the editor?
 19 Did he publish things?
 20 A. I don't know, I don't know. Like I
 21 said, I don't have any specific documents in front
 22 of me.
 23 Q. But you are the one that's saying --
 24 A. Well, he's the one that came in with

45

1 A. I assume for the purpose of supporting
 2 Jean's campaign.
 3 Q. And why would Turkish groups want to
 4 get together to support Jean's campaign?
 5 A. I assume because she's been vilified by
 6 the Armenians, but I have no idea.
 7 Q. That's the second time you've told me
 8 that. What vilification came from Armenians
 9 and/or Mr. Kirkorian and his campaign prior to
 10 February of '08 and May of '08?
 11 A. I don't -- I don't know, I mean, I --
 12 it was ongoing in his campaign and the ANCA
 13 literature.
 14 Q. What's the ANCA literature?
 15 A. Armenian National -- I don't know what 16 the acronym stands for.
 17 MR. PHIN: Committee of America.
 18 Q. So ANCA and Mr. Kirkorian consistently
 19 were writing about Mrs. Schmidt in a negative
 20 light as it relates to the Armenian Genocide
 21 before February of '08 and May of '08?
 22 A. I believe so.
 23 Q. And but can you reference any specific 24 document that would support that?

Barry Bennett August 31, 2023

1 ANCA in the office and got all hot and had this, 25
 2 you know, exchange and it's been, you know -- I
 3 understand let's a cause near and dear to his
 4 heart, and I appreciate his fervor. But, you
 5 know, he's a little misguided in my view.
 6 Q. But why would the visit to the
 7 Congressional office spur Turkish donations? I
 8 don't understand that.
 9 A. Because they were talking about it. We
 10 never put out a press release about, you know,
 11 Armenian Genocide. It was, you know, irrelevant
 12 to our district almost. I mean --
 13 Q. Okay, well, while we've got the donor
 14 list in front of us, why don't we look at it real
 15 quickly. Who is Yairin Kyslik?
 16 A. I believe -- I don't know what his role
 17 is, but I know that he's involved in it.
 18 Q. Have you met him?
 19 A. I've met him once.
 20 Q. Has he also been the host of a
 21 fundraiser for Mrs. Schmidt -- I'm sorry, a
 22 reception for Mrs. Schmidt?
 23 A. For Mrs. Schmidt?
 24 Q. Oh-huh.

Barry Bennett August 31, 2023

1 A. Not that I'm aware of. 46
 2 Q. Did he travel with you and Mrs. Schmidt
 3 to Turkey in spring of this year?
 4 A. No. As I recall, he was there on the
 5 last day.
 6 Q. And what was the event of the last day
 7 at which --
 8 A. It was a dinner for the Congressional 9 folks.
 10 Q. Okay. And did you and Mrs. Schmidt sit
 11 with him?
 12 A. No, well, I don't remember who she sat
 13 with; I don't.
 14 Q. How do you remember meeting him?
 15 A. As I remember, as -- as folks went in,
 16 there was a greeting line and I was introduced to 17 him and shook his hand.
 18 Q. And who was Ryan Bozeman?
 19 A. I have no idea.
 20 Q. And who is Sandy Guhn?
 21 A. I don't know.
 22 Q. You point out appropriately that most 23 of these donors live in the United States, but
 24 almost none of them live in Mrs. Schmidt's

1 prosecuted by the attorney general of the state of
2 Ohio and the Hamilton County prosecutor, both of
3 which were unsuccessful.

4 A. Uh-huh.

5 Q. He said the reason for the delay in
6 April '99 of filing this complaint was that in 7 the meantime they were awaiting an opinion from 8 the House Ethics Committee that would allow the 9 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund to fund the 10 legal action against Mr. Zirkorian. That 11 essentially summarizes what Mr. Fein testified to 12 this morning and early this afternoon.

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Do you know anything about that?

15 A. No.

16 Q. You made no filing, no attempt to --

17 A. The House Ethics Committee deals with 18 the House, not with the campaign.

19 Q. Well, how does this deal with

20 campaigns?

21 A. With the -- this happened in the course
22 of the campaign. The -- the commission where this
23 is filed deals with the campaigns, not the House
24 of Representatives.

1 district. Why would all of these people who don't
2 live in Ms. Schmidt's district have such a great
3 interest in her race?

4 A. I don't know. I don't know, you'd have
5 to ask them that question.

6 Q. Let's talk about the complaint that was 7 brought in this matter. Mr. Fein testified at 8 length I guess that you made some kind of a filing
9 with the House Ethics Committee that would allow
10 the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund to fund
11 this legal action against Mr. Zirkorian. Is that 12 right?

13 A. There's no -- the ethics doesn't have
14 any part as far as FEC rules.

15 Q. Well, I didn't say they did. I'm just 16 telling you --

17 A. You said we made a filing. No, there's 18 -- no such filing was made.

19 Q. I'm just telling you what Mr. Fein told
20 me. Mr. Fein tells us that the reason -- let me
21 just try to relate to you in summary what Mr. Fein
22 said. He said shortly after the November 2006
23 election, he pursued legal action against
24 Mr. Zirkorian by trying to get him criminally

Barry Bennett August 31, 2008 49

1 Q. And there's no ethics issue associated
 2 with Turkish American Legal Defense Funds paying
 3 for Ms. Schmidt's legal fees?
 4 A. No, not that I'm aware of.
 5 Q. Okay. And you've neither sought nor
 6 received any clearance or approval from the House
 7 Ethics Committee to allow that to proceed?
 8 A. No, not that I'm aware of.
 9 Q. Okay. Those ideas was it to bring this 10 complaint to begin with?
 11 A. Congressman Schmidt's.
 12 Q. Explain that to me.
 13 A. It was her idea to begin doing this.
 14 Q. And so at some point she related that 15 to you?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And when was that?
 18 A. I think soon after it happened, soon
 19 after the flyers were put on the Catholic churches
 20 -- cars in the parking lots in Catholic churches.
 21 She was adamant about not allowing someone to lie
 22 about her and say that she had committed a crime.
 23 Q. Okay. And then at some point you
 24 retained legal counsel to represent Mrs. Schmidt.

Barry Bennett August 31, 2008 50

1 in this matter?
 2 A. Oh-huh.
 3 Q. So you -- you then contacted someone or
 4 someone contacted you about that?
 5 A. I think I talked to Lincoln McCurdy who
 6 introduced me to Bruce I believe.
 7 Q. And then -- so you had a meeting with
 8 Mr. Fein?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And was Mrs. Schmidt present at that 11 meeting?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. And when was that?
 14 A. I believe it was in -- it's before the 15 year was out. I would guess early December, but I
 16 can't give you an exact date.
 17 Q. Early December 2008?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Okay. And with respect to the
 20 arrangement for the payment of -- in there a
 21 retainer letter between you -- is there some kind
 22 of engagement --
 23 MR. BERRY: Objection.
 24 MR. FINNEY: Let me finish the question

11

1 MR. BREY: Mr. Bennett --

2 MR. FINNEY: If he had any involvement

3 in the drafting of the complaint, it wouldn't be

4 privileged.

5 MR. BREY: Well, actually, that's not

6 true. Because we have made it clear all along we

7 represent both Mr. Schmidt and the campaign

8 committee. And as he has testified, he has a role

9 on behalf of the campaign committee. He hired the

10 campaign manager and oversees a great many things,

11 albeit from a 30,000-foot basis. So

12 communications we had with him in his -- are in 13 those capacities.

14 MR. FINNEY: Okay. Why don't we get

15 Phil Richter on the line to talk about that.

16 MR. BREY: Okay. It's also work

17 product. Let me get his number. I left it in the 18 other room.

19 [A short recess is taken.]

20 MR. FINNEY: We're not going to get

21 him, so we'll ask him at the hearing. Just let it

22 go.

23 [A short recess is taken.]

24 MR. RICHTER: Hello, gentlemen. What's

Barry Bennett August 31, 2009

51

1 and then you can object, okay?

2 Q. Is there some sort of engagement letter

3 between you and Mr. Erey and/or you and Mr. Fein?

4 MR. BREY: Objection. I instruct the

5 witness not to answer.

6 Q. Okay. Were you involved in the

7 negotiation of that engagement letter?

8 MR. BREY: Objection. I instruct the

9 witness not to answer.

10 Q. Okay. How was it that the complaint

11 itself was drafted? Who participated in the 12 drafting of the complaint?

14 witness not to answer.

15 MR. FINNEY: Okay. On what basis?

16 MR. BREY: Privilege.

17 MR. FINNEY: The client is Mrs.

18 Schmidt.

19 MR. BREY: Right.

20 MR. FINNEY: And the attorney is

21 Mr. Fein. I'm asking Mr. Bennett, who's neither

22 of those people and is not an attorney, to tell me

23 what involvement that he had in the drafting of 24 the complaint.

Barry Bennett August 21, 2009

1 up?
 3 MR. BERRY: We have a disagreement about
 4 a question of privilege.
 6 MR. ROYBURN: Privilege, okay.
 8 MR. BERRY: We're now deposing Barry
 9 Bennett. Barry Bennett is chief of staff of Dean
 10 Schmidt's Congressional office, and he is also the 11 person who hired the campaign manager and is 12 ultimately responsible for the campaign, which he 13 does, you know, at least according to his
 14 testimony on his own dime or his own Blackberry
 15 and other sorts of things. The questions -- I
 16 think there are about three of them that I
 17 objected and instructed the witness not to answer
 18 on the grounds of privilege, and they're also we 19 believe work product protected and also fall short
 20 of the standard that we agreed upon at the 21 beginning with Mr. Kizyorian's deposition of --
 22 unless it has some bearing on specific allegations
 23 of the complainant, it's not going to be explored
 24 and finished info. The --

25 MR. ROYBURN: Okay.
 26
 27 MR. BERRY: The questions deal with who 28 -- communications and drafting of the complaint

Barry Bennett August 21, 2009

1 that we filed. What being Bruce Fein and Don Bray
 2 filed on behalf of Dean Schmidt in connection with
 3 our representation of her as a individual and a
 4 representation of the campaign committee.
 6 Child Finny can express his view. My
 7 understanding which may be a misunderstanding is
 8 that he thinks we can object as to communications
 9 with Dean Schmidt but not with -- with Barry
 10 Bennett.

11 MR. FINNEY: Yeah, Phil, the complainant
 12 is brought in the name of Dean Schmidt. I've 13 asked the question if there was an engagement
 14 letter that was -- whereby Mr. Fein was retained
 15 on behalf of either Mr. Schmidt or the campaign
 16 committee, the answer is we're not going to call
 17 you. Mr. Bennett is the chief of staff of the 18 Congressional office, not of the campaign. He's 19 testified that someone else was the hired campaign
 20 manager for the campaign. And I've asked him how 21 it was that the complainant was drafted and what 22 role he had in it. He is neither the attorney for 23 KRS, Schmidt. To my knowledge, he's not an 24 attorney at law. And he's not -- he doesn't have 25 any official role with the campaign, but more

Barry Bennett

August 21, 2009

1 makes sure that the plan is met. He is the person
 2 who is the normal person that would represent the
 3 campaign committee in connection with -- with 4 issues relating to this, and that was our -- the
 5 basis of our communication.

6 You know, there's -- you know, that
 7 creates an attorney/client privileged
 8 relationship, and you can't breach that
 9 relationship on the ground that he has another job
 10 on behalf of the office. I mean, I don't know
 11 that he did anything -- there was some questions
 12 about what -- whether he did any of this political 13 stuff by virtue of his status as chief of the 14 office, and I believe his answers were generally
 15 no.

16 Mr. FINNEY: Well, I think what we
 17 would find -- well, do you know what, we talk
 18 these things to death. I think it's a pretty 19 simple issue. I don't want to argue it over and 20 over, but the reality is he's a Congressional 21 staffer, not a campaign staffer, yet he 22 participated in the drafting of the complaint and 23 I want to know what his role is. There's no
 24 privilege involved.

Barry Bennett

1 importantly Mrs. Schmidt is the complainant in
 2 this matter, and I'm just asking what role he had
 3 in the drafting of the complaint and his attorney
 4 is instructing him not to answer.

5 MR. BENEY: Well, it's not usual for a
 6 for a named party that may not be the -- that you
 7 do represent as counsel in the Elections
 8 Commission, but may not be the only entity or 9 person you represent. You know, for example,
 10 whenever an entity files something, they have to 11 file it through a named party who is -- who signs
 12 an affidavit. You know, that's how it works.

13 Sometimes, you know, we name that party as a party
 14 to the complaint, sometimes we don't, you know,
 15 for various reasons.

16 But Mr. Bennett has testified that he 17 is the person who hires, on behalf of the 18 campaign, the campaign manager who is accountable
 19 to him, that he doesn't involve himself on a
 20 day-to-day basis, but he does involve himself on 21 the big pictures, on television ads and other ads
 22 and he -- and he makes decisions about that. You
 23 know, he doesn't do the fundraising, but he makes 24 sure that there's a fundraising plan and -- and

BARRY BENNETT August 31, 2009

1 MR. BENNY: Well, we believe there is a
 2 privilege. We also believe that even if there
 3 weren't a privilege, which there is and that's the
 4 prime basis for our objection, there is -- there
 5 is nothing that's relevant to his role in drafting
 6 the complaint as to the merits of the complaint.
 7 You know, we're talking about a -- the drafting
 8 took place this year. We're talking about the 9 truth or falsity of statements that took place --
 10 that were made in November of 2009. And,
 11 actually, let's call Chris Finney and his 12 so counsel. But I think there has been an attempt 13 to make Bruce Fein and his counsel be the issue of 14 activities that took place in 2009 which have not 15 been linked up in any way, shape or form to -- to 16 money going into Jean Schmidt's campaign, which is 17 one of the allegations, or to her in 2009. You
 18 know, there is a privilege; it's a clear
 19 privilege. Saying that there's no privilege
 20 doesn't make it so. And there's more product in 21 addition to the attorney/client privilege. And 22 the matter is forefront and goes far beyond the 23 standard which was enunciated by Chris Finney at 24 the June 1, 2009 deposition of -- of

BARRY BENNETT August 31, 2009

1 Mr. Kilfoian, that unless -- unless it's going to
 2 be, you know, directly relevant to one of the 3 allegations at hand, we're not going to go into
 4 it. And I think that's what's happening here.
 5 MR. FINNEY: Right, I really don't want
 6 to talk these things to death, I want to get home
 7 tonight so --
 8 MR. BENNETT: Well, I understand. And
 9 I don't want to necessarily want to get involved
 10 with it either. I guess I'm -- if the assertions
 11 are relating to Mr. Kilfoian statements about,
 12 you know, the blood money, all that kind of stuff,
 13 what the -- the nature of who prepared what and
 14 their involvement in preparing the complaint, now
 15 has to do with information relating to those 16 statements.
 17 MR. FINNEY: Well, first of all,
 18 because we intend to go after the parties involved
 19 for frivolous complaint at that hearing, and I
 20 want to talk about how it is that these statements
 21 were made and what people knew about them. Mr. --
 22 there's a key article that was written by Mr. Fein
 23 in which he basically says that Ms. Schmidt is an
 24 American gun-side denier and yet -- it's sorry.

MR. BRET: She did defer to him I think about five times, twenty in an exaggeration. But maybe it was more than five and less than twenty, who knows. But he's here to testify about what he knows about the allegations to the complaint. In terms of drafting the complaint, that's irrelevant to those allegations. And in terms of his hope that he will somehow prove that there is something frivolous, there's nothing there. And besides, you can't get rid of the attorney/client privilege -- that even -- that is irrelevant to the case at hand.

MR. FINNEY: Again, I'll just say one more time, Phil, he was a Congressional staffer, not a campaign staffer, and he certainly isn't Mrs. Schmidt and he's not her attorney. There is no privilege.

MR. BRET: Anyone in the campaign was accountable to him. He volunteered for the campaign, he's testified to that. He testified that he hired the campaign manager who did the day-to-day but who answered to him.

MR. FINNEY: Did you have --

Did I -- that's -- I misstate the record? MR. BRET: That is absolutely false and has been denied by every witness who's -- MR. FINNEY: Well, I can read you the statement if you want, Phil, but I don't want to waste your time.

MR. SCHUMER: Well, when. What does that have to do with Barry Bennett here?

MR. FINNEY: Because I want to know how those statements came to be made and what the background is on them, what he knows about them. Because it turns out Mrs. Schmidt and during --

You may remember three years ago when we took Mrs. Schmidt's deposition and she refused to show up at the Ohio Elections Commission hearing for her false statement charges. She didn't remember anything. She didn't know anything. When I took her deposition this year, she said the same thing: I don't know; I have no idea; my chief of staff handled it, and she departed at least 20 different times to Barry Bennett saying he handled it, he would know. And so I'm asking him those questions instead of her because she's the one that deferred to him.

Barry Bennett August 21, 2009

1 MR. RICHTER: We've gone far enough
 2 filed here. And that's the question that's being
 3 obscured to again?

4 MR. FINNEY: I'm just now trying to get
 5 to the inner workings of the drafting of the 6 complaint and how did it come about. And I wanted
 7 to ask him about statements, then, in the
 8 complaint and how those were written and created.

9 MR. BREVY: Which goes to the heart of 10 communications between counsel and client in 11 preparing the comment that was ultimately filed.

12 MR. RICHTER: I think it's all kind of
 13 renews, but I'm inclined to grant that privilege
 14 at this point. I -- I'm -- I'm not clear on how
 15 that goes to the nature of Mr. Kricorian's
 16 statements. I'm not getting the image there.

17 MR. FINNEY: Well, that's fine, Phil.
 18 We'll get to it at the hearing. It's no problem.
 19 I really don't want to belabor it.

20 MR. BREVY: Thank you, Phil.

21 MR. RICHTER: Have a good day,
 22 gentlemen.

23 MR. FINNEY: Phil, if we have anything
 24 more tonight, is there a number we can call you

Barry Bennett August 24, 2009

1 after the office is closed or are we done for the
 2 day?

3 MR. RICHTER: I'll give you my cell
 4 phone number. You guys have got to promise not to
 5 use it over otherwise. [Excerpted out and bound
 6 separately.]

7 MR. BREVY: 4134?

8 MR. RICHTER: Oh-huh.

9 MR. FINNEY: Thank you.

10 MR. RICHTER: Have a good day,
 11 gentlemen.

12 MR. BREVY: He's going to say that,
 13 you know.

14 SE MR. FINNEY:
 15 Q. Mr. Bennett, do you have an official
 16 role with the Schmidt for Congress campaign?
 17 A. What do you mean by "official"?
 18 Q. Well, do you have a title?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Did you have official responsibilities?
 21 A. I had responsibilities.
 22 Q. And what were those responsibilities?
 23 A. Make sure the campaign was executed in 24 the manner that needed to be done.

1 your office?

2 A. I have in the past. I would like to be

3 refreshed if you have them.

4 Q. Well, I can give you copies of

5 documents that have been produced by your two

6 offices. Somewhere in there is the LaRocco

7 exchange I believe. Yeah, it's right on the 8 front.

9 So my question is in this document,

10 which is two pages, there are three different

11 quotes from Jean Schmidt's office. Do you see

12 that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Would you agree that each of those

15 quotes accurately reflect statements that

16 Mr. LaRocco made to Dr. Mikorian in 2008 or

17 really on -- I'm sorry, 2007 on the dates noted?

18 A. I'm happy to look. Can you point me in 19 the right direction here?

20 Q. Well, I think beside each quote is a

21 date, if we can find the corresponding e-mails.

22 On the fourth page of the document there's an

23 e-mail from Mr. LaRocco dated 3-23-07, and I think

24 that correlates with the first quote.

63

1 Q. Okay, who is Ben LaRocco?

2 A. Ben LaRocco was a legislative aid that

3 worked in our office.

4 Q. And there was at some point an exchange

5 between -- well, let me go ahead and go to the --

6 I think it's Exhibit A to the complaint. Or

7 Exhibit 1 to the complaint.

8 - - - - -

9 Thereupon, defendant's Exhibit B is marked

10 for purposes of identification.

11 - - - - -

12 MR. FINNEY: Do you have that already?

13 Don?

14 MR. BRYE: Do you have a copy?

15 MR. FINNEY: Oh, sure. I have copies.

16 Q. Have you seen this document that's been

17 marked as Exhibit D before?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And this is a publication with

20 Mikorian for Congress campaign that is one of the 21 documents that's the subject of this complaint?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. And have you looked at the e-mail

24 exchanges between Mr. Skikorian and Mr. LaRocco of

1 A. I guess I don't see where any sentence
 2 starts with "at this time."
 3 Q. Okay. It doesn't start. It -- if you
 4 start after the word "though," which is the second
 5 sentence of the bigger paragraph.
 6 A. Okay. So it's a truncated -- okay.
 7 Well, no, that's not an accurate quote at all.
 8 The first one in this document is not accurate;
 9 it's contrived.
 10 Q. Because there's no ellipsis there?
 11 A. Well, there's -- there's -- he left out
 12 a big part of the sentence plus the first word,
 13 yes he quotes it as if it's an entire sentence
 14 and capitalizes "at." That's incorrect.
 15 Q. But --
 16 A. In college he would get an F.
 17 Q. But you would -- yeah, because you're
 18 -- you're boss has never lied in any campaign
 19 statements, correct?
 20 A. I'm familiar with the Fs in college.
 21 We'll just leave it at that.
 22 Q. But you acknowledge on the fourth page
 23 that that's a statement of Ben Labacco of 24 Mr. Schmidt's office is that right?

1 A. The fourth -- you're going to have to
 2 help me. Where are you referring to now?
 3 Q. The fourth page of Exhibit -- whatever
 4 she's marked that.
 5 A. This -- this is an e-mail from Ben --
 6 Q. You would acknowledge that that is an
 7 e-mail from Ben Labacco to Mr. Kirkorian --
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. --dated 3-26-07 is that right?
 10 A. Correct. And it's not accurately
 11 reflected on this document.
 12 Q. Okay. And then the second one if you
 13 go to the third page of that exhibit, there's an
 14 e-mail from Mr. Labacco there.
 15 A. This one comes to the -- it's one
 16 sentence lifted out of context, but, sure, that 17 one sentence seemed to be typed correctly.
 18 Q. Okay. And then May 11th, 2007, which I
 19 think is on the -- let's see if I can find that 20 one. Do you want to find that one, David? I'm 21 not seeing that. I think let's in your answer.
 22 MR. KIRKORIAN: Oh, was it --
 23 MR. FENNEY: I'm asking.
 24 MR. KIRKORIAN: I don't see it in here.

48

1 Q. And do you deny --

2 A. ... is that she has --

3 Q. Do you deny that she has taken $30,000

4 from Turkish interests?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. She didn't accept $30,000 in campaign

7 contributions from Turkish-related interests?

8 A. Exactly. She has not taken money from

9 Turkish interests.

10 Q. How much has she taken?

11 A. Zero. It's illegal to take any from

12 Turkish interests.

13 Q. Well, yes, we identified Exhibit C in

14 which you acknowledge --

15 A. Those are Turkish-American donations.

16 Q. Let me finish my question. You have to

17 let me finish my question, and then you're allowed

18 to answer, okay?

19 A. Uh-huh.

20 Q. You identify something as a Turkish

21 grant, and I think I referred to it as

22 Turkish-related donations. You did not get

23 Turkish-related donations from your Turkish event?

24 A. No. There are no Turkish donations .

49

1 Q. Okay. But at least for the -- so these

2 are the statements that you're claiming in which

3 Mr. Krikorian accused your client of a crime: Is

4 that right?

5 A. Well, we think that the lead in bold

6 and the big black square would probably be the

7 first one I'd like to talk about.

8 Q. And that is accusing her of a crime

9 because why?

10 A. That she has taken $30,000 in blood

11 money to deny the genocide of Christian Armenians

12 by Muslim Turks.

13 Q. And in the complaint the statement is

14 made four different times that Ms. Schmidt says

15 she's never denied the Armenian genocide. That is

16 what's untruthful about that statement?

17 A. No. What's untruthful about the 18 statement is she has taken a bribe of $30,000 to 19 deny something.

20 Q. So the something is not what's untrue?

21 A. I would -- I would disagree with the 22 something, too.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. The crime --

BARRY BENNETT August 31, 2008

69

1 Q. They're American donations.

2 Q. Really?

3 A. Yes, really.

4 Q. Let's go to the document that starts

5 with that. It's in front of you. If you go to

6 the --- I don't know if they're copied on both

7 sides in that document? I hope so.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So --

10 MR. BERRY: I'm sorry. What document

11 are we looking at?

12 Q. Page 9 of that.

13 A. It looks like this. It's not numbered.

14 I don't know what it is.

15 MR. FINNEY: That's not numbered. We

16 need to number that one.

17 (A short recess is taken.)

18 - - - - -

19 Thereupon, Defendant's Exhibit B is marked

20 for purposes of identification.

21 - - - - -

22 Q. So the ninth page of that, which would

23 be on the fifth piece of paper.

24 A. Yes.

70

1 Q. There's an e-mail from Phil Greenberg

2 dated February 20th, 2008.

3 A. Oh-huh.

4 Q. This is the official campaign

5 fundraiser for Mrs. Schmidt?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. Why don't you read that e-mail to me.

8 A. The subject, "Pwgi: Breakdown of

9 Turkish-American contributions to Congressman

10 Jean Schmidt" date: 2/20/2008 so -- do you want

11 me to spell out the addressee?

12 Q. You don't need to. Just who is

13 dave@jensschmidt.com?

14 A. dave@jensschmidt.com. Oh, Dave is Dave

15 Ward.

16 Q. Okay. And what does the body of the 17 e-mail say?

18 A. "Hi, Peter and Dave, Here's a

19 breakdown of the Turkish contributions that are

20 'on the way' or have been contributed."

21 Q. Didn't you just tell me it would be

22 illegal for Mrs. Schmidt to accept Turkish

23 contributions --

24 A. Yes, I'm sorry. Sorry. Yes, it is.

1 a big difference between Turkish contributions and
 2 legal donations from American citizens who happen
 3 to be of Turkish origin.
 4 Q. Well, I'll tell you what, I -- for
 5 purposes of what you think your position is at
 6 this point in time, I'll accept that. But when I
 7 ask you a question about Turkish-related
 8 contributions, I really don't want to fight with 9 you about it. I'm just using your terminology,
 10 okay?
 11 A. Dr. Fein --
 12 MR. SNEY: I would object. You're not
 13 using his terminology. You're using someone in 14 the campaign's internal terminology.
 15 A. Dr. Finney --
 16 Q. My point is Mrs. Schmidt has accepted
 17 more than $10,000 in contributions from these, as 18 you all phrase them, Turkish contributions and
 19 Turkish folks, hasn't she?
 20 A. No, to my knowledge she has not.
 21 Q. How much has she accepted to your 22 knowledge?
 23 A. I don't know.
 24 Q. Well, you're the one that brought the

1 And if you look at the subject line, it says this
 2 is a breakdown of the Turkish-American
 3 contributions.
 4 Q. I see.
 5 A. So that's obviously a shorthand in the 6 body of the letter, and it does not imply that 7 there's --
 8 Q. Go ahead.
 9 A. Excuse me. It does not imply that the
 10 donations are of Turkish origin.
 11 Q. And then go two more pages in.
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Why don't you read that e-mail to me.
 14 You can start with the subject line there, too.
 15 A. "Turkish Checks arrive in Columbus. We 16 got $4,000 from Turkish folks. That should finish
 17 up the event. Will bring it over when I'm down
 18 next."
 19 Q. Okay. And so you were objecting to my
 20 terminology of Turkish-related contributions,
 21 Turkish contributions, but your own campaign staff
 22 refers to these as Turkish folks, Turkish checks
 23 and Turkish contributions, right?
 24 A. Actually, I'm just pointing out there's

1 complaint, right? I mean, you said that the
 2 Congressional campaign worked on this. Mr. Fein
 3 represents the Congressional campaign. You're the 4 one that alleged that Mr. Kirkorian has not -- was 5 wrong in saying that she has taken $30,000 of this
 6 money from Turks. Now you're saying that you
 7 don't know how much it is, which is it?
 8 A. Are you ready for an answer?
 9 Yes.
 10 Q. Thank you. I don't know what the 11 amount is. You've got all of the donations. You
 12 can certainly tally them up. I believe your
 13 mathematic skills are at least as good as mine.
 14 None of them are Turkish donations, which is what 15 he wants to call them. He wants to imply that 16 we've taken money from a foreign government, and
 17 he did over and over and over again in exchange
 18 for doing something, which is a bribe.
 19 Q. Okay. But your own campaign refers to 20 them as Turkish contributions.
 21 A. Our own campaign has no -- has not --
 22 Mr. -- in the two e-mails that you've pointed out,
 23 Mr. Greenberg has short-handed them as Turkish
 24 donations.

August 31, 2006
Barry Bennett

1 Q. Was Mr. Greenberg lying when he sent
 2 those e-mails?
 3 A. I think that's Mr. Greenberg's
 4 shorthand. If you have knowledge that those are,
 5 in fact, foreign contribution, you should report
 6 them, or if you let me know, I will.
 7 Would this be a good time to take a 15-
 8 break?
 9 MR. FINNEY: Sure. Absolutely.
 10 MR. BRET: Let's take a break.
 11 (A short recess is taken.)
 12 Q. Can you tell me all the contacts that 13 your office has had with the Turkish -- with 14 lobbyists for the Turkish government or with 15 Turkish government officials?
 16 A. Well, I can only tell you about the 17 ones that I participated in. I don't have dates,
 18 but I think you've got those. Livingston came
 19 over once. It seems like he brought the -- if I
 20 remember right, he brought the ambassador with 21 him.
 22 Q. And when was that?
 23 A. You know, I don't -- I know you've got
 24 the date. I don't -- we given you the schedule?

11 Q. In Turkey?

12 A. In Iraq.

13 Q. In Iraq.

14 Okay. Anything else that they talked

16 A. We probably talked about the status of

17 the talks between Armenia and Turkey. I don't

19 Q. And what is the issue there?

20 A. Establishing diplomatic relations, you

7 A. Because it would be illegal for them to

The Honorable Zoe Lofgren
Chair
Committee on Standards of Official Conduct
Room 3117-2
United State Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairwoman Lofgren:

The purpose of this letter is to seek guidance regarding the payment of legal fees associated with a case in which my campaign and I are now involved.

In the last few days of the most recent congressional campaign, one of my opponents distributed material that accused me of accepting a bribe of thirty thousand dollars from the Government of Turkey in exchange for delaying or covering up the genocide of Armenians living in Turkey during World War I. In the same campaign materials, my opponent further opined that I should immediately resign my office for committing this crime or be voted out of office.

In response to his outrageous allegations, I filed a complaint with the Ohio Elections Commission, which is the arbiter of false campaign statements under Ohio Law. Once the Commission rules that a false statement was made, it is my intention to seek damages in Civil Court under the process set forth by the law creating the Elections Commission. I am confident that I will prevail and be awarded damages.

The issue upon which I am requesting the Committee's guidance involves the payment of attorney's fees associated with this case. Specifically, I would appreciate the Committee's comments on the four payment options outlined below.

1. May I enter into a standard attorney contingency fee arrangement wherein my attorneys would receive a portion of all damages awarded in this litigation? As you may be aware, the Internal Revenue Service does not recognize this type of agreement as a taxable benefit to the plaintiff should the plaintiff lose the litigation. Does the House apply the same standard? I believe it is extremely likely that my campaign will be awarded damages in this case. Does this fact influence the Committee's consideration of this issue?

Thank you.

2. Should the Committee find a contingency arrangement inappropriate for legal fees incurred while the case is before the Elections Commission, is it appropriate to enter into a contingency agreement for the portion of the case that comes before the Ohio Court of Common Pleas? When the case gets to this point, it would be a near certainty that damages will be awarded. Additionally, the Internal Revenue Service does not view these legal arrangements as a taxable benefit to the plaintiff in such cases.
3. May I establish a Legal Expense Fund, under terms and conditions set by the Committee, to defend against these accusations of official misconduct?
4. And finally, can campaign funds be used to pay for the expenses associated with this litigation?

I deeply appreciate your consideration of this request. While my situation appears to be rare, I understand that many other states are considering institutions similar to the Ohio Elections Commission to adjudicate the truthfulness of statements made during a campaign. I would expect the Committee will see requests similar to mine in the near future.

Sincerely,

Jean Schmidt

Dear Colleague:

This responds to your letter of September 17, 2009, seeking an advisory opinion regarding two options for payment of legal expenses incurred in connection with a case you filed in 2009 regarding false campaign statements.¹ As discussed below, the establishment of a legal expense fund and the use of campaign funds are both permissible options for payment of legal expenses in connection with both past and future proceedings, subject to the limitations below.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

According to your letter and additional information provided to Committee counsel, the background in this matter is as follows. In the final days of the 2008 general election campaign, one of your opponents, David Krikorian, distributed materials accusing you of accepting a $30,000 bribe from the Government of Turkey in exchange for denying or covering up the genocide of Armenians in Turkey during World War I. The campaign materials also called for your immediate resignation from your congressional seat and/or your defeat at the polls in the 2008 general election. You were re-elected in the November 2008 general election.

In April 2009, you filed a sworn complaint against Mr. Krikorian with the Ohio Elections Commission (Election Commission), which has jurisdiction over false campaign statements under Ohio law. See Ohio Rev. Code § 3517.21. Based on the Election Commission's jurisdiction, you filed the complaint as a candidate with your campaign committee address. That complaint sought: (1) a finding by the Elections Commission that Mr. Krikorian violated § 3517.21 by making false campaign statements; (2) a public reprimand; and (3) any other appropriate relief. On or about October 1, 2009, you received a finding of fact from the Elections Commission that there was clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Krikorian made false statements with malice.

Under Ohio law, you were required to file any civil action seeking damages in the Ohio Court of Common Pleas (Ohio Court) no later than one year from the date of infraction. As that

¹ Your request for guidance was amended by your staff on your behalf on January 21, 2010, due to changed circumstances since your letter was submitted.

Schmidt_0001
11-6574_0273

time period has expired, you will not be filing a civil action to recover damages in this matter. However, Mr. Krikorian has filed an appeal in the Ohio Court seeking to overturn the administrative ruling by the Election Commission. Both you and the Ohio Attorney General are named parties in the appeal, and you will incur additional legal fees to participate in those proceedings. Finally, Mr. Krikorian has also filed a civil suit in federal court challenging the constitutionality of the Elections Commission ruling. You are not a named party to this federal court case and do not anticipate any involvement in that separate litigation.

You have not used your House staff or campaign staff to support this litigation. Barry Bennett, your chief of staff, is familiar with the case, but his official involvement has been limited to assisting House General Counsel with regard to discovery request responses, being deposed concerning such discovery requests, and working with the Committee to obtain guidance on the issues in your September 17, 2009, letter.

Your attorney in this matter has been Bruce Fein of the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (TALDF). You have not signed any retainer or representation agreement with Mr. Fein, but he did provide you with a proposed contingency fee contract. Because you are not filing any civil action to recover damages, you will not be entering into the contingency fee contract with Mr. Fein. To date, Mr. Fein estimates that 200 hours have been worked by the attorneys in your case, but you have not yet been billed as you are awaiting this Committee's guidance regarding the permissibility of the proposed options for payment of legal expenses in this matter.

According to information in public databases and Web sites, TALDF is a project of the Turkish Coalition of America (TCA). TCA is a § 501(c)(3) organization under the Internal Revenue Code, which has employed registered federal lobbyists under the Lobbying Disclosure Act in the past.² It appears that TALDF issued a press release and request for a criminal investigation against Mr. Krikorian on November 3, 2008, regarding the same allegations of false campaign statements that underlie your complaint with the Elections Commission. Both TALDF and TCA issued statements regarding the favorable ruling in your case on October 2, 2009.

You seek Committee guidance regarding two options for paying legal expenses both for legal work already completed during the Elections Commission proceedings, and future legal work on your behalf in the appellate case in the Ohio Court:

1. Establishing a Legal Expense Fund under the Committee's regulations; or
2. Using campaign funds from your principal campaign committee.

You have not yet contacted the Federal Election Committee (FEC) regarding either of these options, but intend to consult with the FEC after you receive the Committee's opinion as to what is permissible under House rules. Each of these options are discussed separately below.

² Lobbying disclosure act filings reflect individuals registered to lobby on behalf of TCA in 2008, but that registration was terminated as of December 31, 2008.

The Honorable Jean Schmidt

LEGAL BACKGROUND

1. Legal Expense Fund

Under a provision of the gift rule, a Member, officer, or employee may accept "a contribution or other payment to a legal expense fund established for the benefit of [the official] that is otherwise lawfully made in accordance with the restrictions and disclosure requirements of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct."³ Under the Committee's Legal Expense Fund regulations, a Member may not receive or solicit donations to such a fund without prior approval of the Trust agreement by the Committee.⁴

Under the Committee's regulations, a fund may be established only when the legal expenses arise in connection with one of the following matters:

- The individual's candidacy for or election to federal office;
- The individual's official duties or position in Congress (including a matter before the Standards Committee);
- A criminal prosecution; or
- A civil matter bearing on the individual's reputation or fitness for office.⁵

The Committee will not grant permission to establish a fund when legal expenses arise in connection with a matter that is primarily personal in nature, such as a matrimonial action.⁶ The rules governing the operation of a Legal Expense Fund include:

- No contribution may be solicited for or accepted by a fund prior to the Committee's written approval of the completed trust document and the trustee;⁷
- A fund must be established as a trust, administered by a trustee who is entirely independent of the Member and has no family, business or employment relationship with the Member;⁸
- Trust funds can be used only to pay legal expenses, or the expenses incurred in soliciting for or administering the trust;⁹

- A fund may not accept more than $5,000 in a calendar year from any individual or organization, but, in accordance with the gift rule, no contribution may be accepted from a registered lobbyist or foreign agent;¹⁰
- Excess funds must be returned to the contributors;¹¹ and
- A fund may not pay for legal services for anyone other than the named beneficiary except with the Committee's written permission. Written Committee permission is also required for any amendment of the trust document and any change in the trustee.¹²

Once a Legal Expense Trust agreement has been approved by the Committee, the Member must file an executed copy with the Office of the Clerk, Legislative Resource Center which is placed on the public record.¹³ In addition, Members must file quarterly reports on the public record regarding certain contributions and expenditures under the Committee's regulations.¹⁴

2. Use of Campaign Funds

The Committee has long advised Members to consult with the Committee prior to using campaign funds for legal expenses to ensure that the legal services are ones that the Member may properly pay with campaign funds. House Rule 23, clause 6 provides as follows:

A Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner----

- (a) shall keep the campaign funds of such individual separate from the personal funds of such individual;
- (b) may not convert campaign funds to personal use in excess of an amount representing reimbursement for legitimate and verifiable campaign expenditures; and
- (c) except as provided in clause 1(b) of rule [24], may not expend funds from a campaign account[] of such individual that are not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.

While the rule permits the use of campaign funds for "bona fide campaign or political purposes," it does not include a definition of that phrase. The Committee has long advised that

Members have wide discretion to determine whether any particular expenditure would serve such purposes, provided that the Member does not convert campaign funds to personal or official uses (other than as permitted by House Rule 24, clause 1(b)).¹⁵ Put another way, the rule is not interpreted "to limit the use of campaign funds strictly to a Member's reelection campaign," but instead is interpreted "broadly to encompass the traditional politically-related activities of Members of Congress."¹⁶

In accordance with these principles, the Committee has determined that it is generally permissible under House rules for a Member to use campaign funds to pay for the Member's own legal fees which arise in connection with the Member's campaign, election, or the performance of official duties.¹⁷

ANALYSIS

1. Legal Expense Fund

The legal expenses you incurred in connection with the Elections Commission action were directly related to your candidacy for federal office in 2008 – one of the specific permissible types of actions under the Committee's Legal Expense fund regulations. Therefore, it would be generally permissible for you to establish and solicit for a legal expense fund to pay these fees already incurred. Moreover, the legal expenses to be incurred in the Ohio Court case that appeals the Election Commission's ruling are also directly related to your candidacy for federal office in 2008. Therefore, it would be generally permissible for you to solicit for a legal expense fund to pay these current and future legal fees as well.

There is no restriction under the Committee's Legal Expense Fund Regulations that would bar the establishment of such a trust fund to pay past legal expenses, so long as no solicitation or receipt of donations occurred before the Committee's written approval of the trust agreement. Thus, before you may begin accepting or soliciting for donations to cover past and future legal expenses as described above, the Committee must approve your proposed trust agreement. If you are interested in pursuing this option, please contact the Committee with a letter seeking approval of a specific legal expense fund with a draft trust agreement and nomination of a trustee pursuant to the Committee's regulations discussed above.

2. Use of Campaign Funds

As an alternative, we conclude that it is within your discretion to use campaign funds for your legal expenses already incurred in connection with the Elections Commission action because these expenses are for a legal action arising out of your candidacy for federal office, as well as your official duties and responsibilities. Since no money damages were awarded in this case, the payment of legal expenses for this action does not implicate the prohibition on conversion of campaign funds to personal use. It is also within your discretion to use campaign funds for your legal expenses in connection with the pending Ohio Court case that appeals the Election Commission's ruling matter because these expenses are for a legal action arising out of the same facts relating to your candidacy and official duties at issue in the Election Commission action. This authority extends to expenditure of funds from your principal campaign committee for past legal expenses in connection with the proceedings at the Elections Commission and for current and future legal expenses in connection with the Ohio Court case appealing the Election Commission ruling.

Finally, as a reminder, you should be cautious to avoid any appearance of special favors or additional access for TALDF or TCA based on your business relationship with these groups.¹⁸ TCA did employ registered lobbyists in the past, and very likely will continue to have issues pending before Congress.¹⁹ Accordingly, we advise you to keep in mind these standards of conduct during the time you are working with TALDF.

LIMITATIONS

Pursuant to the Federal Election Campaign Act, the FEC administers a separate set of restrictions on the use of campaign funds. Although our understanding is that the FEC generally permits the use of campaign funds and the establishment of legal expense funds for legal expenses arising out of a Member's congressional campaign and official duties, interpretation of FEC regulations is outside this Committee's jurisdiction. If you have not already done so, you should consult with the FEC to determine whether either course of conduct is permissible under the applicable law and regulations.

The response above constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of House Rules 23 and 25 and the Code of Ethics for Government Service. The following limitations apply to this opinion:

- This advisory opinion is issued only to Representative Jean Schmidt, the requestor of this opinion. This advisory opinion cannot be relied upon by any other individual or entity.
- This advisory opinion is limited to the provisions of the House rules and the Code of Ethics for Government Service specifically noted above. No opinion is expressed or implied herein regarding the application of any other federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other law that may be applicable to the proposed conduct described in this letter, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code and the Federal Election Campaign Act.

¹⁹ In addition, we note that you accepted a privately-sponsored trip to Turkey from TCA in 2009, which must be disclosed on your Financial Disclosure Statement in May 2010.

The Honorable Jean Schmidt

- This advisory opinion will not bind or obligate any entity other than the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct of the United States House of Representatives.
- This advisory opinion is limited in scope to the specific proposed conduct described in this letter and does not apply to any other conduct, including that which appears similar in nature or scope to that described in this letter.

The Committee will take no adverse action against you in regard to any conduct that you undertake, or have undertaken, in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion, so long as you have presented a complete and accurate statement of all material facts relied upon herein, and the proposed conduct in practice conforms with the information you provided, as addressed in this opinion.

Changes or other developments in the law (including, but not limited to, the Code of Official Conduct, House rules, Committee guidance, advisory opinions, statutes, regulations or case law) may affect the analysis or conclusions drawn in this advisory opinion. The Committee reserves the right to reconsider the questions and issues raised in this advisory opinion and to rescind, modify, or terminate this opinion if required by the interests of the House. However, the Committee will rescind an advisory opinion only if relevant and material facts were not completely and accurately disclosed to the Committee at the time the opinion was issued. In the event that this advisory opinion is modified or terminated, the Committee will not take any adverse action against you with respect to any action taken in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion so long as such conduct or such action was promptly discontinued upon notification of the modification or termination of this advisory opinion.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

 2 being fairly duly sworn, testified and says as
 3 follows:
 4 CROSS-EXAMINATION
 5 BY MR. GERAGOS:
 6 Q. Thank you. Good morning. Mr. Fein, we
 7 introduced ourselves off the record. I'm Mark
 8 Geragos, and I represent David Kirkorian along
 9 with Charles Finney who is also present. You've 10 have today with your lawyer.
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Okay. And --
 13 A. Mr. Don Brey.
 14 Q. And I understand that you have -- have 15 you had your deposition taken before? Have you
 16 taken a deposition?
 17 A. I have taken depositions. I've had my
 18 deposition taken in other cases.
 19 Q. Okay. And you understand what a
 20 deposition is, you're under oath and that there's 21 going to be a record made of this and that can be
 22 used later on either to impeach you, support
 23 you --
 24 A. Yes. I do.

1 MR. BREY: I -- I probably should 6
 2 interject at this point. I know I emailed you
 3 folks about this, but I also know that,
 4 Mr. Geragos, you were not present at the
 5 deposition of Mr. Kirkorian --
 6 MR. GERAGOS: Oh-huh.
 7 MR. BREY: -- when Mr. Finney did state
 8 that this is a political matter and unless it has 9 some specific bearing on the allegations, the 10 complainants don't really go there in terms of 11 you're not going to explore and fish into 12 Mr. Kirkorian's background for purposes of getting 13 political text that Mrs. Schmidt wants to throw at 14 him at a later date. So unless you can give me
 15 some idea why -- I think there was a question that
 16 I believe I withdrew -- that's remotely relevant
 17 to the allegation of this complaint, Armenian
 18 genocide and the allegations that Mr. Kirkorian
 19 has made about it, we're not going to answer that 20 question or any other questions that really are 21 not pertinent to the issues at hand. This is page
 22 10 of the transcript.
 23 And he goes on and says that we're
 24 going to try to limit this to the issues at hand

August 31, 2019

Benise Fein

1 amongst others talked about forming a Turkish
 2 American Legal Defense Fund as an arm similar to
 3 the NAACP Legal Defense Fund and other legal
 4 defense funds to protect free speech rights.
 5 Q. So my question was --
 6 A. So to that extent, was I a participant
 7 in discussing it, yes.
 8 Q. No. I asked you if you formed it. In
 9 other words, did you --
 10 A. Oh, form?
 11 Q. -- prepare the legal documents?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Did you come up with the idea for it?
 14 A. By myself, no.
 15 Q. Well, did you do it in connection with 16 somebody else?
 17 A. I think I participated in discussing
 18 this idea, yes.
 19 Q. With who?
 20 A. David Saltzman, who is also a lawyer
 21 for the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund. I
 22 think I may have discussed it with Wincoin McCurdy
 23 as well.
 24 Q. Okay. And would you -- do you remember

August 31, 2019

Benise Fein

1 instead of giving her whatever ammunition she
 2 wants for her political activities. And I said
 3 okay. I think that's a fair rule of the road as 4 long as you understand it's going to be applied in
 5 both directions.
 6 I don't think you've crossed that. I
 7 just wanted to state at the beginning, but that's 8 my understanding of the rule of the road for what 9 we're here today on.
 10 Q. So Mr. Fein, presently, are you a -- do
 11 you know what the Turkish American Legal Defense
 12 Fund is?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. Do you have a connection to the Turkish
 15 American Legal Defense Fund?
 16 A. Yes, I'm a lawyer with -- it's known as
 17 TALDF is the acronym.
 18 Q. And when you say you're a lawyer, did
 19 you form the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund?
 20 A. I was asked at one time and I still do
 21 work in communications for the Turkish Coalition
 22 of America, and there seemed to be a large number
 23 of First Amendment and related issues that had 24 concerned the Turkish-American community. And I

1 What year that was? 9
2 A. I think it was this year, 2008, or
3 maybe it was late 2007.
4 Q. Okay. And did you --
5 A. Something like that.
6 Q. Did you form -- are there only two
7 principals of the -- you call it TALDP, is that
8 correct?
9 A. That's correct.
10 Q. And are there only two principals of
11 TALDP?
12 A. Yes. If I can explain, TALDP is my
13 understanding is not a separate corporate entity.
14 It is under the umbrella of the Turkish Coalition
15 of America.
16 Q. Okay.
17 A. And it's paid by the Turkish Coalition
18 of America. It's not separately incorporated
19 with a separate board of directors.
20 Q. And are there only two principals or
21 TALDP?
22 A. There are only two lawyers who work for 23 it. The answer is yes if that's --
24 Q. And the two lawyers are you and

1 Mr. Saltzman? 35
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. Who is Mr. Saltzman's partner?
4 A. I don't know.
5 Q. You don't know his partner?
6 A. As -- I mean in TALDP? No, he works
7 with me.
8 Q. Does he have a partner in his law firm?
9 A. What's his law firm's name?
10 MR. BREY: I would object.
11 Q. Do you know his law firm?
12 MR. BREY: I would object.
13 MR. GERARDS: I understand you're
14 objecting. Are you instructing him not to answer?
15 MR. BREY: I would object and ask you
16 to tell me, give me some idea why that's remotely
17 relevant to the allegations of the complaint --
18 MR. GERARDS: Okay. We're laying a
19 foundation --
20 MR. BREY: ... and your meaning of 21 genocide and the --
22 MR. GERARDS: When I finish -- It's all
23 foundational. It's just establishing.
24 Q. Who is Mr. -- who is Mr. Saltzman's

1 was an order. If you wanted ground rules, we were
 2 on for over an hour, you could have established
 3 them --
 4 MR. BREY: He established the grounds
 5 rules with -- with, you know --
 6 MR. GERAGOS: I wasn't --
 7 MR. BREY: -- in a deposition.
 8 MR. GERAGOS: -- privy to that.
 9 MR. BREY: You were privy to it, so --
 10 MR. GERAGOS: Whatever you want. I'm 11 asking --
 12 THE REPORTER: One at a time please.
 13 Q. Who is Mr. Saltzman's partner?
 14 MR. BREY: I would --
 15 His law partner.
 16 MR. BREY: I would object unless you
 17 will show me why that's --
 18 MR. GERAGOS: Are you instructing him
 19 not to answer?
 20 MR. BREY: -- remotely relevant to 21 the --
 22 MR. GERAGOS: Then that would be
 23 objection relevant. That's how you do it. So if 24 you want to make the objection relevant --

1 partner?
 2 MR. BREY: Again, I will object --
 3 MR. GERAGOS: Are you instructing him
 4 not to answer? That's all I'm asking.
 5 MR. BREY: Well, I'd like to complete
 6 my objection.
 7 MR. GERAGOS: Well, normally I just
 8 don't do speaking objections. It's just objection
 9 on what the grounds are, and then you can tell him
 10 to answer or not answer.
 11 MR. BREY: Well, my objection is that
 12 the ground rules are that unless you can give me
 13 some idea of --
 14 MR. GERAGOS: I didn't agree to any
 15 ground --
 16 MR. BREY: -- relevance --
 17 MR. GERAGOS: I didn't agree to any
 18 ground rules, so --
 19 MR. BREY: Well, your client --
 20 MR. GERAGOS: I understand. I'm not
 21 here to waste --
 22 MR. BREY: -- through counsel did agree
 23 to the ground rules.
 24 MR. GERAGOS: No. We didn't. There

1 MR. BERRY: You know, you can make your 23
2 objections the way you do. I'll make them the way
3 I do.
4 MR. GERRARD: You can do whatever you
5 want.
6 MR. BERRY: I appreciate that.
7 Q. Can you answer that question?
8 MR. BERRY: I think that if you think
9 you are not bound by the ground rules maybe this 10 is a time that we can have a conversation with 11 Phil Ketcher.
12 MR. GERRARD: We don't need to.
13 Q. Now, did you --
14 MR. BERRY: In that case, I'll instruct
15 him not to answer.
16 Q. The Turkish Coalition of America, are 17 you a member of the Turkish Coalition of 18 America?
19 A. I work with the Turkish Coalition of 20 America on communications. I don't know --
21 there's not a -- to my knowledge, it's not a
22 membership organization.
23 Q. Did you form the Turkish Coalition of 24 America?
A. No.

Exhibit 31, 2009
August 31, 2009

1 Q. Do you know who did?
2 A. It would just be speculation.
3 Q. Well, speculate, who is it?
4 MR. BERRY: Objection. I instruct the
5 witness not to speculate. You're entitled to what
6 he knows and not to what he speculates to.
7 MR. GERRARD: No, I'm entitled to any
8 information that may lead to relevant evidence.
9 MR. BERRY: Speculation --
10 A. Yes, it would be pure speculation. I
11 don't know.
12 Q. And what's the address of the Turkish
13 Coalition of America?
14 A. All I know is the Washington, D.C.
15 address.
16 Q. And what is that address?
17 A. It's 1025 Connecticut Avenue Northwest,
18 Suite 1080.
19 Q. Okay.
20 A. And the zip code is 20036.
21 Q. Is that also the address for the
22 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund?
23 A. Yes, it is.
24 Q. Okay. Is that also an address that you

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009 13

1 use for Fein & Associates?
 2 A. Occasionally, yes.
 3 Q. When you say "occasionally," do you
 4 have another office address besides that?
 5 A. I do. I have an office at -- out of a
 6 home in Wellington, Florida.
 7 Q. Out of where?
 8 A. Wellington, Florida.
 9 Q. Florida. So the only other actual
 10 office that's not in a home is at the same
 11 location as the Turkish American Legal Defense
 12 Fund?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. And that's also the same location of 15 the Turkish Coalition of America?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And specifically, does the location in 18 Washington, D.C. also house any other
 19 organizations that you're aware of?
 20 A. I think that the building houses lots
 21 of different organizations, but --
 22 Q. No, I'm talking --
 23 A. -- I don't know about that.
 24 Q. I'm talking about that floor. Have you

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009 16

1 ever heard of the Assembly of Turkish American
 2 Associations?
 3 A. I have heard of that.
 4 Q. Okay. Didn't you represent them?
 5 A. I didn't represent them. I at one time
 6 -- I worked with them years ago, but I have no
 7 knowledge that they're in that building.
 8 Q. Well, when you say -- didn't you
 9 represent them in the year 2000?
 10 MR. BREY: Objection.
 11 Q. Didn't you represent that the Turkish
 12 -- the ATAA in the year 2000 and 2001?
 13 A. What do you mean by representation?
 14 That's unclear to me.
 15 Q. Did you act as the attorney for them?
 16 A. I did not act as an attorney for them,
 17 no.
 18 Q. No? And you didn't file documents in
 19 the district court of Ohio?
 20 A. I -- I -- I do have a recollection,
 21 yes. Mr. Kristorian, in fact he excused me --
 22 Mr. Geragos, you are in that case. This was a
 23 sentencing proceeding out in Northern District of 24 Ohio concerning a Mourad Topalian.

1 Q. Right. And specifically I'm going to
 2 ask you, did -- you are an attorney at law,
 3 correct?
 4 A. Correct.
 5 Q. And at one point did you office at 6315
 6 Sonny Hill Court in McLean, Virginia?
 7 MR. BREY: Objection. I don't know how
 8 that's relevant to any issue in this case.
 9 MR. GERACOS: Okay. Do you want -- is
 10 that -- are you instructing him not to answer?
 11 MR. BREY: Unless you comply with the
 12 ground rules and tell me --
 13 MR. GERACOS: I'm not complying with 14 any ground rules and any of your nonsense.
 15 MR. BREY: Excuse me. I --
 16 Q. Do you see this, Mr. Fein? Is this
 17 your letterhead?
 18 MR. BREY: I did not --
 19 MR. GERACOS: I don't have -- I don't
 20 -- If you have an objection, state it. If you are 21 just going to stutter, I don't want --
 22 MR. BREY: You have no right to
 23 instruct me. I'm not stuttering --
 24 MR. GERACOS: I can interrupt any time

1 I want.
 2 MR. BREY: Then I will interrupt you
 3 any time I want and complete my objection.
 4 MR. GERACOS: That's fine.
 5 Q. Is this your letterhead, Mr. Fein?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. And that shows you as having an office
 8 in McLean, Virginia, correct?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Okay. Now, is this --
 11 A. That was an --
 12 Q. -- document --
 13 A. -- office that was out of my home.
 14 Q. Is this a document that you wrote and
 15 you authored, the one I'm showing you?
 16 MR. BREY: I would object. This is
 17 attorney/client representation. I mean, you can
 18 ask whether he signed it. But who authored it, I
 19 don't think -- I think that's a work product
 20 protection.
 21 Q. Did you author this?
 22 MR. BREY: Objection. Instruct the
 23 witness not to answer.
 24 Q. Is that your signature?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- represented the Association or the

3 Assembly of Turkish American Associations, ATAA?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when you filed this, it was dated

6 October 20th of 2009; is that correct?

7 A. Yes, that letter is dated October 20th,

8 2009.

9 Q. Okay.

10 MR. GRAGGS: The record could reflect

11 that Tine Glandian, who is an associate of my

12 office, is also present.

13 And I'm going to mark this as

14 exhibit first in order.

15 -- -- --

16 Thereupon, Defendant's Exhibit A is marked

17 for purposes of identification.

18 -- -- --

19 Q. How long had you represented the

20 Assembly of Turkish American Associations by -- at

21 the time of November of 2006?

22 A. My recollection is I represented them

23 in that case for that case. I was not a permanent

24 lawyer for ATAA.

1 A. Privileged.

2 Q. It's privileged as to whether you

3 authored it?

4 Did you address it to a court, a

5 federal district judge?

6 A. It speaks for itself.

7 Q. Well, I didn't ask you if it speaks for

8 itself. Did you address to Ann Aldrich?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And did you file this and have

11 this cause to be filed in a federal district

12 court?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And in there did you write that it's a

15 -- a document that you requested be considered as 16 a memorandum?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And does the first paragraph

19 say: Comes now the Assembly of Turkish American

20 Associations by and through its counsel, Bruce

21 Fern?

22 A. Yes, that's what it says.

23 Q. Was that an accurate statement that

1 Q. When you recall -- when you say your
2 recollection, when I first asked you about this
3 just a couple minutes ago, you had no recollection
4 of ever representing them, is that correct?
5 A. That is right.
6 Q. Okay. And now that I've shown you the 7 actual document, does that refresh your
8 recollection that you did in fact represent them?
9 A. Yes, on that case.
10 Q. And specifically did you not only file
11 a -- something that you called either a memorandum
12 or a letter, did you also make an appearance in 13 this case?
14 A. Yes. I was present and I had an
15 opportunity to make a statement before Judge
16 Aldrich.
17 Q. Okay. Now, who hired you to represent
18 the Assembly of Turkish -- whatever it is?
19 A. I -- I was --
20 Q. The ATAA.
21 A. ATAA had -- I was working with them in
22 a different capacity, not necessarily as a lawyer,
23 writing and examining the record with regard to 24 the application of the genocide convention and the

2 events.
3 Q. And when was that, when were you hired?
4 A. My best recollection would be to around
5 2000, 1999, something like that.
6 Q. Okay. When you say not as a lawyer,
7 what were you retained as?
8 A. Just as a writer and an advocate on
9 this issue and the application of the law there.
10 I was not filling court papers, and I was not
11 retained as a lawyer.
12 Q. And when did that change into you
13 acting as a lawyer?
14 A. That -- I believe they asked me to 15 prepare that document because the Tribunal -- the 16 people at ATAA.
17 Q. Well, who is it that asked you?
18 A. who was the director and the 19 controlling --
20 Q. No, who asked you?
21 A. -- person?
22 Q. Who asked you?
23 A. It would be the people who were running
24 ATAA.

 2 also someone who worked on the day-to-day
 3 operations.
 4 Q. Okay. And there isn't anybody besides
 5 those three, is there, that you ever met?
 6 A. I met them. I can't say I recollect
 7 their particular names, but in meetings there are 8 certainly more than those three.
 9 Q. Well, those three are the only two
 10 whose names you can recollect; is that correct?
 11 A. That is right, yes.
 12 Q. And specifically those three are the 13 only three that have ever contacted you regarding 14 any of these issues directly; isn't that correct?
 15 A. Any of these issues meaning?
 16 Q. Well, any of the -- you've been a --
 17 you consider yourself to be a genocide denier?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Well, haven't you written articles
 20 that -- denying the genocide?
 21 A. I've taken a position on the state of 22 the evidence at present. There has never been in 23 my judgment a tribunal that has adjudicated the 24 case of whether or not the events of 1915

1 Q. Weren't you running ATAA?
 2 A. No, I was not.
 3 Q. You didn't have anything to do with
 4 ATAA except the -- except as some kind of a
 5 scholar or adjunct?
 6 A. That is correct.
 7 Q. Do you know who formed ATAA then?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. Was it you?
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Was it Mr. Saitzman?
 12 A. I don't think so, but I don't know who 13 formed it.
 14 Q. Wasn't Mr. Saitzman and his partner
 15 involved in the ATAA back then?
 16 A. I don't know what their involvement
 17 was. I know that David Saitzman is interested in 18 these issues and he may have been involved. I
 19 think Gunay Evincin was involved in some capacity,
 20 but I don't know whether they formed it.
 21 Q. When you say "involved in some 22 capacity," those are the only two people that you
 23 ever met in connection with ATAA; isn't that
 24 correct?

 17 MR. BREY: Why are you interrupting all

 20 MR. GERAGOS: Because I will conduct

 11 MR. BREY: When he's through with

 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. How many different governments have you

 17 A. One.
 18 Q. What was that?
 19 A. The government of Sudan years ago.
 20 Q. How about the government of Toppe?
 21 A. I think I was.

 10 MR. BREY: That's not how it works.
 11 MR. GERAGOS: That's way a deposition

 13 MR. BREY: No. The way a deposition

 10 A. That's -- yeah, that was --
 11 Q. That is incorrect.
 12 And you've been a registered foreign
 13 agent for at least three other governments; isn't
 14 that correct?
 15 A. I don't have any distinct recollection,

 23 A. I consider that years ago, yes.
 24 Q. Okay. And specifically when you

Brown Page August 31, 2009

1 registered as a foreign agent for Iraq, do you 30

 3 MR. BERRY: I would object and instruct

 10 Q. The Assembly of Turkish American

 15 Q. Okay. Do you know where it's housed?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. Have you referred to yourself as a
 18 resident scholar or an adjunct scholar of the 19 ATAA?
 20 A. Years ago.
 21 Q. Okay. And have you in addition to that

2 Q. Do you know if -- I'm asking you if you

3 go to the ATAA website if there's commentary by

4 you posted on there?

5 A. I don't know. I have not visited the

6 ATAA website.

7 Q. Do you know who operates the ATAA?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with Sible

10 Edmonds?

11 A. The only occasion I've had to encounter

12 her was her deposition in August.

13 Q. Okay. When you --

14 A. In -- in this case.

15 Q. You attended that deposition?

16 A. I attended the deposition, yes, sir.

17 Q. And did you hear about the allegations

18 that she made?

19 A. I listened to everything she said.

20 Q. Okay. And do you have reason to 21 believe that any of those allegations are untrue?

22 A. I have reason to suspect all of them

23 are untrue.

24 Q. Okay. What's the reason that you

Page 289 August 31, 2009

1 suspect that they're untrue? 32

2 A. Well, Mr. Geragosa, she made so many

3 allegations, you would have to start identifying

4 which ones.

5 Q. I will. I will.

6 A. For example one -- I'll give you an

7 example. One of the allegations that she made --

8 Q. Well, you asked me to identify and I

9 will do that.

10 A. Seven allegations. She -- she made

11 allegations that the following members of Congress

12 had taken bribes from the Turkish government:

13 Dennis Hastert, Tom Lantos, Dan Burton, Roy Blunt,

14 Robert Livingston -- let's see, what other one,

15 maybe -- and then those I have reason to believe

16 are all lies.

17 And plus she also made the allegation

18 that a current member of Congress, a woman, had

19 attempted to be blackmail by the FBI and some

20 woman from a Turkish organization by showing that

21 she had lesbian orientation and there are

22 photographs that were taken of her being

23 compromised, but she didn't give the name of this

24 person, there have been speculations afterwards,

Brown 7834 August 31, 2009

1 because she didn't know whether she was 33
 2 unsuccessfully blackmailed as regarding some of her
 3 positions in Congress. Those are some examples of
 4 things that I believe are blatant lies.
 5 Q. Well, let's start with the Livingston,
 6 A. Uh-huh.
 7 Q. Are you familiar with former
 8 Congressman Livingston?
 9 A. Robert Livingston.
 10 Q. Yeah.
 11 A. I know who he is.
 12 Q. And is he registered foreign agent for
 13 the government of Turkey?
 14 A. I have never checked myself.
 15 Q. You don't know as you sit here?
 16 A. Do I -- do I -- she said that. I think
 17 it -- I've heard and read published reports that
 18 it's -- as you well know, Mr. George, when you
 19 register as a foreign agent, you file something
 20 with the Justice Department. I think copies go to 21 the State Department. I have not gone to that --
 22 those registered sites to confirm or not whether
 23 that's true. In the public statements, public
 24 record, newspapers, there's an indication that the

Brown 7834 August 31, 2009

1 Livingston Group, at least at one time, was a 34
 2 registered foreign agent for the government of 3 Turkey.
 4 Q. Have you ever met with Mr. Livingston?
 5 Have you ever met with Mr. Livingston?
 6 A. I met with Mr. Livingston I think the 7 first time when he was a member of Congress, and
 8 it was in conjunction I believe in impeachment of 9 William Jefferson Clinton.
 10 Q. Okay. Well, the -- have you met with
 11 him since then in regards to any Turkish issues?
 12 A. Not with regard to Turkish issues.
 13 Q. Okay. Did you have anything to do with 14 the Livingston Group in a delegation of members of 15 the Turkish parliament and a reception that was 16 hosted by the Turkish Coalition of America with --
 17 that was attended by Jean Schmidt?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. You had nothing to do with that?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. You weren't there?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. You didn't talk to them?
 24 A. No.

August 31, 2009

Suzanne Stein

36

1 Q. And you said you've got reason to
2 believe that Sibile Edmonds' allegations are a lie
3 in regards to Mr. Livingston being bribed?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Okay. And on what do you base that
6 reason?
7 A. No, I, ordinarily if you have
8 allegations of bribery, you take them to the FBI,
9 the Justice Department and you produce some proof
10 of money passing from the government to an 11 individual in exchange for taking a position in 12 Congress. So the gist of her allegations were 13 that, Mr. Geragos, that money was given to these 14 members to shape their view on the particular
15 Armenian resolutions pending in Congress.
16 Now, when I asked Sibile Edmonds at that 17 deposition whether she had ever gone to 18 Mr. Rothhouse or others and claims that these 19 crimes had occurred, she said no. And so based 20 upon the state of the public record, the 21 seriousness of the allegations, and we know the 22 Justice Department, I was there for 15 years, we
23 investigate very seriously allegations of crimes
24 against members of Congress, and that nothing of

1 Q. That sort of inquiry has undertaken, gives me a
2 moral certainty that Mr. Livingston did not take a
3 bribe from the government of Turkish to affect any
4 position he had as a member of Congress.
5 Q. Well, so it's because there was no
6 investigation done? Do you -- did you understand
7 that Ms. Edmonds was under an obligation where she
8 could not report it at the time?
9 MR. GIBBY: Which question do you want
10 an answer to? You asked two.
11 MR. SPARGOS: He doesn't seem to have a
12 problem with answering the question.
13 Q. Do you -- did you understand that when
14 you listened to her deposition?
15 A. She was making all sorts of 16 allegations, and only she could know whether or 17 not -- my understanding of the prohibition was 18 that if she believed something from the public
19 domain, even if it had previously been
20 classified -- because, you know, in her case there
21 had been a retroactive classification of some of 22 the things that she had stated to Congress -- then
23 she could refer to those kind of things. I had 24 asked her whether at present based upon her

1 current status of knowledge she had gone to the 37
2 attorney general, the FBI, and reported those
3 crimes. She said no.
4 Q. Okay. I'm not asking you about that.
5 I'm asking you specifically: Do you have any
6 information that the wire taps that she listened
7 to or any of the investigative reports that she
8 translated and what she testified to independently
9 are false?
10 A. My -- I think the overwhelming
11 circumstantial evidence is yes. I worked with the 12 FBI long, long years. These are people of the 13 highest integrity. There was never a case where I
14 had ever encountered the FBI overlooking a serious
15 allegation of a crime of bribery committed by a
16 member of Congress with indifference. So that if
17 she had that information that would be available
18 to the FBI -- it's a Title III wiretap -- and 19 nothing was done, then that gives me confidence to 20 a moral certainty that the crime had not been 21 committed.
22 Q. I'm not asking you --
23 MR. BREGY: I would also object --
24 I'm not asking you whether you've got a

1 moral certainty. I'm asking you do you have any 38
2 evidence? Did you --
3 A. Circumstantial evidence is evidence in
4 my mind.
5 Q. There's no circumstantial evidence --
6 what circumstantial evidence do you have?
7 A. The circumstantial evidence is that the
8 FBI handles jurisdiction over bribery cases
9 against members of Congress.
10 Q. Right. And --
11 A. And if she had the information in a
12 Title III wiretap available to the FBI, which did
13 nothing --
14 Q. Why --
15 A. -- because the FBI has undertaken no
16 investigation of Mr. Livingston's bribery.
17 Q. Do you know that? How do you know
18 that?
19 A. That is -- because there --
20 Q. How do you know that?
21 MR. BREGY: Objection.
22 A. The circumstantial evidence is 23 overwhelming.
24 Q. What is the circumstantial evidence?

1 problem. I'm asking questions. And I'm not --- we
 2 don't need to call Mr. Richter like reporting to
 3 the principal's office. You're either going to 4 excuse him to answer the questions or you're not.
 5 Q. Mr. Fein, are you going to refuse to
 6 answer the questions?
 7 MR. BREY: We're not doing anything
 8 until we talk to Phil.
 9 A. I'm waiting for my counsel.
 10 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not agreeing to talk
 11 to Mr. Richter about anything.
 12 THE REPORTER: Are we off the record
 13 now?
 14 MR. BREY: It's up to Mr. Geragos.
 15 Let's stay on the record.
 16 (Mr. Richter is called.)
 17 MR. RICHTER: This is Phil Richter.
 18 MR. BREY: Hi, Phil, this is Don Brey.
 19 We're here at my office with a cast of characters.
 20 Bruce Fein is being deposed. We also have 21 Mr. Geragos, who is taking his deposition, and we
 22 have Chris Finney and another woman who's counsel
 23 to --- Tina Giandian?
 24 MS. GIANDIAN: Yes.

1 Because there was no investigation?
 2 A. The regularity of the proceedings of
 3 the FBI. Mr. Geragos, I worked there for 15
 4 years.
 5 MR. BREY: We're going to take a break
 6 right now.
 7 MR. GERAGOS: We've heard that four
 8 times.
 9 MR. BREY: Off the record. We're going
 10 to Phil Richter right now ---
 11 Q. We've heard that four times and ---
 12 MR. BREY: --- to see whether you can
 13 continue interrupting Counsel and ---
 14 Q. Specifically I'm asking you --
 15 MR. GERAGOS: Are you going to stop the
 16 deposition?
 17 MR. BREY: We are going to stop the 18 deposition to talk to Phil because you are using 19 abusive behavior over and over again, interrupting
 20 the witness --
 21 MR. GERAGOS: It's too bad we don't
 22 have a videotape of this that we could see your
 23 actions in this. The only abusive behavior is you
 24 standing up and apparently have a blood pressure

BRUCE REYNOLDS August 31, 2009

1 MR. BREYER: --- who is co-counsel with 41
 2 Mark Geragos and David Kirkorian. Right?
 3 Mr. Geragos wishes, I called a stop because I
 4 wanted to chat with you. Mr. Geragos has
 5 repeatedly interrupted the witness, talked over
 6 the witness, talked over me. And I believe that
 7 that's improper conduct of a deposition.
 8 MR. GERAGOS: I'm going to --
 9 Mr. Richter, I don't know why he's calling you
 10 other than he seems to have some kind of a chip on 11 his shoulder this morning. I'm asking questions,
 12 he jumps in the middle of it, he doesn't -- If I
 13 -- If I ask a question that I don't get an answer
 14 to and ask it again, he jumps in the middle. I
 15 don't even know why we're on the phone with you,
 16 frankly. I'm trying to ask questions of Mr. Fein,
 17 and Mr. Bray is -- jumps in the middle and seems
 18 to have some kind of issue with me this morning,
 19 which I -- which I guess seems to be a
 20 continuation of the issues that he had with me
 21 when we were on the phone before. I'm at a loss
 22 to figure out why we're on the phone with you,
 23 other than he just doesn't seem to want the 24 deposition to go forward.

BRUCE REYNOLDS August 31, 2009

1 MR. BREYER: Phil, that's not the case, 42
 2 but obviously one of his characteristics is to
 3 make personal comments towards me as he's doing
 4 now and how he has done throughout the deposition,
 5 which is -- I'm sort of mixed to that. I'm not
 6 too concerned about that.
 7 But, Bruce, how many times would you
 8 estimate he's interrupted you from answering a
 9 question?
 10 MR. GERAGOS: You know, Phil --
 11 Mr. Richter, I frankly am not going to be a party
 12 to a guess an evidentiary hearing on the 13 deposition. We have a court reporter here. The 14 court reporter is taking down everything that's 15 happening. I -- I've asked him if he's going to 16 instruct -- if he's going to object -- and rather 17 than doing speaking objections to just object and
 18 state the grounds and either instruct the witness
 19 to answer or not answer. He gets fired up every 20 single time and starts stuttering and -- and
 21 getting into it. I don't need to go there. All I
 22 need -- and we've got a record. And I would just 23 ask that you instruct him to conduct himself
 24 appropriately at the deposition and we have a

1 doesn't like how Mr. Brey is interrupting him, and
 2 Mr. Brey doesn't like how Mr. Geragos is asking
 3 questions. The elections commission will be able
 4 to sort all of that out if deposition is used for
 5 impeachment purposes or used for testimony
 6 purposes at the hearing. So as far as I'm
 7 concerned, it just ought to go forward and, you
 8 know, let the chips fall where they may.

9 MR. BREY: I'm not --

10 MR. RICHER: Hold on there. That
 11 certainly sounds reasonable to me. But I'll 12 admonish both sides just to -- let's just make
 13 sure this thing gets done, let's just make sure
 14 this thing moves along at an appropriate pace,
 15 allow persons to answer, and neither side
 16 hopefully would jump in where they shouldn't be
 17 jumping on both sides.

18 MR. BREY: All right. I appreciate it.
 19 So I think if we don't interrupt each other, I
 20 won't interrupt him, he won't interrupt me and the 21 witness, and we should be able to get this done I
 22 hope.

23 MR. RICHER: I hope. That works for 24 me.

49

1 record of it, and I don't even know why we're
 2 calling you at this point.

3 MR. BREY: Well, we're calling you
 4 because he interrupts the witness when the witness
 5 is answering. He interrupts me when I say
 6 anything and then accuses me of stuttering. You
 7 know, if the record shows that I'm behaving
 8 inappropriately, that's fine. I did read to him
 9 the agreement that Chris Finney said on the ground
 10 rules, and I think part of the issue is he doesn't
 11 think the ground rules should apply to him.
 12 Although that's really -- sort of off the point.
 13 My main concern is he has a right to ask a
 14 question, you know, I have a right to state an
 15 objection, and the witness has a right to answer
 16 the question without interruption, all of us.

17 MR. RICHER: It all sounds reasonable
 18 to me. I'm not there, so I certainly haven't been 19 able to witness any of the goings on. It's a 20 little tough to get in the middle of these kind of 21 things.

22 MR. FINNEY: Phil, this is Chris
 23 Finney. It just seems to me that the record is 24 going to be what the record is. Mr. Geragos

1 MR. BERRY: Thank you, Phil.
 2 MR. RICHTER: Gentlemen, have a great
 3 day.
 4 BY MR. GARAGEO:
 5 Q. I'm going to ask you again. The
 6 specific -- specifically the commentary at the
 7 ARA -- oh, wait a second, let's go back.
 8 A. Yeah.
 9 Q. You don't have any evidence other than
 10 just -- you haven't seen any documentary evidence
 11 that would refute any of Sible Edmonds'
 12 allegations, have you?
 13 A. Documentarily evidence.
 14 Q. Right. Do you understand what I'm 15 saying --
 16 A. Well, yes.
 17 Q. -- by "documentary evidence"?
 18 A. Yes, I do.
 19 Q. And documents --
 20 A. And my evidence is circumstantial
 21 evidence based upon my long years. That's what it
 22 is.
 23 Q. Okay. Now, when you say
 24 "circumstantial evidence," circumstantial evidence

1 generally includes documentary evidence, does it
 2 not?
 3 A. It may or may not.
 4 Q. Okay. And it also would include things
 5 like witnesses, potentially; is't that correct?
 6 A. Documentarily evidence or circumstantial
 7 evidence?
 8 Q. Circumstantial evidence.
 9 A. It could be. Could be the absence of 10 witnesses.
 11 Q. Okay. Well, do you have any -- have 12 you talked to any witnesses who refute Sible
 13 Edmonds' allegations?
 14 A. Well, it's hard to get witnesses to 15 something that didn't happen. I don't know of 16 anyone who has said they've ever seen or have 17 belief or have seen Robert Livingston receive
 18 bribes from the government of Turkey, especially 19 because the bribery allegations means that it
 20 affected his decisions as a member of Congress.
 21 And I'm trying to explain, Mr. Garageo, I believe
 22 as you know as a lawyer there's things called 23 circumstantial evidence, a regularity of 24 proceedings that happens.

1 I'll wiretap, didn't you?

2 A. That doesn't mean it's documents.

3 That's overhearing conversations. And my --

4 Q. Well, do you know what --

5 A. My recollection -- my recollection,

6 Mr. Geragos, of her testimony was not that she

7 heard voices saying words to the effect, let's

8 give Bob Livingston a bribe.

9 Q. All right. I'm asking you didn't she

10 testify that she had -- that she was privy to

11 documentary evidence about members of Congress

12 being compromised -- and I think you listed the 13 seven. Wasn't that her testimony?

14 A. My recollection is no. She did not

15 testify, I have documentary evidence that these

16 members of Congress received bribes. That is not

17 my recollection, no, sir.

18 Q. Did she testify that she had

19 circumstantial evidence that these congressman had

20 been --

21 A. I do not -- I do not --

22 Q. -- compromised? Will you let me

23 finish --

24 THE REPORTER: Okay. Right now we're

47

1 Q. Right. I'm not asking that question.

2 A. When -- when --

3 Q. That's why I interrupted before. I'm

4 asking you a specific question, okay?

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. Do you have -- have you seen any

7 documentary evidence that refutes Sibla Edmonds'

8 allegations?

9 MR. GREG: Clarification. Are you

10 talking about just her allegations on the bribery

11 thing?

12 MR. GERAGOS: He's the one who listed

13 these seven allegations.

14 Q. Isn't that what you said?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And have you seen any

17 documentary evidence that refutes those seven

18 allegations?

19 A. I've seen no documentary evidence on

20 either side of the equation.

21 Q. Okay. Didn't she testify that she had

22 seen documentary evidence?

23 A. That's not my recollection, no.

24 Q. Okay. Well, you said there was a title

Brown v. ...

1 going to stop and we're going to speak one at a 48
2 time because this record is a mess. So one at a
3 time and then the next person talks.
4 Q. I have to finish the question before
5 she can take down your answer.
6 A. Right.
7 Q. The question is: Didn't she testify
8 that she had been privy to evidence,
9 circumstantial, documentary or otherwise, that led 10 her to make the allegations, what you call the 11 seven allegations?
12 A. My recollection of her testimony was 13 that she had evidence that she did not describe
14 its origins that these members had taken bribes
15 from the government of Turkey to influence their
16 official action. And, again, I have no
17 recollection she tried to characterize it or place
18 it in any kind of box.
19 Q. Well, did she also make the allegation
20 that the government of Turkey was using so-called 21 Turkish cultural or social organizations to
22 launder money to ... to Congresspeople and others
23 in order to get them to change their position on 24 the genocide?

Brown v. ...

August 31, 2009

1 A. Her deposition speaks for itself, and 50
2 there is -- there was general statements about
3 that being a conclusion. I don't recall whether 4 she specifically tried to identify the nature or
5 strength of the evidence or where it came from.
6 Q. Well, wasn't one of the organizations
7 that she said was taking money from the government
8 of Turkey the AFAN?
9 A. That's not my recollection, no, sir.
10 Q. Well, do you know who funded the AFAN
11 back when you were representing them in the year
12 2003?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Do you know whether or not the
15 government of Turkey was funding the AFAN?
16 A. No.
17 Q. You don't know as you sit here?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Have you ever inquired as to that?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Well, do you know what your obligations
22 are as a registered foreign agent, I assume,
23 correct?
24 A. Yes.

Bruce Fain August 31, 2009

Bruce Fain August 31, 2009

1 A. You need to specify the strength of 52
 2 conviction, Mr. Garago, because I don't know
 3 whether the sun will rise in the east and set in 4 the west tomorrow. I don't know whether you're
 5 not getting money from the government of Armenia.
 6 There are levels of certainty that are required in
 7 answering a question like that because there's 8 nothing that's absolutely 100 percent certain.
 9 MR. GARAGO: That would be objection
 10 that's not responsive.
 11 Q. I'm not asking you for your level of 12 certainty. I'm not asking you to speculate. Your 13 lawyer has already objected if there's 14 speculation. So I'm not asking about any various
 15 degrees of levels of certainty. Do you know
 16 whether the Turkish Coalition of American gets any
 17 funding from the government of Turkey?
 18 A. You are asking more a level of
 19 speculation? Because as I explained to you, I
 20 don't know whether the sun will rise in the east
 21 and set in the west tomorrow for absolutely
 22 certainty.
 23 Q. I didn't --
 24 A. I will repeat that. To my knowledge --

1 Q. Okay. And do you know whether or not 31
 2 the government of Turkey has funded the Turkish
 3 Defense -- Legal Defense Fund?
 4 A. The TLDF is paid by the Turkish
 5 Coalition of America.
 6 Q. Do you know where the Turkish Coalition
 7 of American gets its funding?
 8 A. I do not trace the background of the --
 9 excuse me, could i take a pause and let me
 10 recollect my thoughts, please.
 11 Can you repeat the question?
 12 Q. Do you know where the Turkish Coalition
 13 of American gets its funding?
 14 A. My understanding is it gets their 15 preeminate amount of funding from its founder who 16 is in Massachusetts, Mr. Ayasli.
 17 Q. And who is that?
 18 A. He's a businessman up there who takes a
 19 great interest in Turkish American issues.
 20 Q. Okay. Do you know if the -- any of the 21 funding comes from the government of Turkey?
 22 A. To a moral certainty, I would say no.
 23 Q. Okay. I'm --- I didn't ask you to a
 24 moral certainty. I'm asking you if you know.

Shree Path August 31, 2009

1 MR. GERAGOS: And I'll object as 53
 2 nonresponsive.
 3 A. To the best of my knowledge the answer
 4 is no.
 5 Q. Okay. Have you done any tracing to see
 6 where the funding from TCA comes from?
 7 A. I have not run an independent
 8 investigation, hired -- hired investigators, I
 9 have not done that.
 10 Q. Okay. Have you done anything to look
 11 at the checks that come in for the TCA?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Okay. Have you done anything to 14 examine where the -- any of the checks that are 15 solicited who -- who's doing the solicitation for 16 funding?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Do you know how much money the -- for 19 instance, when you represented the AHA back in 20 the year 2000, as detailed in exhibit A, were you
 21 paid by the AHA to do that?
 22 A. I don't have a recollection. I did get
 23 a small amount from my public communications work,
 24 but I don't know whether I got anything paid

Shree Path August 31, 2009

1 special for that. 54
 2 Q. Were you on retainer with the -- any of
 3 these Turkish organizations as a you sit here
 4 today?
 5 A. Am I on retainer with AVMA, no.
 6 Q. No. How about any of the -- TCA?
 7 A. I do get a -- for TCA, I get paid
 8 independently as small amount for communication --
 9 public advocacy work. So if you want, the two
 10 Turkish-related organizations that I'm doing work
 11 for today are TRDPF, which is -- I'm under an 12 umbrella organization of TCA. That's all.
 13 Q. Okay. And they pay you?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. Okay. Do they pay you for your work on 16 Congressman Schmidt's case?
 17 MR. BREY: Objection. I instruct the
 18 witness not to answer.
 19 MR. GERAGOS: You're not going to allow
 20 him to answer the very gravamen of the offense
 21 that you filed a complaint against Mr. Kilborn?
 22 MR. BREY: Since you've asked me to
 23 engage in communication, I will tell you that that 24 has nothing to do with it. That very question was

1 you? 56

2 A. No one introduced me to her formally.

3 My recollection of what happened is there had been

4 concern at TCR with a non-trivial number of

5 congressional races where it was thought by those

6 who did not subscribe to the Armenian thesis of

7 what happened in World War I, and the resolutions

8 in Congress were being victimized by what I would

9 style verbal thuggery, accusations, harassment. I

10 believe in one instance there was a concern --

11 MR. GERAGOS: That would be an

12 objection that it's nonresponsive.

13 A. I'm trying to explain the background of 14 the meeting.

15 Q. I didn't ask for the background.

16 A. Go ahead and ask the question again.

17 Q. You said that you didn't -- that nobody

18 introduced you, is that correct?

19 A. The -- I'm trying to explain what did

20 happen. I was asked by --

21 Q. I'm just -- who was --

22 A. I was asked by Lincoln McCurdy if I

23 would as part of Trump go speak with Jean Schmidt

24 about possibly representing her in what ultimately

1 asked, it was ruled upon as inadmissible during 55

2 Lincoln McCurdy's deposition. The complainant, if

3 you will read it, deals with the facts as they

4 existed as of November 2, 2008. It has nothing to

5 do with who is or who is not paying for the

6 defense of --

7 MR. GERAGOS: And as we argued at the

8 hearing and you were overruled and this deposition

9 was ordered, it's circumstantial evidence of

10 whether or not there was moneys going to --

11 MR. FEIN: I don't think I was

12 overruled on that point. If you want, we can talk

13 with Phil again and perhaps --

14 MR. GERAGOS: I don't need to go to the 15 principal's office.

16 Q. Mr. Fein, when did you first meet

17 Congresswoman Schmidt?

18 A. My recollection is sometime after the

19 -- it was either November 2nd or November 4th,

20 2008 elections.

21 Q. And that was the first time you had met

22 her?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And did you -- who introduced

James Ryan August 31, 2009

 2 Q. Okay. And were you the one who drafted
 3 the complaint?
 4 MR. BHEX: Objection. I instruct the
 5 witness not to answer.
 6 A. That's privileged material.
 7 Q. How is that privileged material if it's
 8 a formal complaint?
 9 A. What?
 10 Q. It's a formal complaint.
 11 A. The complaint --
 12 Q. You're saying that that's privileged?
 13 A. My name is on the complaint as an
 14 attorney with Mr. Bexy, so it speaks for itself.
 15 Q. And did you -- did you draft that
 16 complaint?
 17 MR. BHEX: Objection. I instruct the
 18 witness not to answer. That's privileged.
 19 A. Privileged material.
 20 Q. Okay. And did you specifically go --
 21 you were not contacted by her or her chief of 22 staff, correct?
 23 A. Correct.
 24 Q. You and a Mr. -- is it McQuarty? --

James Ryan August 31, 2009

1 discussed that matter, is that correct?
 2 A. My recollection that Mr. McQuarty asked
 3 me to arrange to meet with Dean to discuss the
 4 legal representation.
 5 Q. Okay. And when you did that, did you
 6 enter into a retainer agreement?
 7 MR. BHEX: Objection. I instruct the
 8 witness not to answer.
 9 A. No. We -- we did not have a retainer
 10 agreement. I don't think that we drafted --
 11 Q. Okay. And that would have been shortly
 12 after the election you think?
 13 A. I think it was December of 2005. There
 14 was a period of time that there had to be -- or 15 to make certain that the representation was 16 proper. I didn't know all the details or the 17 parliamentary rules, so the representation
 18 arrangement was submitted to the House Ethics
 19 Committee and --
 20 Q. Did you -- did you submit anything to 21 the House Ethics Committee?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Do you know if anybody did?

1 A. My understanding is Jean Schmidt did or

3 Q. And who told you that?

4 A. I think Barry did.

5 Q. And did you talk first with -- who was
 6 the first person you met, Barry Bennett or Jean
 7 Schmidt?

8 A. I think I may have met both of them.

9 Q. At the same time?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. And when you met both of them at the 12 same time, did you tell them that you wanted to 13 draft a complaint or file a complaint in Ohio?

14 A. That's privileged material.

15 Q. Barry Bennett's your client?

16 A. He is -- represents the Jean Schmidt
 17 campaign committee, so we're representing Jean
 18 individually on the campaign committee.

19 Q. And the campaign committee is being
 20 represented by the Turkish American Legal Defense
 21 Fund?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And the Turkish American Legal Defense
 24 Fund, have they charged the campaign committee any

60

1 money for their representation?

2 MR. BREE: I would object. I think
 3 that's privileged.

4 A. Well, and it was ruled irrelevant. The
 5 answer is no. He stated that we would do this and
 6 we would not charge them legal fees.

7 Q. Okay. How many hours would you say
 8 that the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund has 9 spent in prosecuting this claim against
 10 Mr. Krikorian?

11 MR. BREE: Objection, privileged.

12 A. Privileged.

13 Q. Privileged what?

14 A. Privileged information.

15 Q. The amount of time you've spent is 16 privileged?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So you're not going to answer that?

19 A. I'm not answering.

20 MR. BREE: It's also irrelevant.

21 Q. Did you travel here to Ohio today?

22 MR. BREE: Objection. Irrelevant.

7 A. Yes. Privileged, irrelevant. That's

8 information that's to be gleaned in my capacity as

9 representing --

10 Q. Right, did you --

11 A. -- the complainant.

12 Q. Are you aware of obligations for

13 disclosing in-kind contributions to federal

14 elected officials?

15 A. That's the reason why we put in to the

16 House Ethics Committee to disclose exactly what

17 was going on here. And I assume the House Ethics

18 Committee would know their rules better than I

19 would because they do it all the time.

20 Q. I'm not asking about the House Ethics

21 Committee. I'm asking you if you are familiar

22 with the federal Election Commission?

23 MR. BREY: Objection. Irrelevant.

24 A. I am not an expert with the federal.

15 you feel that you don't have to disclose whether

16 that's an in-kind contribution?

17 MR. BREY: Objection.

18 A. An in-kind contribution to a campaign?

19 My understanding is that's not -- has nothing to 20 do with any campaign whatsoever. But I'm not an

21 expert in election law.

22 Q. Okay. Is it a fair statement that

23 you've made no disclosures?

24 MR. BREY: Objection. I -- that's

1 totally irrelevant to any issue in this case.
 2 Q. And is that a -- is that a yes or a no?
 3 A. You've made a disclosure or you haven't?
 4 A. I've not -- other than the disclosure
 5 to the House Ethics Committee in conjunction with 6 reviewing this arrangement, I have not filed any
 7 document with the Ohio Elections Commission other
 8 than what my name is on the complaint.
 9 Q. Well, now you say that in connection
 10 with the House Ethics Committee.
 11 A. Uh-huh.
 12 Q. You didn't draft anything in terms of 13 the House Ethics Committee, did you?
 14 A. No. This was done -- I don't think I
 15 have authority to ask for an opinion. I think
 16 only a member of Congress does.
 17 Q. Okay. Have you ever seen an opinion?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Okay. Did you submit any testimony?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. Did you submit a declaration?

 9 MR. BREYER: Objection. Irrelevant.
 10 Unless you can tell me why that has some specific 11 bearing on the allegations, I'm going to instruct

 13 line.
 14 Q. Who was the person who submitted the 15 inquiry to the House Ethics as far as you know?
 16 MR. BREYER: Objection. Same grounds,
 17 same instruction.
 18 Q. Does that mean you're not going to 19 answer, Mr. Fein?
 20 MR. BREYER: I'm instructing the witness
 21 not to answer unless you can show me some reason
 22 why this is remotely relevant to the allegations

 24 MR. DEBAKOS: I'm asking Mr. Fein.

2 MR. BREY: I've so instructed you.
3 A. I'm following the advice of counsel.
4 Okay. And specifically -- now, did you
5 -- has the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund
6 paid for any out-of-pocket expenses in connection
7 with prosecuting this claim?
8 MR. BREY: Objection. Same grounds.
9 Instruct the witness not to answer unless you can
10 show me --
11 MR. GRADSON: Well, I'll reiterate what
12 we said during the hearing that the -- them paying
13 her expenses and other things now, illegally I
14 would -- I would assert, is circumstantial
15 evidence that they were doing the same before,
16 which is the precise allegation that you've raised
17 that Mr. Krikorian stated was false. And I made
18 this same argument to Mr. Richter in the previous 19 hearing in which he ordered that Mr. Fein be here.
20 MR. BREY: I don't think that was his
21 ruling. But if I'm mistaken, I'm certainly

9 MR. BREY: I'm here on his behalf in
10 connection with his representation of Dean Schmidt
11 and her campaign committee.
12 MR. GERAGOS: Okay. Are you his lawyer
13 today? Because when he says on advice of counsel,
14 is there an attorney/client relationship?
15 MR. BREY: Well, there's a certainly a
16 privileged relationship when we're so co-counsel
17 for the same client.
18 MR. GERAGOS: I understand that. Are
19 you today representing him as his lawyer?
20 MR. BREY: Sure.
21 MR. GERAGOS: Okay.
22 Q. Mr. Fein, is that correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Is Mr. Brey your lawyer?

Brace Run August 31, 2008

69

1 MR. GERAGOS: The questions that
2 they're refusing to answer are specifically,
3 Mr. Richter, whether or not they've paid expenses
4 in connection with the prosecution of this claim.
5 I think I had argued to you when we were on the 6 phone -- I guess that was on either Thursday or
7 Friday that that -- it's our position that it's 8 circumstantial evidence that would show that
9 there's money being given to her or in-kind
10 contributions that are being given to her which 11 accord with the -- the statement of the truth or 12 falsity of the statement that she has taken the 13 money -- blood money to deny the genocide. And
14 they're refusing to answer whether -- I think the 15 specific question that I asked was whether they 16 paid the travel expenses for one particular
17 witness and whether they had paid other expenses
18 for other witnesses.
19 MR. SREY: That's correct. When he
20 speaks of "they," he's talking about the Turkish
21 American Legal Defense Fund. And the other
22 testimony has been that the Turkish American Legal
23 Defense Fund does not take money from the Turkish
24 government -- it receives funds from the Turkish

Brace Run August 31, 2008

70

1 council --
2 MR. GERAGOS: Coalition of American.
3 MR. SREY: -- Turkish Coalition of
4 American, and when asked whether the Turkish
5 Coalition of American receives from the Turkish
6 government, the testimony was that most of its 7 money is from the founder and that to a moral 8 certainty he testified they received no money from
9 the Turkish government.
10 MR. GERAGOS: Which was not based on 11 anything other than he hasn't done any
12 investigation on that whatsoever.
13 MR. RICHTER: "He," meaning who?
14 MR. GERAGOS: "He," meaning Mr. Fein.
15 MR. SREY: Mr. Fein. Now, having said
16 that, I may or may not have misunderstood what the 17 scope of things was. You know I -- Well, I know
18 that we've talked before about the standard of how
19 these would be conducted based upon Chris Finney
20 and my agreement at the Dave Krikorian deposition
21 that we're going to limit this to the issues at 22 hand and that there's got to be something that's
23 relevant to the allegations of the complaint.
24 I believe that Mr. Geragos has

1 his knowledge. And he's, you know, the principal
 2 of the Turkish Coalition of America.
 3 Having said that, the payment by the
 4 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund or the
 5 nonpayment or the service that they're offering in
 6 some fashion for her representation in this case,
 7 doesn't -- isn't relevant, is not admissible under
 8 Ohio's evidentiary rules, is not admissible, is 9 not relevant under the Ohio case law, and under 10 the rules of the road that we've agreed upon, if 11 it's not relevant to an issue in this case, it
 12 shouldn't be inquired into.
 13 MR. SERRANO: Well, I'm very familiar
 14 with 404(b). It's actual a Federal Rule of 15 Evidence. And this isn't a 404(b) issue. The 16 404(b) is when you use some other unrelated act.
 17 This isn't an unrelated act. The $30,000 in blood
 18 money, which is the allegation here to deny the 19 genocide, I will establish that the $30,000 in 20 money came from the exact same location that the 21 money is being -- that is coming from -- that 22 funds the -- the very Turkish American Legal
 23 Defense Fund. Which is they all come from TCA,
 24 and TCA's money all comes from the

1 misstated the Rule in Ohio. Evidentiary Rule
 2 404(b) says that evidence of other acts is not
 3 admissible, you know, to prove the character of a
 4 person or in order to show that an action is in
 5 conformity therewith, and there are a slew of Ohio
 6 cases that say that similar acts or occurrences
 7 are inadmissible to prove the commission of acts
 8 or occurrences at issue in a civil case. You
 9 know, there's -- there's an old Ohio case 14 --
 10 J.H. Beers, B-E-R-S, & Company versus Gurney, as 11 well as -- an Ohio Supreme Court case, Knight,
 12 R-R-I-G-H-T, v. State (1856), that -- you know,
 13 for example, in a negligence action against a
 14 railroad company. It was error to admit evidence
 15 that other persons had been injured by trains at 16 the same place at prior to plaintiff's injury.
 17 We're talking about what the state of 18 receiving money from the Turkish government or 19 from Turkish government-sponsored PACs was as of 20 November 2, 2008. There's been no testimony by 21 anyone in this case. Whether Bruce Fein knows the 22 answer to the question or not, they did depose
 23 Lincoln McCarty, and he said that they got no
 24 money from the Turkish government, you know, to

Bruce Fein August 31, 2008 73

1 Turkish-sponsored PACs and from this gentleman who
 2 runs the Little Microcove.
 3 And there's already been testimony by
 4 Mr. Fein today that he was the one who initiated
 5 contact with Mr. Bennett and the congresswoman,
 6 that he's the one who went and offered their legal
 7 services, that they've not charged her for the 8 legal services -- which by the way is a Federal
 9 Election Commission violation and I will present
 10 that at the hearing.
 11 And I specifically want to find if they
 12 are paying for the expenses in connection with 13 this besides the in-kind legal contributions which 14 they're doing, which show, once again, and it will 15 lead into specifically her -- their drafting of 16 this complaint and their drafting of the -- her
 17 position -- so-called position on the Armenian
 18 genocide. And that's the precise issue that the 19 Commission is going to have to decide is whether 20 or not there's a truth or falsity to the 21 allegation that she is taking money in order to 22 deny the genocide.
 23 MR. BREYER: Well, a couple things. The 24 testimony was that Bruce Fein had none of these

Bruce Fein August 31, 2008 74

1 contacts with Jean Schmidt or with Barry Bennett
 2 until after last November's election. The $30,000
 3 was in present tense is as of November 21, 2008.
 4 There is no testimony that there's any connection
 5 between -- in terms of financial connection or
 6 goings back and forth between the Turkish American
 7 Legal Defense Fund and the political action
 8 committee or one of the two political action
 9 committees that was up there. We've not objected
 10 to any -- any questions he's had about the PAC and 11 where it gets its money, so the extent that Bruce
 12 Fein knows or anything like that. And certainly 13 relations between the Turkish American Legal 14 Defense Fund in terms of money going back and 15 forth in the PAC are -- are fair game. What we're 16 saying is questions -- and by the way, I do think
 17 that one of the statements he made, that this is 18 relevant to show that there was an FEC violation
 19 that took place this year, we don't think there is 20 one. This has all been through the Congressional 21 ethics folks. But it does show the sort of ad
 22 hoc --
 23 MR. GERSHBERG: Well, I do -- I do
 24 object.

76

1 trying to put the lawyers on trial by saying, you

2 know, where did you get the money, you know, how

3 much are you paying her, how many hours have you

4 spent on this, who -- who reimbursed this witness

5 for his flight time. None of those are proper;

6 none of those are relevant.

7 Please state your objection.

8 MR. GERAGOS: Mr. Richter, I don't

9 understand -- I mean, I'm a little confused as to

10 why we've run far afield. I've asked a very

11 simple question. The simple question is: Have

12 you paid expenses in connection with this? I

13 think I argued at length the other day that that

14 is circumstantial evidence that she would take

15 contributions or she would take expenses in trade

16 for her position which is what they're accusing

17 Mr. Krikerian of both saying and what they're

18 saying is false. And the standard is is will the 19 evidence lead to relevant or admissible evidence.

20 That's what the standard is. This clearly is

21 relevant, and the Commission would determine at a

22 hearing whether it's admissible. But the question

23 is a very simple one: Have you paid expenses in 24 connection with flying witnesses in this

75

1 Mr. BREY: I did not interrupt you;

2 please do not interrupt me.

3 MR. GERAGOS: I understand --

4 Mr. BREY: I did not interrupt you;

5 please don't interrupt me.

6 MR. GERAGOS: I do object. The House

7 Ethics -- there is no evidence of that.

8 MR. BREY: I did not interrupt you;

9 please do not interrupt me.

10 MR. GERAGOS: I'm objecting to that.

11 Mr. BREY: Well, I had an objection,

12 but I waited until you finished. And I am stating

13 it now, if I may.

14 I'm sorry. Where was I? He

15 effectively through me off, which is I think one

16 of the purposes of this unfair tactic of 17 interruption.

18 He's asking to present evidence of an

19 FEC violation in front of the Ohio Elections

20 Commission. The FEC, they have their own rules

21 and regulations. If there's any basis for

22 anything to be presented to FEC, there's a place

23 to present that. That's not this case. And I

24 think that that example shows the irrelevancy of

1 prosecution?

2 MR. BREV: And, Phil, again, I'd ask

3 you to take a look at evidence rule 404(b),

4 evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts is not

5 admissible to prove the character of the person or

6 to show action in conformity therewith. Not to

7 mention the fact that there's no link between the

8 Legal Defense Fund and the Turkish government,

9 whether the Turkish government sponsored FNC or

10 whether as a foreign government that's killing our

11 troops.

12 MR. GERKOS: Well, once again, the

13 404(b) is for character evidence. This isn't

14 character evidence. I don't know why he keeps

15 citing 404(b). It's a -- it's modeled on the 16 Federal rule, which is also 404(b), and in fact as

17 I look at it here, it even says it's the -- it's

18 titled, character evidence as admissible to prove

19 conduct. You're not --

20 MR. BREV: You're looking at A.

21 MR. GERKOS: We're not dealing with

22 character evidence or other crimes or wrongs.

23 We're dealing with circumstantial evidence to

24 prove a proposition that she takes money in

1 suspect of her position. And that's the -- the

2 simple question and the simple answer that we're

3 looking at. We've spent more time arguing over

4 this than the four murders that it would take for

5 me to cover this ground.

6 MR. BREV: Phil, a couple things, first

7 of all, he read the wrong sub -- he read 404(a)'s

8 heading; he did not read 404(b)'s heading, which

9 is other crimes, wrongs or acts and does not have

10 the name "character" in it.

11 Secondly, I think 404(b) is clear

12 enough on its face, but even if it weren't, there

13 is a body of Ohio law that applies it to other

14 acts that are not admissible to show that the same

15 kind of act happened which had nothing to do with

16 character. Evidence of a prior accident -- let's

17 see -- let's see.

18 MR. GERKOS: While you're looking for

19 that, 404(a) and (b) are the character evidence

20 statute. They're modeled on the -- the rule of 21 the same evidence in the Federal Rules of

22 Evidence. Other crimes or wrongs are other

23 character types of evidence. Those are called bad

24 character. And that is -- has nothing to do with

Bruce Pace August 31, 2009

79

1 this. We're not talking about bad character, good
 2 character or anything else. I'm talking about
 3 circumstantial evidence that shows that she takes
 4 money from these organizations.

5 MR. BISS: There are a number of cases
 6 dealing with accidents that are not part of 7 character testimony that talk about -- but
 8 actually this is part of character because there's 9 -- they're trying to say that her character is 10 such that she would take money from -- from some 11 entity that has Turkish in its name, and so this
 12 is actually on all fours on character. But it
 13 doesn't even need to be because there are a slew
 14 of other cases in Ohio, at least, which talk about
 15 it in connection with, you know, prior accidents
 16 showing that it was or they were or were not
 17 negligent because they, you know, were negligent
 18 on another case or weren't negligent on another:
 19 case of accidents took place here or didn't take
 20 place here.

21 MR. RICHER: For argument's sake,
 22 let's -- let's say -- for argument's sake, let's
 23 say that she has taken some money in order to 24 pursue this at this point. How does that relate

Bruce Pace August 31, 2009

80

1 to what occurred, you know, what, is it ten months
 2 ago?

3 MR. SCRAGOS: We would show -- we would
 4 argue that it's the same modus operandi of her,
 5 that it shows that she's taking -- that she took
 6 the money before -- I mean, which is
 7 demonstratively true, she took $30,000 before --
 8 that she is taking money currently. She's taking 9 the money from the very organizations that we
 10 allege are the ones that are providing the -- what 11 we call or what David calls the blood money to 12 deny the genocide, and that since the election,
 13 the very organizations that have -- since
 14 November 2nd, the very organizations that were
 15 giving her the money have been issuing press
 16 releases talking about her oppositions to such
 17 resolutions and denying the genocide. And I
 18 specifically have exhibits which I will introduce 19 from the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund and 20 the TC -- TCA, which is the Turkish Coalition of 21 America, showing that they're putting these 22 statements out and claiming that she denies the 23 genocide. Even in their statements, they even 24 quote directly from the complaint in this case.

Brown Page
August 31, 2009

1 MR. BREY: Phil, he keeps talking about
 2 "they." The one connection he does have between
 3 the PAC and Turkish Coalition of America is that
 4 the head of the Turkish Coalition of America is
 5 also the treasurer of the PAC and therefore lists
 6 the address where he works as the address of the 7 PAC, which is commonly done whenever you have a
 8 treasurer. But there's -- the testimony has been 9 uniform that there's been no financial money going
 10 either from the Turkish Coalition of America to 11 the PAC or from the PAC to the Turkish Coalition.
 12 I mean, Lincoln McCourty testified, and, you know,
 13 the FEC records show -- that show that as well.
 14 So to say that these are all the same entity is 15 contrary to any evidence that there's been. I
 16 mean, he can ask Brownstein about that if he wants
 17 to, but he's trying to ask about, you know, what 18 money he's paid or that the Turkish American Legal
 19 Defense Fund, which receives money from Turkish
 20 Coalition of America but neither receives nor 21 gives money to the PAC, what connection that has
 22 that has with the -- with the issues at hand I
 23 believe are nonexistent.
 24 MR. GERMONS: We just had testimony.

Brown Page
August 31, 2009

1 The Turkish Legal Defense Fund is funded by the
 2 Turkish Coalition of America --
 3 MR. BREY: I said that.
 4 MR. GERMONS: -- which is operated out
 5 of the same 1,000 square foot office as the -- all
 6 of those other pseudo-cultural organizations.
 7 MR. RICHES: I'm inclined to believe
 8 that that's -- that they at least ought to be able
 9 to given the opportunity to make that
 10 establishment. It's certainly sounds like --
 11 MR. BREY: Phil, I have no objection to 12 them trying to make that establishment. What I
 13 object to is them asking how much money or how 14 much time as her attorney, you know, we've spent
 15 or that the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund
 16 has spent in pursuing this case. That is 17 privileged information.
 18 MR. GERMONS: It isn't privileged
 19 information. I don't think the --
 20 MR. BREY: It's --
 21 MR. GERMONS: Whether the Turkish Legal
 22 Defense Fund --
 23 MR. BREY: I did not interrupt you,
 24 please do not interrupt me.

Brace Peck August 31, 2009

1 MR. GERRAGOS: I thought you were 81
 2 finished.
 3 MR. BRETZ: Well, I wasn't. That is
 4 privileged information. It's irrelevant
 5 information. If they want to establish connection
 6 with other folks, you know, I've not objected to 7 those kinds of questions. But without any
 8 connection or any good faith basis for thinking
 9 that there is a connection even, you know, they
 10 can't -- they can't piece the attorney/client
 11 privilege and say how have you been preparing the 12 this case, how much time have you been spending,
 13 who's spending the money on this, that and the 14 other thing. That is not admissible, it is 15 privileged, and it goes to the heart of the 16 attorney/client relationship, and it is also a
 17 violation of 603(b).
 18 MR. GERRAGOS: Okay. The -- once again
 19 -- are you finished?
 20 MR. BRETZ: I am, thank you.
 21 MR. GERRAGOS: Okay. Once again, the
 22 fact of whether they're paying witness expenses --
 23 and it's somewhat ironic that they're trying to 24 hide between -- behind an attorney/client

Brace Peck August 31, 2009

1 relationship. If Mr. Rein's organization, the 81
 2 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund, is paying for
 3 expenses, there certainly is no attorney/client
 4 privilege to that. And, frankly, if that -- if
 5 that turns out to be the case, it's somewhat
 6 ironic that in a Ohio elections case where you're
 7 supposed to -- and I have read the Ohio of 8 elections, you know, mission statements and the 9 reason that it was formed, and it's for 10 transparency and truth, and now they're trying to 11 hide the fact that the some shadow organization
 12 has approached one of the federal-elected
 13 officials, is not only donating the time, but now
 14 is apparently paying expenses, and they're trying
 15 to hide that between -- behind an attorney/client
 16 privilege. There's no attorney/client privilege
 17 to -- behind whether you pay expenses for a
 18 client. Attorney/client privilege is grounded in 19 a communication between the client and the lawyer.
 20 It does not cover acts of the lawyer to pay for 21 expenses of the client. There is no communication
 22 involved in that. There's no work product
 23 involved in that. It's -- it's a refuge of a
 24 sounder to assert that it's an attorney/client.

1 What that is is somebody paying expenses, and if
 2 the expenses -- and so far we are -- we have
 3 established through this witness that the Turkish
 4 American Legal Defense Fund was funded and founded
 5 by the Turkish Coalition of America, and we're
 6 going to present evidence that the Turkish
 7 Coalition of America was also funded by both the
 8 Turkish government and these PACs, and that is a
 9 complete defense to what Mr. Kilfoian stated in 10 the complaint.
 11
 12 RR. BRET: Well, we have asked and
 13 subpoenaed all documentary evidence that
 14 Mr. Kilfoian has to support the allegations. No
 15 documentary evidence has been produced by him, not 16 one shred of it, suggesting or even implying that 17 the Turkish Coalition of America is funded by the 18 Turkish government. The premise that Mr. Geragos
 19 has just made to you -- he gets upset with my high
 20 horse, but since he's accused me of being a
 21 scoundrel, I feel I have no choice but to act like
 22 one -- is a -- in I believe a premise he will not 23 be able to keep.
 24
 25 But whether he's able to keep that or
 26 not is irrelevant to the issue of whether or not

1 the lawyers that are representing Dean Schmidt
 2 have a duty in discovery to tell how many hours
 3 we've been spending in preparing, you know, what
 4 the money went to, you know, if any, who -- who
 5 paid for -- for this, that and the other thing in
 6 connection with it. The fact that the Turkish
 7 American Legal Defense Fund -- and frankly the
 8 fact that I am representing them, but the fact
 9 that they are representing him and presumably, you
 10 know, not charging her is -- is a matter that's 11 already been testified to and didn't need to be 12 testified to because it's already a matter of 13 public record. He's asking for details about did
 14 you pay for this, did you pay for that, how many
 15 hours did you spend, and that is clearly
 16 privileged, it is clearly irrelevant, and it all
 17 clearly happened long after November 2, 2008.
 18 There is no document showing any action by the 19 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund on behalf of 20 Dean Schmidt prior to the November 2008 election.
 21
 22 RR. GERAGOS: Are you finished?
 23 RR. BRET: I am, thank you.
 24
 25 RR. GERAGOS: The -- Mr. Richter, the
 26 question that I asked and the question that

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fein

86

1 MR. BREY: Well, it would also go more
 2 quickly if you withdrew the question, but
 3 obviously we have a disagreement about whether
 4 it's appropriate to do that.
 5 You know, he's made a number of charges
 6 here, but one of the -- the issues I would talk
 7 about is there is privilege in respect to
 8 communication was clients. There is also a
 9 privilege in terms of how the lawyer does work on 10 behalf of the clients. There is no privilege per
 11 se between Mr. Fein and communications --
 12 attorney/client privilege, there's no
 13 attorney/client privilege per se between Bruce
 14 Fein and any communications he had with Karzan
 15 Demir and Mark. Having said that, Phil, consider
 16 what you're doing. You're allowing him to put one
 17 of the lawyers on the stand and ask him to testify
 18 about his work product, client preparation
 19 communications he had with a witness. And in 20 unless that's relevant to the case and pretty
 21 directly relevant to the case, you are 22 disregarding -- which is also a principle in 23 Ohio -- the rights of lawyers and clients to 24 prepare their cases without being subject to

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fein

87

1 they've instructed him not to answer is: Did the
 2 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund pay for a
 3 witness who traveled to his deposition. This is 4 the same witness who already testified that his 5 declaration and his affidavit were prepared by the 6 Turkish American Legal Defense Fund and that they
 7 were drafted by the Turkish American Legal Defense
 8 Fund, precisely goes to the core of the issue, the 9 -- which is the defense of Mr. Kirkorian. Once
 10 again, if counsel wants to just keep saying that 11 it's attorney/client privilege, I understand that 12 that is what, you know, his assertion is. But
 13 there is nothing privileged about whether somebody
 14 is paying expenses. The Turkish American Legal 15 Defense Fund's payment of expenses for fact
 16 witnesses in a proceeding is precisely what
 17 Mr. Kirkorian has argued and has stated publically
 18 is going on here, that the Congresswoman is taking
 19 money, blood money, to deny the genocide. And
 20 that's how we prove it. And once again, like I
 21 said, this would have been a two-minute or
 22 three-minute question and answer, and instead
 23 we've effectively spent 32 minutes on dealing with 24 this.

James Rahn August 31, 2009

1 Interrogation by opposing counsel.
 2 MR. RICHER: Well, I would tend to
 3 agree with you there, but everything I've heard so
 4 far doesn't appear to get to the nature of the 5 product or what was occurring between the attorney
 6 and the client, but a matter of a question of where 7 expenses paid for a witness or not.
 8 I guess my inclination is to say that
 9 how much, et cetera, I'm not sure how relevant
 10 that would be, but the question of whether certain
 11 amounts were paid or not is -- is more of a fact
 12 question that tends to -- in my mind at least,
 13 tends to go somewhat to the issue that's -- that 14 we're talking about here. And I wouldn't allow 15 questions that get to, you know, what did you ask
 16 him, what did you do, how did you prepare, but,
 17 you know, did you do this for him there and does
 18 that relate to other expenses --
 19 MR. BERRY: Phil, how do these expenses
 20 have any relation to the allegations that in 21 November of 2008 she received $30,000 in blood
 22 money from the government of Turkey or from
 23 Turkish government-sponsored DACE and the Turkish
 24 people?

James Rahn August 31, 2009

1 MR. GENACOS: I'll show you when I do
 2 the exhibits. I mean, Mr. Richer, is your --
 3 MR. RICHER: Excuse me. But to me it
 4 the answer is yes and that's the first time we've
 5 ever done that, then that ends the -- that ends
 6 the line of questioning right there --
 7 MR. BERRY: Well, how about --
 8 MR. RICHER: -- and it doesn't relate.
 9 MR. BERRY: Well, how about it he asks
 10 if they've ever done it for her on or before
 11 November 2008 and limit it that way, rather than 12 going into a wild goose chase about something that 13 didn't even come into existence until after the 14 literature we're arguing about is published.
 15 MR. FINNEY: Phil, this is Chris
 16 Finney. It just seems to me that we've made an 17 extremely plausible case as to why it's relevant,
 18 why it will lead to the discovery of relevant
 19 evidence, the chain of what they're paying, but 20 the fact that they're fighting so hard to make 21 sure that we don't find this out says to me that
 22 it's pretty important that we do.
 23 MR. BERRY: Well, Phil --
 24 MR. RICHER: Well, that -- that may or

August 31, 2009

Bruce Felt

92

1 that's off base.

2 MR. RICHER: I don't -- yeah, I mean

3 with all due respect, I don't see that as being an

4 issue. As to whether the question as to how much

5 expenses -- or not how much, but whether expenses

6 were paid or not can certainly lead -- or could

7 relate to the question of, you know, where the

8 money came from that was a part of Mr. Nikorian's

9 statement.

10 MR. BREV: Okay.

11 MR. RICHER: But how much time, et

12 cetera, to me is irrelevant to what the Commission

13 wants to find out about those statements.

14 MR. BREV: And Phil, that's fine. We

15 can proceed there. But just for clarification, is

16 part of your rationale based upon the -- the

17 representation to you that there will be solid

18 evidence that the Turkish Coalition of America is 19 receiving money from the government of Turkey?

20 MR. GERAGOS: Could I --

21 MR. RICHER: I think essentially the

22 answer to that is yes because whatever is

23 determined out of this -- as I see it, anything

24 that is determined out of it here has to relate

August 31, 2009

Bruce Felt

91

1 may not be so. I understand that.

2 MR. BREV: Phil, the information is not

3 a secret. We told them off the record I think

4 Karzan Demli's that we were paying for it. I

5 think it's utterly irrelevant to this case, and I

6 don't want them then to get the camel's nose in

7 the tent because I think that's a relative

8 possibility here or a likelihood.

9 MR. GERAGOS: Mr. Richer --

10 MR. BREV: We're not going to waive the 11 privilege, and if we answer those kinds of

12 questions, then he can say, well, you answered

13 that one, therefore you have to answer the others.

14 MR. GERAGOS: I guess the parade of

15 horribles argument as raised with that, I'm asking

16 the question, I will limit it to paying for the

17 witness expenses, I'm not going to ask him what he

18 discussed unless it deals with the denial of the

19 genocide and such matters, and I assume that your

20 honor has ruled and we can proceed so we can get

21 this done?

22 MR. BREV: Phil, just one more

23 clarification. He also was asking how many hours

24 we spent on the case with Jean Schmidt. I assume

Steve Ryan August 31, 2009

1 back to the ten months or so that establishes that
 2 there was something that led to Mr. Kirkorian
 3 making the statements that he made. Just the fact
 4 that all of this stuff has occurred now may be of
 5 great interest to somebody along the line here,
 6 but it's not necessarily, at least to me, of 7 interest to the Commission in terms of what led to 8 Mr. Kirkorian's statement.
 9 MR. BREY: Okay. I think we have our
 10 marching orders. We'll answer the question as to 11 whether or not expenses were paid. We won't
 12 answer questions about how many hours he spent for 13 Jean Schmidt or the details of the -- of what was 14 paid.
 15 MR. RICHER: Well, for the 16 Commission's purposes, that's correct.
 17 MR. BREY: Thank you.
 18 MR. GERRGOS: Thank you, Mr. Richer.
 19 MR. RICHER: Uh-huh.
 20 MR. BREY: That's all on the record,
 21 right?
 22 THE REPORTER: Correct.
 23 MR. BREY: Thank you.
 24 BY MR. GERRGOS:

Steve Ryan August 31, 2009

1 Q. Mr. Fein, did you pay the expenses or
 2 did the Turkish Legal Defense Fund pay the
 3 expenses for the witness Deniz Karsum?
 4 A. Although I didn't write out any check,
 5 that's my understanding.
 6 Q. And ---
 7 A. his travel expenses.
 8 Q. And who's that your understanding from?
 9 A. That that's how the bookkeeping works.
 10 I don't write out the checks; the secretary does.
 11 Q. Okay.
 12 A. Sena Musula.
 13 Q. And are you the one who authorized the 14 payment of those expenses?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And have you authorized other expenses
 17 in connection with the prosecution of this 18 proceeding?
 19 MR. BREY: Objection. I --
 20 Transcripts.
 21 MR. BREY: I -- objection --
 22 Transcripts?
 23 A. The depositions. The depositions --
 24 MR. BREY: Objection. Objection.

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fern

96

1 MR. BREY: No.

2 Q. That you've previously testified ---

3 MR. BREY: No. No.

4 --- that you paid for transcripts and

5 depositions.

6 MR. BREY: Do not answer that. He

7 asked me a question, and he interrupted me.

8 MR. GERAGOS: And I -- and I'm

9 withdrawing any question that I asked before.

10 MR. BREY: Since you started something,

11 don't answer anything until he stops on the 12 record. Can I speak now?

13 Q. So what other expenses have you paid ---

14 MR. BREY: Don't answer anything unless

15 he stops interrupting me.

16 Q. The -- what other expense --

17 MR. BREY: DO NOT answer a question

18 until he stops interrupting me.

19 Q. What other expenses have you --

20 MR. BREY: do not answer any question

21 unless he stops interrupting me.

22 We can do this all day.

23 MR. GERAGOS: You're right. We can.

24 Q. What other --

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fern

95

1 You've got to let me answer.

2 THE WITNESSES: I apologize. Sorry.

3 MR. BREY: To the extent you're talking

4 about expenses incurred in connection with the

5 representation of Jean Schmidt, I think that's off

6 limits and we instruct him not to answer those.

7 MR. GERAGOS: Well, the -- the expenses

8 for --- we just had a ruling that the expenses were

9 not off limits. You're now saying that somehow in

10 the 45 seconds since we hung up that that ruling

11 somehow changed?

12 MR. BREY: We can call back. My

13 understanding was he said ---

14 MR. GERAGOS: We can call back --- he

15 said expenses.

16 MR. BREY: He said ---

17 MR. GERAGOS: I realize you want to

18 obstruct this deposition. But we just had a

19 discussion ---

20 MR. BREY: I did not interrupt you

21 please do not interrupt me.

22 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not finished.

23 Q. You've said that you, Mr. Fern -- I'll

24 rephrase it.

1 MR. BREY: Don't answer any question
 2 until he stops interrupting me.
 3 MR. GERAGOS: You're interrupting me
 4 with this --
 5 MR. BREY: I'm interrupting you --
 6 MR. GERAGOS: -- juvenile behavior of 7 yours.
 8 MR. BREY: I'm interrupting --
 9 MR. GERAGOS: Why don't you just try to 10 calm down and try to act like a gentleman. I'll
 11 ask him questions. If you have an objection, you
 12 can object, okay. We don't need to just keep 13 calling Mr. Richter. Let's just get through this,
 14 okay? I'm not trying to interrupt you.
 15 MR. BREY: Actually, you are. You are 16 trying to interrupt me. You do it on a regular 17 basis. You cut me off --
 18 MR. GERAGOS: Okay.
 19 MR. BREY: -- on a regular basis.
 20 MR. GERAGOS: I will make an effort --
 21 MR. BREY: You just did it. You just 22 did.
 23 MR. GERAGOS: I don't want to spend a
 24 lot of time doing this.

1 MR. BREY: You just -- you just --
 2 MR. GERAGOS: Let's question the
 3 witness.
 4 MR. BREY: I want to make a response to
 5 your assertion that I was acting improperly.
 6 MR. GERAGOS: You're not acting
 7 improperly, okay. If that helps you, you're
 8 acting wonderfully. You're a great advocate. I'm 9 very impressed with your legal abilities. Can we
 10 move on so I can question the witness?
 11 MR. BREY: Thank you for your sarcasm.
 12 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not sarcastic at all.
 13 I'll nominate you for Super Lawyer. Can we please
 14 continue with the witness? I'll ask questions.
 15 If you've not an objection, that's fine.
 16 MR. BREY: When you ask a question and 17 make assertions about me and my conduct, and then
 18 say I can't respond to that --
 19 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not --
 20 MR. BREY: -- you're behaving
 21 improperly.
 22 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not going to make any
 23 assertions about you.
 24 MR. BREY: You interrupted me once a

1 are talking about expenses for other witnesses,
 2 you can answer the question.
 3 Q. Mr. Fein, do you understand the
 4 question?
 5 A. Yes, I understand the question.
 6 Q. Can you answer it?
 7 MR. BNEY: I've instructed the witness
 8 not to answer it.
 9 MR. GERRIGOS: You just told him -- do
 10 you want me to have it read back? You just told
 11 him to answer if it was expenses in connection
 12 with the other witness.
 13 MR. BNEY: I'm sorry, I'm sorry.
 14 MR. GERRIGOS: Do you understand -- do
 15 you remember that?
 16 A. With regard to?
 17 Q. Have you paid for any other witness
 18 expenses?
 19 A. No. No.
 20 Q. Okay. And the expenses that you paid
 21 for -- for Mr. Karsan, where did that money come
 22 from?
 23 The record should reflect you are now
 24 looking at your lawyer. Are you --

1 again. I will show you the courtesy of letting
 2 you finish what you say, but I do expect the same
 3 courtesy. And you show a remarkable inability to 4 do that. I mean, obviously you're very skilled
 5 with making ad hominem attacks upon me and others
 6 and falsely accusing me of whatever temperament
 7 flaws you believe I have. Well, that's fine, but
 8 you still have to let me respond. And the 9 response I have is that my understanding of the 10 statement he made is that you're allowed to ask
 11 whether or no. the paid expenses of Demir Karsan,
 12 not that they paid other expenses for or on behalf
 13 of Jean Schmidt. And by the -- the deposition or 14 whatever of Jean Schmidt would be an expense -- or 15 of Demir Karsan would not be an expense that would
 16 be paid Demir Karsan. And if you think I'm wrong
 17 about an interpretation or misread read it, tell
 18 me and we can sort that out.
 19 Q. Mr. Fein, have you paid any other
 20 expenses in connection with the prosecution of 21 this claim?
 22 MR. BNEY: Objection. I instruct the
 23 witness not to answer to the extent that he's 24 talking about expenses for Jean Schmidt. If you

1 A. I'm waiting to see whether he's going
2 to object.

3 Q. Well, he hasn't objected.

4 A. My understanding came from the Turkish
5 Coalition of America.

6 Q. Okay. So the Turkish Coalition of
7 America -- when you say your understanding, does
8 the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund, do they 9 have a budget of some kind or a -- a checking
10 account?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. So that's an organization that
13 is an arm of the Turkish Coalition of America?

14 A. You might call it -- yeah, it works
15 under the umbrella of TCA, yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. So in actuality when I'm asking
17 you who paid Demir Karsan's expenses for the 18 travel, that would have been -- when I was 19 referring to Turkish Coal -- or Turkish Legal
20 Defense Fund, in actuality it's Turkish Coalition
21 of American because they're the ones who are 22 actually writing the check; is that correct?

23 A. Yes. Yes.

24 Q. Now, the Turkish Coalition of America

1 would have been writing the checks also for the
2 transcripts and other things that you testified?

3 MR. BREY: Objection. I instruct the
4 witness not to answer.

5 Q. Well, you did testify previously that
6 you paid for the transcripts; is that correct?

7 MR. BREY: I don't recall whether he
8 did or not. But I would object to that testimony
9 in light our previous --

10 MR. CERAGOS: Right. He did -- he did
11 testify that it was transcripts/depositions is 12 what he said. Isn't that correct, Mr. Fein?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And was that also Turkish Coalition of 15 America?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, Turkish Coalition of America gets
18 its funding or -- by the way, I'm going to show
19 you something that I'll mark as Defense B. I'll 20 give a copy to counsel.

21 MR. BREY: Is this the first exhibit
22 we've seen?

23 - - - -

24 Thereupon, Defendant's Exhibit B is marked

1 for purposes of identification.

2 -- -- --

3 Q. Do you recognize this, Mr. Fein?

4 A. I've seen this document at a previous

5 deposition I believe.

6 Q. Okay. Do you know who wrote this?

7 A. My recollection is I may have written

8 this first draft, and then oftentimes I circulate

9 it and get comments back.

10 Q. Okay. Well, who would you have

11 circulated it to?

12 A. Persons at TCR.

13 Q. Who are the persons at ---

14 A. Would be ---

15 Q. You said TCA?

16 A. Yeah, Turkish Coalition of America,

17 that's what that abbreviation ---

18 Q. And who would that be?

19 BX, BBEY. Excuse me. Was he talking

20 over the last part of his answer or not?

21 (The record is read as requested.)

22 A. David Salitzman, I typically would ask

23 for his commentary, Lincoln McCurdy would get a

24 copy of this, Guler Koknar. I think those are the

1 ones that.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Occasionally, there's a --

4 Q. I'm sorry, what are --

5 A. I think those are the ones who --

6 Q. And -- but you wrote the --- you wrote

7 this: isn't that correct?

8 A. I don't have -- I have a recollection

9 that I wrote something like this. It wasn't in

10 this format. Sometimes things get changed in

11 wording when it's put in a more abbreviated form

12 for a posting like this. I did not post this. I

13 have nothing to do with things that go up on the

14 website. So whether or not that's viewed as a

15 collective authorship because others participated,

16 especially in the length, I certainly was a

17 participant if you want to call this my -- my best

18 belief is that this would be a collective

19 authorship and I was a participant in this. Maybe

20 I wrote more substantially than others.

21 Q. Well, specifically, "Congressman

22 Schacht has on numerous occasions voiced her

23 opposition to such resolution and maintains that

24 the historical question is not appropriate for

1 Congress to Legislature." Did you write that
 2 sentence?
 3 A. Well, I don't have specific
 4 recollection of using those words. I write
 5 millions of words probably annually, and the 6 general idea there certainly is something that is 7 consistent with my -- my understanding at the 8 time.
 9 Q. Okay.
 10 A. So -- but with regard to do I
 11 specifically recollect I used those specific words
 12 and nobody else edited them, I couldn't say for 13 certain.
 14 Q. How about: "The Congressman, based
 15 on her independent research, does not believe the 16 tragic events of World War I, in which both
 17 Armenians and Turks were killed in harrowing
 18 numbers, constitute genocide - an accusation that
 19 has never been proven in a court of law."
 20 Those are your words, aren't they?
 21 A. Whether they're my precise words, I
 22 don't -- I don't know for certain whether those
 23 are my exact words. With regard to my own
 24 understanding as a lawyer about whether or not

1 Sean Schmitt, sitting as a juror based upon the
 2 state of the record and the evidence that she
 3 would find beyond a reasonable doubt that as
 4 established in the genocide convention of 1948 and
 5 the statutes passed beyond a reasonable doubt had
 6 demonstrated that crime, I think that's an
 7 accurate statement.
 8 Q. Did you write it?
 9 A. I don't recall whether I used those
 10 particular words or whether the general idea was 11 those and other people suggested a different
 12 wording.
 13 Q. Okay. How about: "Her conclusions
 14 accord with renowned Middle East scholar Bernard
 15 Lewis of Princeton University and other respected
 16 historians."
 17 You wrote that sentence didn't you?
 18 A. Whether -- again, Mr. Getzoff, whether 19 those are my precise words or whether they had 20 been edited -- when you put things on websites,
 21 oftentimes wording gets changed for space purposes
 22 or otherwise. I don't know whether those are my
 23 exact words. I certainly believe, having read
 24 Bernard Lewis, that he disputes the

Bruce Rein August 31, 2009

1 paragraphs, you've written in other areas or in 104
 2 other publications; isn't that correct?
 3 A. I'm not certain that all those three
 4 paragraphs, the exact words. I think it's fair to 5 say, and I will state for the record now, that the 6 general ideas voiced in those last three
 7 paragraphs are my opinions, my conclusions, and I
 8 have articulated those both before, I believe, and 9 after the 2007-08 elections.
 10 Q. Right. And you have used the term
 11 "emblematic of the religiously and ethnically
 12 bigoted campaign tactics that Armenian Americans
 13 regularly employ...." That's something you've 14 written in other publications; isn't that correct?
 15 A. Yes, sir, and I believe it.
 16 Q. I understand that.
 17 But doesn't this look to you to be
 18 something that in almost whole or all was written
 19 by you, all of this?
 20 A. It depends upon how you decide whether
 21 editing makes you the sole author or not. As I
 22 say, oftentimes in putting together something
 23 that's posted on a website, there's a substantial
 24 contraction of the entire document and oftentimes

Bruce Rein August 31, 2009

1 characterization of the events of World War I as a 107
 2 genocide.
 3 Q. You've written that in other
 4 publications; isn't that true?
 5 A. I think the -- the gist of that
 6 assertion I have written independently expressing
 7 my own viewpoint.
 8 Q. Right. And you've also -- the gist of 9 "...based on her independent research does not 10 believe the tragic events of World War I, in which
 11 both Armenians and Turks were killed in harrowing
 12 numbers, constitute genocide...." You've written
 13 that in at least four other publications; isn't
 14 that correct?
 15 A. That statement is an accurate
 16 expression of my published statements on numerous 17 occasions, yes, sir.
 18 Q. Okay. In fact, going down to the next
 19 paragraph, the term "verbal thuggery," you even 20 used that term today, isn't that correct, in your 21 sworn deposition?
 22 A. That is correct.
 23 Q. In fact, virtually every sentence in 24 here that starts with -- in the last three

Brown Book August 31, 2009

1 editing occurs. 109
 2 Q. Right, I'm not asking you that.
 3 A. So I'm not trying to quibble here. The
 4 general ideas I think were largely, if not
 5 exclusively, mine. The particular phraseology and
 6 the compactness sometimes changes in the editing
 7 process.
 8 Q. Right. But in almost all or large part
 9 this is your work, is it not?
 10 A. I think that's probably accurate.
 11 Q. And is -- your memory is that you were 12 the first drafter of this as well; isn't that
 13 correct?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. Okay. And if there had been something
 16 that was inaccurate on here and it was showed to 17 you, you would have objected to that; isn't that
 18 correct?
 19 A. I'm not sure what --
 20 Q. Well, you're called the resident
 21 scholar to one of these organizations.
 22 A. I mean, if -- if something was here and 23 I -- sometimes in the editing process, it would
 24 get posted and it's a summary of something that I

Brown Book August 31, 2009

1 had started out with but it was longer, I wouldn't 110
 2 necessarily have looked at the final editing that
 3 changed words or sentence length. But at least at 4 present when I look at this document, is there
 5 something that I think is wrong in the document, I
 6 don't -- at present look at the document and say,
 7 oh, this is an error.
 8 Q. Okay. And specifically the statement
 9 that on -- "Congresswoman Schmidt on numerous
 10 occasions voiced her opposition to such
 11 resolutions..." What did you base that on?
 12 A. Well, that wasn't on any independent
 13 talking to Jean Schmidt. This is the impression I
 14 got from speaking with Lincoln Mercury at VCN.
 15 Prior to my representation of Jean Schmidt in this
 16 case, which was after November 2nd, I had no
 17 knowledge whatsoever -- individual knowledge of 18 Jean Schmidt's position on any issue. In fact, I
 19 didn't know who Jean Schmidt was.
 20 Q. Okay. When the -- and you say you
 21 don't know who she was until after November 2nd?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Okay. But when you talked to Lincoln
 24 Mercury, did Lincoln Mercury tell you the knew who

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

Bruce Fein

August 31, 2009

112

1 you've made no independent inquiry?
 2 A. Correct.
 3 Q. Okay. You did testify before that
 4 there was a wealthy businessman who founded it, is
 5 that correct?
 6 A. Yes. And that's -- that is -- that's
 7 my understanding. But to suggest that I ran an 8 actual investigation -- had a private investigator
 9 try to trace the funds would be incorrect. But
 10 that's my understanding.
 11 Q. And that would be a gentleman who runs
 12 a Hittite Microwave?
 13 A. I don't know whether that's the company
 14 name.
 15 Q. Have you ever met his gentleman?
 16 A. Yes, I have.
 17 Q. And what's his name?
 18 A. I think it's Kalcin Ayasli.
 19 Q. Okay. How many occasions have you met
 20 him?
 21 A. Half a dozen to a dozen.
 22 Q. Prior to November of 2008?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Okay. And you aware where he does

111

1 Jean Schmidt was?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. And prior to November?
 4 A. No. I -- the Jean Schmidt name and
 5 Lincoln McCurdy I don't recall coming up until
 6 after November.
 7 Q. You knew who Lincoln McCurdy was prior
 8 to November?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. And did you ever discuss with Lincoln
 11 McCurdy whether he had -- knew of Jean Schmidt
 12 prior to November?
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. Did you ever discuss -- by the way, the 15 Turkish Coalition of America, you said that its 16 primary funding comes from a businessman, is
 17 that right?
 18 A. Well, I don't know where -- I don't
 19 know where the primary funding comes from, so --
 20 Q. Okay. And the --
 21 A. You need to talk to someone who knows
 22 about that. I've not actually made any inquiry.
 23 Q. So you haven't -- as you sit here, you
 24 don't know where the funding comes from because

Brown Patch August 31, 2009 113

1 Business or which who he does business?
 2 A. No.
 3 Q. Did you ever make any inquiries as to
 4 that?
 5 A. None whatsoever.
 6 Q. Okay. And as you sit here, do you know
 7 if any of the PAC -- if any PAC money -- do you
 8 know what PAC money is?
 9 A. Yes, I do.
 10 Q. Do you know if any PAC money has made
 11 its way into the Turkish Coalition of America?
 12 A. I've not investigated any of the 13 finances, so I'm Tabula rasa, sir.
 14 Q. Okay. And do you know of any Turkish
 15 American PACs that operate out of that same
 16 address as the Turkish Coalition of America?
 17 A. I have an understanding that the 18 Turkish Coalition of America USA PAC has that
 19 address.
 20 Q. Okay. And is that a political action
 21 committee?
 22 A. Yes, it is.
 23 Q. At the same address?
 24 A. Yes, it is.

Brown Patch August 31, 2009 114

1 Q. Okay. And do you know whether any of
 2 the money from the -- from that PAC, Turkish
 3 Coalition of America PAC, was used to pay expenses
 4 in this case?
 5 A. I --
 6 MR. BREY: Objection, unless you're
 7 talking about expenses of -- of witnesses.
 8 Q. Do you know -- do you know if the PAC
 9 paid the expenses in this case for the witnesses
 10 or depositions or anything that you've testified
 11 to?
 12 MR. BREY: I'm going --
 13 A. Whether the PAC -- no, the TCA paid the 14 expenses of the witnesses that I've identified.
 15 Q. But you don't know -- and when you say
 16 the PAC, no, how do you know that?
 17 A. This, again, goes back to Mr. Krikorian
 18 [sic] at levels of certainty. I don't know that 19 the Armenian government isn't paying you to be 20 here, sir. I've not run an investigation. It may 21 well be they've paid you $5 million to come here
 22 and broodnest me, but I don't know that for 23 certain. And that's why when you make these 24 questions without having levels of certainty, it

1 written at all, sir.

2 Q. Okay. But you authorized it?

3 A. But I don't know whether a check was

4 written at all, sir.

5 Q. I didn't ask that. I asked if you

6 authorized it.

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. BREY: Asked and answered.

9 A. Yes, authorized by TCA.

10 Q. Okay. Who else can authorize expenses

11 at TCA?

12 A. The only other person at TCA is David

13 Saltzman.

14 Q. Okay. So it's either you --

15 A. Excuse me, excuse me. I -- I

16 apologize. I misheard the question. I thought

17 you said TALDP. I don't know. I was making the 18 authorizations by the Turkish American Legal

19 Defense Fund. I don't know the persons acting in 20 a different capacity who can authorize TCA to pay

21 money.

22 Q. And the Turkish American Legal Defense

23 Fund as you said has no operating account?

24 A. Correct.

115

1 leads you that you can't say anything as absolute

2 certainty. And so if the answer is I have the

3 same level of certainty that you have that you're

4 not getting paid by the government of Armenia to

5 be here, that's my answer. Now -- so whatever

6 that level is I've got.

7 MR. GIBSONS: That would be a motion to

8 strike as nonresponsive.

9 Q. Do you -- did you see a check that was

10 written to a witness or to a carrier or to a --

11 for any expense? Did you actually see an expense

12 check?

13 A. No. And on that score, if that's the

14 level, I can't say that we in fact paid the 15 expenses of Mr. Karsan because I didn't actually

16 see the check written.

17 Q. Okay. Did you authorize it? You --

18 didn't you testify you authorized the check?

19 A. For TCA to pay the check, but I don't

20 know whether it was actually written by TCA or

21 whether it was paid at all.

22 Q. Okay. Do you know if it was written by

23 TCA or by the PAC as you sit here?

24 A. I don't know whether a check was

Emmet Rein August 31, 2009 117

1 Q. Okay. And it's only you and
 2 Mr. Solzman, correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And you then also are a member who can
 5 authorize expenses at TCM, correct?
 6 A. I can authorize as TADDP-related
 7 expenses. That's my testimony.
 8 Q. Okay. And when was TADDP formed?
 9 A. My recollection is maybe the summer --
 10 spring/summer of 2008.
 11 Q. Of 2008?
 12 A. Yeah, that's what I --
 13 Q. And is this the only matter that you
 14 are actively litigating?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. You're actively litigating also one
 17 other matter that deals with the Armenian
 18 genocide?
 19 A. It deals with defamation, sir.
 20 Q. Well, is that in regards to the 21 Armenian genocide?
 22 MR. BREY: Objection.
 23 It's --
 24 MR. BREY: Relevance.

Emmet Rein August 31, 2009 118

1 A. It's in regards to allegations that the
 2 Turkish government is paying money for nefarious
 3 purposes.
 4 Q. Okay. Well, the -- you've now heard
 5 the testimony of Sible Edmunds, correct?
 6 A. I sat through that testimony, yes, sir.
 7 Q. Okay. And the defamation case that you
 8 are talking about is against the Southern Poverty
 9 Law Center, correct?
 10 A. And David Holthouse I believe are the 11 defendants.
 12 Q. Okay. And that's the -- you filed a
 13 defamation lawsuit specifically because the -- you
 14 tell me, what is the defamation there?
 15 A. If you would like, afterwards I can
 16 send you a copy of the complaint. But if you want
 17 to accept my summary, the gist, sir, of the 18 complaint is that Mr. Holthouse, through this
 19 publication Intelligence Review, knowingly,
 20 intentionally, and falsely accused Guenter Lewy,
 21 the author of a book that addresses this issue and
 22 I believe makes a conclusion that the evidence is 23 inconclusive, had his scholarship compromised by 24 being on the payroll of the government of Turkey.

119

1 That's the gist of the deamatory statement that's
 2 or issue.

3 Q. Okay. Now, when you say the government
 4 of Turkey, did you do independent investigation to 5 see if the government of Turkey had sponsored
 6 Guenter Lewy's scholarship?

7 A. Well, that's privileged information ---
 8 MR. BREYER: I object.
 9 -- the way I would put together the
 10 complaint with Mr. Lewy, and that's my testimony.
 11 That's privileged information relating to how the 12 complaint was prepared and the background of 13 filing the lawsuit, sir.

14 MR. BREYER: I also object ---
 15 Q. Do you have information --
 16 MR. BREYER: -- on the grounds that it's
 17 irrelevant and contrary to the ground rules.
 18 Q. Have you done any investigation to see
 19 either in the Southern Poverty Law Center or in 20 any other context whether the government of Turkey
 21 has spent money to compromise either scholarship
 22 or legislative bodies?

23 MR. BREYER: I object unless you link it
 24 to this case. It's irrelevant.

320

1 Have you done any --- have you done any?
 2 with regard to Mr. Lewy, yes.

3 Q. Okay. Have you done any in regards to
 4 this case?

5 MR. BREYER: Objection. You're asking
 6 how he prepared for the case. That's --- that's 7 privileged and irrelevant.

8 MR. GARAGOS: He just --- okay.
 9 Go on.

10 A. Now, this case as you know,
 11 Mr. Garagos, does not concern paying money to 12 compromise scholarship, which I think your 13 question related to.

14 Q. I said compromised scholarship or 15 legislative bodies.

16 A. Or legislate --- have I done independent
 17 investigation --
 18 Q. Right.

19 A. -- to ascertain whether the government
 20 of Turkey and gone over and conducted an inquiry
 21 and interrogated under oath government officials
 22 or hired investigators to trace bank accounts,
 23 I've not done that, sir.

24 Q. Okay. Have you done anything -- any

1 Independent --- and let me see if I have it
 2 correct. You've done no independent research to
 3 see where the funding for the Turkish Coalition of
 4 America comes from. Is that correct?
 5 A. That is correct.
 6 Q. And the Turkish Coalition of America ---
 7 although you are authorized to expend moneys on 8 behalf of the Turkish Coalition of America: Is
 9 that correct?
 10 A. That is right.
 11 Q. And specifically you have done research
 12 in other cases regarding whether the government of 13 Turkey has compromised or used their moneys to 14 compromise scholarship: Is that correct?
 15 A. In the issue of Guenter Lewy where the 16 allegation, as you can see I believe just by
 17 reading that document ahead of you, Mr. Geragos,
 18 was that the plaintiff in the case who he 19 represent received money from the government of 20 Turkey in order to compromise his view of the 21 events of 1915 in writing the book that's cited
 22 there. In preparing for that defamation and that 23 complaint, there was inquiry made into the 24 truthfulness of that allegation.

Brace Page

122

1 Q. Okay. But you did not do that in this
 2 case?
 3 A. There is --- I in this case did not ---
 4 well, maybe --- the answer is no.
 5 Q. Okay.
 6 A. If we accept asking witnesses ---
 7 MR. GERAGOS: Note an objection, it's
 8 nonresponsive.
 9 I'll just answer the question.
 10 Q. Right. Just answer the question.
 11 A. The answer is ---
 12 MR. BREY: I'll object to the question
 13 on the grounds that it's not relevant to this
 14 case. And also to the extent that you are talking
 15 about preparation you did as counsel for the 16 current clients is privileged.
 17 Q. Okay.
 18 A. And the answer is that investigation
 19 was done in conjunction with being the attorney
 20 for the complainant in this case.
 21 Q. Okay. You did answer no because your
 22 counsel objected, correct?
 23 MR. BREY: Then I'll move to strike.
 24 A. No. I answered in conjunction with

124

1 Q. Have you had any input into who the PAC
 2 contributes to?
 3 A. None.
 4 Q. And did you know that the PAC
 5 contributed $7,000 to Schmidt in the 2008 cycle?
 6 A. Only after -- the only way I came upon
 7 that, Mr. Geragos, was in conjunction with
 8 preparing the complaint as attorney for TALDF.
 9 Q. Okay. Well, you're -- Mr. Saltzman who
 10 works with you has a partner whose name is Gunay
 11 OYUNC, O-V-U-N-C; is that correct?
 12 A. That's a mispronunciation. I think
 13 it's Gunay Evlneh, but --
 14 Q. Is -- is that his partner?
 15 A. That's my understanding, sir.
 16 Q. Okay. And is -- does his partner
 17 happen to be president of the Assembly of Turkish
 18 American Associations?
 19 A. My understanding is that there is an
 20 enormous dispute about the last election there.
 21 It's been in litigation for a long time. I think
 22 he is now, but that still may be in litigation,
 23 sir. It would not be on personal knowledge.
 24 Q. Well, do you know him to have been 123

1 this case and the attorney/client capacity the
 2 answer is yes.
 3 Q. The specifics of who gave money to Jean
 4 Schmidt, the -- are you aware that the Turkish
 5 Council -- or the Turkish Coalition contributed
 6 $7,000 to Jean Schmidt in the 2008 cycle?
 7 Mr. BRACE: Objection, you're
 8 misrepresenting the record.
 9 A. The record says nothing about that. A
 10 PAC gave money, but that's not the Turkish
 11 Coalition.
 12 Q. Does the Turkish Coalition of America
 13 have a PAC?
 14 A. The PAC speaks for itself, sir.
 15 Q. I'm asking you. Are you familiar with 16 it having a PAC?
 17 A. There is a TCA USA PAC, but the way in 18 which the law operates, they are quite independent
 19 of one another.
 20 Q. Do you have a connection to the PAC?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. Have you made any contributions to the 23 PAC?
 24 A. None.

1 president at any point?

2 A. Well, I say I think that he may be now.

3 I know that the issue -- the election of the

4 president was hotly disputed and it was in court

5 for many years. I don't know what -- it still

6 could be in court at present.

7 Q. Now, the ATMA, you represented at least

8 in 2000. How -- when was the last time you

9 represented ATMA?

10 A. Oh, years ago. I think I left -- ATMA

11 had an interperic problems that caused it to

12 become de facto inactive I think in early 2000s,

13 and I haven't had any -- any dealings with ATMA --

14 I left any connection with them probably five,

15 six, seven years ago.

16 Q. And specifically the ATMA, which you

17 represented in the year 2000, correct?

18 A. I think the same -- is that the --

19 that's the Topalian matter. I think that's right,

20 sir.

21 Q. Right. Now, wasn't that when

22 Ms. Edmonds singled out the ATMA as an

23 organization that was aligned with the Turkish

24 government and was involved in covert and overt

1 activities on behalf of the government of Turkey?

2 A. That's not my recollection of her

3 testimony. I do not believe that she identified

4 and said ATMA was a conduit of the government of

5 Turkey, but the deposition will speak for itself,

6 sir.

7 Q. Okay. Have you filed a defamation suit

8 on behalf of either ATMA or any other organization

9 against Ms. Edmonds?

10 A. Not yet.

11 Q. Okay. And when you say "not yet," is

12 that -- you're familiar with Ms. Edmonds since

13 what?

14 A. The only time I have ever met

15 Ms. Edmonds was at her deposition, and that -- I

16 haven't seen her subsequent to that time.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. So --

19 Q. Were you familiar with her and what she

20 was saying prior to the deposition?

21 A. The context in which I knew of 22 her. Edmonds prior to the deposition was in

23 conjunction with testimony I provided to the House

24 Judiciary Committee on state secrets privilege and

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

127

1 whether Congress had a legislative role in
 2 amending the state secrets privilege so it
 3 wouldn't be so deferential to executive claims.
 4 And it was in that context in which her name had
 5 become known to me.
 6 Q. Okay. And at no -- and were you aware
 7 of what she was saying about the Turkish
 8 government prior to the deposition?
 9 A. Other than fleeting remembrances in
 10 newspaper articles, no.
 11 Q. And did you -- and since her
 12 deposition, have you taken any steps to file a
 13 defamation action?
 14 MR. BRSY: Objection. That's
 15 irrelevant to any issue in this case. And it's 16 contrary to -- unless you can show some grounds to 17 link it up, I'll instruct the witness not to 18 answer pursuant to the ground rules.
 19 Q. Have you done anything to -- to follow
 20 up with a defamation lawsuit?
 21 MR. BRSY: I object. I instruct the 22 witness not to answer unless you can show some
 23 remote relevance of that to the case.
 24 Q. Mr. Fein, the -- you specifically I

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

128

1 believe said that the Turkish -- or that you are
 2 unaware of the funding for TCA, is that correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Are you aware that one funding source
 5 was this gentleman who is the -- is it Yalcin
 6 Ayusali?
 7 A. Ayusali.
 8 Q. Ayusali?
 9 A. This was -- testimony I believe of this
 10 sort was at issue in the deposition of Lincoln
 11 McCordy. I think you're asking whether I had done
 12 any independent investigation, and the answer was 13 no.
 14 Q. And are you aware that there's been at 15 least 30 million contributed by this gentleman to 16 TCA?
 17 A. Do I know that number? No, I was not 18 aware of that.
 19 Q. Okay. And specifically, the -- do you
 20 know where any of the other funding came from for 21 TCA?
 22 A. Nope.
 23 Q. Okay. And are you listed in any bank
 24 documents for TCA?

Ernest Fein August 24, 2008 125

1 A. No.

2 Q. Signature cards?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And you have no authority to sign

5 checks?

6 A. Nope.

7 Q. Okay. And do you know -- have you ever

8 spoken to the Ayasli family about their political

9 contributions?

10 A. Spoken to them face-to-face or over the 11 phone, no.

12 Q. Well, any other way?

13 A. No. The only -- there have been in

14 this proceeding, sir, FEC documents that indicate

15 contributions, that's the only information I have,

16 and I have never raised or had any discussion ever

17 with them about any of their political

18 contributions.

19 Q. And have you talked to anyone about

20 making contributions to certain candidates?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Well, you have written repeatedly about

23 the verbal thuggery; isn't that correct?

24 A. Correct.

Ernest Fein August 24, 2008 130

1 Q. And you've talked about and written

2 that there should be some campaign by Turkish

3 Americans or Turks to support those who oppose the

4 Genocide Resolution; isn't that correct?

5 A. I don't believe I've ever written and

6 suggested anybody should make a campaign

7 contribution of any sort to anybody, sir.

8 Q. You've never written anything of that

9 nature?

10 A. Not to my recollection, no, sir.

11 C. Okay. And you write extensively on the 12 subject of the Genocide Resolution; isn't that

13 correct?

14 A. I write a lot about a lot of things,

15 sir.

16 Q. Well, I'm not asking you about a lot

17 about a lot of things. I'm asking you about the 18 genocide resolution?

19 A. I'm not sure what you mean by a lot.

20 Do I write about it every week or every other

21 week, no. Do I think I write more about it than

22 anybody else, no. Have I written it about it

23 periodically, yes.

24 Q. Yeah, well, how many times -- on how

Bruce Fahn

August 31, 2009

131

1 many occasions would you say you've written about
2 it?

3 A. I'd say half a dozen to ten occasions
4 over several years.

5 Q. Okay. Did you ever write about it
6 before you were hired by any of these Turkish
7 organizations?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And once you were hired and put
10 on the payroll is when you first started writing
11 about these -- the Genocide Resolution, isn't that
12 correct?

13 A. If with regard to AFPA, which is the 14 first organization, the only one that I worked
15 with other than TCA and W&LF, that is the time
16 when the first time I began writing and publishing
17 about that issue.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And that was also -- when about you
21 become a resident scholar at one of these places?

22 A. I think it was around 1999 or 2000.

23 Q. And when you became the resident
24 scholar is when you started writing about it,

Bruce Fahn

August 31, 2009

132

1 correct?

2 A. Yeah, I had read earlier about it. The
3 fact is I had no previous -- I spent probably 20
4 years doing nothing but reading and writing with
5 as -- someone who had been divorced and didn't
6 spend -- really had very little exterior and
7 professional projection, just because of
8 intellectual interest on a whole host of things,
9 and that was the large majority of research done
10 then. I had written numerous hundreds of 11 thousands of words, didn't get paid by anybody,
12 Mr. Geragos.

13 Q. Right. Well --

14 A. I just wrote them -- I just wrote them
15 and I had things published, and no one paid me a
16 penny. For instance, I've written probably more
17 about the Clinton impeachment and the Bush/Cheney
18 violations than anyone in the United States and 19 have not received a penny for them. No one was 20 paying me for my viewpoint. And the same thing
21 happened the way in which I came -- I've been
22 looked and examined issues not just 1915, issues
23 in Kashmir, issues in Cyprus, issues Sri Lanka and 24 have written about that. If you are trying to

Phone Call

August 31, 2008

131

1 insinuate which I think you are, that I was
 2 paid --
 3 Q. I --
 4 A. -- I was paid to write the pieces and I
 5 had been compromised by my scholarship, I
 6 repudiate that entirely.
 7 Q. Well, the fact is is you've written,
 8 what did you say, hundreds of thousands of words,
 9 Not one of those hundreds of thousands of words
 10 during your 20 years post divorce and your
 11 intellectual desert somewhere did you ever write
 12 about the genocide until you got paid by some
 13 Turks? Isn't that correct?
 14 A. That didn't mean -- because there are 15 hundreds -- tens of -- hundreds of issues you can
 16 write upon as an author and as a columnist as I
 17 was. And that does not mean that I hadn't
 18 examined -- certainly I had studied genocide,
 19 certainly from the Holocaust and the Genocide
 20 Treaty and the statutes. But anyway, we'll go
 21 back, the fact is, yes, sir, the publications came
 22 after I had been retained and was a resident
 23 scholar at AFDA, yes, sir.
 24 Q. Okay. So after they became your

Phone Call

131

1 paymaster, so to speak, and you started writing
 2 these articles, did you also function as a lawyer
 3 or were you just as the resident scholar?
 4 MR. BERRY: I would object. The term
 5 paymaster is both pejorative and false. You've
 6 got to ask whether they were his paymaster before
 7 you ask him to swallow that word.
 8 Q. Do you remember the question? You
 9 never wrote about it -- you said you --
 10 A. Well, I think the issue, sir --
 11 Q. -- had studied the --
 12 A. The issue, sir, was whether you are --
 13 Q. I asked if you remember --
 14 A. -- maligning my reputation by using the 15 word "paymaster."
 16 Q. Is that maligning your reputation?
 17 A. Is that what you are suggesting, how 18 much -- when you say paymaster, were they the only
 19 people --
 20 Q. You seem to be rather hostile about
 21 this.
 22 A. You seem to be very hostile towards me,
 23 sir.
 24 Q. I have nothing but curiosity about you.

RECORD PAGE August 31, 2009

136

1 Mr. Fein.
 2 A. And I have nothing but the most flowery
 3 effusive ideas about you, sir.
 4 Q. So I'm asking you: Until they became
 5 your paymaster or somebody who paid you or
 6 employed you, you'd never written a single word
 7 about the Armenian Genocide, isn't that correct?
 8 MR. BREY: I would object again. You
 9 can't use the word "paymaster." He's already 10 rejected that word.
 11 MR. GERAGOS: I gave him an
 12 alternative.
 13 MR. BREY: Unless you --
 14 MR. GERAGOS: I gave him an
 15 alternative. If you would listen to the
 16 question --
 17 MR. BREY: Well, then you've asked a
 18 compound question, and I object to it because it's 19 a compound question.
 20 MR. GERAGOS: It's not a compound
 21 question when I give a multiple definition. I
 22 think Mr. Fein's thousands of words --
 23 A. I understand, sir. Let's move on with 24 the deposition.

RECORD PAGE August 31, 2009

136

1 Q. Right.
 2 A. I may have written about it insofar as
 3 I would just write things. Oftentimes you write
 4 things and they don't get published. But in terms
 5 of published statements, correct.
 6 Q. Okay. And the first published
 7 statement that you wrote, would that have been the
 8 document that we previously marked as Exhibit A?
 9 A. No. I think that --
 10 MR. BREY: Do you have a copy of 11 Exhibit A for me? I don't think I got one.
 12 MR. GERAGOS: I don't know if I've got
 13 a copy, but feel free to peruse it.
 14 A. I think that there had been other
 15 publications that had been published by ATAA where 16 I had addressed this issue. And I believe -- and 17 I apologize, I think I forgot your question. My 18 recollection is the only time I acted as an
 19 attorney was the sentencing of your client, Mourad
 20 Topalian, out of the Northern District of Ohio.
 21 Q. And the ATAA you had a -- has both a
 22 website and also publishes and distributes
 23 publications, correct?
 24 A. When I was working with them, they

Breene Peiss August 31, 2009

137

1 didn't have a website. This was before I suppose
 2 you might call the third generation of -- well,
 3 maybe they did. I certainly didn't have any
 4 knowledge of the website. I do know that they
 5 periodically publish things.

6 Q. And did you publish things for them
 7 regarding the genocide?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. And that was after you became --
 10 A. A resident scholar.
 11 Q. -- a resident scholar?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. And the -- you're -- were you limited
 14 or were you employed by anyone else at the same
 15 time that you were resident scholar there?
 16 A. Yes, I had other clients. That was not
 17 a full-time job.
 18 Q. Okay. And what years were you a
 19 resident scholar at the ATAA?
 20 A. I'm -- I think it was like 1998 and 21 1999 to maybe 2001. I'm -- I don't have -- those 22 were the approximate years, sir, but they could be
 23 off by a couple years.
 24 Q. And who was there at the ATAA when you

Breene Peiss August 31, 2009

138

1 were there?
 2 A. Well, the one who I dealt with most
 3 regularly was Güler Korkmaz. She I believe was the 4 executive director.
 5 Q. Okay. And when you sat through Sible
 6 Edmonds' deposition, did you understand that the
 7 activities that she was talking about in regards
 8 to the Turkish government as related to the ATAA
 9 would have been during that time period when you
 10 were the resident scholar?
 11 A. I -- I do not recall her testimony
 12 being that ATAA was a conduit, a front
 13 organization for the government of Turkey, but her
 14 deposition will speak for itself.
 15 Q. And are you aware of any other social,
 16 cultural, or political organizations back in 1999,
 17 2000, 2001 that were promoting Turkish-American
 18 issues?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Okay. And that's the only one you're 21 aware of, isn't that correct?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. In fact the ATAA during that time
 24 period, 1998 through 2001, promoted itself as the

1 A. As far as I know. I didn't do any
2 independent research. I wasn't the one who was ---
3 I would have asked someone at ARAA to provide
4 those numbers.
5 Q. And specifically, the -- at the time
6 you believed ARAA, and this would have been in
7 October of 2000, to have been the -- the only
8 organization that was acting as its -- as that
9 kind in America on behalf of Turkish-American
10 groups?
11 A. Well, I'm not sure -- I can't answer
12 that question as you phrased it, Mr. Gerasgos. I
13 think the statement says it was the -- the --- it
14 represented the 50 or so local Turkish-American
15 associations. Whether or not there are other
16 organizations out there doing something similar
17 and having different agendas, I don't know one way
18 or the other.
19 Q. Okay. And the -- did you do anything
20 after Sible Edmonds' deposition when she talked
21 about these groups infiltrating or the Turkish
22 government infiltrating these type of 23 organizations? Did you do anything to find out if 24 in fact that had happened during the year 1991 to

1 Foremost or only organization of its kind. Isn't
2 that correct?
3 A. I don't know how they promoted
4 themselves.
5 Q. Well, do you recall seeing promotional
6 material?
7 A. No.
8 Q. All right. Do you remember saying or 9 writing yourself -- I'm sorry, do you have 10 Exhibit A?
11 MR. BRY: Oh, I do. I'm sorry.
12 MR. GERAGOS: Thank you.
13 Q. Do you remember writing that the ARAA,
14 located at 1526 18th Street Northwest, Washington,
15 D.C., is a District of Columbia nonprofit
16 organization which serves as an umbrella
17 organization to over 50 local Turkish-American
18 organizations representing 200,000 individuals?
19 A. Yes, I -- I remember -- I remember
20 that.
21 Q. You wrote that, correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Okay. Was that true, a true statement
24 at the time?

Ernest Rein August 31, 2009 141

1 The year 2001?

2 MR. BREY: I object --

3 A. Do --

4 MR. BREY: -- and instruct the witness

5 not to answer. That's clearly privileged.

6 Q. I'm not asking you in your capacity as

7 a lawyer, but as a resident scholar who's greatly

8 worried about his reputation. Weren't you worried

9 that you might have been compromised by the 10 Turkish government?

11 MR. BREY: Again, I'll --

12 A. Let me --

13 MR. BREY: -- object on the grounds of

14 relevancy and it goes far beyond the grounds

15 unless you can show me some basis upon which the

16 answer to that question is remotely relevant to

17 the issues in this case.

18 A. I'll go ahead and answer. I viewed

19 Sibley Edmunds' testimony as delusional. Many of

20 the things that she was saying about people that I

21 knew seemed like accusing Jesus Christ of having

22 committed fornication from his beginning. And it

23 wouldn't even have occurred to me to give any

24 credence to a person who I thought was

Ernest Rein August 31, 2009 142

1 semi-creaked.

2 Q. Okay. Now, you say delusional.

3 Hearing that you thought that she was unhinged and

4 that she had no connection to reality?

5 A. The statements that these members of

6 Congress knew -- Tom Lantos, who I had known for a

7 long time and his wife, taking bribes from the

8 Turkish government is just one example of the

9 preposterousness; how she would know that Denry

10 Hareket having a -- basically a brothel operating

11 out of his house, those are the kinds of things

12 that would -- led me to -- if you are asking my

13 opinion sitting there, and that's what you're

14 asking for, made me think she was delusional.

15 Q. Okay. And have you done anything to

16 determine whether or not the Turkish government,

17 in fact, has supplied money to TDA or ATAA?

18 A. I have not made an independent

19 investigation by hiring others. I certainly ask

20 others who would be in a position to know, and all

21 of them have denied it and said similar things.

22 Sibley Edmunds is delusional.

23 Q. Okay. And that would be who?

24 A. The persons that are associated with 143

1 TCA, I think.

2 Q. David Saltzman?

3 A. David Saltzman I think would share that

4 view. I think Lincoln McCurdy would. I think

5 everybody involved in TCA thinks that Sible

6 Edmonds is unbridled as you put it.

7 Q. Okay. And the TCA is comprised of

8 McCurdy, Saltzman, yourself, and is there anybody

9 else?

10 A. I'm not sure I know everybody who is on

11 the staff. I knew we have some interns that were

12 recently hired. But I wouldn't be able to say

13 with certainty I know everybody who's on the 14 staff.

15 Q. Okay. And this is the same -- operates

16 out of the same office that the PAC is at, is that

17 correct, same address?

18 A. They may use the same address. There

19 are more than one offices in that building.

20 Q. Okay. When you say more than one

21 office, do you share the same front door?

22 A. Everyone who has an office in 1025

23 shares the same front door. You go in 1025,

24 there's probably hundreds of organizations.

144

1 Q. Okay. And is there a door that enters

2 your particular office area?

3 A. No. There is -- I don't know whether

4 Mr. Kikorian was there in attending the

5 deposition. I think he may have been on one

6 occasion, maybe Mr. Marino was the only one.

7 There is a door that enters into Suite 1000,

8 that's the 10th floor, and there are many

9 different groups that all operate in that suite of

10 offices. But there's no particular entrance door

11 for TCA, FALDF. The suites -- I'm sure you're

12 familiar with those, Mr. Garagos, your same

13 offices maybe similar -- also house other

14 organizations that have nothing to do with TCA.

15 Q. And the specifics of the Turkish

16 government infiltrating these cultural --

17 so-called cultural organizations, have you met

18 with any Turkish government officials?

19 A. In my entire life?

20 Q. Yeah.

21 A. Occasionally on meetings with -- I

22 mean, there have been occasions when they

23 celebrate the birthday of --

24 Q. And who have you met with?

Brown Park August 31, 2009

115

1 A. I've met very briefly with the
2 ambassador and ---
3 Q. Which ambassador?
4 A. Nabil Senousy let a few moments, and I
5 don't know how to pronounce the name, Faruk
6 Logodlu of --- he --- I believe he was the 7 predecessor who similarly would invite those who
8 are involved in Turkish issues over to the embassy
9 for various events.
10 Q. And how many times have you been to the 11 embassy?
12 A. Over what period of time?
13 Q. Ever?
14 A. In my entire life?
15 Q. Well, wait. I would assume you
16 never ---
17 A. Maybe -- maybe a half a dozen to a
18 dozen times.
19 Q. The -- was that the embassy that was 20 once located on Massachusetts Avenue? Did you
21 ever go to that one?
22 A. I think I went once or twice there.
23 Q. Okay. And what other Turkish officials
24 have you met?

Brown Park August 31, 2009

116

1 A. Nabil Senousy was someone I had met at the
2 -- at the old Massachusetts Avenue ---
3 Q. Okay.
4 A. And he was somebody in the --- I don't
5 know whether he was in communications.
6 Q. Okay. And had you ever met with any
7 Turkish official before I became employed by the 8 ATANA?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. You had?
11 A. Oh-huh.
12 Q. Who did you meet with?
13 A. Well, it was Nabil.
14 Q. When?
15 A. Friday, 1999, 1998, 1997, something like
16 that.
17 Q. Well, so was he instrumental in getting
18 you employed at ATANA?
19 A. What do you mean by "instrumental"?
20 Q. Was it a meeting of him that got you to 21 be employed by ATANA?
22 A. I don't know whether you would say got
23 me employed by the ATANA.
24 Q. Well, he's the one who recommended that

Bence Fein August 31, 2009

147

1 they hire you, isn't that correct?

2 A. I don't know whether he did.

3 Q. Didn't you talk to him about it?

4 A. No. I didn't talk to him about it. I

5 talked to Gulser Koknar is the one who made the 6 decision.

7 Q. And what was Gulser Koknar's position at 8 that point?

9 A. Gulser Koknar's position? She was

10 executive director at ATAA.

11 Q. Well, how did you meet him?

12 A. I don't recall --

13 Q. You met him through --

14 A. No, I don't recall the circumstances.

15 Q. You met him after you talked with the 16 ambassador; isn't that correct?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You just testified that you met the 19 ambassador either in '97 or '98; is that right?

20 A. No, I didn't testify to that. Namik

21 was -- Namik I met before I ever spoke to any

22 ambassador.

23 Q. Well, didn't you just testify that you

24 met the ambassador in '97 or '98?

Bence Fein August 31, 2009

146

1 A. No.

2 Q. No?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. Do you want me to read back that

5 testimony?

6 RR. BREY: Why don't you, because I

7 didn't recall it either.

8 Q. And when -- when did you meet the

9 ambassador?

10 A. Well, there were several. I don't

11 think the ambassador who was there at the time

12 that Namik -- had first met Namik, I don't think I

13 ever met that ambassador. The other ones were

14 maybe 2003, 2005.

15 Q. Who was the first Turkish government

16 official that you met?

17 A. Namik Tan.

18 Q. What year?

19 A. I said I think it was about 1993.

20 Q. About 1993?

21 A. Yeah, could it could have been 1998.

22 Q. And then you became hired by ATAA

23 shortly after that, correct?

24 A. I don't know how shortly after that.

1 It may have been months or six months or whatever.

2 Q. Well, you met with him, and did you

3 discuss the fact that you wanted to be employed?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did you discuss the fact that you were

6 looking for a position?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And did he mention -- did you discuss

9 ATAA with him?

10 A. I think he may have brought up that A

11 -- I didn't even know ATAA existed at that time.

12 Q. Okay. And what did he bring it up,

13 what did he say?

14 A. Well, I don't recall.

15 Q. You don't recall what the Turkish

16 ambassador told you about ATAA right before you

17 got hired by ATAA?

18 A. I didn't speak to the Turkish

19 ambassador before I took to ATAA.

20 Q. Who did you speak to?

21 A. Namik Tan.

22 Q. And who was Namik?

23 A. I told you Namik Tan was head of some

24 aspect of communications.

1 Q. For?

2 A. The embassy of Turkey.

3 Q. And when you spoke to this person who

4 was the -- was he working out of the embassy?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Namik Tan?

7 A. Uh-huh.

8 Q. And was this a person that you knew to

9 be an agent of the Turkish government?

10 A. I assumed he worked there, but I

11 actually didn't do any independent research to 12 corroborate that. He could have been an Armenian

13 plant.

14 Q. Okay. Well, did he --

15 A. In fact, I'm -- that may well be the 16 case since didn't I didn't do an investigation to

17 trace back what he might have been retained by.

18 Q. Is it your belief that Namik Tan is an

19 plant of the Armenians?

20 A. Of course not.

21 Q. Well, then --

22 A. Is it yours?

23 Q. -- why did you suggest it?

24 A. Sorry. What?

- 2 Q. Didn't he contact AT&A on your behalf?
- 3 A. He may have. I don't know.
- 4 Q. Did you ask him to do that?

- 6 Q. And did you refer to him when you

- 9 Q. Well, the question I have is, you met

- 11 correct?
- 12 A. Yes, sir.
- 13 Q. And as far as you know, was a director

 3 A. No.
 4 Q. You've never said that to anybody?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Okay. And the --- after you got the

 8 A. I don't have any recollection of that,
 9 no.
 10 Q. Okay. Did you thank him in person?
 11 A. No.
 12 Q. Did you ever say anything to him, write
 13 a note to him expressing your gratitude for 14 getting you the job at AFMA?
 15 A. I didn't have any belief that he,
 16 quote, got me the job at AFMA.
 17 Q. Okay. Did you notice a relationship
 18 between this general --- this gentleman, the 19 director of communications, and the AFMA?
 20 A. A -- did I notice a relationship? I
 21 largely was working out of my office in the home,
 22 so I wouldn't have been privy to anything that was
 23 going on between Namik Pan and AFMA.
 24 Q. Okay.

Home 8438 August 31, 2009

1 A. I would say I spent probably 95 percent 134
 2 of my time working there. Occasionally I would go
 3 into -- I think the address is listed on that
 4 filing, 15th Street or whatever,
 5 The 1526 18th Street?
 6 A. Yeah.
 7 Q. Okay.
 8 A. That I think was the townhouse.
 9 Q. And did you --
 10 A. And I -- excuse me?
 11 Q. You said you thought was a what?
 12 A. A townhouse.
 13 Q. Okay. And is that where you worked?
 14 A. I had no office there. I knew that was 15 their headquarters, and so when I would come in 16 and talk to Guler Soknar about writings and I also 17 would --- for AFMA I would go out to speak to some 18 of the local groups where they served as an 19 umbrella organization for, that's where I would
 20 meet her, but I had no office there.
 21 Q. What were some of the local groups that 22 they were an umbrella organization for?
 23 A. I don't recall the particular ones.
 24 They went under various organizations. There was 156

1 that's required, proof beyond a reasonable doubt,
 2 that I think is an accurate statement, not only of
 3 Jean Schmidt's view, it was the statement that was
 4 made by the head of Mr. David Kirkorian's campaign
 5 in response to a deposition question I asked him.
 6 Namely, he did not have enough information to
 7 conclude one way or the other. He couldn't reach
 8 a verdict of conviction.
 9 Q. Okay. Is there any place in here, in 10 this TCA issue paper which we've marked as 11 Exhibit B, anywhere where it says that
 12 Congresswoman Schmidt on numerous occasions beyond
 13 a reasonable doubt to a jury in a criminal case
 14 denies genocide?
 15 A. Well, genocide is a crime, sir, as you
 16 well know. And it's in the context in which 17 issues are raised. When you are using
 18 criminality, it's not unreasonable to assert a
 19 standard of proof that is customary before we
 20 decide to stigmatize someone with crime.
 21 Q. Okay. Is there -- I'm going to ask you
 22 this question again. Is there -- is it anywhere
 23 stated in here that that's the standard you're 24 asking for?

155

1 I think one of D.C. -- one in D.C. that Oya Bane
 2 was head of, but there wasn't a uniform
 3 appellation that was attached to local Turkish
 4 organizations.
 5 Q. Okay. And specifically the conclusion I
 6 that you write in Exhibit B, that the
 7 congresswoman based on her independent research
 8 does not believe the tragic events of World War I
 9 in which both Armenians and Turks were killed in
 10 harrowing numbers constitute genocide. Is that a
 11 denial of the Genocide in your opinion?
 12 MR. BEEZ: Objection. You've
 13 mischaracterized his testimony about the 14 authorship of Exhibit B.
 15 Q. Is that a denial of the Genocide?
 16 A. There are several ways to characterize
 17 a position depending upon whether you're in a
 18 court of law or speaking informally or in the 19 context in which a question is asked. Now, if the 20 question is: Whether or not someone believes
 21 based upon their understanding that there's proof
 22 beyond a reasonable doubt that would lead one to
 23 voice as a member of a jury to convict an accused
 24 of a particular crime with the level of certitude

Brown Rehn August 31, 2009 157

1 A. It's not the express statement, but it
 2 could be an implied statement.
 3 Q. And did you -- did you imply that she
 4 is denying the genocide in this PCA paper?
 5 A. Implying that -- I'm not -- I'm
 6 implying that she would vote as a juror where the 7 standard is beyond a reasonable doubt based upon
 8 all the evidence in the public record and the 9 definition of genocide that would be given as an
 10 instruction to the jury based upon the genocide
 11 Convention of 1948 and the relevant U.S. statute,
 12 that she could not reach a verdict of conviction.
 13 That is what I'm suggesting.
 14 Q. Well, is there anyplace in the 15 complaint where it says in a -- This is a verdict
 16 of a jury trial?
 17 A. Anywhere in what complaint, sir?
 18 Q. In the complaint that's been drafted
 19 here. Do you know what the complaint is in this 20 case?
 21 A. I know the complaint in this case.
 22 MR. BREY: Objection. There are
 23 actually two complaints.
 24 MR. GERARDS: I understand.

Brown Rehn August 31, 2009 158

1 MR. BREY: I don't know what you're 2 showing.
 3 MR. GERARDS: I'm asking him if he's
 4 familiar with the complaint in this case.
 5 A. I am familiar with the complaint in
 6 this case, correct.
 7 Q. Okay. And are you familiar with the --
 8 the statements in here that Jean Schmidt says she
 9 is not denying the genocide?
 10 A. Those statements I believe are not in 11 the case anymore.
 12 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the fact
 13 that they were in the case?
 14 A. I'm familiar with the fact that they
 15 previously were in the case.
 16 Q. Okay.
 17 A. Yes, sir.
 18 Q. And do you think that those statements,
 19 that she does not deny the genocide, comport with 20 the statement that you released of that you
 21 drafted in hole of in part that was marked as
 22 EXHIBIT B?
 23 A. I think that they can be reconciled
 24 along the lines that I've suggested, that is.

Since then August 31, 2009

1 someone like Mr. Krikorian's campaign manager, who
 2 says I don't have enough evidence to know one way
 3 or the other, is not going to subscribe
 4 affirmatively to the fact that there was a
 5 genocide. And that was his testimony under oath,
 6 sir. And that is consistent with saying that he
 7 -- just like his campaign manager couldn't say
 8 there was a genocide, that's the same way in which 9 again Schmidt could make the same statement.
 10 Q. Okay. Who was his campaign manager?
 11 A. I believe it was Mr. Riesling, or if I
 12 can get his deposition testimony if you want me to 13 refresh my recollection.
 14 MR. BASK: That's okay.
 15 Q. I'm puzzled as to who you're talking
 16 about. Are you talking about the campaign manager
 17 that you took the deposition of?
 18 A. Yes, that is correct.
 19 Q. In this case?
 20 A. In this very case, yes, sir.
 21 Q. And that person was David Krikorian's
 22 campaign manager, that's your recollection?
 23 A. He was -- I believe that -- I believe
 24 that was the title, someone who was a precinct

Since then August 31, 2009

160

1 figure in David Krikorian's campaign. Whether he
 2 called himself his manager or not, he's someone
 3 that was deposed, but he worked high level in
 4 Mr. Krikorian's campaign, yes, sir.
 5 Q. And when you said you can reconcile,
 6 would you admit that the draft complaint or the
 7 complaint that was filed is at odds with the TCA
 8 issue paper?
 9 A. The fact is, Mr. Seragos, because we
 10 thought that there could be ambiguity about this 11 issue, that's the reason why we decided to 12 withdraw that particular allegation and just 13 proceed in a more straightforward way because
 14 there is a tension since there are two ways you
 15 can read that, one would be something that would 16 be more contradictory, the other one was not. But 17 given the ambiguity, we decided that we didn't 18 want to push forward where the levels of proof and 19 the importance of clarity were such to continue to 20 keep that in the case, and we dropped it.
 21 Q. And when you say the tension, are you
 22 referring to the TCA issue paper, which is
 23 Exhibit B, which is in front of you?
 24 A. That is one source of tension. I think

Shirley Rehn August 31, 2009

1 That during the discovery there was another 161
 2 similar ambiguous statement about not supporting
 3 the resolution as opposed to denying the genocide.
 4 Q. Well, the -- when I say during your
 5 discovery, you mean during Jean Schmidt's
 6 deposition?
 7 A. No. I think this was in --
 8 Q. Because it was dismissed prior, right?
 9 A. Right. I think this was in documentary
 10 information, I believe at one fundraiser there had 11 been a document that had been sent out that was 12 similar, and that's what caused a re-examination
 13 of the clarity of the evidence.
 14 Q. All right. Now, I'm going to show you
 15 a -- It looks like today's Zaman, your gateway to 16 Turkish daily news. Have you ever written
 17 anything for today's Zaman?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Have you ever seen this document?
 20 Before I mark it, I'll ask you if you have seen
 21 it?
 22 A. I believe at Jean Schmidt's deposition
 23 was the first time I saw that document.
 24 Q. Okay. You didn't write anything that's

Shirley Rehn August 31, 2009

1 contained in Enere? 162
 2 A. I had nothing -- no.
 3 Q. Do you know anybody who did?
 4 A. No.
 5 Q. We'll mark that as exhibit C.
 6 -- -- --
 7 Therefore, defendant's exhibit C is marked
 8 for purposes of identification.
 9 -- -- --
 10 Q. Now, the -- I want to go back to what I
 11 was asking before. You said the tension. The 12 tension was in documentary evidence, meaning that
 13 this press release, which was released on -- It
 14 says November 4th, that did not compare with the 15 -- or you had some trouble reconciling it with the 16 complaint itself is that correct?
 17 MR. BREY: I would object.
 18 A. I don't know whether you'd call it --
 19 MR. BREY: I would object. Let me
 20 object.
 21 I would object. This goes far beyond
 22 anything that's relevant to the case in terms of 23 what's remaining.
 24 Q. I'll try to move through it quickly.

1 MR. FINNEY: Well, hold on. Let me
2 make sure we're clear. One of the things that we
3 have remaining in this case and we've said this in 4 the pleading to the Election Commission is the 5 sanction of counsel and your client for having
6 made repeatedly the false accusations in the four
7 charges that you dropped.
8 MR. BIREY: That still doesn't make it
9 discoverable for the hearing.
10 MR. FINNEY: That's -- Back, I just 11 want to make sure you're aware.
12 Okay. The --
13 MR. BIREY: I'm sorry. I didn't mean to 14 interrupt you. I'm wondering when we want to take 15 a break.
16 MR. GERAGOS: What time is it, I'm
17 sorry. I'm still on Pacific time. It's a quarter
18 to 1:00.
19 MR. FINNEY: It's a quarter till 1:00.
20 MR. GERAGOS: Take the break now,
21 that's fine.
22 MR. BIREY: Okay.
23 -----
24 Thereupon, a luncheon recess is taken

Brent Rahn August 31, 2009 155

1 Monday Afternoon Session
 2 August 31, 2009, 1:55 p.m.
 3 -----
 4 Q. Okay. Thank you. We're back on the
 5 record. It's 2:00.
 6 Mr. Rahn, I'm going to show you a list
 7 of contributions. Take a look at that and I'm 8 just going to pull out those two pages and just
 9 mark those two pages. Do you recognize this list?
 10 A. No. I mean, did I have anything
 11 putting it together, no.
 12 Q. No. Do you recognize what it is?
 13 A. It has a listing it looks of 14 contributions, just contributions. I'm just 15 guessing that it's political contributions, but 16 there's no label on it. So you can tell me what
 17 it is, but I think just that page by itself.
 18 Mr. Rahn, doesn't tell me what the 19 contributions are for.
 20 Q. Okay.
 21 MR. BRES: He's not asking you to
 22 guess.
 23 A. Oh.
 24 Q. I'm not asking you to guess is correct.

Brent Rahn August 31, 2009 156

1 I'm asking if you take a look at -- well, in fact
 2 take more than a look. I'll mark it as one, two,
 3 three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten
 4 pages, and I will mark that as Exhibit D. Take a
 5 look at that, and will you go through that and
 6 tell me if you recognize any of those names?
 7 -----
 8 Therefore, defendant's Exhibit D is marked
 9 for purposes of identification.
 10 -----
 11 A. Any of the names that are on the mail
 12 names?
 13 Q. Yes.
 14 A. Because there are plenty. Would you
 15 like -- are there some here that I recognize?
 16 Q. Yes.
 17 A. There are certainly some.
 18 Okay. Could you state which are the 19 ones you recognize?
 20 A. Do you want me to go through page by
 21 page?
 22 Q. Yes, exactly, the ones you recognize.
 23 A. So --
 24 Q. I assume that's more -- I could do it

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

1 uncomfortable knowing who they could be on that
 2 third page. Are those last names addressed there
 3 it just as salutation Mama, Ahmet, Erhan, Orhan.
 4 Is there a last name that's attached to those, do
 5 you know?
 6 Q. I believe they are on the following
 7 page.
 8 A. The fourth page I have -- the third and 9 fourth pages to me look like they just have first
 10 names.
 11 Q. Okay. You don't recognize any of those
 12 just by first name: is that correct?
 13 A. Well, some of them could be. I mean,
 14 Yalcin obviously if the first name Yalcin Ayasli.
 15 MR. FINNEY: Park, just to clarify,
 16 there's two pages of names, and then it's a
 17 spreadsheet that goes across, so like salutation
 18 and donation amount. So I think just the first 19 page two pages are the ones that have the full
 20 name.
 21 Q. You've gone through the first two
 22 pages?
 23 A. Uh-huh.
 24 Q. You recognize those names, the ones

167

1 either way. You can either tell me the ones you
 2 recognize, or if it's easier to just say the ones
 3 you don't recognize.
 4 A. I think it's easier to say the ones
 5 that I do recognize.
 6 Q. Okay.
 7 A. On the first page, do you know what ---
 8 the top page that you gave me --
 9 Right.
 10 A. -- Mr. Geragosa, Yalcin Ayasli --
 11 Ayasli, sorry for that pronunciation. I do know
 12 he's the gentleman I know who is the primary
 13 founder of TCA. I believe I met Bahar is his 14 daughter on one occasion, so I remember that name.
 15 I met on one occasion Ahmed Gultekin. I recognize 16 Lincoln McCurdy. So I believe, Mr. Geragosa, on 17 the first page there are four names.
 18 C. Okay. On the second?
 19 A. On the second page, I don't recognize 20 any of those names.
 21 Q. Okay.
 22 A. The third page, it just -- it just has
 23 salutation. I -- just single names. I don't --
 24 it's --- just with first names, I would be

Bruce Pein August 31, 2009 149

1 you've previously stated, the four?

2 A. The four are the only ones that I

3 recognize.

4 Q. Now, earlier you had indicated that you

5 thought you had only registered once as a foreign

6 agent, then I think you clarified that it maybe

7 was three times?

8 A. It could have been -- it could have

9 been.

10 Q. I'm going to ask you if you recognize

11 this, which will be Defense Exhibit E. Is that

12 your --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- registration statements?

15 - - - - -

16 Thereupon, defendant's Exhibit E is marked

17 for purposes of identification.

18 - - - - -

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that was for what?

21 A. RNNMO was an organization -- it was a

22 political party in then Mozambique.

23 Q. Okay. And you were -- that's your

24 name, you're the registrant pursuant to the

Bruce Pein August 31, 2009 150

1 Foreign Agents Registration Act?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And where did you -- let's see.

4 The -- who did you represent, specifically?

5 A. RNNMO.

6 Q. Okay. Here's Exhibit F. Is that also

7 a foreign registration statement?

8 - - - - -

9 Thereupon, defendant's Exhibit F is marked

10 for purposes of identification.

11 - - - - -

12 A. Yes. That's Pakistan.

13 Q. Who did you represent?

14 A. The Embassy of Pakistan.

15 Q. Okay. And that's -- that was filled

16 out by you in your handwriting?

17 A. That's what it looks like, yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And Exhibit G?

19 - - - - -

20 Thereupon, defendant's Exhibit G is marked

21 for purposes of identification.

22 - - - - -

23 A. Um-huh.

24 Q. Is that another foreign registration?

 2 interviews, and communicate with members of
 3 Congress, the Bush administration and leaders: is
 4 that correct?
 5 MR. BREV: Objection. Relevance.
 6 A. I'll -- What, in fact, I did with
 7 them -- none of those activities did I perform. I
 8 drafted a model constitution with something like
 9 the Federalist Papers and charted out what I
 10 thought would be a sensible way to resolve the 11 outstanding dispute between RENAMO and FALGEMO.
 12 Mozambique was in a Civil War. Ultimately it did
 13 resolve the situation, and the UN held elections
 14 in a few year's time. And RENAMO is now probably 15 the largest opposition party; FALGEMO is still the 16 ruling party in Mozambique. But none of those
 17 activities that were described were performed
 18 because RENAMO did not honor their promise.
 19 Q. Okay. I'm going to go back to my 20 question. Maybe I didn't --
 21 A. Okay.
 22 Q. The -- you were supposed to give speech
 23 -- or what you proposed to do was give speeches,
 24 press release, write newspaper columns give 171

1 A. Yes.
 2 And that's also by you?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Okay. And that's for what government?
 5 A. The Embassy of Togo.
 6 Q. Okay. Now, in these four registration
 7 statements, the -- what you say you're going to do
 8 is -- let's see, for Pakistan, for instance,
 9 you're going to communicate --
 10 MR. BREV: Excuse me. Could we get
 11 copies of these exhibits now?
 12 MR. GERRARD: Sure.
 13 (A short recess is taken.)
 14 Q. Now, on the registration of -- that's
 15 marked as Exhibit B, and that's for RENAMO, you
 16 describe your -- you're supposed to receive 40,000
 17 per month indefinitely plus out-of-pocket expenses
 18 for addressing and writing a political agenda: is
 19 that correct?
 20 A. Yes. That contract was never
 21 effectuated because changes in circumstances.
 22 That was not honored by RENAMO.
 23 Q. Okay. And the nature of your
 24 performance would be to give speeches, draft press

2 A. That's what I proposed, yes.

3 MR. BREY: Objection. Relevance.

4 Q. And then the same for the Embassy of

5 Pakistan, that what you were proposing to do was

6 communicating in writing orally with -- and

7 members of Congress and the Executive Branch to

8 Influence United States policy: is that correct?

9 A. Yeah. That was largely over -- as you

10 know, that Kashmir is a huge issue between Indian

11 and Pakistan.

12 Q. And you wanted to organize symposium

13 issues such as Kashmir and nuclear proliferation,

14 pro/visa legal advice, lobby key members of 15 Congress, right?

16 MR. BREY: I would like to have a

17 general objection to the relevancy of questions

18 about this.

19 MR. GERKOS: That's fine.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And the same with the Embassy of

22 Togo, the -- you were going to draft informational

23 materials, educate governmental officials, the 24 media and the American people, correct?

Steve Rein August 31, 2009

3 A. Yes. They had similar problems with

4 constitutional transition there. African Trade

6 Q. Now I'm going to ask you to take a look

 7 stated he's never seen it before, he doesn't know
 8 anything about it.
 9 A. Yeah.
 10 Q. And have you heard of the Caspian
 11 Group?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Never heard of them?
 14 A. Until today, no.
 15 Q. Okay. And so the first time that you
 16 are aware that there's a foreign agent
 17 registration form for the government of Turkey
 18 located in the same building as you as of March of

 21 Q. Okay. And can you tell me the 24 A. Coalition. I think it's coalition.

 2 A. Well, certainly the 1025 Connection
 3 Avenue Northwest is. Now, it says No. 1025, I'm
 4 not sure, Mr. Geragos, what that means because I
 5 don't recall when you go into the 10th floor that
 6 they have numbers on the doors, but --
 7 Q. Okay.
 8 A. -- I'm not at all that attentive.
 9 Q. Now, this is a registration statement
 10 for the Caspian Group and the foreign principal is 11 the Republic of Turkey with a principal address at 12 the Embassy of Turkey; isn't that correct?
 13 A. I'm sure the record speaks for itself.
 14 I don't have any -- there's no reason that I think
 15 it would be inaccurate, but --
 16 Q. Okay. Does this appear to you that
 17 this document was filed in March of this year,
 18 that the Caspian Group was listed as a foreign 19 agent in March of this year doing business in the 20 same building where you are?
 21 A. Well, the date is -- looks to me like
 22 it's March 7th of 2009.
 23 Q. All right.
 24 A. And if this is accurate, yes.

1 Q. Coalition. Okay. TCA?

2 A. Uh-huh.

3 Q. Would these include the fact that

4 you've written articles? Is that one of the 5 things you do as a scholar, a resident scholar?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Would you say that lobbying

8 members of Congress is one of the things that you

9 do in your role at TCA?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. How about speak with staff and

12 members of Congress and the Executive Branch; is 13 that something you do in your role?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. And have you done that? Have

16 you spoken with members of Congress regarding

17 Turkish-related issues?

18 A. No.

19 Q. How about Armenian Genocide Resolution

20 issues?

21 A. No.

22 Q. And how about the drafting of articles

23 to influence public opinion in regards to Turkey,

24 have you done that?

1 A. Other than what's been published,

2 Mr. Geragos, I -- and when I answered yes, I mean

3 I wrote -- I remember I wrote something for the

4 San Francisco Chronicle about the resolution issue

5 when Nancy Pelosi -- I don't know whether she had

6 made up her mind to take it to the Floor or not,

7 but to the extent that people read columns and

8 believe them, I guess you can influence a lot of

9 people. But my understanding of how the Act works

10 is that -- those kind of publications that you are

11 writing for TCA --

12 Q. Is it your --

13 A. -- is not --

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. -- is not registered -- does not make

16 you a registered agent for the --

17 Q. Well --

18 A. -- foreign government.

19 Q. Do you give speeches -- you've given

20 speech on the resolution; is that correct?

21 A. I don't know whether I've given speech

22 on the resolution. There have been times I've

23 spoken to college students about the issue and how

24 I evaluate the evidence one way or the other. I

August 31, 2009

1 MR. BREY: On any topic?

2 Q. No, on this specific topic, on either

3 the Armenian resolution or passage?

4 A. I don't recall doing that, no.

5 Q. Have you posted at least three times on

6 the Huffington Post articles regarding the

7 Armenian resolution, genocide?

8 A. I know that there was -- I don't know

9 whether I would call them entire on the

10 resolution. Sometimes the resolution is made

11 reference to in conjunction with other elements of 12 Turkish-Armenian relations. But if they're on

13 Huffington Post, whether it's three as opposed to

14 two, I know I've written for the Huffington Post

15 on this issue.

16 Q. And you have never registered as a

17 foreign agent for Turkey; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And all of the items that I have just

20 listed are the same types of things that you have

21 registered for for other foreign governments;

22 isn't that correct?

23 A. That is correct. If you --

24 Q. Okay.

August 31, 2009

Bruce Pein

187

1 don't know whether the specific resolution -- I

2 don't know how Resolution 106 or whatever comes

3 up.

4 Q. Okay. And you've given -- you've

5 drafted press releases. You drafted this one that

6 we marked earlier.

7 A. I don't believe -- I don't believe,

8 sir, I drafted that press release. I may have

9 provided the body of it, but I certainly wasn't

10 the one who put the headlines in or posted it or

11 anything like that.

12 Q. Okay. You've already testified that

13 you did the first draft; isn't that correct?

14 A. Of the substance, but you know a press

15 release has many other elements to it.

16 Q. So you admit to at least giving

17 speeches to college students, doing the first

18 draft of what I will characterize as a press

19 release or a website posting, you've written a

20 newspaper column at least for the San Francisco

21 Chronicle; is that -- those are accurate?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Have you given broadcast

24 interviews?

George Rein August 31, 2009

1 A. If you're getting paid by a foreign 181
 2 government, there are things that are required to
 3 be registered that you don't register for if it's
 4 just private entities.
 5 Q. And if the private entity is being
 6 funded by a foreign government, then you would
 7 feel compelled to register as a foreign agent?
 8 A. If there is a relationship -- as you
 9 well know what the Foreign Agents Registration Act
 10 states, that if you are representing or an agent
 11 of a foreign government or foreign political 12 party, then you have to register. And if that was 13 the nature of the relationship, that this was an
 14 arm of the foreign government and form -- I mean,
 15 substance trumps over form, you would be
 16 required to register.
 17 Q. Okay. Have you met with DIA Piper?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Okay. And you --
 20 A. I think DIA Piper is my opponent in an 21 anti-terror suit. I have against Dwayne Wade. I have 22 met with them to discuss that anti-terror suit.
 23 Q. But nothing regarding Turkish issues or 24 Armenian Genocide resolution issues?

George Rein August 31, 2009

1 A. No. 182
 2 Q. And the specifics of your retention in
 3 this case prior to the November 2nd election, did
 4 you meet with Jean Schmidt?
 5 A. I did not even know who Jean Schmidt
 6 was until after the election.
 7 Q. When did it first come to your
 8 attention?
 9 A. When Lincoln Kourouy suggested, because
 10 he's the one who was most aware of how the 11 campaigns were unfolding with regard to several
 12 members -- I think I mentioned those earlier,
 13 Mr. Wexler, Mr. Cohen, Jean Schmidt, and he 14 mentioned that Jean had been subject to I -- my 15 verb -- I mean, my term was verbal thuggerly and 16 suggested and asked could I make an arrangement to 17 go up and visit with her. And that's how it came 18 to my attention. That's first time I ever even 19 knew who Jean Schmidt was.
 20 Q. Well, do you remember the day of the 21 election?
 22 A. I think it was November 4th.
 23 Q. You think it was November 4th?
 24 A. And I think that Lincoln was very

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fain

1 meet with Congressman Schmidt that same day? 364
 2 A. No. I think that- I didn't meet her
 3 face to face until a while thereafter.
 4 Q. Okay. Well, then when you drafted the
 5 body of this, had you met with Congressman
 6 Schmidt?
 7 A. No. And the references I made were
 8 based upon what Lincoln McCurdy -- my recollection
 9 of what he told me about Jean Schmidt.
 10 Q. About what he told you about Jean
 11 Schmidt?
 12 A. Yes. And I may have misinterpreted,
 13 but that was a Foundation. If you want to know
 14 the foundations of my contribution to that release
 15 and what it says about Jean Schmidt, it's from 16 speaking to Lincoln McCurdy.
 17 Q. Okay. And specifically the date upon
 18 which this was issued which was November 4th, and 19 I just checked and I -- I hope ---
 20 A. That is right.
 21 Q. -- my representation that that's the
 22 day of the election.
 23 A. Yes. And I know that there was a great
 24 amount of fury to having been accused of

August 31, 2009

Bruce Fain

1 aroused because of what Mr. David Krikorian had 383
 2 posted in part because he was accusing FCA really
 3 and Lincoln McCurdy of committing a crime, a
 4 felony in fact, that could send him to prison,
 5 namely that he was a conduit for the government of
 6 Turkey and funneling money illegally into Jean
 7 Schmidt's campaign, and that caused him a great
 8 deal of consternation of having been accused of 9 committing a crime.
 10 Q. All right. You didn't sue
 11 Mr. Krikorian, though, did you?
 12 A. Myself?
 13 Q. Yes.
 14 A. Not at present.
 15 Q. Okay. And you said the election you
 16 thought was November 4th?
 17 A. It was Tuesday, but I -- that's my best
 18 recollection, but it could be wrong. I don't know
 19 what the -- my -- my recollection was that 20 Mr. Krikorian had issued his letter on Sunday or 21 the second and then the election was two days
 22 later, but sometimes the first Tuesday in
 23 November is on a different day than the fourth.
 24 Q. Okay. Now, the -- did you immediately

1 committing federal felonies which was literally 185
 2 shocking to Mr. McConry the same day. And there
 3 was a very great rush to get something out
 4 immediately, because when you leave unanswered
 5 accusations of crime, you can get a stigma pretty
 6 fast.
 7 Q. Had you specifically -- you put this
 8 out and you did not represent her at that point?
 9 Is that correct?
 10 A. Correct.
 11 Q. Okay. So you started issuing these --
 12 this press release and this call for a criminal
 13 investigation and the complaint before you
 14 represented Jean Scheldt; is that right?
 15 A. That is right, just because we thought
 16 it was no outrageous. And what we learned, it
 17 didn't know how the Ohio system worked, the 18 attorney general in Ohio doesn't have jurisdiction
 19 over the actual prosecutions of the case, and in 20 fact I called I believe the county prosecutor for 21 Hamilton County -- I forget which one -- and had a
 22 communication forwarded to him.
 23 Q. Okay.
 24 A. And this was before I represented Jean

1 Scheldt. 186
 2 Q. Slight. How long after you issued this
 3 press release -- and did you file a complaint the
 4 same day, on November 13th, the same day?
 5 A. If it wasn't the same day, it was the
 6 day after when we had -- we had actually written
 7 to the Ohio attorney general, and I -- maybe we
 8 put copies to the county prosecutors. I didn't 9 know how the system worked out here as to
 10 jurisdictional separation between the two.
 11 Q. And that was before you represented
 12 her; is that correct?
 13 A. That is correct.
 14 Q. And you specifically -- did you contact
 15 her or did you contact her chief of staff?
 16 A. My recollection is I contacted or had 17 the secretary contact the scheduling -- most 18 members of Congress have a scheduling person who 19 looks at the schedule and then arrange a time to 20 meet. And I think I called up to her scheduler
 21 and tried to get on her calendar.
 22 Q. Okay. And that was after -- getting on 23 her calendar, meeting with her was after you had 24 filed the formal complaint; is that correct?

187

1 A. With -- the complaint with the
 2 prosecutors, yes.
 3 Q. And was that the same complaint that --
 4 whether the counts have been dismissed, but the 5 same complaint that we marked before I believe as 6 Exhibit A -- I'm sorry, it wasn't Exhibit A. The
 7 same complaint that I had showed you before -- I
 8 don't know if I marked this one. And did you at 9 that time when you filed the complaint, had you
 10 drafted a declaration for Jean Schmidt?
 11 A. No.
 12 Q. Okay. And did you represent to the 13 Elections Commission that you represented Jean
 14 Schmidt?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. And did you --
 17 A. Excuse me. I -- you may have mispoke.
 18 I wasn't communicating with the Elections
 19 Commission at this point. These were just persons
 20 who had authority to prosecute crimes. Because 21 Ohio I think is a little bit unique. There it's 22 in the Criminal Code that can be enforced by
 23 prosecutors. The Ohio Election Commission is a --
 24 is a sister organization that handles cases in a

188

1 different setting. So I hadn't communicated
 2 anything at that point to the Ohio Elections
 3 Commission.
 4 Q. Okay. So prior to representing her,
 5 you had -- if I understand correctly, had filed a
 6 complaint with the attorney general; is that
 7 correct?
 8 A. Of Ohio. That is right.
 9 Q. Of Ohio. And then the county
 10 prosecutor?
 11 A. I think there was one or forwarded --
 12 I'm not sure whether I just forwarded it, because 13 the attorney general wrote back and said we don't 14 handle these kinds of prosecutions, you need to 15 send it to a county prosecutor.
 16 Q. Okay. Have you produced a copy of that 17 letter that the attorney general wrote back to 18 you?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. And you didn't bring it with you here
 21 today?
 22 A. I didn't know that that I was asked to.
 23 MR. BREY: Never been asked, never been 24 submitted.

Revere Field
August 31, 2009

1 Q. And do you have a --- do you have a copy 199
2 of the original complaint that you filed with the
3 attorney general?
4 A. I will go search it if that's what I'm
5 required to do.
6 MR. BREY: you're not required to do
7 that.
8 MR. GERAGOS: well, I appreciate, you
9 know --- I understand your role here, but giving
10 him advice while we're on the record when I'm 11 asking him a question I think is outside of your 12 role.
13 A. Do I have the original?
14 MR. BREY: well, in this case I would
15 object.
16 A. I just don't know, it was probably
17 over about a year ago. I guess I don't know.
18 Q. Okay. Now, when you filed that
19 complaint, did you represent in any way that you
20 --- that you had --- you were doing this on behalf
21 of Jean Schmidt?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Okay. Who did you say you were filing
24 the complaint on behalf of?

Revere Field
August 31, 2009

1 A. TAL --- Turkish American Legal Defense 190
2 Fund.
3 Q. Okay. And they were the aggrieved
4 party?
5 A. Well, the TCA was accused of a crime by
6 Mr. David Krikorian, an egregious crime, taking
7 money from a foreign government, also using that
8 money as a quid pro quo to bribe Jean Schmidt. So
9 they had been --- TCA had been accused of two 10 felonies: felony one is bribery, felony two is 11 taking money from a foreign government. So I
12 think that qualifies them for being an aggrieved
13 party.
14 Q. Okay. Where did he accuse TCA? Where 15 is that?
16 A. The 30,000 --- the 30 --- I guess I need
17 to see the exhibits if I ---
18 Q. Sure. Which exhibit would you like to 19 see?
20 A. How about the ---
21 Q. All the originals are here.
22 I don't think let's that one.
23 A. No. The --- this is --- I think there
24 were the two exhibits, Mr. Geragos. One was a

A. No.
Q. Okay. So it wasn't this document that accused -- that has any felonies that are the Turkish Coalition of America being accused of,
correct?

A. I think that -- let me -- I think my recollection was flawed at the outset. What the allegation was --
Q. Just so the record is clear, which recollection was flawed at the outset?

A. That mentioned TCA. I think what the allegation was in the -- the letter was that the TCA USA PAC was a government-sponsored PAC and had given the money in exchange for the resolution.
And this was something -- the concern that was present at TCA was that those who would exercise their first amendment rights to participate in the political campaigns would routinely be accused of criminal activity, it would chill expression in general, and TRUDF was formed in part to do things

letter that he had written on November 2nd, and the other was a flyer or something. That is where
-- those were the bases for the statements and right in this pile, they're not there.

Q. Okay. And is it your memory that the Turkish Coalition of America was mentioned in this statement?
MR. BREY: I would object. This whole
line --
A. The TCA --
MR. BREY: I would object. Please let me say my objection. I would object to this line of questioning as irrelevant.

Q. Okay. Would you -- is this the flyer
that you're talking about?
A. That's -- that's one of the flyers,
yes.
Q. Okay. Let's mark that as Exhibit I.
It's a two page document. I don't know if it was originally two pages. It may be because of the fax that it was two.
Now, is there anywhere in that two-page
flyer that you see mentioned the Turkish Coalition
of America?

BRUCE FRIEL

1 that would try to eliminate that intimidation,
2 harassment factor.
3 Q. Okay. And -- I'm sorry. Were you not
4 finished? Because the question I wanted to ask
5 you, we looked at Exhibit 1 --
6 A. Yeah.
7 Q. There's no accusation about --
8 A. Now, I need to restate my answer. My 9 answer is no.
10 Q. To which question?
11 A. The question was whether or not the 12 flyers mentioned TCA.
13 Q. Okay.
14 A. And it's not -- I -- now my
15 recollection is it just mentioned the TCA USA PAC.
16 Q. Okay. Well, that is -- the TCA USA PAC
17 is not in Exhibit 1; is that correct?
18 A. That is correct.
19 Q. Okay.
20 A. That could only be induced by the other
21 things, but go ahead.
22 Q. Okay. And then is that the other
23 letter that you're talking about?
24 A. Yes.

BRUCE FRIEL
March 31, 2009

134

1 Q. Okay. Can you tell me, is the TCA PAC
2 mentioned by name in that letter?
3 A. I think that when you --
4 Q. I just asked a question simple. Is the 5 TCA PAC mentioned in this letter where you say
6 that you were accused of crimes? Is there
7 anywhere mentioned in there the Turkish Coalition
8 of America?
9 A. Indirectly, yes --
10 Q. Yeah. I just --
11 A. -- but directly, no.
12 Q. So the complaint that you filed, did
13 you mispeak when you said it was because the 14 Turkish Coalition of America was mentioned?
15 A. Yes, I did. And that's what I was 16 trying to explain. It was the fact that we 17 perceived this effort to intimidate and harass and
18 make baseless accusations or innuendos --
19 Q. I don't want to interrupt, but I'm 20 going to object that it's nonresponsive. I just 21 asked you if you mispoke.
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Okay. Now, the Turkish Coalition of 24 America as far as you know was never mentioned by

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

195

1 Mr. Kirkorian, isn't that true?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And Mr. Kirkorian never

4 mentioned the -- what's the name of the other

5 group, the Turkish American Legal Defense Fund,

6 TALDF?

7 A. TALDF.

8 Q. He never mentioned them by name,

9 correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. Okay. Yet you still filed or requested

12 a criminal complaint be filed against him prior to

13 you representing Jean Schmidt but on behalf -- you

14 were doing that on the basis of TALDF and on the 15 Turkish Coalition of America, correct?

16 A. On the -- I was writing as TALDF's

17 lawyer.

18 Q. And your client --

19 A. We didn't have a client at that --

20 -- at that period --

21 Q. I did not have a client at that point.

22 Q. Okay. So you had no client. And did

23 you write on the TALDF letterhead this complaint?

24 A. I represented that I -- we were in the

Bruce Fein August 31, 2009

196

1 -- that was early on, I think, and whether we were

2 in the process of developing letterhead, I'm not

3 certain.

4 Q. Okay. Now, the -- did you also

5 represent to anyone that you represented -- you or

6 TALDF represented Congresswoman Schmidt at that

7 point?

8 A. No.

9 Q. All right. Did you -- the letter that

10 you sent to the attorney general, was that on the 11 same day or prior to issuing the press release?

12 Same day? Prior to? After?

13 A. It could have been the same day. It

14 was contemporaneous -- the time frame was very close.

15 Q. Okay. And the -- anywhere in here did

16 you mention in this draft of this that you had

17 filed this on behalf of the Turkish Coalition of 18 America, you had filed the complaint on their

19 behalf?

20 A. Did I mention that in that document

21 there?

22 Q. Right. In the press release that I --

23 I apologize, I forget exhibit number. Do you have

24 it right there?

1 A. No, this does not say that we're
 2 representing Jean Samuels.
 3 Q. Okay. And you then waited until April
 4 to file -- April 29th, I believe, to file the
 5 complaint with the Ohio Elections Commission. Is
 6 that correct?
 7 A. I think the document speaks for itself.
 8 There was a protected period where all of this
 9 was under review in the House. And I will say
 10 based upon what I was told, the House Ethics
 11 Committee, we could not and would not move forward
 12 until we had clearance.
 13 Q. So it's your position of your
 14 understanding I should say that you couldn't do
 15 anything more because the Turkish American Legal 16 Defense Fund had no standing at that point? Was
 17 that --
 18 MR. BREY: I would object.
 19 A. No. The --
 20 MR. BREY: I would object.
 21 A. Sorry.
 22 MR. BREY: You're asking for his legal
 23 judgments about why he did certain things on 24 behalf of one or both of two clients, and I just

1 think that's protected. I don't think that's a
 2 proper question.
 3 MR. GERNOGG: Okay. I appreciate that.
 4 Q. The -- did you -- you were rejected
 5 both by the attorney general and by the district
 6 attorney, county prosecutor?
 7 A. The attorney general said they had no
 8 jurisdiction over the matter. The county
 9 prosecutor was unresponsive.
 10 Q. Okay. And so then you needed to find a
 11 client, is that correct?
 12 A. No. I'm not sure what -- if your
 13 question insinuates that we were searching to find
 14 a client and drum up one, that's not accurate.
 15 No.
 16 Q. Well, that's exactly what happened,
 17 isn't it?
 18 A. That we went out and were drumming up
 19 clients?
 20 C. Well, you called the scheduler, didn't
 21 you, and you set up a --
 22 A. Lincoln McCurdy asked me to make a call
 23 to meet.
 24 Right. And that would be solicitation.

Bruce Fair August 31, 2009

1 Q. So I'm asking -- 200
 2 A. She had been accused of a crime, and
 3 it's not unusual for people --
 4 Q. Did she call you?
 5 A. -- being accused of a crime. No, she
 6 did not call me.
 7 Q. Okay. And did she or did any -- as far
 8 as you know did her chief of staff call your
 9 office and say, hey, we need the Turkish American
 10 Legal Defense Fund to help us?
 11 A. No.
 12 MR. BREY: I would object.
 13 A. Sorry.
 14 MR. BREY: I would object to this
 15 entire line of questions. It's improper --
 16 MR. GERAGOS: I would too if I were you
 17 because it's outrageous what he's done here.
 18 MR. BREY: Just a second --
 19 MR. GERAGOS: Or what he's just 20 admitted to under oath.
 21 MR. BREY: Just a second, you
 22 interrupted me a again.
 23 MR. GERAGOS: No, I'm not interrupting
 24 you.

Bruce Fair August 31, 2009

1 would it not, of a client? 199
 2 A. Have you filed a claim of barriety
 3 against me?
 4 Q. Of champerty and maintenance, no, I
 5 haven't, but --
 6 A. Why not?
 7 Q. I don't know. Maybe I'll wait and you
 8 can wait and see as --
 9 A. It's a long time after the fact.
 10 Q. Well, actually, this is the first time
 11 you've been under the deposition that we have 12 become aware of this, so I believe the statute of 13 limitations would start running now. So --
 14 A. Okay.
 15 Q. -- I would ask you to stay tuned.
 16 Because I believe you have already testified you
 17 called up the scheduler in order to get her as a
 18 client, isn't that correct?
 19 A. No. The fact is Lincoln McCortney had 20 requested that I do that and maybe because she had 21 voiced an interest.
 22 Q. Do you know that?
 23 A. Because she had been accused -- no, I
 24 don't know that for certain.

Bruce Felt August 31, 2009 201

1 MR. BREY: You interrupted me again.
 2 YOU interrupted me.
 3 MR. GERAGOS: I'm joining in your
 4 objection. It is outrageous. I agree with you.
 5 It's outrageous that --
 6 MR. BREY: You interrupted me.
 7 MR. GERAGOS: -- they're shopping for a
 8 client.
 9 MR. BREY: You interrupt me all the
 10 time and you interrupt him. You are not allowed
 11 to interrupt counsel.
 12 MR. GERAGOS: Counsel, you can
 13 interrupt any time you want.
 14 MR. BREY: I don't interrupt you. You
 15 interrupted. Then I will interrupt any time I
 16 want you, and I will completely try to say what I
 17 want to say until I have an opportunity to do.
 18 MR. GERAGOS: You are supposedly
 19 representing --
 20 MR. BREY: You are supposedly showing
 21 common courtesy to opposing counsel.
 22 MR. GERAGOS: -- Congressman Schmidt
 23 as counsel.
 24 MR. BREY: You are supposed to show

 2 MR. GERAGOS: I'm not showing you

 4 MR. BREY: Yes, you are. You are
 5 showing me discourtesy all the time.
 6 MR. GERAGOS: I'm in here in your

 8 MR. BREY: Because you want to talk and
 9 you don't want me to talk, and that's not
 10 legitimate.
 11 MR. GERAGOS: I don't care if you talk.
 12 MR. BREY: Then why did you interrupt
 13 me when I try to talk?
 14 MR. GERAGOS: You haven't made an
 15 objection; you just talk.
 16 MR. BREY: I make an objection --
 17 MR. GERAGOS: Make an objection, state

 19 MR. BREY: And I will interrupt you

 23 MR. GERAGOS: State it.
 24 MR. BREY: I will state it if you let

1 A. Sorry, sir.

2 MR. BREY: Objection. He's miss --

3 you're mistating the -- the record in terms of

4 the solicitation. This has nothing to do with

5 this case, and I instruct the witness not to

6 answer communications he had in terms of

7 developing the attorney/client relationship with

8 Jean Schmidt which is also privileged, and the

9 privilege belongs to her, not to him.

10 Q. Well, you didn't have a communication

11 with Jean Schmidt when you called her; isn't that

12 correct?

13 MR. BREY: Objection. Relevancy.

14 Q. You made the first contact with her;

15 isn't that correct?

16 MR. BREY: Objection. That's not his

17 testimony. His testimony was --

18 A. My testimony is not that whatsoever.

19 It has not that whatsoever. My testimony was that

20 to my understanding there had been communications

21 between Jean and Lincoln McCurdy.

22 Q. You just testified --

23 A. Could you let me finish my --

24 Q. -- that you didn't know that.

and

1 me talk without interrupting as you repeatedly do.

2 I object to this entire questioning -- by the way,

3 this is a common tactic that you do. It's

4 improper. It's an unethical tactic --

5 MR. GERAGOS: You can say whatever you

6 want.

7 MR. BREY: -- for you to --

8 MR. GERAGOS: Just state your

9 objection.

10 MR. BREY: It is an unethical tactic

11 for you to interrupt me when I'm making an

12 objection.

13 MR. GERAGOS: It's unethical to solicit

14 clients.

15 MR. BREY: It's unethical for you to

16 accuse him of --

17 MR. GERAGOS: He just said it.

18 MR. BREY: He didn't say that at all.

19 Q. Mr. Fein --

20 MR. BREY: You said it several times.

21 Q. -- you were the one who called Jean

23 A. My understanding --

24 MR. BREY: Objection.

BRUCE FEIST August 31, 2009 203

2 Q. You just testified you didn't know

3 that.

4 A. I said my understanding. Now --

5 Q. From who?

6 A. -- did I take under oath -- from

7 Lincoln McCurdy.

8 Q. He told you that?

9 A. He indicated, yes.

10 Q. That he had talked to Congressman

11 Schmidt?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that she had called him and said

14 she wanted --

15 A. I don't know --

16 Q. -- to tell --

17 A. -- whether those were the particular

18 words, but he would indicate that was the reason,

19 that I was not shopping and soliciting from a

20 disinterested client whatsoever. And any

21 insinuation of the contrary is wrong.

22 Q. Isn't that what you just testified to

23 before your lawyer objected?

24 A. No.

BRUCE FEIST August 31, 2009 204

1 Q. Isn't that -- didn't you just say on

2 the record that you called her up and called the

3 scheduling clerk and you had no information about

4 Lincoln McCurdy? Isn't that what you testified to?

5 MR. BREY: That's not what was

6 testified --

7 A. No, that's not what I testified.

8 Q. The record is what it is, and you're

9 saying now that's not what you said.

10 A. I did not say that.

11 MR. BREY: I would object.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. BREY: You're mischaracterizing the

14 record. You misrepresented --

15 MR. GRADOS: The record is what it is.

16 That isn't an objection.

17 MR. BREY: It is an objection when you

18 are telling him certain things that are false.

19 MR. GRADOS: This would be about the

20 fifth time that he's either mispoke, clarified or

21 claimed that he's wrong before.

22 Q. I'm asking you: Did you ever speak to

23 Congresswoman Schmidt prior to you contacting her

24 scheduler?

August 31, 2009

Bruce Felt

206

1 A. Schmidt, yes, sir.
 2 Q. Okay. And he suggested -- and your
 3 testimony is he suggested that because she told
 4 him that she wanted you to call?
 5 A. Whether he owed that particular
 6 phraseology, I don't know. But he would -- he was 7 the one who indicated that she had an interest and
 8 I should communicate that.
 9 Q. Okay. Let's take about a five-minute
 10 break.

11 MR. SEXT: Okay.

12 (A short recess is taken.)

13 (Mr. Geragos and Glandian exit

15 A. Back on the record. Yes, I just wanted
 16 to elaborate on a response to an earlier question
 17 from Mr. Geragos about Jean's position, genocide
 18 interpreting what was on this Turkish American
 19 Legal Defense Fund posting on the Internet site of 20 ICA, Turkish Coalition of America, and I was 21 explaining what had transpired in my deposition.
 22 I didn't remember the gentleman's name earlier on

 24 the deposition of Palmer C. Reising.

August 31, 2009

Bruce Felt

207

1 A. No.
 2 Q. And when you contacted the scheduler,
 3 did you tell the scheduler that you wanted to meet
 4 with Congresswoman Schmidt?
 5 A. The background as I'll give -- to give
 6 the full answer, I was informed by Lincoln McCurdy
 7 that Jean Schmidt was interested in talking about
 8 this issue because she was furious at having been 9 accused of committing multiple felonies by
 10 Mr. David Kriskorian. Based upon that information
 11 and his request, I called Jean Schmidt's office
 12 and her scheduler. I did not initiate it without 13 a prior indication that she was interested in 14 talking. That is how the communication and the 15 contact unfolded.
 16 Q. Didn't you previously testify about
 17 eight minutes ago that you didn't know whether
 18 Lincoln McCurdy had a conversation with her?
 19 A. I did not testify to that, no, sir.
 20 Q. Okay. And it is now your testimony
 21 that you did have a conversation with Lincoln
 22 McCurdy; is that correct?
 23 A. My testimony all along is Lincoln
 24 McCurdy is the one who suggested that I call Jean

1 R-E-1-5-1-N-G, that was taken on July 10th, 2009.
 2 I believe this was in your office, Mr. Finney.
 3 And on the -- one of the issues raised was his
 4 position in Mr. Kriorian's campaign. And the 5 answers on page 14, I asked: "Did you have a
 6 title? And the answer was: "I think my official 7 title is campaign director." And then -- so as 8 campaign director, I then asked him about his 9 understanding of the genocide issue. And this is 10 on page 57 of the deposition, and his answer is as 11 follows: "Well, in addition, I was not familiar
 12 with the issues surrounding what is referred to by 13 some as the genocide. I'm not familiar with the 14 issue, and I have not researched it enough to 15 take a position one way or another on it."
 16 And I just wanted to add that to my --
 17
 18 Therefore, defendant's Exhibit R is marked

 20
 21 MR. BREYER: Can we go ahead and mark

 3 THE WITNESS: It was an answer --
 4 MR. BREYER: Chris Finney has raised a
 5 correct point. Is there anything you wish to add

 9 THE WITNESS: No.
 10 MR. BREYER: Okay.
 11 THE WITNESS: Did this need to be

Dear Chair Lofgren and Ranking Member Bonner:

I am writing to seek approval to establish the Jean Schmidt Legal Expense Trust pursuant to House Rule 25. The purpose of the proposed trust is to provide a proper means to accept transfers of money, property and services for the sole purpose of paying the legal costs that have been and will be incurred in connection with legal action directly related to my candidacy for federal office in 2008.

Enclosed, please find a draft trust agreement for your review. I have nominated Joseph J. Braun to act as Trustee. Mr. Braun is a Partner at the Strauss & Troy law firm in Cincinnati, Ohio. I have enclosed Mr. Braun's attorney profile as found on Strauss & Troy's website. In accordance with Committee rules, Joseph J. Braun has no family, business, or employment relationship with me.

Thank you in advance for your time and attention to this matter. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Jean Schmidt
Member of Congress

Dear Chair Lofgren and Ranking Member Bonner:

I am writing to seek approval to establish the Jean Schmidt Legal Expense Trust pursuant to House Rule 25 and to seek the Committee's approval to enter into a contingency fee agreement in connection with a civil lawsuit related to the legal action for which the legal expense trust is being established. The purpose of the proposed trust is to provide a proper means to accept transfers of money, property and services for the sole purpose of paying the legal costs that have been and will be incurred in connection with legal action directly related to my candidacy for federal office in 2008.

Enclosed, please find a revised draft trust agreement for your review. This revised agreement incorporates the Committee's required alterations. Additionally, please note that I have nominated Mr. Larry Neuman to act as Trustee. This is a change from the original draft trust agreement. Mr. Neuman is Of Counsel at the Strauss & Troy law firm in Cincinnati, Ohio. I have enclosed Mr. Neuman's attorney profile as found on Strauss & Troy's website. He has requested that I clarify that this profile has not been updated to reflect that he is not a Partner at the firm and is not a member of the American Bar Association. In accordance with Committee rules, Larry A. Neuman has no family, business, or employment relationship with me.

As the Committee is aware, I have also filed a civil lawsuit related to the matter for which the proposed legal expense trust is being established. I am represented in this case by the same attorneys. They have proposed entering into a contingency fee agreement. Under this agreement, any award would first be used to pay legal expenses associated with the case with any remaining funds being divided on a 50/50 basis.

Respectfully,

Jean Schmidt

I would also like to make the Committee aware that my attorneys filed an Amicus Brief on my behalf when my opponent in the underlying legal action at issue here filed suit in federal court seeking to enjoin the Ohio Elections Commission (OEC) and its members from enforcing against him the statute upon which my original action was based. This was a clear attack against my legal victory before the OEC. His complaint is an obvious attempt to continue, unfeared, his campaign of false statements – the same statements that the OEC found to be knowingly false – against me. Because this action challenged the favorable ruling of the OEC, it was necessary to file the Amicus Brief on my behalf. I believe the legal expenses associated with filing the Amicus Brief arose in connection with my candidacy for federal office in 2008. Additionally, the issues involved in the case were matters bearing upon my reputation or fitness for office. Accordingly, I am requesting permission from the Committee to pay expenses associated with filing the Amicus Brief from the Jean Schmidt Legal Expense Trust.

Thank you in advance for your time and attention to this matter. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Jean Schmidt
Member of Congress

CONTINGENCY AGREEMENT

The Turkish American Legal Defense Fund (TALDF) agrees to represent Congresswoman Jean Schmidt to litigate a defamation complaint against David Krikorian in Ohio state courts. The court costs of the litigation will be assumed by Ms. Schmidt. The parties agree to divide 50-50 any damages recovered through final judgment, settlement, or otherwise substantially because of the defamation litigation, but only after costs have been first recovered by Ms. Schmidt. TALDF will not otherwise be compensated by the Congresswoman.

| Identify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value exceeding $1,000 at the end of the reporting period, and (b) any other asset or sources of income which generated more than $200 in "unearned" income during the year. For rental property or land, provide a complete address. Provide full names of stocks and mutual funds (do not use ticker symbols). For all IRAs and other retirement plans (such as 401(k) plans) that are self directed (i.e., plans in which you have the power, even if not exercised, to select the specific investments), provide the value and income information on each asset in the account that exceeds the reporting threshold. For retirement plans that are not self-directed, name the institution holding the account and its value at the end of the reporting period. For an active business that is not publicly traded, state the name of the business, the nature of its activities, and its geographic location in Block A. For additional information, see the instruction booklet. Exclude: Your personal residence(s) (unless there is rental income), any debt owed to you by your spouse, or by you or your spouse's child, parent, or sibling; any deposits totalling $5,000 or less in personal savings accounts; any financial interest in or income derived from U.S. Government retirement programs. If you so choose, you may indicate that an asset or income source is that of your spouse (SP) or dependent child (DC) or is jointly held (JT), in the optional column on the far left. | | Indicate value of asset at close of reporting year. If you use a valuation method other than fair market value, please specify the method used. If an asset was sold during the reporting year and is included only because it generated income, the value should be "None." | | | | | | | | | | | Check all columns that apply. The Honorable Charles B. Rangel
U.S. House of Representatives
2354 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

This responds to your letter of October 25, 2010, requesting Committee guidance on seeking and accepting pro bono or reduced-fee legal representation in connection with the disciplinary proceedings currently pending against you before the Committee.

In your letter, you state, "I am asking the Committee to approve my seeking . . . counsel [on a pro bono or reduced fee basis] without me or the counsel being accused of seeking, receiving or providing gift representation." You also state, "in the alternative, the Committee can arrange for the House to pay for my counsel." We have construed your request as a request for an advisory opinion from the Committee's Office of Advice and Education.¹

While House Rules authorize the Committee to consider requests for advisory opinions, such authority is limited to "the general propriety of any current or proposed conduct" of the inquiring individual.² Moreover, in providing written responses to requests for an opinion, the Committee has a long-established policy of addressing "the conduct only of the inquiring individual, or of persons for whom the inquiring individual is responsible as [the] employing authority."³

Because your letter does not provide specific details about how or from whom you would seek legal representation, we cannot definitively address whether the activities described in your letter are permissible under applicable House rules, laws, regulations or other applicable standards of conduct. We can, however, offer you some general guidance on the rules and standards of conduct applicable to Members of the House that are relevant to your inquiry.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

According to your letter and publicly-available materials, the background on this matter is as follows. The Committee has been conducting formal disciplinary proceedings into allegations that

¹ See House Rule 11, cl. 3(a)(4); Committee Rule 3(b).

² House Rule 11, cl. 3(a)(4).

³ Committee Rule 3(d).

The Honorable Charles B. Rangel

you violated House rules, laws, regulations, or other applicable standards of conduct. On July 22, 2010, an investigative subcommittee transmitted a Statement of Alleged Violation (SAV) to the full Committee. You are currently scheduled to appear before an adjudicatory subcommittee on November 15, 2010, for an adjudicatory hearing on the allegations charged in the SAV.

During the course of the proceedings, you were represented by the Washington, D.C., law firm of Zuckerman Spaeder. To date, this representation has generated legal bills of over $2 million. To date, you have largely used funds from your principal campaign committee to pay those expenses. However, as of October 14, 2010, Zuckerman Spaeder withdrew from serving as your counsel. As of the date of your letter, you have been unable to secure new counsel to represent you in this matter.

Your October 25, 2010, letter inquires about the permissibility of two options for securing and accepting legal assistance: (1) having the House pay for your counsel; or (2) allowing you to solicit private counsel to represent you on a pro bono (free) or reduced-fee basis. The remainder of this letter provides general guidance on each of these options in turn.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY AND ANALYSIS

A. Counsel Paid by the House

Your first proposal is that the Committee or the House of Representatives as a whole pay for any further legal costs incurred in connection with the adjudication of this matter. A provision in the Committee's rules provides a respondent in disciplinary proceedings before the Committee with the right to be represented by counsel.⁴ However, the rule also expressly provides that any such representation is "to be provided at the respondent's own expense."⁵ Thus, the Committee, in promulgating its rules, has weighed and rejected the option of the government paying for legal representation for individuals whom the Committee is investigating.

A federal statute also restricts the use of House funds to the purposes for which those funds were appropriated.⁶ Pursuant to this statute, any funds of the House may be used only to perform, or pay for, the official governmental duties of the Member, committee, or other office to whom the funds were appropriated. Because your legal representation for purposes of the disciplinary proceedings before the Committee is a matter wholly related to your own official duties, no funds of the House other than funds appropriated to your congressional office for the conduct of official congressional business (i.e., your Member's Representational Allowance, or MRA) could be expended for that purpose under the statute. However, we note that the Committee on House Administration, rather than this Committee, has jurisdiction over the approval of reimbursements from your MRA.⁷

⁴ Committee Rule 26(e).

⁶ 31 U.S.C. §1301(e).

⁷ We understand that the Committee on House Administration has determined that the cost of legal representation of a Member in a Committee adjudicatory proceeding is not reimbursable from the Member's official funds because such expenses are not considered to be "ordinary and necessary" expenses. See Comm. on House Admin., Member's Handbook, at 1 ("Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by the Member . . . in support of the

In sum, it appears that Committee rules, House regulations, and a federal statute would prohibit the House from providing you with legal representation for the remaining phases of the disciplinary proceedings before the Committee.⁸

B. Soliciting or Accepting Free or Reduced-Fee Legal Services

The second option addressed in your letter involves you seeking private counsel to represent you on a no-cost or reduced fee basis. This proposal implicates ethics provisions governing both acceptance of gifts and solicitation of things of value.

House rules define the term "gift" to mean:

a gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan forbearance, or other item having monetary value. The term includes gifts of services, training, transportation, lodging, and meals, whether provided in kind, by purchase of a ticket, payment in advance, or reimbursement after the expense has been incurred.⁹

The definition of gift expressly includes gifts of services. Thus, the value of legal services provided to a Member at no cost would be deemed to be a gift under the gift rule.¹⁰ Members may not accept any gift, except as specifically permitted by House rules.¹¹

One of the permissible exceptions to the prohibition on gifts is for contributions to a legal expense fund by someone other than a registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal.¹² This exception provides that a Member, officer, or employee may accept "a contribution or other payment to a legal expense fund established for the benefit of a Member, . . . officer, or employee of the House that is otherwise lawfully made in accordance with the restrictions and disclosure requirements of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct."¹³ The Committee has expressly stated that such a fund is permissible for legal expenses that arise in connection with a matter concerning "[t]he individual's duties or position in Congress (including a matter before the Standards Committee)."¹⁴ If you did establish a valid legal expense trust in relation to this matter, you would be permitted to solicit donations to the trust of money or in-kind services (including free or discounted legal services), provided such solicitations and donations were

⁸ General ethics principles for the legal profession also may restrict the House from serving as counsel to both the Committee and counsel to the defense in this matter. See, e.g., ABA, Model Rules of Professional Conduct R. 1.7.

⁹ House Rule 25, cl. 5(a)(2)(A).

¹⁰ As a general matter, the amount of any discount on the cost of legal fees offered to a Member based on that individual's official status would be deemed a gift for purposes of the gift rule. See House Rule 25, cl. 5(a)(2)(A).

made in compliance with Committee regulations regarding legal expense trusts.¹⁵ The rules for establishing, maintaining, and providing public disclosure about such a fund are contained in the appendices to the 2008 House Ethics Manual.¹⁶

In addition, because an important aspect of a Member's responsibility is representing the interests of his constituents in matters in which the federal government has an interest, the Committee has determined that pro bono assistance to participate in certain actions involving the federal government falls within the gift rule exception for contributions to legal expense funds.¹⁷ Specifically, as stated in the 2008 House Ethics Manual, a Member may accept pro bono legal assistance, without limit, for the following purposes:

- To file an amicus brief in his or her capacity as a member of Congress;
- To participate in a civil action challenging the validity of any federal law or regulation; or
- To participate in a civil action challenging the lawfulness of an action of a federal agency, or an action of a federal official taken in an official capacity, provided that the action concerns a matter of public interest, rather than a matter that is personal in nature.¹⁸

The Committee has permitted the acceptance of pro bono legal services for the purposes listed above because such services would be to enable a Member to fulfill his official duties as an advocate for the greater good of his constituents due to the subject matter of the litigation.¹⁹ That principle of serving the greater good would not be met through providing legal services to defend an individual Member against allegations of misconduct by an individual Member in a disciplinary action by the Committee.²⁰

²⁰ Because your letter does not provide specific details about how or from whom you would seek such representation, we cannot, as noted above, definitively address whether any other exceptions to the House gift rule may potentially apply in this matter. See House Rule 25, cl. 5. For example, we note that the Committee has, in the past, approved an unsolicited reduced fee arrangement offered by a law firm to a Member. However, it should be noted that the approved arrangement involved a fee structure regularly offered to other clients of the firm in similar circumstances. We also note that the Committee has permitted House employees to accept unsolicited pro bono legal representation in personal matters based on the personal friendship exception to the gift rule. See House Rule 25, cl. 5(a)(3)(D).

In any case, a federal statute prohibits Members and House staff from soliciting anything of value.²¹ This statute gives this Committee, as the supervising ethics office for the House, the authority to issue rules or regulations providing for reasonable exceptions to this prohibition.²² Under this authority, the Committee has permitted Members to solicit for a legal expense fund that has been established and approved by the Committee in accordance with the Legal Expense Fund Regulations.²³ The Committee has never approved the solicitation of pro bono legal services incurred in connection with a disciplinary matter before the Committee, unless the solicitation was for the donation of goods or services to a valid legal expense trust established for that purpose.

Based on the foregoing authority and precedent, because the subject matter of the Committee investigation concerns your conduct, rather than the actions of the federal government, it would not be permissible for you to solicit or accept pro bono or reduced-fee legal representation in connection with the ongoing disciplinary proceedings, absent the establishment of a legal expense fund for such purpose.

III. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, as explained more fully above, House and Committee rules and the applicable federal statutes would prohibit the House from paying for your legal representation. In addition, it is likely that, absent the establishment of a valid legal expense fund for that purpose, you may not solicit or accept pro bono or reduced-fee representation related to the disciplinary proceedings before the Committee. While not proposed as an option in your letter, it would be permissible for you to establish a legal expense fund to accept contributions of: (1) money that could be used to defray any legal expenses incurred in connection with the ongoing Committee disciplinary proceedings; or (2) in-kind donations of free or discounted legal services for the same purpose. As stated above, any such legal expense fund would have to be established and maintained in accordance with the Committee's Legal Expense Fund Regulations.

IV. LIMITATIONS

The response above constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of House Rule 11, clause 3; House Rule 23, clause 4; House Rule 25, clause 5; Committee Rule 3; Committee Rule 26; the Legal Expense Fund Regulations, 5 U.S.C. § 7353; and 31 U.S.C. § 1301. The following limitations apply to this opinion:

- This advisory opinion is issued only to Representative Charles B. Rangel, the requestor of this opinion. This advisory opinion cannot be relied upon by any other individual or entity.

²¹ See 5 U.S.C. § 7353(a).

- This advisory opinion is limited to the provisions of House rules and regulations and federal statute specifically noted above. No opinion is expressed or implied herein regarding the application of any other federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other law that may be applicable to the proposed conduct described in this letter.
- This advisory opinion will not bind or obligate any entity other than the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct of the United States House of Representatives.
- This advisory opinion is limited in scope to the specific proposed conduct described in this letter and does not apply to any other conduct, including that which appears similar in nature or scope to that described in this letter.

The Committee will take no adverse action against you in regard to any conduct that you undertake, or have undertaken, in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion, so long as you have presented a complete and accurate statement of all material facts relied upon herein, and the proposed conduct in practice conforms with the information you provided, as addressed in this opinion.

Changes or other developments in the law (including, but not limited to, the Code of Official Conduct, House rules, Committee guidance, advisory opinions, statutes, regulations or case law) may affect the analysis or conclusions drawn in this advisory opinion. The Committee reserves the right to reconsider the questions and issues raised in this advisory opinion and to rescind, modify, or terminate this opinion if required by the interests of the House. However, the Committee will rescind an advisory opinion only if relevant and material facts were not completely and accurately disclosed to the Committee at the time the opinion was issued. In the event that this advisory opinion is modified or terminated, the Committee will not take any adverse action against you with respect to any action taken in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion so long as such conduct or such action was promptly discontinued upon notification of the modification or termination of this advisory opinion.
