PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 119th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 171

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 2025

No. 1

House of Representatives

This being the day fixed by the 20th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, for the meeting of the 119th Congress of the United States, the Representatives-elect met in their Hall, and at noon were called to order by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, Hon. Kevin F. McCumber.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Gather us together, sovereign God, from the North and South, from the East and West, from the right and the left, and in Your mercy, consecrate the work You have called us to do in this 119th Congress.

As we convene to establish and uphold the laws of this Nation, may we devote our hearts anew to You and stretch out our hands to receive Your instruction.

With our spirits oriented toward You, may we be willing to put away all selfish motives, any rancorous thought that we may harbor within us, and the sin that we too often cling to, and allow no evil or wickedness to gain a foothold in or penetrate this tent of governance.

On this day and the days and months and years ahead, may we be found to be free of fault and true of faith and allegiance when we lift up our faces to You. May we, without fear or reservation, nor purpose of evasion, stand blameless before You and the people we serve.

We ask this and pray Your blessing on this Congress and on these United States.

In the strength of Your divine name, we pray.
Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The CLERK. The Representatives-elect and their guests will please remain standing and join in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Clerk led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The CLERK. As directed by law, the Clerk of the House has prepared the official roll of the Representatives-elect.

Certificates of election covering 435 seats in the One Hundred Nineteenth Congress have been received by the Clerk of the House. The names of those persons whose credentials show that they were regularly elected as Representatives in accord with the laws of their respective States or of the United States will be called.

The Representatives-elect will record their presence by electronic device and their names will be reported in alphabetical order by State, beginning with the State of Alabama, to determine whether a quorum is present.

Representatives-elect will record their presence by electronic device.

Representatives-elect who have not obtained their voting ID cards may do so now in the Speaker's lobby.

The call was taken by electronic device, and the following Representatives-elect responded to their names:

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The CLERK. Pursuant to law and precedent, the next order of business is the election of the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 119th Congress.

Nominations are now in order.

The Clerk recognizes the gentlewoman from Michigan (Mrs. McCLAIN).

Mrs. McCLAIN. Mr. Clerk, as chair of the Republican Conference, I am directed by the vote of that Conference to present for election to the Office of Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 119th Congress the name of the Honorable MIKE JOHNSON, a Representative-elect from the State of Louisiana.

Mr. Clerk, I thank you and my fellow colleagues. As the chair of the Republican Conference, I am directed by the vote of that Conference to present for election to the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 119th Congress the name of the Honorable MIKE JOHNSON, a Representative from the State of Louisiana.

Welcome, everybody. I am optimistic about our future. On November 5, the American people gave us a great opportunity to get America back on the right track. They gave us an opportunity to get back to normal and to get back to the real issues that the country faces right now. People want the opportunity to take care of their families. They simply want to provide for their children and give them a prosperous future.

Mr. Clerk, we have the opportunity today to do just that. We have an opportunity to take our country back. With Speaker MIKE JOHNSON, Senate Majority Leader JOHN THUNE, and President Donald J. Trump in charge, we have the opportunity to put America first again.

We have an opportunity to do something about crime; we have an opportunity to do something about the border; and we have an opportunity to take care of our veterans. We—every single Member in this Chamber and those of you watching at home on TV—should be looking forward knowing that America will be respected again.

Our country is the last bastion of hope. If we fail, then who?

This is why we are focused on the issues that the majority of Americans care about: God, family, country, faith, freedom, and traditional American values. We should be making it easier for people to achieve the American Dream.

Over 14 months ago, MIKE JOHNSON took on a daunting task. No Speaker is perfect, and no one will ever be. However, achieving perfection requires incremental gains and hard decisions along the way. None of us will get exactly what we want. The fundamental collective goal of this body is to make progress for the American people in which we represent, and we have done just that under MIKE's leadership.

We should be celebrating and building upon his efforts, our efforts. MIKE has remained the same kind and caring person as he was before he assumed this role. He is an honest broker. He shows you his true beliefs at face value. He is steadfast in his values of faith, family, and love of this country. He knows our brightest days are still ahead of us; and I do, too.

I am hopeful for the next Congress. I am optimistic that we will focus on those issues that people truly care about. I know MIKE will be an integral part of this country's comeback. He will lead us through another successful Republican majority. As chairwoman of the unified House Republican Conference, I can say proudly that we are ready to govern.

It is my honor to present our Conference's nominee for the Speaker of the people's House, the Honorable MIKE JOHNSON from the State of Louisiana.

The CLERK. The Clerk now recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. AGUILAR).

Mr. AGUILAR. Mr. Clerk, I have had a little bit of practice and, clearly, my colleagues took notice.

I rise to place a name in nomination, but, first, I acknowledge my colleague from Michigan (Mrs. MCCLAIN) for her heartfelt and personal nominating speech. As someone who has given a few of these, I can say Representative MCCLAIN served her Conference well.

Mr. Clerk, today I rise on behalf of the governing majority of the House of Representatives. The American people have sent a strong message that they want their elected leaders working together to tackle the affordability crisis. There is only one leader in this Chamber with the track record of compromise, conviction, and compassion.

There is only one leader who understands the needs of the working people, who has lived the American Dream himself, and who is committed to ensuring its promise for future generations. There is only one leader who knows how to negotiate a bipartisan deal and then stick to that deal.

House Democrats are united behind the most powerful legislative leader in this Chamber, HAKEEM JEFFRIES of Brooklyn. House Democrats, under the leadership of HAKEEM JEFFRIES, are committed to bipartisanship and commonsense solutions to America's most pressing challenges.

In the face of chaos and dysfunction over the last 2 years, our Caucus has kept the government funded, kept our allies protected, and the economy secured from the catastrophic default.

In the 119th Congress, we will work with the incoming administration to make life better, safer, and more affordable for working families. The incoming administration must also recognize that while my colleagues on the other side of the aisle are divided and while compromise remains a dirty word for so many, Congress won't be able to keep the lights on, let alone pass anything of substance, without the buy-in and blessing of House Democrats and HAKEEM JEFFRIES.

Make no mistake, Democrats want to bring down the cost of living, build more housing, and lower the cost of everyday items, like food, medicine, and childcare. Even as the extreme rhetoric rises in this Chamber and in the public square, we will not stop advocating for the policies that do the most good for the most people.

Because of HAKEEM's leadership, we will never abandon our values or sacrifice our bedrock principles of freedom and democracy. When America's enemies abroad threatened our democratic ally Ukraine, when terrorists attacked our strongest ally, Israel, it was HAKEEM JEFFRIES and House Democrats who delivered the votes and stood tall for America's national security.

When the least, the lost, and the left behind were threatened with devastating cuts, HAKEEM JEFFRIES stood with America's mothers, children, and veterans. When the incoming administration wanted to raise the debt limit by trillions of dollars in order to finance tax cuts for the wealthy, the well-off, and the well-connected, leaving middle-class families to pay for the bill and leaving them high and dry, HAKEEM JEFFRIES didn't just say no, he said hell no. That is why there is only one true candidate today for Speaker.

Mr. Clerk, I am honored to rise today at the direction of the House Democratic Caucus to place into nomination for election to the position of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the pride of Brooklyn, the gentleman from New York (HAKEEM JEFFRIES).

The CLERK. The names of the Honorable MIKE JOHNSON, a Representative-elect from the State of Louisiana, and the Honorable HAKEEM JEFFRIES, a Representative-elect from the State of New York, have been placed in nomination.

Are there further nominations? There being no further nominations, the Clerk appoints the following tellers:

The gentlewoman from North Carolina (Ms. FOX);

The gentleman from New York (Mr. MORELLE);

The gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. STEIL); and

The gentlewoman from California (Mrs. TORRES).

The tellers will come forward and take their seats at the desk in front of the Speaker's rostrum.

The roll will now be called, and those responding to their names will indicate by surname the nominee of their choosing.

The Reading Clerk will now call the roll.

The tellers having taken their places, the House proceeded to vote for the Speaker.

The following is the result of the vote:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Ms. PLASKETT. (During the vote). Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

I note that the names of the Representatives from American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia were not called, representing collectively 4 million Americans who are, collectively, the largest per capita of veterans in this country.

The CLERK. Does the gentlewoman from the Virgin Islands have a parliamentary inquiry?

Ms. PLASKETT. Mr. Chair, I ask why they were not called—from the Parliamentary, please.

The CLERK. Delegates-elect and the Resident Commissioner-elect are not qualified to vote.

Representatives-elect are the only individuals qualified to vote in the election of a Speaker. As provided in section 36 of the House Rules and Manual, the Speaker is elected by a majority of the Members-elect voting by surname.

Ms. PLASKETT. Mr. Speaker, this body and this Nation have a territory and a Colony problem.

What was supposed to be temporary has now effectively become permanent.

The CLERK. The gentlewoman is no longer recognized.

Ms. PLASKETT. We must do something about this problem so that these—and a time for every matter under Heaven.”

It is fair to say that in a democracy there is a time to campaign and a time to govern. The election is over. This is a new Congress. The American people need us as their elected Representatives in this season to put down our partisan swords and pick up bipartisan plowshares.

It is a time for us to come together, not as Democrats or Republicans but as Americans, to get things done for the people.

In that spirit, House Democrats will work hard to find bipartisan common ground with our Republican colleagues and the incoming administration on any issue, whenever and wherever possible, in order to make life better for everyday Americans.

For far too long in this country, the cost of living has gone up, but the size of the middle class has come down. Housing costs are too high. Grocery costs are too high. Childcare costs are too high. Insurance costs are too high. Utility costs are too high. America is too expensive.

There are far too many people in this great country who, for decades, have been struggling to live paycheck to paycheck. That is not acceptable in the wealthiest country in the history of the world.

We need to build an affordable economy for hardworking American taxpayers, and we need to build it now.

It is time for us to come together and finally lower the high cost of living in the United States of America once and for all, and we will work with anyone of any party to get that done.

We will work with anyone to secure our borders, and we will work with anyone to fix our broken immigration system in a comprehensive and bipartisan manner.

At the same period of time, we will push back against far-right extremism whenever necessary.

So, let me be clear: Social Security and Medicare are not entitlement programs. They are earned benefits. Hardworking American taxpayers pay into Social Security and Medicare every day, every week, every month, every year throughout their entire adult life. They have earned those benefits, worked hard for those benefits, and deserve those benefits.

So, as Democrats, our promise to the American people is that we will fight hard to make sure that no one in this town takes away Social Security or Medicare from the American people, not now, not ever. No means never.

□ 1500

Our position is that it is not acceptable to cut Social Security, cut Medicare, cut Medicaid, cut veterans' benefits, or cut nutritional assistance from children and families in order to pay for massive tax breaks for billionaires and wealthy corporations.

House Democrats will fight hard to protect working-class Americans and the things that matter to them, not the wealthy, the well-off, and the well-connected. Keep your hands off Social Security and Medicare.

Over the last 4 years, it has been a great honor for us to work alongside President Joe Biden and Vice President KAMALA HARRIS whose administration rescued the economy from a once-in-a-century pandemic; delivered historic infrastructure investment; created more than 15 million good-paying jobs; enacted commonsense gun safety legislation for the first time in 30 years; provided life-sustaining health insurance to veterans suffering from toxic exposure; championed the largest investment in combating the climate crisis in the history of the world, which we will defend; and brought down the high price of lifesaving prescription drugs for millions of Americans.

Thank you, President Biden and Vice President HARRIS, for your powerful, principled, and purposeful public service. Thank you.

Two months ago, the American people elected Donald Trump as the 47th President of the United States of America.

Thank you for that very generous applause. It is okay. There are no election deniers on our side of the aisle. You see, one should love America when you win and when you lose. That is the patriotic thing to do, and that is the America that House Democrats will fight hard to preserve because we love this country.

America is bigger than any one campaign, any one election, or any one individual. America is the land of the free and the home of the brave. Let us never forget that our country is free not simply because we are strong; America is strong because we are free.

That freedom is now under assault. There are some in this country who apparently believe that the freedom of economic opportunity that made them wealthy should not apply to everyone else. Our message to that crowd is simple: Democrats will never abandon the long walk toward freedom.

We will fight hard to defend the freedom of opportunity that makes the American Dream possible. We will fight hard for the freedom to vote and to fight for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. We will fight for the freedom to organize and join a union of your choice. We will fight to defend the free enterprise system. We will work hard to make sure that it actually works for working-class Americans. We will always defend a woman's freedom to make her own reproductive healthcare decisions.

America promises one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. That is the America House Democrats will fight hard to preserve.

God bless you, God bless the House of Representatives, and may God continue to bless the United States of America.

It is now my responsibility to present the gavel to the gentleman from the great State of Louisiana, the son of a firefighter, a God-fearing man, a husband, and a loving father of four, the 56th Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Honorable MIKE JOHNSON.

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Thank you, Leader JEFFRIES and all of our treasured colleagues here in the House.

I am grateful for this nomination. I am grateful for this election, for the confidence this Chamber has placed in me. It is the great honor of my life to serve this body with all of you.

Of course, these are difficult days in our home State of Louisiana where I come from. We all know about the terrorist attack in New Orleans. It has really shaken our State. People are reeling from that attack. It took the lives of 14 innocent people, and it injured dozens more.

I want to begin appropriately today. I would ask you all to join me in a moment of silence for the victims of this horrific act.

Thank you. Thank you for that.

I believe in giving honor where honor is due, and all of us do well to honor our spouses. My wife happens to be here this time. She didn't make it last time. It happened suddenly.

Kelly, would you stand up, up here in the gallery. Thank you.

We have our four children here: Hannah, Abby, Jack, and Will. Stand up quickly.

I wanted to do that. All of us recognize that there are no perks to being a Congressman's kid, right? It is all sacrifice. Our spouses put up with so much, the endless hours of travel and all of the responsibilities upon us. We are good to remind them how important they are to us and how we could not do the job without them. It is appropriate for all of us to do that. Thank you.

This is a momentous time in the history of our Nation; it really is. As Members of the 119th Congress, we are stewards of the great American Revolution that began almost exactly now 250 years ago, 1775 and 1776. It will fall at the time of this Congress, the great anniversary.

In these two-and-a-half centuries, we have been reminded repeatedly that freedom is never free. We have stood tall, as the greatest Nation on the face of the Earth. It is without debate: We are the freest, the most powerful, and most benevolent Nation that has ever been in the history of the world.

It is not by happenstance. We are the ones who settled the West. We are the ones who ended slavery, who laid the transcontinental railroad, who gave women the right to vote, who won two world wars, who landed on the Moon, and who won the Cold War.

Throughout our history, we have done what no one thought was possible, and still, at 250 years old, our Nation is actually a young Nation.

This past fall, I had an opportunity to go to the G7 Speakers Meeting that was held in Italy. It is the only international trip I took as Speaker over the last 14 months because I didn't have time. It was a quick 3-day jaunt. I met with my colleagues, the speakers of the other parliaments, the great governments around the world. We talked about that, how really special America is, how unique we are in our place on the globe, and how important it is for us to maintain that.

As I talked to these colleagues from around the world, I thought about our closest allies who recognize how important we are, how important this body, this House, is. I thought about how is it that such a young country has become so exceptional, so singular in its importance, that today stands as the world's leader in liberty, the economy, and culture.

One hundred years ago, President Calvin Coolidge answered that very question in his inaugural address. It was March of a hundred years ago exactly, almost.

He said this: "We can best serve our own country and most successfully discharge our obligations to humanity by continuing to be openly and candidly, intensely and scrupulously, American."

I love that. That is right. That is an applause line.

Today, my friends, our Nation is the envy of the world. Why?

Because we have been marked by a spirit and a people who are explicitly that. We are explicitly American. We don't try to be like other nations, and we recognize that a strong America is good for the entire world. Everybody around the globe knows that. That is right.

We also recognize that the core principles that made America what we are must still be preserved today. I call them the seven core principles of American conservatism, but it is really the seven core principles of the Nation itself: individual freedom, limited government, the rule of law, peace through strength, fiscal responsibility, free markets, and human dignity. These are the ingredients, the things that made us who we are.

In America, we know that human flourishing is best achieved by adherence to time-tested truths. We can list a number of those simple truths.

Here are a couple: It is better to give a hand up than a handout. Innovation thrives when bureaucracy dies.

The simple truth is that it is parents and families, not administrators, that must be in charge of their children's education.

The path of prosperity has long been paved with policies that put America and Americans first, and that is what we will champion in the 119th Congress.

We have a mandate that was shown in the election cycle. The people want an America First agenda. They do.

Sadly, for the past 4 years of divided government, too many politicians in Washington have done the opposite. Open borders and overregulation have destroyed our cities and stifled innovation. Inflation and weak leadership have left Americans poorer and have placed our country in a perilous position. That is right.

In recent months, we have witnessed something happening, something that is really remarkable: a political moment in our modern history, a groundswell of Americans from every State, race, and religion who now demand that we put the interests of Americans first again, and we will.

□ 1515

This is a powerful new coalition of our country. It is a coalition that insists that we purge the policies of America last and we bury it in the graveyard of history's mistakes because it was a big mistake.

To that end, this Congress will renounce the status quo, and we will listen to the voices of the people. We will act quickly, and we will start by defending our Nation's borders. That is the number one priority.

In coordination with President Trump, this Congress will give our border and immigration enforcement agents the resources that they need to do their job. We will secure the border. We will deport dangerous, criminal illegal aliens and, finally, finish building the border wall.

You said that you would work with us on that, HAKEEM. I am counting on it.

After 4 years of high inflation, we have a big agenda. We have a lot to do, and we can do it in a bipartisan fashion. We can fight high inflation, and we must. We will give relief to Americans, and we will extend the Trump tax cuts.

We are going to protect our industries from one-sided trade deals, and we are going to bring overseas investments back to America's shores.

We will defeat the harmful effects of inflation, and we will make life affordable again for America's hardworking people.

As leaders of a nation with vast natural resources that God has blessed us with, it is our duty to restore America's energy dominance. That is what we will do.

We have to apply common sense. We have to stop the attacks on liquefied natural gas and pass legislation to eliminate the funding of the Green New Deal. We are going to expedite new drilling permits.

We are going to save the jobs of our auto manufacturers, and we are going to do that by ending the ridiculous EV mandates.

As heirs to the American Revolution and the descendants of patriots who defied tyranny, in the coming months we are going to pass legislation to roll back the totalitarian fourth branch of government known as the administrative state.

We are going to drastically cut back the size and scope of government. We are going to return the power back to the people, and in coordination with President Trump and his administration, we are going to create a leaner, faster, and more efficient Federal workforce. We need to do that.

Our people do not deserve to be ruled by millions of bureaucrats they have never voted for, never met, and can never hold accountable. They deserve a government that is led by those whom they have elected to lead. That is how Article I is supposed to work. That was the idea of the Congress, and we will return to that principle.

The American people have called on us to reject business as usual and throw out the status quo. We must, and we will, heed their call.

This is especially important as it comes to our Nation's military. For too long, the Washington establishment has sought to appease and accommodate our Nation's adversaries. They have tried to replace our military warriors with social justice warriors. It does not work.

While we are still the most powerful fighting force in the history of the world, by God's grace, the same establishment has eroded the capacities of our Army and Navy and diminished the readiness of our Air Force. We have to put an end to this madness.

I say to my friends and my colleagues: I think we should all unite in this idea. It is time now to reinstate fear in our enemies, refocus our mission on lethality, and realign our commitment to peace through strength.

We have to prioritize the things that matter most. We have to make adequate investments in defense. This is the most dangerous moment since World War II, and everyone around the world is looking to America and looking to this body to ensure that we maintain the peace.

What we are proposing now is just simply, as President Trump likes to say, a return to common sense, and he is exactly right. That message resonated across the country.

I am very thankful personally that this body is filled with men and women who are committed to that change, to return to common sense. We can do this together. We should. It is our responsibility to do so.

When I first took this gavel, many of you heard me say that I don't believe in luck or consequence. I believe in the idea of providence. Early this morning, I participated with many of you in the 119th Congress interfaith prayer service. It was held at Saint Peter's Catholic Church. Many of you were there. It was an ecumenical service and a bipartisan service, which was great. My good friend, HAKEEM JEFFRIES, began by reading from the Old Testament. He read out of Deuteronomy 10. Then, I was asked to provide a prayer for the Nation. I offered one that is quite familiar to historians and probably many of us.

It says right here in the program under my name that this is the prayer that was said each day of his 8 years of the Presidency and every day thereafter until his death, President Thomas Jefferson recited this prayer. I wanted to share it with you here at the end of my remarks not as a prayer per se right now but really as a reminder of what our third President and the primary author of the Declaration of Independence thought was so important that it should be a daily recitation.

Let me just read you Thomas Jefferson's prayer for the Nation:

Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable ministry, sound learning, and pure manners.

Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitude brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues.

Endow with Thy spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home and that through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the Earth.

In time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail, of which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

That was Thomas Jefferson's prayer. Suffer not our trust in Thee to fail. We will not fail, and we cannot fail. We are all in this together. Our Nation is counting on us to band together and solve these problems and get this done.

I said before it is my belief that God has elevated each one of you to your positions of leadership, and it is an act of providence that you have all been placed in your specific roles in this specific moment at this historic time, at the 250-year inflection point of the greatest nation in the history of the world. It is no small thing.

We are also witnesses to the providence that spirited our incoming President, President Trump, from the assassin's bullet, as remarkable as that was, and to the new coalition of Americans who has risen from every creed, color, and cul-de-sac who want us to put America first.

Our people are asking for a thriving economy, a rebuilt middle class, strong borders, and a strong military. We can deliver that. These objectives and these aims do not have an "R" or a "D" behind them. They have a "USA." That is what we are about.

In just a few moments, we are all going to take an oath. It is the same one oath for one nation and under the banner of one great American flag. This is an opportunity for us to protect our shared American heritage, to maintain the conditions needed for self-government, and to defend what Hakeem said earlier, the rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Working together, we have the potential to be one of the most consequential Congresses in the history of this great Nation so long as we work together, we do the right thing, and we put America first.

As we think about all we have accomplished in the past 250 years, we can only imagine what life will be like 250 years from now.

Whatever the future may look like, if we do our jobs now, then we can help ensure that our civic virtues will endure, that this Nation will still be an example to all the world for its greatness and its example of self-government, and that, in spite of our great challenges and even our disagreements and our healthy debates, this extraordinary institution, the people's House, will still be standing strong.

I thank you all so much, and God bless America.

So, as the sequence of events requires, I am now ready to take the oath of office.

I ask the dean of the House of Representatives, the Honorable HAROLD ROGERS of Kentucky, to administer the oath of office.

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, number one, congratulations are in order.

Today, we celebrate our shared American self-rule.

When our Founding Fathers rejected calls for an American king and chose a bold and innovative government of self-rule, it was met by opposition, understandably, by the world's kings. They said that you can't govern yourself. You need a king to direct the country. They said self-rule is only a dream. The Founding Fathers said that you are right. It is the American Dream.

Thus, our Founders said that we should move on our own with our own leadership. The Speaker of the House is the critical protector and promoter of self-rule, the keeper of the dream, if you will.

We have elected this man from Louisiana to carry on our bold experiment in democracy and self-rule.

So, sir, if you are ready to assume this awesome responsibility, please raise your right hand.

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky then administered the oath of office to Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

(Applause, the Members rising.)

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Congratulations, Mr. Speaker.

SWEARING IN OF MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. Congratulations. You are now Members of the 119th Congress.

(A) CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE ANALYSIS OF PROPOSALS.—The Director of the Congressional Budget Office shall, to the extent practicable, prepare an estimate of whether a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee (other than the Committee on Appropriations), or amendment thereto or conference report thereon, would cause, relative to current law, a net increase in direct spending in excess of $2,500,000,000 in any of the 4 consecutive 10-fiscal year periods beginning with the first fiscal year that is 10 fiscal years after the current fiscal year.

(B) POINT OF ORDER.—It shall not be in order to consider any bill or joint resolution reported by a committee, or amendment thereto or conference report thereon, that would cause a net increase in direct spending in excess of $2,500,000,000 in any of the 4 consecutive 10-fiscal year periods described in subparagraph (A).

H. RES. 5

ADOPTING THE RULES FOR THE 119TH CONGRESS

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1. Adoption of the Rules of the One Hundred Eighteenth Congress

This section provides that the Rules of the 118th Congress are the Rules of the 119th Congress, except for the amendments contained in section 2 of the resolution and orders contained in the resolution.

Section 2. Changes to the Standing Rules

Resolution Causing a Vacancy in the Office of Speaker. Subsection (a) provides that a resolution causing a vacancy in the Office of Speaker shall not constitute a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX unless it is offered by a member of the majority party and has accumulated eight cosponsors of the majority party at the time it is offered.

Committee Electronic Voting. Subsection (b) allows committees to adopt a rule or motion permitting the use of electronic voting.

Clarification of Role of the Chief Administrative Officer. Subsection (c) clarifies that the Chief Administrative Officer shall assist the Clerk in supervising the staff and managing an office in the event a Congressional office becomes vacant.

Designating Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Subsection (d) redesignates the Committee on Oversight and Accountability as the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform.

Designating Committee on Education and Workforce. Subsection (e) redesignates the Committee on Education and the Workforce as the Committee on Education and Workforce.

Striking Office of Diversity and Inclusion. Subsection (f) conforms the Rules to reflect the reorganization of the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

Codification of Long-Standing Separate Orders. Memorials Submitted Pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States. Subsection (g)(1) carries forward provisions that clarify the procedures of the House regarding the receipt of Article V memorials from the States by directing the Clerk to make each memorial, designated by the chair of the Committee on the Judiciary, electronically available, organized by State of origin and year of receipt, and indicate whether the memorial was designated as an application or rescission.

In carrying out this paragraph, it is expected that the chair of the Committee on the Judiciary will be solely charged with determining whether a memorial purports to be an application of the legislature of a state calling for a constitutional convention or rescission of prior applications. The Clerk's role will be entirely administrative. The chair of the Committee on the Judiciary will only designate memorials from state legislatures (and not petitions from individuals or other parties), as it is only state legislatures that are contemplated under Article V of the Constitution.

In submitting each memorial to the Clerk, the chair of the Committee on the Judiciary will include a transmission letter that indicates it has been designated under this subsection. The Clerk will make publicly available the memorial and the transmission letter from the chair. Ancillary documentation from the state or other parties is not expected to be publicized.

Numbering of Bills. Subsection (g)(2) reserves the first 10 numbers for bills (H.R. 1 through H.R. 10) for assignment by the Speaker and the second 10 numbers for bills (H.R. 11 through H.R. 20) for assignment by the Minority Leader.

District Work Periods. Subsection (g)(3) provides that during district work periods the Journal shall be approved, the Chair may declare the House adjourned to meet within Constitutional limits, the Speaker may appoint Members to perform the duties of the Chair, and, each day during this period shall not constitute a day for purposes of section 7 of the War Powers Resolution, clause 7 of rule XIII (resolutions of inquiry), clause 7(c)(1) of rule XXII (motions to instruct conferees), and clause 7 of XV (Consensus Calendar).

In carrying out this paragraph, it is expected that the designation of a district work period will be satisfied by a letter submitted by the Speaker that is laid before the House.

Restoring Family-Centric Language. Subsection (h) restores family-centric language in place prior to the 117th Congress in the Code of Official Conduct.

Suspensions. Subsection (i) restores the requirement that the Speaker may not entertain a motion that the House suspend the rules except on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays.

Technical Corrections. Subsection (j) makes technical corrections to interim committee finding language in clause 7(b) of rule X and to language regarding timelines in clause 6(d) of rule XIII for privileged reports by the Committee on Rules.

Section 3. Separate Orders

Holman Rule. Subsection (a) continues the “Holman Rule” from the 118th Congress which allows amendments to appropriations legislation that would reduce the salary of specific Federal employees or cut a specific program.

Spending Reduction Amendments in Appropriations Bills. Subsection (b) provides for spending reduction account transfer amendments and requires a spending reduction account section to be included in all general appropriations bills.

Budget Matters. Subsection (c)(1) establishes a point of order against consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee (other than the Committee on Appropriations) or an amendment thereto, or a conference report thereon, which has the net effect of increasing direct spending in excess of $2,500,000,000 for any of the four consecutive 10 fiscal year periods beginning with the first fiscal year that is 10 fiscal years after the current fiscal year. The levels of net increases in direct spending shall be determined based on estimates provided by the chair of the Committee on the Budget.

Subsection (c)(2) provides that any provision in a bill, joint resolution, amendment, or conference report requiring or authorizing a conveyance of Federal land to a State, local government, or tribal entity, shall not be considered as providing new budget authority, decreasing revenues, increasing mandatory spending, or increasing outlays.

Subsection (c)(3) requires the Congressional Budget Office on any legislation that shows changes in mandatory spending which cause a gross budgetary effect in any fiscal year covered by the budget resolution that is equal to or greater than 0.25 percent of the projected GDP for the current fiscal year, to the extent practicable, to provide an estimate of the inflationary impacts of that legislation. This subsection also allows the chair of the Committee on the Budget to designate major legislation for purposes of this order.

Subsection (c)(4) requires the Congressional Budget Office on any legislation impacting either the Medicare Part A trust fund or OASDI trust fund that causes a gross budgetary effect in any fiscal year covered by the budget resolution that is equal to or greater than 0.25 percent of the projected GDP for the current fiscal year, to the extent practicable, to display: (1) the impact of legislation on the Medicare Part A trust fund’s unfunded liabilities over a 25-year projection, solvency projections, and the net present value of those liabilities; and (2) the impact on the OASDI trust fund’s unfunded liabilities over a 75-year projection, solvency projections, and the net present value of those liabilities. This subsection also allows the chair of the Committee on the Budget to designate major legislation for purposes of this order.

Congressional Member Organization Transparency Reform. Subsection (d) continues the separate order from the 118th Congress to allow participating Members to enter into agreements with eligible Congressional Member Organizations for the purpose of payment of salaries and expenses. The subsection requires that for an organization to be eligible during the 119th Congress, the organization must register with the Committee on House Administration, designate a single Member to be responsible for the administration of the organization, have at least three employees assigned to perform work for the organization, and had at least 30 Members during the 118th Congress using a portion of their Members’ Representational Allowance to pay for the salaries and expenses of the organization.

Determination with Respect to Placement of Measure on Consensus Calendar. Subsection (i) provides limited authorization to a chair of a committee to allow witnesses to appear remotely at committee and subcommittee proceedings in accordance with regulations issued by the chair of the Committee on Rules and printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. Broadening Availability and Utility of Legislative Documents in Machine-Readable For-

Subsection (k) directs the Committee on House Administration, the Clerk, the Chief Administrative Officer, and other officers and officials to advance government transparency by continuing efforts to publish documents of the House in machine-readable formats and broaden their utility by enabling all House staff to create comparative prints.

Improving the Committee Electronic Document Repository. Subsection (l) directs the Clerk, the Committee on House Administration, and other officers and officials to continue to improve the existing electronic document repository operated by the Clerk for use by committees. Such improvements are intended to increase public availability and identification of legislative information produced by House committees, including votes, amendments, and witness disclosure forms and should also streamline the process of cross-posting documents simultaneously by the Committee on Rules.

Subsection (m) continues the prohibition on access to any exercise facility that is made available exclusively to Members, Delegates, the Resident Commissioner, former Members, former Delegates, former Resident Commissioners, officers, and former officers of the House and their spouses to any former Member, former Delegate, former Resident Commissioner, former officer, or spouse who is a lobbyist registered under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995 or any successor statute, or who is an agent of a foreign principal as defined in clause 5 of rule XXV.

Displaying Statement of Rights and Protections Provided to House Employees. Subsection (n) continues a requirement that the Committee on House Administration issue regulations requiring each House office to prominently display a statement of the rights and protections provided to House employees under the Congressional Accountability Act of 1995, including procedures available to employees for responding to and adjudicating allegations of workplace rights violations.

Non-Disclosure Agreements. Subsection (o) continues a requirement providing that non-disclosure agreements required by offices as a condition of employment for paid or unpaid staff or contractors cannot require notice or approval for employees to communicate with the Committee on Ethics, the Office of Congressional Workplace Rights, or any other office or entity designated by the Committee on House Administration; and that non-disclosure agreements must also provide clear guidance to that effect.

Subsection (p) continues a requirement for a Member, Delegate, or the Resident Commissioner to reimburse the Treasury for any settlement of a complaint related to a claim alleging a violation by the Member, Delegate, or the Resident Commissioner of sections 201(a), 206(a), or 208 of the Congressional Accountability Act of 1995, which cover discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or an employee’s service in the uniformed services, and retaliation for claims alleging such discrimination.

Mandatory Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policies for House Offices. Subsection (q) continues a requirement that the Committee on House Administration issue regulations to carry out this subsection by April 1, 2025. Additionally, each House office is directed to adopt an anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policy.

Member Day Hearing Requirement. Subsection (r) continues the Member Day hearing requirement to only occur at the full committee level. Each standing committee (other than the Committee on Ethics) must hold a Member Day Hearing during the first session of the 119th Congress to receive testimony from Members, Delegates, and the Resident Commissioner on proposed legislation within its jurisdiction. The subsection permits the Committee on Rules to hold its Member Day Hearing during the second session to receive testimony on proposed changes to the standing rules for the next Congress.

Deposition Authority. Subsection (t) provides the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and each standing committee of the 119th Congress (except for the Committee on Rules) the authority to order the taking of a deposition by a member or counsel of such committee and limits persons who can attend depositions to members, committee staff, an official reporter, the witness, and up to two, personal, nongovernmental attorneys. Depositions taken under this authority are subject to regulations issued by the chair of the Committee on Rules and printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

To Mark Daly of the Department of Justice for a deposition related to the Department of Justice's investigation into Hunter Biden; and,

To Jack Morgan of the Department of Justice for a deposition related to the Department of Justice's investigation into Hunter Biden.

Paragraph (2) authorizes the chair of the Committee on the Judiciary (when elected), on behalf of the Committee on the Judiciary, and the Office of General Counsel to take all necessary steps as may be appropriate to continue the civil actions authorized by the House during the One Hundred Eighteenth Congress concerning the enforcement of the above subpoenas.

Renames the Office of Congressional Ethics as the Office of Congressional Conduct.

Requires a vote on the appointment and compensation of staff to occur not later than 30 calendar days after the board has been fully constituted.

Section 5. Orders of Business

Subsection (a) provides for the separate consideration of 12 bills under a closed rule with one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader or their respective designees and one motion to recommit.

Subsection (b) provides the list of bills referred to in subsection (a), which include:

A bill to amend the Education Amendments of 1972 to provide that for purposes of determining compliance with title IX of such Act in athletics, sex shall be recognized based solely on a person's reproductive biology and genetics at birth.

A bill to require the Secretary of Homeland Security to take into custody aliens who have been charged in the United States with theft, and for other purposes.

A bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide that aliens who have been convicted of or who have committed sex offenses or domestic violence are inadmissible and deportable.

A bill to prohibit a moratorium on the use of hydraulic fracturing.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, today, the House will consider a rules package governing how this body conducts its business in the 119th Congress.

In November, the American people sent us a mandate, a mandate grounded in limited government, fiscal restraint, individual freedom, and America First principles.

Our constituents sent us to Washington to correct course from the previous 4 years of the Biden-Harris administration, an administration that unleashed an onslaught of regulatory burden, woke policy, Federal debt, and a porous southern border on the American taxpayer. Those taxpayers spoke with a clear and resounding message that change must happen. House Resolution 5 is the framework by which this body will deliver that change.

The Constitution tasks this body with the governance of ourselves, ultimately accountable to the people we answer to every 2 years.

With this rules package, we illustrate a House of Representatives that is modernized and efficient yet accountable and transparent. It incorporates feedback from every corner of this body, updating those provisions which are unworkable or outdated while maintaining core constitutional principles.

I thank Speaker JOHNSON, Parliamentarian staff, former Chairman BURGESS' staff, and countless others who worked tirelessly to craft this package and what we will consider today.

I want to highlight some of the important changes in this rules package before I yield to Ranking Member MCGOVERN. This rules package improves the way this body conducts its business through streamlining or improving internal processes to better reflect how the House of Representatives is supposed to operate.

It raises the threshold by which a resolution declaring the Office of the Speaker vacant may be offered, ensuring that such dramatic and seismic decisions are made through consensus and forethought, not by rogue personal vendettas and last-minute chaos.

It continues to allow committees to permit the use of electronic voting and remote witnesses, speeding up the process by which bills are considered and committees have access to expert witnesses for their respective hearings.

In addition, the package continues to improve the committee electronic document repository, streamlining the process by which documents are posted by the Committee on Rules and committees of jurisdiction.

Finally, the package continues the work regarding the appropriate use and integration of artificial intelligence in the operation and function of the House, ensuring Members' offices and staff have access to modern tools and resources.

The resolution helps this body deliver on our mandate by the American people. The resolution requires that all general appropriations bills have a spending reduction account to help address the bloated Federal budget and, consequently, the ever-growing Federal debt burden.

The package establishes several new provisions or points of order against measures that continue the unsustainable growth in Federal spending and bureaucracy. As an example, Members may raise a point of order against a bill that increases direct spending by $2.5 billion. It also requires CBO to provide information on inflation rate impacts of the legislation, where possible.

Finally, this package extends certain rules and authorities to ensure the continuity of our important work in the 118th Congress. It extends the subpoena enforcement authority for the House Committee on the Judiciary's investigation into Attorney General Garland's production of documents related to Hunter Biden to ensure no one, including President Biden or his son, is above congressional accountability.

It also extends the Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party to develop policies addressing the CCP's economic and geopolitical aggression.

Finally, it provides for consideration of several measures that represent the opening salvo of House Republicans' agenda: securing our border, energy independence, and protecting life and liberty.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to stand here today to bring forward this rules package. I encourage my colleagues to support the resolution, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, happy new year. I thank the gentlewoman from Minnesota (Mrs. FISCHBACH) for yielding the customary 30 minutes.

Mr. Speaker, I take issue with the word choice of the gentlewoman from Minnesota, who kept on talking about a mandate, a Republican mandate. Where is the mandate? Is it in the room with us? Maybe it is hiding under the table.

The last time I checked, Republicans actually lost seats in the House of Representatives. Republicans now have the slimmest majority in nearly 100 years.

One would think, given the closeness of the election, that we would hear more about the importance of working together in bipartisanship, but you would be wrong. That is reflected in this rules package.

Mr. Speaker, it is truly unbelievable that we are at this moment right now. We are down here debating the revision of the revision of the rules package, this time again after Republicans worked out another backroom deal.

What concessions were so important to bring the House to a standstill while they redrafted their package once again? The last-minute addition we were all just sitting around waiting for says that bipartisan suspension bills can't be debated on Thursdays or Fridays. Never mind if there is an emergency like a national disaster or a terror attack. We can't move quickly.

That is actually why this extreme Republican majority wants to make this change. They hate bipartisanship. They hate bipartisanship.

What was the change they made earlier today? What was the big emergency? Changing words like "child" to "son" and "daughter" in our ethics rules. They are obsessed with this stuff. It is not just weird. It is discrimination.

Meanwhile, a few months ago, we received over 40 rule change proposals at our Member Day hearing in the Rules Committee, and zero—zero—of them are included in this package. Instead, we get some last-minute backroom deal.

I would love to hear why those ideas were all blocked, but we don't even have a Rules Committee chair to ask. We have no idea where any of this came from, and we had no time to review it all. Forget about the 72-hour rule. We didn't even get 72 minutes, and they are already making a mockery of the legislative process. As I said, we don't have a chair of the Rules Committee. Usually at this moment, I would congratulate the new chair of the Rules Committee, but we are in the very odd situation of not having a chair of the Rules Committee right now.

I think that is just one small sign of the disarray and dysfunction that we have been seeing around here for the last few years. We are debating a rules package, and Republicans don't even have a chair of the Rules Committee in place.

Who wrote this? Maybe the gentlewoman can tell us who wrote these rules. Maybe she can tell us who decided to block dozens of amendments from both sides of the aisle and the many bipartisan amendments which were blocked with no explanation at all. We know it was done in a back room somewhere, with no accountability, and that is about all that we know.

Speaking of back rooms, the only reason Speaker JOHNSON got enough votes is because two Members emerged from a back room, after huddling with the Speaker, and changed their votes to support him. God only knows what they were promised in order to cave to change their views.

For the last 2 years, all the American people have been asking us to do is work together and get stuff done. What a radical idea: actually working together and getting stuff accomplished for the American people.

They want us to reject extremism and polarization. The very first thing that this now even smaller Republican majority decides to do is to go into a back room and cave to their most extreme Members.

Sadly, I am not surprised. I wanted to believe that maybe, after losing seats and getting nothing done in the last Congress, just maybe they would change. Clearly, Republicans have decided to double down on the dysfunction.

Buckle up, everybody, because Republican incompetence is about to reach staggering new heights.

Two years ago, the other side promised openness, transparency, and action. Instead, look at what they delivered: constant disarray, never-ending dysfunction, and complete and total inaction.

Why all this dysfunction? Because they refuse to work together with Democrats. Instead of working with us, they shut this place down. They ran the most closed Congress in history. Think about that. They would rather shut out voices, shut down ideas, shut off debate, and silence democracy. They would rather do that than work together.

That is not what the people voted for. At least that is not what the people in my district voted for. I am not exaggerating when I say this: Republicans ran the most closed Congress in history, ever, period. They allowed no amendments to most bills and no opportunity to make bills better. They told the American people to take it or leave it, democracy be damned.

They talk about an open process. Give me a break. They blocked 6,000 amendments over the last 2 years. I don't want to hear any lectures about bipartisanship. Give me a break. They rejected 67 percent of bipartisan amendments. How is that for bipartisanship?

Speaker JOHNSON even shut out his own Members. Fifty-seven percent of their own party's amendments were blocked.

Open process? Open process, my foot. This is how they run things in the Kremlin. It is not how they should be run here in the United States Congress. Give me a break. Forgive my skepticism when I hear from my friends on the other side of the aisle about bipartisanship and fairness around here. Republicans have broken that promise over and over and over.

Look at how much time we wasted last Congress while we were waiting around for Republicans to fight with each other instead of fighting with the American people. They spent weeks wasting taxpayer time and money because they couldn't elect a Speaker, not once but twice, weeks wasted where Congress didn't do a damn thing. Now, they have the nerve to lecture people about government efficiency? Come on. Get real.

How many times last Congress did they just send everyone home because they couldn't even pass their own bills? How many times did they miss their own deadlines? When anything did get done, it was Democrats who stepped up to get it done.

Hands down, Republicans ran the most ineffective, incompetent, and chaotic Congress in history. You would think that Republicans would reflect on their failures and maybe try to work toward solving the Nation's pressing challenges. You would think, but you would be wrong.

The big Republican change to the rules—this is their grand idea—is to shield the Speaker from accountability.

They blocked dozens of good rule changes that were suggested by Members of both parties, but the one big change they made is to empower the radical right.

Apparently, there is not a lot of spine around here, because Speaker JOHNSON, like former Speaker MCCARTHY, picked extremism over compromise. Did anyone even bother to ask KEVIN MCCARTHY how that worked out for him the first time?

Mr. Speaker, the last time I checked, a Speaker of the House of Representatives is supposed to represent the entire House, not just one party. A vote for these rules means that only Republicans have the ability to call for the removal of a Speaker. They are doing something totally unprecedented. For the first time in history, they are changing the rules to take away a basic right of the minority. That is nuts. What is next? Only Republicans can vote?

That might as well be what they are saying here. It is crazy. It is all about empowering the radical right rather than sitting down together and trying to work things out. Democrats and Republicans should be working together to hash out our differences and to get things done.

Speaker JOHNSON should have run for majority leader if he didn't want to represent the whole House, but he didn't. He ran for Speaker. Apparently, nobody told him that as public servants, we are here to do a job, not keep a job.

I appreciate the words of the gentlewoman about these rules and their agenda and all that, but unfortunately, that is all they are: words, talk, chatter. It all means nothing. The last 2 years have shown us time and time again that the Republican leadership says one thing and does another. Rules for thee but not for me is their motto. The American people suffer because of their dysfunction and extremism.

We had an opportunity to begin this Congress in a more bipartisan way, in a way that would give the American people some confidence that we will get stuff done. Instead, we begin with this, and it is a shame.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I do appreciate consistency, and I have heard the same complaints from the gentleman before.

I do appreciate that the ranking member mentioned that we should buckle up, because the Republicans have the majority in the House, the majority in the Senate, and President Trump will soon be sworn in. We do need to buckle up, because we are going to do the job that the American people sent us to do. We have much work to do, and this rules package will help us do it.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Indiana (Mrs. HOUCHIN).

Mrs. HOUCHIN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman and distinguished Member from Minnesota for yielding.

I rise today in support of this rules package for the 119th Congress.

I might remind my friends on the other side of the aisle—I know it has been a while since they have been in the majority—when you win the majority, you do have the opportunity to make the rules.

The Constitution lays out several activities for us in Congress, and one of those is what we are undertaking today. Among them is for the House to adopt its rules package. While it is not the most exciting of tasks, it is important and will govern the work that we do for the American people.

This rules package includes a few changes and improvements that will help the House be more responsive to the needs of the American people.

This package raises the threshold for vacating the Office of the Speaker, which is necessary to avoid chaos and personal vendettas from derailing our work as it did in the last Congress.

This package extends subpoena enforcement authority for the Judiciary Committee's investigation into Attorney General Merrick Garland's production of documents. This ensures that no one, including President Biden or his son, is above the law.

Finally, it provides for a dozen bills that will allow us to immediately get to work in this new Congress and start to secure our border, unleash American energy, and protect life and liberty.

President Trump is ready to deliver on his America First agenda, and House Republicans must be ready to work alongside him.

As a Member who has served on the Rules Committee, I will be supporting this rules package so we can start working as soon as possible to contend on behalf of the American people and finally get our country back on track.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this rules package.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I say to the gentlewoman from Indiana, I am glad she is proud of this rules package, and I am not surprised by that, because she, along with other Republicans on the Rules Committee, were responsible for blocking 6,000 amendments in the last Congress and basically blocking 40 amendments, many of them bipartisan, that were brought before the Rules Committee to be part of this rules package. I don't think that that's something to be particularly proud about.

To the gentlewoman from Minnesota, again, I thank her for reminding us, reiterating my words about buckling up, but you buckle up because you are in danger. We are in danger as we look toward some of the items that my Republican friends want to bring to the floor.

Mr. Speaker, if we defeat the previous question, I will offer an amendment to the rule to bring up H.R. 4895, the Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act, to lower drug costs for Americans covered by private insurance programs, under a modified open rule, so that all Members can offer amendments to the bill, unlike the 12 closed rules that are in this Republican rules package.

Mr. Speaker, despite Republican opposition, Democrats have been fighting to lower prescription drug costs so that Americans have access to medicines that keep them healthy. Thanks to Democrats, the Inflation Reduction Act was signed into law allowing Medicare to directly negotiate drug prices, capping out-of-pocket costs at $2,000 annually under Medicare part D and providing needed relief for our seniors.

We can't stop there. The Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act would extend drug price negotiations to every individual with private health insurance. It would prevent price gouging by drug corporations, and it would provide affordable access to prescriptions for 164 million workers and their families.

If my Republican colleagues truly want to help our constituents keep more money in their pocketbooks and keep hardworking families healthy, they will defeat the previous question and take up this much-needed bill.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert the text of my amendment in the RECORD along with any extraneous material immediately prior to the vote on the previous question.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE).

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the previous question.

For the first time in history, thanks to the Democrats' Inflation Reduction Act, the Federal Government is negotiating lower prescription drug costs for American seniors that will produce real savings next year.

If we pass this motion, then we will be passing my Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act, which expands these savings to every American who has private health insurance. It is now seniors, but it will extend to every American who has private health insurance.

We have already seen the incredible savings that can be generated by price negotiation. Last year, the Biden administration negotiated lower prices on 10 drugs, and, beginning next year, seniors will save an estimated $1.5 billion on those drugs.

Now, imagine the savings if these lower prices were available to all Americans with health insurance. That is what we are doing here with the previous question. There is no reason this should be partisan. President-elect Trump once touted that he would: Negotiate like crazy over prescription drugs.

This is an opportunity for us to lower everyday prices for American families, and if Republicans are serious about reducing costs, then they would join us in supporting this legislation.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. LALOTA).

Mr. LALOTA. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, this November the American people called for a government that works, a Congress that functions, and leadership that delivers results.

To achieve this, we must raise the threshold for the motion to vacate from one to nine Members ensuring stability and preventing a small faction from disrupting progress while maintaining accountability and the ability to govern effectively.

This commonsense change will help us focus on issues like lowering costs, securing borders, supporting law enforcement, and strengthening the economy rather than being paralyzed by internal strife.

However, to move forward, we have to understand from where we came. In the 118th Congress, a small faction of the Republican Conference, together with the entire Democratic Caucus, repeatedly disrupted our efforts to deliver for the American people. This group wielded disproportionate power, causing significant disruptions such as ousting a Speaker supported by 97 percent of the Conference and blocking rules backed by 95 percent.

These actions undermined the unity and focus of our Conference, jeopardizing our ability to address the challenges facing our great Nation, Mr. Speaker.

Both Speakers McCarthy and JOHNSON faced challenges in addressing these groups' tactics and any action that risked further obstruction. The one-Member threshold for the motion to vacate allowed this faction to repeatedly derail our efforts, distracting us from our mandate to govern effectively.

Raising the threshold for the motion to vacate to nine Members is a commonsense solution that addresses these issues while maintaining accountability. This change ensures that leadership challenges are not frivolously pursued but, instead, reflect a genuine, collective concern shared by a broader group of Members. It strikes a balance between protecting a Speaker's ability to lead and preserving the right of Members to hold leadership accountable.

I was proud to be among the Republican Main Street Caucus members who collaborated with the House Freedom Caucus to reach this threshold agreement back in November. However, let me be clear. This provision is not about silencing dissent but about ensuring stability. It prevents the disruptive tactics of a small minority from overshadowing the work of the majority and, most importantly, Mr. Speaker, the will of the American people.

This is about governing responsibly and showing that we can rise above internal discord to address the pressing issues facing our Nation. As a husband, father of three daughters, and a Navy veteran, I understand the importance of leadership rooted in trust, discipline, and stability. Effective leadership requires the confidence of those you serve and the ability to make tough decisions without the constant threat of unwarranted challenges. This provision provides that foundation, ensuring that the Speaker can lead with strength while remaining accountable to this body and our Conference.

Mr. Speaker, the American people deserve a Congress that works for them, not one that is paralyzed by internal strife. Raising the threshold for the motion to vacate is a necessary step towards achieving that goal.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this provision and the rules package as a whole. Let us show the American people that we are committed to governing responsibly and delivering the results they expect and deserve.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I just say to the gentleman who just spoke that I agree with him that he has got some problems in the Republican Conference with some extremist Members. He, again, keeps using this word mandate, mandate. Again, I remind Republicans that they lost seats in the last election. However, you can't claim that you have this mandate to do whatever the heck you want to do and then expect us to, once again, come to your rescue to save Speaker JOHNSON if nine extreme Members in your Conference want to challenge him and vacate the Speaker's chair.

So, in any event, I just find it kind of mind-boggling that, again, Republicans are living in this fantasy world where they think somehow they have this huge majority here. Look at the difficulty we witnessed today with electing a Speaker of the House.

You guys are in charge. You have a mandate to put on your mandate pants and do the stuff you say you want to do or work with us, work with us in a bipartisan way to actually deliver for the American people.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are advised to continue to direct their remarks to the Chair.

Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ. Mr. Speaker, today we began a new session of Congress. Americans want us to address the high cost of living, help them buy a home of their own, and keep Social Security and Medicare alive.

It is a new year. The Republicans' rules package is the same old, the same old division and the same old dysfunction and disregard for working families from the last 2 years.

This rule automatically puts on the floor Republicans' top legislative priorities. Not a single one of their legislative priorities addresses the high cost of living. Not a single one allows amendments to make the bill better or more bipartisan.

Republicans seem afraid of debate and amendments. I think that is because they are afraid that the more we debate their bills, the more Americans will hear that Republicans keep siding with the billionaire bros rather than standing with working families.

Vote "no" on the rules package, and vote "yes" for working families and women's healthcare.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. LANGWORTHY).

Mr. LANGWORTHY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this rules package for the 119th Congress.

As my colleagues have said before, the American people sent us a mandate in November to deliver on President Trump's America First agenda, focused on reining in the Federal Government, securing our borders, protecting the freedom of individuals, and ending, once and for all, the woke policies of the left that are holding our country back.

This package before us will empower House Republicans to build off the important work begun last Congress. It sets the stage for achieving serious wins for the American people. It paves the way for a Congress that can operate more efficiently and more transparently and extends the power of the Judiciary Committee to continue the House's important work of investigating any potential corruption, crime, or misconduct that was perpetrated under the Biden-Harris administration.

Finally, the rules package provides for immediate consideration of 12 measures that are focused on the issues the American people sent us here to solve: securing our borders, unleashing our domestic energy production, protecting communities from the flood of lethal fentanyl in our country, and standing up for life and liberty for all Americans.

Mr. Speaker, the American people sent us here with a majority to deliver real, lasting change. This rules package will help us ensure that the House can stay laser focused on delivering that change in the 119th Congress.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly support the rules package before us today, and I urge my colleagues to support it as well.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I just want to, for the record, correct the gentleman on the use of the word "mandate." I am not sure he understands what it means. I think maybe it means different things.

My Republican friends actually lost seats in the last election. They have the slimmest majority of any majority in nearly 100 years, and we have already seen the chaos and the disarray within the Republican Conference when this rules package that we are debating today was delayed in coming to the floor because you had to satisfy your extremist Members by making changes to two rules. So I don't really get it.

Anyway, I will just keep on correcting the record.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from Arizona (Ms. Ansari).

Ms. ANSARI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in defense of immigrant communities such as the one I come from and now proudly represent in Arizona's Third Congressional District.

Like so many others in our district, I am a proud daughter of immigrant parents who came to the United States for a better life. Immigrants are an integral part of our community, and their contributions to our culture, our economy, and spirit are irreplaceable. In my district, over 64 languages are spoken.

It is Congress' responsibility to ensure that every person in this country has a chance at the American Dream. However, the extreme immigration bills attached to this rules package are just the latest of an onslaught of attacks on our immigrant communities from extreme Republicans.

Particularly, the provision to cut Federal funding from jurisdictions that provide critical services which would impact everything from roadway safety to public safety is another desperate attempt to further target and punish our most vulnerable. We can have secure borders without scapegoating immigrant communities and promoting xenophobia.

Nothing in this package works to bring down the cost of living, protect American workers, or tackle inflation and healthcare costs.

Mr. Speaker, do not be fooled by these distractions. That is why I urge a "no" vote on this measure.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT).

Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to support the rules package for the 119th Congress.

Last November the American people spoke and gave Republicans control of the House, the Senate, and the White House.

Those same Americans are counting on us to deliver on the critical issues our country is facing, and this package begins that process, Mr. Speaker.

It provides for consideration of 12 bills, including a bill to require the Secretary of Homeland Security to take into custody illegal immigrants who have been charged in the United States with theft, a bill to make the assault of a law enforcement officer a deportable offense, and a bill to prohibit a moratorium on the use of fracking.

Mr. Speaker, energy and immigration are two of the reasons that the Republicans control the House, the Senate, and the White House.

These issues are top of mind for almost all Americans, as are inflation, the tax code, our defense, and foreign policy.

This package, Mr. Speaker, sets the tone, and I urge all of my colleagues to vote "yes" on this so we can get to work.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, again, I would just say in response to the gentleman who just spoke, yes, the tone that is being set by the new Republican majority is that of chaos. Again, this rules package that we are debating today already had to be changed twice today because you couldn't get enough votes within your Conference to pass it.

He is right. The American people did speak in the election, and they decided that Republicans should have fewer seats in the House.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. SCOTT).

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, instead of fast-tracking culture war issues in the rules or cutting off dissent within the Republican Conference, we should usher in the 119th Congress by prioritizing the issues that Americans face daily. For example, how can we reduce the cost of prescription drugs so that Americans can afford to pay for the lifesaving care they need?

During the last Congress, my Democratic colleagues and I introduced the Lower Drug Costs for American Families Act which builds upon the historic progress of the Inflation Reduction Act by expanding the Medicare drug price negotiation program. The bill would combat Big Pharma's price gouging of the American people by increasing the number of drugs eligible for negotiation and ensuring that Americans with private health insurance have access to those lower prices.

Hardworking American families shouldn't have to choose between paying for their medicine or paying for rent or other necessities while drug companies continue to enjoy record profits. It is time for Congress to rein in corporate greed and expand the Inflation Reduction Act's historic drug cost saving measures to more Americans.

Mr. Speaker, if we defeat the previous question, the gentleman from Massachusetts has said that he will offer an amendment which will provide for the consideration of our legislation to lower drug costs as part of the rules package.

We should defeat the previous question, and Americans would then be able to enjoy those lower drug prices.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Oklahoma (Mr. LUCAS).

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the rules package for the 119th Congress. Mr. Speaker, passing this rules package will allow the people's House to be more efficient, effective, and transparent.

The American people sent us here to deliver results, to thoughtfully craft legislation that will improve the lives of all Americans, to enact policies that will lower taxes and lower the cost of necessities like groceries and gas, and to create jobs here at home.

We have the responsibility to do that in this Congress.

I support this rules package because it is good for the institution of the House. This package strengthens and affirms the Article I authorities and restores fiscal responsibility in government.

Our constituents sent us here to legislate. Legislating is hard work. I have done it on three different committees. Legislating takes time to get right. I spent 2½ years on a farm bill once and got it right. That is why it is imperative that we pass this package and get to work.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this rules package.

I must offer one final thought to my good friend. Maybe the question is not the size of the Republican majority in the United States House. Maybe the question is: Why did the American voters give the Presidency back to the Republicans?

Why did the American voters give the United States Senate back to a Republican majority and at the same time leave us in the majority?

Maybe the soul-searching needs to be: Why are my friends still in the minority after all of that?

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I would just respond to the gentleman by saying: Why did the American people decide that the Republicans should have fewer seats in the House of Representatives?

Maybe the message they were sending is that they want us to work together, and this rules package shows that the Republicans have no intention of working in a bipartisan way to get things done for the American people.

Mr. Speaker, if the motion to commit is adopted, we will bring of up H.R. 3899, the American Family Act under a modified open rule so that all Members can offer amendments to the bill, unlike the 12 closed rules that are actually contained in this package, completely closed.

Mr. Speaker, Democrats enhanced the tax credit in the American Rescue Plan to help families stay on their feet in the wake of the COVID pandemic, but families are still facing the rising costs of rent, groceries, and basics needs.

That is why we must pass the Child Care for American Families Act to make the improved child tax credit permanent and refundable.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Connecticut (Ms. DELAURO), the author of the Child Care for American Families Act, to discuss this motion.

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, when we conclude this rules debate, I will offer a motion to commit to add the expanded monthly child tax credit, the best antidote to the high cost of living and one of the most cost-effective programs in government ever.

Instead of the Republican majority's corporate tax cut agenda, we cut taxes for the middle class and for children so that hard-pressed families everywhere can make ends meet.

The child tax credit is the most effective tool we have in fighting against rising costs. It is about financial stability for families in a sea of uncertainty. That is why so many Republicans have their own proposals.

Nothing in this rules package helps working people. Nothing in their first 12 bills would help working people. There is nothing about addressing rising costs. Make no mistake: A vote against the motion to commit means Republicans are raising taxes on the middle class in order to give away the farm to the biggest corporations and the wealthiest Americans.

The expanded monthly child tax credit was the largest tax cut for working families in generations and a lifeline to the middle class. It drove the largest decrease in child poverty in history. People could pay their electric bills, fill their tanks with gas, pay for childcare, and more.

It reached more than 61 million children, lifted 4 million out of poverty, and led to a 26 percent decline in hunger in families with children.

With such a razor-thin majority, now is the time to make this a bipartisan tax cut for the middle class. Do the right thing. Vote "yes" on the motion to commit.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. CRAWFORD).

Mr. CRAWFORD. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the House rules package. This package maintains reforms like the 72-hour rule and CutGo rule that we instituted in the 118th Congress.

It also continues the Holman rule, which requires CBO to review the inflationary impacts of certain legislation that increases mandatory spending. It officially eliminates the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and ensures that we have continuity in the speakership.

It also allows electronic voting in committees, which I can tell Members from my experience on the T&I committee that it has greatly shortened the timeframe for voting and has made voting easier and more accurate.

It codifies a current separate order of the House providing spending reduction accounts within appropriations bills so that Members can actually save money during amendment debate.

The rules also continue a number of good governance measures for the House, including prohibiting former Members who are registered lobbyists or foreign agents from using House exercise facilities, improving the public availability of House documents in machine-readable formats, and ensuring that all House employees have appropriate access to the Ethics Committee and the Office of Congressional Workplace Rights.

The House functions best when the rules allow us to function efficiently and effectively, and these rules do just that.

Finally, the rules package makes in order 12 bills that show our party's unequivocal support for securing our border, standing up for the right to life, ensuring that only American citizens are allowed to vote in elections for national office, providing energy at lower costs for American families and businesses, and stopping the scourge of drugs like fentanyl from entering our communities.

I am so proud of the work that our Speaker has done, and I thank our entire leadership team for putting together this fair and forward-thinking package. I will be casting my vote in favor of this package, and I ask my colleagues to do the same.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I get a kick out of when Republicans try to take credit for the 72-hour rule. By the way, it is a rule that I wrote when I was chairman of the Rules Committee.

There are no changes to the 72-hour rule in this rules package. The only changes Republicans made was it was waived a few times in the last Congress. In fact, the majority waived it on the massive continuing resolution bill that we dealt with before the holiday break. Anyway, I am glad that some of the things that I put into place still remain, and I appreciate the nice words.

Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. SUOZZI).

Mr. SUOZZI. Mr. Speaker, I start by congratulating the Speaker and our fellow colleagues for taking the oath of office today. This marks a new opportunity for us as Democrats and Republicans to work together on behalf of the American people.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment to the current rules package to include the Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act, which would bring down the cost of prescription drugs for all Americans.

Mr. Speaker, prescription drugs are too expensive. To quote President-elect Trump from January 2017, when speaking about the pharmaceutical drug companies, he said: These guys are getting away with murder.

He supported, as does the Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act, drug price negotiations in order to save money for American working families. This should not be a Republican or Democratic issue. In fact, it should be the first thing in this Congress that unites us together to solve problems for the American people.

This amendment is a commonsense proposal. It would make lifesaving drugs more affordable for Americans on private health insurance, and it saves taxpayers money.

In its first year, the Medicare Drug Price Negotiation Program, passed through the Biden administration on a Democratic majority, will save Medicare $6 billion as part of the IRA, and it will save the American people $1.5 billion more.

In fact, CBO has predicted that the Medicare drug price negotiations under the IRA will save $100 billion over 10 years. DOGE should love this program.

This new amendment would expand the Medicare negotiated drug prices to include the private sector, as well, saving the American people billions of dollars.

This initiative is overwhelmingly popular among the American people. There is support by 85 percent of voters for the Federal Government negotiating prescription drug prices, including at least three-quarters of Republicans. My fellow Democrats and I are ready to work across the aisle on many solutions to lower health costs for Americans.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 30 seconds to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. SUOZZI. Mr. Speaker, let's show the American people that we can work together, especially for a program that was supported by President-elect Trump during the beginning of his last Presidency.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage the inclusion of the Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act in the rules package.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1½ minutes to the gentlewoman from Washington (Ms. JAYAPAL).

Ms. JAYAPAL. Mr. Speaker, this rules package makes very clear what the Republican majority will not do in the 119th Congress.

After presiding over the 118th Congress and enacting the least amount of legislation in history signed into law that actually benefits the American people, Republicans want to continue that tradition by fast-tracking 12 bills that do nothing to lower costs or raise wages for the American people.

None of the bills prioritized in this package take on the biggest corporations and wealthiest individuals who profit from the high prices and junk fees and corporate concentration that is harming Americans across this country because guess what: These corporations and wealthy individuals are the ones that are controlling the Republican Party for their own benefit.

Just look at the combined wealth of the individuals that Donald Trump has nominated for this Cabinet. There is a total wealth of over $450 billion with a b. With all of those conflicts of interest present and the ethics scandals of numerous Republican Members, perhaps that is why this Republican majority no longer wants an Office of Congressional Ethics. That is right. They want to jettison ethics for "conduct."

This package tries to fool the American people by scapegoating immigrants and trans people in the hopes that it will distract voters from the fact that the first move of Republicans in the 119th Congress is to do absolutely nothing to help them and their family build a better life.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage my colleagues to vote “no.”

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the chair may reduce to 5 minutes the minimum time for electronic voting on any question relating to House resolution 5 that follows the 15-minute vote.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Minnesota?

There was no objection.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I am prepared to close.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire as to how much time is remaining.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Massachusetts has 4½ minutes remaining. The gentlewoman from Minnesota has 14½ minutes remaining.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time. The last election was one of the closest in history. Republicans have the slimmest majority in nearly a century. If there were a shift of just a few thousand votes, this Chamber would be led by Democrats.

It seems my friends didn't get the message, and Republicans still don't get it. The majority doesn't listen. Americans do not want Republican extremism. They want cooperation. They want Congress to focus on compromise, not chaos. They don't want the far right running this place. When I talk to people in my district, they are sick of all of this. They are sick of all of this. They are tired of the fighting, the toxicity, and the partisanship. They want us to work together to get stuff done.

The very first thing that Republicans are doing is making this place even more polarized, more toxic, and more dysfunctional. Republicans want to double down on the political infighting and the extremism. Even these rules are designed to ram through their extremism.

Look closely at the bills that they are paving the way for. Does anyone notice what is missing? My colleagues on the other side of the aisle are not doing a single thing Republicans promised to do. The majority ran on the economy. My colleagues talked about egg prices and gas. Where is that today?

There is nothing for workers, nothing to lower food prices, nothing about rent prices or helping people to buy homes, nothing about inflation or prescription drugs, nothing on creating jobs, and nothing on the economy. Someone should ask: What happened to all of their promises? Was it all BS?

Look at the people that they are putting in power. First of all, they are turning the White House Cabinet into a junk drawer full of out-of-touch billionaires and insiders, nobody who understands the struggles of regular people. His nomination for Treasury Secretary is a billionaire. His nomination for Education Secretary is a billionaire, as well as his nominations for his top Secretaries, including for United States Department of Health & Human Services, Department of Energy, and Department of the Interior.

I mean, come on. This is a Cabinet of millionaires and billionaires. These people don't pump their own gas. These people don't buy their own groceries. These are total trust fund babies who take helicopters to work. They are totally out of touch with reality. That is who Republicans are putting in charge.

Here is the deal, and here is the reality: Democrats didn't win the last election, and we need to own that, and we need to make changes. From the ground up, we need to make sure that we are of, by, and for the people. We need to do a better job of taking on corporate special interests, but let me be clear that we are not giving up. We are going to show up, and we are going to do what we were sent here to do.

We will work with Speaker JOHNSON where we can, but we will not allow this House to become a rubber stamp for his extremist policies, to help insiders, and benefit millionaires and billionaires at the expense of everyone else.

The American people deserve a hell of a lot better, and I promise that Democrats will fight for a Congress that works for everyone. Democrats will fight not just for the powerful, not just for the wealthy or the well-connected, but for everyone. That is our commitment, and that is our promise.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a “no” vote on this package, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time. I remind the ranking member that November brought us a House Republican majority, a Senate Republican majority, and President-elect Donald Trump. We have work to do, and we are going to move forward.

Before we do, in response to the ranking member, I will clear up a few things that he has been complaining about.

The 118th Congress had numerous challenges, but that doesn't diminish the work that was accomplished to broaden the voices from the highest ranking to the rank and file, by loosening a number of holdover provisions from the previous majority which enabled then-Speaker PELOSI to maintain a vicelike grip over the House.

In addition, it is important to highlight that the 118th Congress considered 83 structured rules, a 40 percent increase from the Democratic-controlled 117th Congress.

For closed rules, more context is needed, as over a third of those closed rules were because no amendments were offered, making the rules closed by definition.

Also, when it comes to amendments, while the minority may want to highlight the number of blocked amendments, this does not take into account amendments that were not eligible for consideration because of the points of order that lay against them.

It is important to highlight that over 3,000 amendments were made in order in the 118th Congress, over 1,000 of which were bipartisan or minority-led amendments. We are really here to move forward.

I again congratulate Speaker JOHNSON, and I am excited to get to work and deliver results for the American people. That is why I support this rules package.

This package includes 12 rules that set the tone for House Republicans to hit the ground running and deliver on our commitment to the American people.

These bills will help secure our borders, protect our communities, counter China's influence, and restore sanity in the Federal Government.

Part of this package includes a bill that prevents Federal funding from going to illegal aliens in sanctuary jurisdictions. An overwhelming number of voters chose to support President Trump's plan to remove certain illegal aliens from our country. States and cities that choose to ignore the will of the people and violate Federal law should not receive Federal funding.

I am particularly eager to vote for a bill that protects newborns. It requires healthcare practitioners to exercise the proper degree of care for an infant who survives an attempted abortion. I am not sure how anyone could oppose legislation that requires treatment for infants who are born alive.

In addition, this rule contains a bill to protect women in sports and a bill to require proof of citizenship to register to vote in Federal elections. These are things that the American people have sent us here to do.

For too long, Democrats have been pushing a woke agenda that, frankly, benefits criminals more than our own citizens.

These bills are common sense, and they are what the American people voted for.

This rules package will help us move swiftly to deliver on our promise to the American people and help President Trump with his America First agenda. I look forward to voting for this rules package, and I look forward to our work ahead with Speaker JOHNSON, Senate Leader THUNE, and President Trump.

The material previously referred to by Mr. MCGOVERN is as follows:

AN AMENDMENT TO H. RES. 5 OFFERED BY MR. MCGOVERN OF MASSACHUSETTS

At the end of the resolution, add the following new section:

SEC. 6. Lowering Drug Costs for American Families Act.

Not later than January 12, 2025, the Speaker shall, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule

XVIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of a bill consisting of the text of H.R. 4895 of the One Hundred Eighteenth Congress, as introduced on July 26, 2023, to amend title XI of the Social Security Act to expand the drug price negotiation program, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader or their respective designees. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. The bill shall be considered as read. All points of order against provisions in the bill are waived. No amendment shall be in order except: (1) those amendments to the bill received for printing in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 8 of rule XVIII dated at least one day before the day of consideration of the amendment; and (2) up to 20 pro forma amendments for the purpose of debate, 10 of which may be offered by the Majority Leader or a designee and 10 of which may be offered by the Minority Leader or a designee. Each amendment so received may be offered only by the Member who caused it to be printed or a designee and shall be considered as read if printed. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit.

Mrs. FISCHBACH. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 216, nays 210, not voting 8, as follows:

Mr. MCGARVEY changed his vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So the previous question was ordered. The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

MOTION TO COMMIT

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to commit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to commit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Ms. DeLauro of Connecticut moves to commit the resolution (H. Res. 5) to a select committee composed of the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end of the resolution, add the following new section:

SEC. 6. American Family Act.

Not later than January 12, 2025, the Speaker shall, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XVIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of a bill consisting of the text of H.R. 3899 of the One Hundred Eighteenth Congress, as introduced on June 7, 2023, to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to establish a refundable child tax credit with monthly advance payment. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader or their respective designees. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. The bill shall be considered as read. All points of order against provisions in the bill are waived. No amendment shall be in order except: (1) those amendments to the bill received for printing in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 8 of rule XVIII dated at least one day before the day of consideration of the amendment; and (2) up to 20 pro forma amendments for the purpose of debate, 10 of which may be offered by the Majority Leader or a designee and 10 of which may be offered by the Minority Leader or a designee. Each amendment so received may be offered only by the Member who caused it to be printed or a designee and shall be considered as read if printed. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommend.

Ms. DELAURO (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Connecticut?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to commit.

There was no objection.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair customarily takes this occasion at the outset of a Congress to announce his policies with respect to particular aspects of the legislative process. The Chair will insert in the RECORD announcements concerning:

- first, privileges of the floor;
- second, introduction of bills and resolutions;
- third, unanimous-consent requests for the consideration of legislation;
- fourth, recognition for 1-minute speeches;
- fifth, recognition for Special Order speeches;
- sixth, decorum in debate;
- seventh, conduct of votes by electronic device;
- eighth, use of handouts on the House floor;
- ninth, use of electronic equipment on the House floor; and
- tenth, use of the Chamber and Capitol facilities.

These announcements, where appropriate, will reiterate the origins of the stated policies. The Chair intends to continue in the 119th Congress the policies reflected in these statements. The policy announced in the 102nd Congress with respect to jurisdictional concepts related to clause 5(a) of rule XXI—tax and tariff measures—will continue to govern but need not be reiterated, as it is adequately documented as precedent in the House Rules and Manual.

Without objection, the announcements will be printed in the RECORD.

There was no objection.

1. Privileges of the Floor

The Chair will make the following announcements regarding floor privileges, which will apply during the 119th Congress.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER WITH RESPECT TO STAFF

Rule IV strictly limits those persons to whom the privileges of the floor during sessions of the House are extended, and that rule prohibits the Chair from entertaining requests for suspension or waiver of that rule. As reiterated by the Chair on January 21, 1986, January 3, 1985, January 25, 1983, and August 22, 1974, and as stated in Chapter 10, section 2, of House Practice, the rule strictly limits the number of committee staff on the floor at one time during the consideration of measures reported from their committees. This permission does not extend to Members' personal staff except when a Member's amendment is actually pending during the five-minute rule. It also does not extend to personal staff of Members who are sponsors of pending bills. The Chair requests the cooperation of all Members and committee staff to assure that only the proper number of staff are on the floor, and then only during the consideration of measures within the jurisdiction of their committees. The Chair is making this statement and reiterating this policy because of Members' past insistence upon strict enforcement of the rule. The Chair requests each committee chair, and each ranking minority member, to submit to the Speaker a list of those staff who are allowed on the floor during the consideration of a measure in the jurisdiction of their committee. The Sergeant-at-Arms, who has been directed to assure proper enforcement of rule IV, will keep the list. Each staff person should exchange their ID for a "committee staff" badge, which is to be worn while on the floor. The Chair has consulted, and will continue to consult with, the Minority Leader. Furthermore, as the Chair announced on January 7, 2003, in accordance with the change in the 108th Congress of clause 2(a) of rule IV regarding leadership staff floor access, only designated staff approved by the Speaker shall be granted the privilege of the floor. The Speaker intends that this approval be narrowly granted on a bipartisan basis to staff from the majority and minority side and only to those staff essential to floor activities.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER WITH RESPECT TO FORMER MEMBERS

The Speaker's policy announced on February 1, 2006, will continue to apply in the 119th Congress. The House has adopted a revision to the rule regarding the admission to the floor and the rooms leading thereto. Clause 4 of rule IV provides that a former Member, Delegate or Resident Commissioner or a former Parliamentarian of the House, or a former elected officer of the House or a former minority employee nominated as an elected officer of the House shall not be entitled to the privilege of admission to the Hall of the House and the rooms extending thereto if they are a registered lobbyist or an agent of a foreign principal; have any direct personal pecuniary interest in any legislative measure pending before the House, or reported by a committee, are in the employ of or represents any party or organization for the purpose of influencing, directly or indirectly, the passage, defeat, or amendment of any legislative proposal; or have been convicted by a court of record for the commission of a crime in relation to that individual's election to, or service in, the House. This restriction extends not only to the House floor but adjacent rooms, the cloakrooms and the Speaker's lobby. Clause 4 of rule IV also allows the Speaker to exempt ceremonial and educational functions from the restrictions of this clause. These restrictions shall not apply to attendance at joint meetings or joint sessions, Former Members' Day proceedings, educational tours, and other occasions as the Speaker may designate. Members who have reason to know that a person is on the floor inconsistent with clause 4 of rule IV should notify the Sergeant-at-Arms promptly.

2. Introduction of Bills and Resolutions

The policy that the Chair announced on April 6, 2020, and subsequently applied on a permanent basis on January 4, 2021, shall continue to apply in the 119th Congress. All floor documents—including bills, resolutions, co-sponsor forms, constitutional authority statements, general leave statements, and extensions of remarks—may be submitted electronically to a dedicated and secure system, or delivered by hand to staff in the Speaker's Lobby or Cloakrooms. Electronic and hand-delivered submissions will be accepted when the House is in session, as well as 15 minutes immediately before and after. Members and staff should reference additional detailed guidance from the Clerk's Office regarding where and how to submit materials electronically.

The policy that the Chair announced on January 3, 1983, with respect to the introduction and reference of bills and resolutions will continue to apply in the 119th Congress. The Chair has advised all officers and employees of the House who are involved in the processing of bills that every bill, resolution, memorial, petition or other material that is placed in the hopper must bear the signature of a Member. Where a bill or resolution is jointly sponsored, the signature must be that of the Member first named thereon. The bill clerk is instructed to return to the Member any bill which appears in the hopper without an original signature. This procedure was inaugurated in the 92d Congress. It has worked well, and the Chair thinks that it is essential to continue this practice to ensure the integrity of the process by which legislation is introduced in the House. The Chair has noted a need for increased attention to detail regarding the addition of co-sponsors to measures to ensure accuracy. To that end, Members are encouraged to use the template provided by the Office of the Clerk, which requests Members seeking to be added as cosponsors to include their printed name, original signature, and state. Members routinely include their original signatures, states, and districts when voting by card in the well, so the Chair is hopeful that the inclusion of such information on a cosponsor form will be a familiar task. Under this policy, original signatures may include those in electronic form.

3. Unanimous-Consent Requests for the Consideration of Legislation

The policy the Chair announced on January 6, 1999, with respect to recognition for unanimous-consent requests for the consideration of certain legislative measures will continue to apply in the 119th Congress. The Speaker will continue to follow the guidelines recorded in section 956 of the House Rules and Manual conferring recognition for unanimous-consent requests for the consideration of bills, resolutions, and other measures only when assured that the majority and minority floor leadership and the relevant committee chairs and ranking minority members have no objection. Consistent with those guidelines and with the Chair's inherent power of recognition under clause 2 of rule XVII, the Chair, and any occupant of the chair appointed as Speaker pro tempore pursuant to clause 8 of rule I, will decline recognition for the unanimous-consent requests chronicled in section 956 without assurances that the request has been so cleared. This denial of recognition by the Chair will not reflect necessarily any personal opposition on the part of the Chair to orderly consideration of the matter in question, but will reflect the determination upon the part of the Chair that orderly procedures will be followed; that is, procedures involving consultation and agreement between floor and committee leadership on both sides of the aisle.

4. Recognition for One-Minute Speeches

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER WITH RESPECT TO ONE-MINUTE SPEECHES

The Speaker's policy announced on August 8, 1984, with respect to recognition for one-minute speeches will apply during the 119th Congress. The Chair will alternate recognition for one-minute speeches between majority and minority Members, in the order in which they seek recognition in the well under present practice from the Chair's right to the Chair's left, with possible exceptions for Members of the leadership and Members having business requests. The Chair, of course, reserves the right to limit one-minute speeches to a certain period of time or to a special place in the program on any given day, with notice to the leadership. In addition, during the 119th Congress, the Chair will continue the practice of not recognizing Members for a one-minute speech more than one time per legislative day.

5. Recognition for Special-Order Speeches

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER WITH RESPECT TO SPECIAL-ORDER SPEECHES

The Speaker's policy with regard to special-order speeches announced on February 11, 1994, as clarified and reiterated by subsequent Speakers, will continue to apply in the 119th Congress. The Chair may recognize Members for special-order speeches for up to 4 hours. Such speeches may not extend beyond the 4-hour limit without the permission of the Chair, which may be granted only with advance consultation between the leaderships and notification to the House. However, the Chair will not recognize for any special-order speeches beyond 10 o'clock in the evening. The 4-hour limitation will be divided between the majority and minority parties. Each party is entitled to reserve its first hour for respective leaderships or their designees. The second hour reserved to each party will be divided into two 30-minute periods. Recognition for one-hour periods and for 30-minute periods will alternate initially and subsequently between the parties each day. The Chair wishes to clarify for Members that any 60- or 30-minute period that is not claimed at the appropriate time will be considered to have expired; this includes the first 60-minute period of the day. The allocation of time within each party's 2-hour period (or shorter period if prorated to end by 10 p.m.) will be determined by a list submitted to the Chair by the respective leaderships. Members may not sign up with their leadership for any special-order speeches earlier than one week prior to the special order. Additionally, Members must sign up with their leadership for any special-order speech at least one day prior to the special order. The Chair will not recognize a Member for more than one special-order speech per week, nor may a Member sign up for a second special-order speech in the same week. Additional guidelines may be established for such sign-ups by the respective leaderships. Pursuant to clause 2(a) of rule V, the television cameras will not pan the Chamber, but a "crawl" indicating the conduct of morning-hour debate or that the House has completed its legislative business and is proceeding with special-order speeches will appear on the screen. The Chair may announce other adaptations during this period. The continuation of this format for recognition by the Speaker is without prejudice to the Speaker's ultimate power of recognition under clause 2 of rule XVII and includes the ability to withdraw recognition for longer special-order speeches should circumstances warrant.

6. Decorum in Debate

Although clause 5 of rule XVII prohibits Members from wearing hats on the floor of the House, the Speaker intends to continue to apply discretion in enforcing this prohibition in the case of hats or other head coverings worn for reasons of medical necessity. In addition, as stated by the Speaker on April 20, 2024, it is a violation of the decorum of the House to wave flags on the floor. Furthermore, the Chair's announced policies of January 7, 2003, January 4, 1995, and January 3, 1991, will apply in the 119th Congress. It is essential that the dignity of the proceedings of the House be preserved, not only to assure that the House conducts its business in an orderly fashion but also to permit Members to properly comprehend and participate in the business of the House. To this end, and in order to permit the Chair to understand and to correctly put the question on the numerous requests that are made by Members, the Chair requests that Members and others who have the privilege of the floor desist from audible conversation in the Chamber while the business of the House is being conducted. The Chair would encourage all Members to review rule XVII to gain a better understanding of the proper rules of decorum expected of them, and especially: to avoid "personalities" in debate with respect to references to other Members, the Senate, and the President; to address the Chair only during, and not beyond, the time recognized, and not to address the television or other imagined audience; to refrain from passing between the Chair and a Member speaking, or directly in front of a Member speaking from the well; to refrain from smoking in the Chamber; to wear appropriate business attire in the Chamber; and to generally display the same degree of respect to the Chair and other Members that every Member is due. The Chair would like all Members to be on notice that the Chair intends to strictly enforce time limitations on debate. Furthermore, the Chair has the authority to immediately interrupt Members in debate who transgress rule XVII by failing to avoid "personalities" in debate with respect to references to the Senate, the President, and other Members, rather than wait for Members to complete their remarks. Finally, it is not in order to speak disrespectfully of the Speaker; and under the precedents the sanctions for such violations transcend the ordinary requirements for timeliness of challenges. This separate treatment is recorded in volume 2 of Hinds' Precedents, at section 1248 and was reiterated on January 19, 1995.

7. Conduct of Votes by Electronic Device

The Speaker's policy announced on January 4, 1995, with respect to the conduct of electronic votes will continue in the 119th Congress with modifications as follows. As Members are aware, clause 2(a) of rule XX provides that Members shall have not less than 15 minutes in which to answer an ordinary record vote or quorum call. The rule obviously establishes 15 minutes as a minimum. Still, with the cooperation of the Members, a vote can easily be completed in that time. The events of October 30, 1991, stand out as proof of this point. On that occasion, the House was considering a bill in the Committee of the Whole under a special rule that placed an overall time limit on the amendment process, including the time consumed by record votes. The Chair announced, and then strictly enforced, a policy of closing electronic votes as soon as possible after the guaranteed period of 15 minutes. Members appreciated and cooperated with the Chair's enforcement of the policy on that occasion. The Chair desires that the example of October 30, 1991, be made the regular practice of the House. To that end, the Chair enlists the assistance of all Members in avoiding the unnecessary loss of time in conducting the business of the House. The Chair encourages all Members to depart for the Chamber promptly upon the appropriate bell and light signal. As in recent Congresses, the cloak-rooms should not forward to the Chair requests to hold a vote by electronic device, but should simply apprise inquiring Members of the time remaining on the voting clock. Members should not rely on signals relayed from outside the Chamber to assume that votes will be held open until they arrive in the Chamber. Members will be given a reasonable amount of time in which to accurately record their votes, and the Chair will endeavor to assess the presence of the membership and the expectation of further votes prior to exercising the authority under clause 9 of rule XX or clause 6(g) of rule XVIII. The Speaker believes the best practice for presiding officers is to await the Clerk's certification that a vote tally is complete and accurate. Members are further reminded, in accordance with the Speaker's statement of January 7, 2016, that the standard policy is to not terminate the vote when a Member is in the well attempting to cast a vote. Other efforts to hold the vote open are not similarly protected.

8. Use of Handouts on House Floor

The Speaker's policy announced on September 27, 1995, which was prompted by a misuse of handouts on the House floor and made at the bipartisan request of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, will continue in the 119th Congress. All handouts distributed on or adjacent to the House floor by Members during House proceedings must bear the name of the Member authorizing their distribution. In addition, the content of those materials must comport with standards of propriety applicable to words spoken in debate or inserted in the Record. Failure to comply with this admonition may constitute a breach of decorum and may give rise to a question of privilege. The Chair would also remind Members that, pursuant to clause 5 of rule IV, staff is prohibited from engaging in efforts in the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto to influence Members with regard to the legislation being amended. Staff cannot distribute handouts. In order to enhance the quality of debate in the House, the Chair would ask Members to minimize the use of handouts.

9. Use of Electronic Equipment on House Floor

The Speaker's policy announced on January 27, 2000, as clarified on January 6, 2009, and as modified by the change in clause 5 of rule XVII in the 112th Congress, will continue in the 119th Congress with modifications as follows. All Members and staff are reminded of the absolute prohibition contained in clause 5 of rule XVII against the use of mobile electronic devices that impair decorum. Those devices include wireless telephones and personal computers. The Chair wishes to note that electronic tablet devices do not constitute personal computers within the meaning of this policy and thus may be unobtrusively used in the Chamber so long as they are not used with an audible keyboard. No device may be used for still photography or for audio or video recording or for live broadcasting. The Chair requests all Members and staff wishing to receive or make wireless telephone calls to do so outside of the Chamber. The Chair further requests that all Members and staff refrain from wearing electronic headsets, headphones, or earbuds in the Chamber and to deactivate any audible ring of wireless phones before entering the Chamber. To this end, the Chair insists upon the cooperation of all

Members and staff and instructs the Sergeant-at-Arms, pursuant to clause 3(a) of rule II and clause 5 of rule XVII, to enforce this prohibition. In light of the changes to rule II and rule XVII in the 115th Congress, the Chair would like to take this opportunity to educate all Members and staff on how these changes will be implemented. The Sergeant-at-Arms is charged with enforcement of clause 3(g) of rule II, which prohibits the use of electronic devices for still photography or for audio or visual recording or broadcasting in contravention of clause 5 of rule XVII and the policies just articulated. The Chair would advise Members of the following policies of the Sergeant-at-Arms surrounding the rules change. The Sergeant-at-Arms will enforce the prohibition with respect to violations observed first-hand on the House floor as well as violations that become apparent at a later time, such as through publication online or broadcast on television. In the case of violations observed on the floor, the Sergeant-at-Arms will hand the offending Member a card noting the violation, and will follow up by sending the Member a written letter. In the case of other violations, Members will receive a written letter detailing the offending conduct. The fine for a first offense is $500. The fine for each subsequent offense is $2,500. The Sergeant-at-Arms will endeavor to provide Members a written warning prior to assessing a fine for a first offense. Because of the inherent difficulty of enforcing this prohibition during ceremonial events, the Sergeant-at-Arms may choose not to cite minor violations occurring during such an event. Pursuant to clause 3(g)(3) of rule II, in addition to notifying the Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner concerned, the Sergeant-at-Arms will also notify the Speaker, the Chief Administrative Officer, and the Committee on Ethics of any fine imposed. Upon receiving notification of a fine, a Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner may appeal the fine to the Committee on Ethics within 30 calendar days or 5 legislative days, whichever is later. The Sergeant-at-Arms and the Committee on Ethics are each authorized to establish policies and procedures for the implementation of these rules. The Chief Administrative Officer is authorized to establish policies and procedures for deducting any such fine from a Member's net salary. It is the desire of the Chair that any such policies and procedures be submitted for printing in the Congressional Record. Nothing in the House rules or this policy deprives the House of its ability to address breaches of decorum or other violations of House rules that may give rise to questions of the privileges of the House under rule IX. The Chair appreciates the attention of all Members to these efforts.

10. Use of Chamber and Capitol Facilities

The Speaker's policy announced on January 6, 2009, with respect to use of the Chamber will continue in the 119th Congress. The Chair will announce to the House the policy of the Speaker concerning appropriate comportment in the chamber when the House is not in session. Under 6 clause 3 of rule I, the Speaker is responsible to control the Hall of the House. Under clause 1 of rule IV, the Hall of the House is to be used only for the legislative business of the House, for caucus and conference meetings of its Members, and for such ceremonies as the House might agree to conduct there. When the House stands adjourned, its chamber remains on static display. It may accommodate visitors in the gallery or on the floor, subject to the needs of those who operate, maintain, and secure the chamber to go about their ordinary business. Because outside "coverage" of the chamber is limited to floor proceedings and is allowed only by accredited journalists, when the chamber is on static display no audio or video recording or transmitting devices are allowed. The long custom of disallowing even still photography in the chamber is based at least in part on the notion that an image having this setting as its backdrop might be taken to carry the imprimatur of the House. The imprimatur of the House adheres to the Journal of its proceedings, which is kept pursuant to the Constitution. The imprimatur of the House adheres to the Congressional Record, which is kept as a substantially verbatim transcript pursuant to clause 8 of rule XVII. The imprimatur of the House adheres to the audio and visual transmissions and recordings that are made and kept by the television system administered by the Speaker pursuant to rule V. But the imprimatur of the House may not be appropriate to other, ad hoc accounts or compositions of events in its chamber.

The Chair announces to the House a new policy that will be implemented in the 119th Congress pursuant to clause 3 of rule I. In all areas of the Capitol subject to the Speaker's general control under clause 3 of rule I, all single-sex facilities—such as restrooms, changing rooms, and locker rooms—are reserved for individuals of that biological sex. This policy will be enforced by the Sergeant-at-Arms. It is important to note that each Member office has its own private restroom, and unisex restrooms are available throughout the Capitol.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 119th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 171

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 2025

No. 1

Senate

The third day of January being the day prescribed by the Constitution of the United States for the annual meeting of the Congress, the Senate assembled in its Chamber at the Capitol for the commencement of the 1st session of the 119th Congress and at 12:02 p.m. was called to order by the Vice President (Ms. HARRIS).

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.
Our Father in Heaven, at a time when the dawning of the new year brings felicity and fear, we continue to acknowledge that You are still the one who stretches out the starry curtain of the heavens. May Your Name be kept holy.

As our incoming lawmakers swear today to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, may they also make a personal commitment to You to depend on Your guidance that will keep their feet on the path You have chosen. Lord, inspire them to strive always to do what is right as You give them the wisdom to discern it.

Mighty God, open Your hands to bless their work, supplying their needs out of the bounty of Your celestial riches.

We pray in Your majestic Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The President pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that during the 119th Congress, it be in order for the Secretary of the Senate to receive reports at the desk when presented by a Senator at any time during the day of the session of the Senate.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the majority and minority leaders may daily have up to 10 minutes each on each calendar day following the prayer and disposition of the reading of, or the approval of, the Journal.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding the provisions of rule XXVIII, conference reports and statements accompanying them not be printed as Senate reports when such conference reports and statements have been printed as a House report unless specific request is made in the Senate in each instance to have such a report printed.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Appropriations be authorized during the 119th Congress to file reports during the adjournments or recesses of the Senate on appropriations bills, including joint resolutions, together with any accompanying notices of motions to suspend rule XVI, pursuant to rule V, for the purpose of offering certain amendments to such bills or joint resolutions, which proposed amendments shall be printed.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that for the duration of the 119th Congress, the Secretary of the Senate be authorized to make technical and clerical corrections in the engrossments of all Senate-passed bills and joint resolutions, Senate amendments to House bills and resolutions, Senate amendments to House amendments to Senate bills and resolutions, and Senate amendments to House amendments to Senate amendments to House bills or resolutions.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that, for the duration of the 119th Congress, when the Senate is in recess or adjournment the Secretary of the Senate is authorized to receive messages from the President of the United States, and—with the exception of House bills, joint resolutions and concurrent resolutions—messages from the House of Representatives; and that they be appropriately referred; and that the President of the Senate, the President pro tempore, and the Acting President pro tempore be authorized to sign duly enrolled bills and joint resolutions.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that, for the duration of the 119th Congress, Senators be allowed to leave at the desk with the Journal clerk the names of two staff members who will be granted the privilege of the floor during the consideration of the specific matter noted, and that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to rotate staff members as space allows.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that, for the duration of the 119th Congress, it be in order to refer treaties and nominations on the day when they are received from the President, even when the Senate has no executive session that day.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that, for the duration of the 119th Congress, Senators may be allowed to bring to the desk bills, joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions and simple resolutions, for referral to appropriate committees.

NEW ORLEANS BOURBON STREET ATTACK

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, before I begin my remarks, I want to mention the very deadly terrorist attack that took place in New Orleans in the early hours of New Year's Day. This ISIS-inspired attack took the lives of 14 innocent victims and injured at least 30 others.

My prayers today, along with prayers of so many Americans, are with all those grieving the loss of a loved one and with the injured and their families.

LAS VEGAS CYBERTRUCK EXPLOSION

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, in Las Vegas, law enforcement agents are working around the clock to understand the motivation of an Army soldier who blew up a Tesla truck in front of the Trump hotel on the same day, injuring seven others.

We expect our Federal, State, and local law enforcement to pursue every lead so that the American people understand what led to both of these attacks.

REMEMBERING JIMMY CARTER

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I also want to mention the passing of former President Jimmy Carter, who died peacefully on December 29 at his home in Georgia at the age of 100.

He was Governor of Georgia and President of the United States but was perhaps even better known for the work that he did after leaving office to promote peace and help those in need, most notably through his decades-long work with Habitat for Humanity.

I will have much more to say about President Carter next week, but for today, I just want to extend my condolences and my prayers to his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren as they mourn their father and grandfather.

MAIDEN SPEECH AS MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I want to welcome Members to the 119th Congress, particularly those freshman Senators who took the oath of office this morning. And congratulations to the new Secretary of the Senate, a great South Dakotan, and the new Senate Sergeant at Arms, who are assuming their roles today. I am grateful for their service.

Mr. President, the words of the oath, which we hear at the start of each new Congress, are a reminder of the profound responsibility with which we have been entrusted, and that is to "support and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Two hundred thirty-seven years ago, representatives from the States gathered together in Philadelphia, PA, and produced something essentially unique in human history: a blueprint for our new country, founded not on history or conquest but on a set of ideas. It was not a perfect document, as even our Founders attested by making provisions for amendments, but it was and remains one of the greatest and most important political documents in the history of the world. It has made us a country that people around the world look to as a beacon of freedom, a shining city on the hill.

And it is the solemn responsibility of those of us here in Congress to preserve our Constitution, to guard it against enemies both foreign and domestic, and to ensure that it continues to stand so that our Nation continues to stand as a bulwark of freedom and human rights.

Mr. President, when it came time to draft the Constitution, the Founders established safeguards—checks and balances—throughout our government to keep the government in check and ensure that the rights of all Americans were protected. One of those safeguards was the U.S. Senate.

In his discussion of the Senate in Federalist 62, the author notes:

[A] senate, as a second branch of the legislative assembly, distinct from, and dividing the power with, a first, must be in all cases a salutary check on the government. It doubles the security to the people, by requiring the concurrence of two distinct bodies in schemes of usurpation or perfidy.

He further notes:

[T]hat as the improbability of sinister combinations will be in proportion to the dissimilarity in the genius of the two bodies, it must be politic to distinguish them from each other by every circumstance which will consist with a due harmony in all proper measures, and with the genuine principles of republican government.

And the Founders did indeed distinguish the House from the Senate. They made the Senate smaller and Senators' terms of office longer, with the intention of creating a more stable, more thoughtful, more deliberative legislative body to check ill-considered or intemperate legislation and protect the rights of the American people.

As the past 237 years attest, it is a structure that has served this Nation well. Unfortunately, today, there are a lot of people out there who would like to see the Senate turn into a copy of the House of Representatives.

That, Mr. President, is not what our Founders intended or what our country needs. One of my priorities as leader will be to ensure that the Senate stays the Senate. That means preserving the legislative filibuster, the Senate rule that today has perhaps the greatest impact on preserving the Founders' vision of the U.S. Senate.

It also means restoring the Senate as a place of discussion and deliberation, and that includes empowering committees, restoring regular order, and engaging in extended debate on the Senate floor, where all Members should have a chance to make their voices and the voices of their constituents heard.

We have a lot to do this Congress: border security, extending the tax relief that Republicans delivered during the first Trump administration, lifting burdensome and expensive government regulations to help American businesses and families flourish, providing for our Nation's defense in an increasingly unstable world, bringing appropriations bills to the floor for serious deliberation so that we make the best possible use of taxpayer dollars, an overdue farm bill to update farm programs for farmers and ranchers to reflect current agriculture needs. And the list goes on.

In past years, I have listened to speeches delivered by other leaders welcoming Members to the new Congress and discussing the agenda for the coming months. I now find myself in the position of delivering that speech. My Republican colleagues have trusted me to lead our party—and the Senate—in the next Congress, and I will work every day to be worthy of that trust.

My philosophy of leadership comes from my dad. He was a basketball coach at our high school, and he had some very strong opinions about the right way to play. Sports, to him, was not about personal glory; it was about elevating the team. He hated ball hogs. If someone else was in a better position to take the shot, you always made the extra pass. You didn't try to pad your own statistics.

It is an attitude which I have tried to carry with me throughout my life, and it is an attitude I intend to carry with me to the leader office.

My job is to be of service to my colleagues and to our country. I am here today addressing the Senate in this role because of the confidence my colleagues have placed in me. But I am here, first of all, because of the confidence placed in me by the people of South Dakota. Without the trust that they have given me, I would not have had an opportunity to serve at all, much less have had the opportunity to serve as the majority leader of the U.S. Senate. My first priority here in Congress is always—always—to serve the people of my State.

Mr. President, I grew up in a small town in South Dakota, the town of Murdo—population today: roughly around 500 people. We didn't even have a traffic light when I was growing up there, and I wouldn't have had it any other way.

Life in Murdo had a beautiful simplicity. Sure, it had one or two drawbacks. With a population that small, we Thune kids could be sure that our parents would have heard all about any of our misdemeanors before we even made it home.

But smalltown life was wonderful. In Murdo, you know everyone and everyone knows you, and that gave us a sense of community and belonging that we carry to this day.

I remember the day I told my mom I was going to run for Congress. She was excited, obviously, and confidently told me, "I know that you'll carry Murdo."

In Murdo, I learned the character of South Dakotans—the work ethic, the commitment to freedom coupled with a belief in personal responsibility, the sense of responsibility to the broader community.

Growing up, we knew that if a roof collapsed under the weight of snow or a windstorm came through and wiped out a barn or we lost a friend or family member, the whole community would rally to help. And that same attitude is reflected in towns across our State.

The South Dakota values I learned growing up helped shape my political philosophy: my belief that government should be limited; that it is best when it is closest to the people; and that if a matter can be handled at the State or the local level, it should be; that the legacy of the past is something to be cherished and preserved—while leaving room for change and adaptation when needed; that freedom is a sacred gift and one that must be defended; and that with freedom comes responsibility.

And, finally, that while government is necessary, government is not where we should look for salvation.

None of us gets where we are alone, and I owe thanks to many people: to my parents Pat and Harold who gave us Thune kids undying love and commitment, a strong set of values, and the most precious gift of all, faith; to my brothers and sister; to my beloved wife Kimberley, who is here with me here today. And let me say that I married up.

And I am grateful every day for Kimberley's love and wisdom, her advice and support, and her endless patience. It is not an easy thing to be married to a Member of Congress. It is not an easy thing to have a Member of Congress for a dad either, and I am grateful not only for my wife's enduring support but for the support of my daughters Brittany and Larissa. They are here today in the Senate as well with their husbands Luke and Scott and with all of our grandchildren: John, Mark, Lucy, Henley, Hewitt, Haven, and one yet-to-be-named little one on the way, who have brought me and Kimberley an immense amount of joy.

Not one of us here in Congress could last a day without our staffs, and so I want to thank all of those who spend and have spent long days and long nights in my office serving South Dakotans and the American people.

Finally, I thank God, who has richly blessed me in every way. As it says in the Scriptures, "For from Him and through Him and for Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen."

(Applause.)

I yield the floor.

RECOGNITION OF THE MINORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Democratic leader is recognized.

NEW ORLEANS BOURBON STREET ATTACK AND LAS VEGAS CYBERTRUCK EXPLOSION

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, first, let me concur in the remarks my colleague made about the tragedies in New Orleans and the West Coast in Las Vegas, and we regret that.

REMEMBERING JIMMY CARTER

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I also want to say a word about Jimmy Carter.

Last week, America mourned the loss of one of the most decent and humble public servants we have ever seen: President Jimmy Carter. President Carter was a living embodiment of leadership through service, compassion, and a thirst for justice for all.

I will have more to say about our President in the coming days, and we will all have more to say about the loss of this inspiring American. It is rare that someone leaves the Presidency only to continue building his legacy to even higher levels, as President Carter did.

But that is a testament to how rare and special a person he was. From improving human rights to his tireless efforts alongside his wife Rosalynn with Habitat for Humanity, he inspired millions with his unwavering commitment to justice and equality.

We pray for his family. We pray for his loved ones. May his memory be a blessing and an enduring reminder of what it means to truly serve.

119TH CONGRESS

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, now, first, welcome to all of my colleagues to the 119th Congress. I hope everyone had a blessed and happy start to the new year, full of family and loved ones. I was lucky enough to have just that.

Today, the Senate begins a new chapter in its distinguished history. We begin our work at a moment of crossroads for our country. We convene at a time of uncertainty for American democracy, for America's economy, and for the future leadership of America on the world stage. These challenges that we face as a Nation are great, and so must be our resolve.

Let me first begin by acknowledging my friend and colleague, the former Republican leader Senator McCONNELL. For as long as I have served as Democratic Leader, he has sat opposite me across the aisle. As he transitions away from leadership—it was nice seeing him in the seat over there where he didn't have to get up all the time—I would like to thank him for those important occasions when we worked together, despite our many fierce disagreements.

Let me also congratulate another colleague, our new Republican Leader JOHN THUNE. Leader THUNE and I have served in this Chamber for a long time. I know he is a good and decent American, someone who loves his country as we all do.

I know he just became leader a moment ago, so I hope he doesn't mind if I offer some unsolicited advice. The majority leader sets the tone, and that tone determines, to a large extent, how successful we will be moving forward.

If we look back at all the bills we passed in 2021 and 2022, most of them originated in the Senate because both parties found ways to reach across the aisle.

I want to work with the new Republican leader to keep that bipartisan streak going in the new year. I don't expect we will agree on everything or even many things, but there will still be opportunities to improve the lives of the American people if we are willing to work together.

So today I congratulate Leader THUNE and look forward to serving alongside him in the 119th Congress.

Let me also congratulate all our returning colleagues who have just taken their oaths of office. It is a great honor to serve in this Chamber with you. The work we do in this Chamber has the potential to create enormous prosperity for millions of American people, if we do our jobs right.

So I challenge our new Members as my new colleagues to make the most of the next 6 years. It will go by faster than you think.

On the Democratic side, it brings me great joy and excitement to welcome our six new colleagues to the Democratic caucus. I have spent the last year or so getting to know every single one of them as candidates; and seeing them finally raise their hands, take the oath, and walk amongst us as colleagues fills us all with pride.

Now, every time Democrats welcome new Members to our caucus, it is an exciting day, but I am particularly excited to get to work with this uniquely talented new class. I expect we will accomplish many good things for the American people and prevent bad things from being done to them.

This year's class is distinct in two ways: They are not only unusually experienced, but many of them are making history by taking the oath of office.

First, I would like to welcome Senator RUBEN GALLEGU from the great State of Arizona. Senator GALLEGU arrives to the Senate as a veteran legislator, both literally and figuratively. He served our country as a member of the U.S. Marine Corps. He served the people of Arizona as a longtime Member of the House. Now that he has taken the oath of office, the people of Arizona have a Hispanic Senator representing them for the first time ever.

From the State of Delaware, I would like to welcome Senator LISA BLUNT ROCHESTER. Many of us know Senator BLUNT ROCHESTER well because like many of our new colleagues, she was a longtime Member of the House—five of our new six colleagues were House Members, so they have a lot of great experience—where she climbed up the ranks of leadership to become assistant whip while serving on the influential Committee on Energy and Commerce.

Like the other historymaking Members of our class, Senator BLUNT ROCHESTER is the first woman and the first person of color ever to represent Delaware in the Senate.

Let me welcome our new colleague from Maryland, Senator ALSOBROOKS. Born and raised in Prince George's County, she was the youngest person and first woman ever elected as the top law enforcement officer of the county she grew up in. So she has immense experience in fighting crime, standing up for victims of abuse and violence, and helping working-class Americans as County Executive. And she now becomes the first African-American Senator ever to serve from the State of Maryland.

From the State of Michigan, we are excited to welcome Senator ELISSA SLOTKIN, another deeply experienced public servant. She is another longtime veteran of the House and one of America's top national security experts. At a time when Americans demand bipartisanship, Senator SLOTKIN knows how to do it. She served in the CIA under President Bush and in the Department of Defense under President Obama.

And, finally, I would like to acknowledge two more colleagues who have already taken their oaths but deserve special recognition on this special day: Senator ADAM SCHIFF from California and Senator ANDY KIM from New Jersey.

A longtime Member of the House, Senator SCHIFF is a well-known leader to many of us, admired for his thoughtfulness, his eloquence, and fierce level of democracy.

And, finally, last but certainly not least, I would like to congratulate our newest colleague from New Jersey, Senator ANDY KIM. He boasts an impressive record as a longtime leader in the House, a top national security expert and diplomat, and is the first Korean American from any State to serve in the Senate.

So to our new colleagues, we say, "Welcome." We are excited to work with you; we are ready to help you. And as you find your bearings, we urge you never to lose sight of the great responsibility you carry as a Member of this body.

NEW REPUBLICAN MAJORITY

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, now, the election is behind us. It is time to look to the future. Now begins the hard work, the important work, the solemn work, of rewarding the trust people have placed in us. Very soon, a new administration will be sworn into office alongside the new majorities in Congress. But for the first time in a long time, the next President will be someone we have seen before, President-elect Trump will return to the Oval Office.

In this first day of the 119th Congress, I would like to take a moment to talk about how Senate Democrats will approach the next 2 years.

It can be summarized like this: Democrats stand united, not because of who we fight against but because of who we are fighting for—the American people.

We are here ready to fight for the American people. We are here to fight for the working class of this country. We are here to build ladders of opportunity to the middle class.

Democrats aren't a monolith. We come from many different States and many different opinions. But we grew up in places as varied as Brooklyn, NY, and Atlanta, GA. We are from the West Coast, the East Coast, the industrial Midwest, and everywhere in-between. And we sometimes disagree, just as any tight-knit family disagrees. But Democrats are united—fiercely united—when it comes to fighting for working Americans, for working families.

In the months and years to come, Democrats will show where our values lie through our actions and words and through the policies we push in this Chamber.

Democrats are here to tackle the biggest problems that face our country. Democrats are here because we need to make housing more affordable for the millions struggling to keep a roof over their heads.

We need to make sure Americans earn higher paychecks, and keep more of their paychecks too. Democrats are here because we want to lower the cost of childcare, an outrageously high expense for too many American families who have struggled to get the best lives for themselves and their children.

Democrats are here to defend a woman's right to choose, to defend our fundamental liberties, to defend the wellspring of our democracy. We want to help our small business owners thrive and function as the engines of our economy. We want to help Americans save more money when they go to the grocery store, when they go to the pharmacy, when they pay their cable and internet bill. We want to make sure Americans aren't ripped off by giant corporations through hidden fees and predatory behavior.

Democrats stand ready to make lives better for the American people. We want to work with anyone and hold the line whenever necessary to achieve that goal.

The time to get to work is now. It is a new day, a new Congress, and Democrats stand united and ready to fight and deliver for the American people.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

JUDICIAL UNDERSTAFFING DELAYS GETTING EMERGENCIES SOLVED ACT OF 2024—VETO

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair lays before the Senate a communication of the Secretary of the Senate regarding a message from the President received during the adjournment of the Senate.

You may proceed.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT: On Monday, December 23, 2024, the President of the United States sent by messenger the attached sealed envelope addressed to the President of the Senate dated December 23, 2024, said to contain a message from the President on his objections to S. 4199, an Act to authorize additional district judges for the district courts and convert temporary judgeships, which he returns without his signature. The Senate not being in session on the day which the President delivered this message, I accepted the message at 4:45 p.m., and I now present to you the President's message, with the accompanying papers, for disposition by the Senate.

Respectfully,

SONCERIA A. BERRY,
Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the veto message on S. 4199 be considered as having been read and spread in full upon the Journal and that it be presented in the RECORD.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The veto message is ordered to be printed in the RECORD as follows:

To the Senate of the United States:

I am returning herewith without my approval S. 4199, the "Judicial Understaffing Delays Getting Emergencies Solved Act of 2024" or the "JUDGES Act of 2024."

S. 4199 seeks to hastily add judgeships with just a few weeks left in the 118th Congress. The House of Representatives's hurried action fails to resolve key questions in the legislation, especially regarding how the new judgeships are allocated, and neither the House of Representatives nor the Senate explored fully how the work of senior status judges and magistrate judges affects the need for new judgeships. The efficient and effective administration of justice requires that these questions about need and allocation be further studied and answered before we create permanent judgeships for life-tenured judges.

S. 4199 would create new judgeships in States where Senators have sought to hold open existing judicial vacancies. Those efforts to hold open vacancies suggest that concerns about judicial economy and caseload are not the true motivating force behind passage of this bill now.

Therefore, I am vetoing this bill.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN, Jr.
THE WHITE HOUSE, December 23, 2024.

AUTHORIZING THE USE OF THE ROTUNDA OF THE CAPITOL FOR THE LYING IN STATE OF THE REMAINS OF THE LATE JAMES EARL CARTER, JR., 39TH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Con. Res. 3, which is at the desk.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will report the concurrent resolution by title.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 3) authorizing the use of the rotunda of the Capitol for the lying in state of the remains of the late James Earl Carter, Jr., 39th President of the United States.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the concurrent resolution.

Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the concurrent resolution be agreed to and that the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table with no intervening motion or debate.

The concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 3) was agreed to.

(The concurrent resolution is printed in today's RECORD under "Submitted Resolutions.")

MORNING BUSINESS

U.S. SENATE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND ADMINISTRATION TRAVEL REGULATIONS

Ms. KLOBUCHAR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD updated U.S. Senate Travel Regulations.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

UNITED STATES SENATE TRAVEL REGULATIONS
ADOPTED BY THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON
RULES AND ADMINISTRATION ON DECEMBER
24, 2024

GENERAL REGULATIONS

I. Travel Authorization

A. Only those individuals having an official connection with the function involved may obligate the funds of said function.

B. Funds disbursed by the Secretary of Senate may be obligated by:

1. Members of standing, select, special, joint, policy or conference committees

2. Staff of such committees

3. Employees properly detailed to such committees from other agencies

4. Employees of Members of such committees whose salaries are disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate and employees appointed under authority of section 111 of Public Law 95-94, approved August 5, 1977, when designated as "ex officio employees" by the Chairman of such committee. Approval of the reimbursement voucher will be considered sufficient designation.

5. Senators, including staff and nominating board members. (Also individuals properly detailed to a Senator's office under authority of Section 503(b)(3) of P.L. 96-465, approved October 17, 1980.)

6. All other administrative offices, including Officers and staff.

C. An employee who transfers from one office to another on the same day he/she concludes official travel shall be considered an employee of the former office until the conclusion of that official travel.

D. All travel shall be either authorized or approved by the chairman of the committee, Senator, or Officer of the Senate to whom such authority has been properly delegated. The administrative approval authority required will be issued prior to the expenses being incurred and will specify the travel to be undertaken unless circumstances in a particular case prevent such prior approval.

E. Official Travel Authorizations: The General Services Administration, on behalf of the Committee on Rules and Administration, has contracted with several air carriers to provide discount air fares for Members, Officers, and employees of the Senate only when traveling on official business. This status is identifiable to the contracting air carriers by one of the following ways:

1. The use of a government issued travel charge card

2. The use of an "Official Travel Authorization" form which must be submitted to the air carrier prior to purchasing a ticket. These forms must be personally approved by the Senator, Committee chairman, or Officer of the Senate under whose authority the travel for official business is taking place. Payment must be made in advance by cash, credit card, check, or money order. The Official Travel Authorization forms are available in the Senate Disbursing Office.

II. Funds for Traveling Expenses

A. Individuals traveling on official business for the Senate will provide themselves with sufficient funds for all current expenses, and are expected to exercise the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise if traveling on personal business.

1. Travel Advances

(a) Advances to Committees (P.L. 81-118)

(1) Chairmen of joint committees operating from the contingent fund of the Senate, and chairmen of standing, special, select, policy, or conference committees of the Senate, may requisition an advance of the funds authorized for their respective committees.

(a) When any duty is imposed upon a committee involving expenses that are ordered to be paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate, upon vouchers to be approved by the chairman of the committee charged with such duty, the receipt of such chairman for any sum advanced to him[her] or his[her] order out of said contingent fund by the Secretary of the Senate for committee expenses not involving personal services shall be taken and passed by the accounting officers of the Government as a full and sufficient voucher; but it shall be the duty of such chairman, as soon as practicable, to furnish to the Secretary of the Senate vouchers in detail for the expenses so incurred.

(2) Upon presentation of the properly signed statutory advance voucher, the Disbursing Office will make the original advance to the chairman or his/her representative. This advance may be in the form of a check, or in cash, receipted for on the voucher by the person receiving the advance. Under no circumstances are advances to be used for the payment of salaries or obligations, other than petty cash transactions of the committee.

(3) In no case shall a cash advance be paid more than seven (7) calendar days prior to the commencement of official travel. In no case shall an advance in the form of a check be paid more than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the commencement of official travel. Requests for advances in the form of a check should be received by the Senate Disbursing Office no less than five (5) calendar days prior to the commencement of official travel. The amount of the advance then becomes the responsibility of the individual receiving the advance, in that he/she must return the unexpended amount advanced before or shortly after the expiration of the authority under which these funds were obtained.

(Regulations Governing Cash Advances for Official Senate Travel adopted by the Committee on Rules and Administration, effective July 23, 1987, pursuant to S. Res. 258, October 1, 1987, as applicable to Senate committees)

(4) Travel advances shall be made prior to the commencement of official travel in the form of cash, direct deposit, or check. Travel advance requests shall be signed by the Committee Chairman and a staff person designated with signature authority.

(5) Cash: Advances for travel in the form of cash shall be picked up only in the Senate Disbursing Office and will be issued only to the person traveling (photo ID required), with exceptions being made for Members and elected Officers of the Senate. The traveler (or the individual receiving the advance in the case of a travel advance for a Member or elected Officer of the Senate) shall sign the travel advance form to acknowledge receipt of the cash.

(6) In those cases when a travel advance has been paid, every effort should be made by the office in question to submit to the Senate Disbursing Office a corresponding travel voucher within twenty-one (21) days of the conclusion of such official travel.

(7) Travel advances for official Senate travel shall be repaid within 30 days after completion of travel. Anyone with an outstanding advance at the end of the 30 day period will be notified by the Disbursing Office that they must repay within 15 days, or their salary may be garnished in order to satisfy their indebtedness to the Federal government.

(8) In those cases when a travel advance has been paid for a scheduled trip which prior to commencement is canceled or postponed indefinitely, the traveler should immediately return the travel advance to the Senate Disbursing Office.

(9) No more than two (2) travel advances per traveler may be outstanding at any one time.

(10) The amount authorized for each travel advance should not exceed the estimated total of official out-of-pocket expenses for the trip in question. The minimum travel advance that can be authorized for the official travel expenses of a Committee Chairman and his/her staff is $200.

(11) The aggregate total of travel advances for committees shall not exceed $5,000, unless otherwise authorized by prior approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

(b) Advances to Senators and their staffs (2 U.S.C. 58(j))

(Regulations for Travel Advances for Senators and Their Staffs adopted by the Committee on Rules and Administration, effective April 20, 1983, pursuant to P.L. 97-276)

(1) Travel advances from a Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account must be authorized by that Senator for himself/herself as well as for his/her staff. Staff is defined as those individuals whose salaries are funded from the Senator's account. An employee in the Office of the President Pro Tempore, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader, the Minority Whip, the Secretary for the Conference of the Majority, or the Secretary for the Conference of the Minority shall be considered an employee in the office of the Senator holding such office.

(2) Advances shall only be used to defray official travel expenses . . .

(3) Travel advances shall be made prior to the commencement of official travel in the form of cash, direct deposit, or check. Travel advance requests shall be signed by the Member and a staff person designated with signature authority.

(4) Cash: Advances in the form of cash shall be picked up only in the Senate Disbursing Office and will be issued only to the person traveling (photo ID required), with exceptions being made for Members and elected Officers of the Senate. The traveler (or the individual receiving the advance in the case of a travel advance for a Member or elected Officer of the Senate) will sign the travel advance form to acknowledge receipt of the cash.

(1) A centrally billed account may be established through the approved Senate vendor (currently the Combined Airlines Ticket Office (CATO)) and will be charged against an account number issued to each designated office; there are no charge cards issued for such an account.

A. Reimbursement of foreign travel expenses is not authorized from the contingent fund of Member offices.

B. Committees, including all standing, select, and special committees of the Senate and all joint committees of the Congress whose funds are disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate, are authorized

C. funds for foreign travel from their committee budget and through S. Res. 179, 95-1, notwithstanding Congressional Delegations which are authorized foreign travel funds under the authority of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (22 U.S.C. 1754).

D. (Restrictions)—amendment to Rule XXXIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, pursuant to S. Res. 80, agreed to January 28, 1987.

No Member, Officer, or employee shall use any funds furnished to him[her] to defray ordinary and necessary expenses of foreign travel for any purpose other than the purpose or purposes for which such funds were furnished.

3. A per diem allowance provided a Member, Officer, or employee in connection with foreign travel shall be used solely for lodging, food, and related expenses and it is the responsibility of the Member, Officer, or employee receiving such an allowance to return to the United States Government that portion of the allowance received which is not actually used for necessary lodging, food, and related expenses.

IV. Reimbursable Expenses

Travel expenses (i.e., transportation, lodging, meals and incidental expenses) which will be reimbursed are limited to those expenses essential to the transaction of official business while away from the official duty station as well as for Members while on official business in Washington, D.C.

A. Member Duty Station(s): The official duty station of Senate Members shall be considered to be either their usual place of residence in their home state or the metropolitan area of Washington, D.C.

1. Each Member shall certify in writing at the beginning of each Congress to the Senate Disbursing Office his/her usual place of residence in the home state; such certification document shall include a statement that the Senator has read and agrees to the pertinent travel regulations on permissible reimbursements.

2. For purposes of this provision, "usual place of residence" in the home state shall encompass the area within thirty-five (35) miles of the residence (by the most direct route). If a Member has no "usual place of residence" in his/her home state, he/she may designate a "voting residence," or any other "legal residence," pursuant to state law (including the area within thirty-five (35) miles of such residence), as his/her duty station.

B. Officer and Employee Duty Station

1. In the case of an officer or employee, reimbursement for official travel expenses other than interdepartmental transportation shall be made only for trips which begin and end in Washington, D.C., or, in the case of an employee assigned to an office of a Senator in the Senator's home state, on trips which begin and end at the place where such office is located.

2. Travel may begin and/or end at the Senate traveler's residence when such deviation from the duty station locale is more advantageous to the government.

3. For purposes of these regulations, the "duty station" shall encompass the area within thirty five (35) miles from where the Senator's home state office or designated duty station is located.

C. No employee of the Senate, relative or supervisor of the employee may directly benefit monetarily from the expenditure of appropriated funds which reimburse expenses associated with official Senate travel. Therefore, reimbursements are not permitted for mortgage payments, or rental fees associated with any type of leasehold interest.

D. A duty station for employees, other than Washington, D.C., may be designated by Members, Committee Chairmen, and Officers of the Senate upon written designation of such station to the Senate Disbursing Office. Such designation shall include a statement that the Member or Officer has read and agrees to the pertinent travel regulations on permissible reimbursements. The duty station may be the city of the office location or the city of residence.

E. For purposes of these regulations, the metropolitan area of Washington, D.C., shall be defined as follows:

1. The District of Columbia
2. Maryland Counties of
 - (a) Charles
 - (b) Montgomery
 - (c) Prince Georges
3. Virginia Counties of
 - (a) Arlington
 - (b) Fairfax
 - (c) Loudoun
 - (d) Prince William
4. Virginia Cities of
 - (a) Alexandria

 - (e) Manassas Park
5. Airport locations of
 - (a) Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport
 - (b) Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport

(c) Washington Dulles International Airport

F. When the legislative business of the Senate requires that a Member be present, then the round trip actual transportation expenses incurred in traveling from the city within the United States where the Member is located to Washington, D.C., may be reimbursed from official Senate funds.

G. Any deviation from this policy will be considered on a case by case basis upon the written request to, and approval from, the Committee on Rules and Administration.

V. Travel Expense Reimbursement Vouchers

A. All persons authorized to travel on official business for the Senate should keep a memorandum of expenditures properly chargeable to the Senate, noting each item at the time the expense is incurred, together with the date, and the information thus accumulated should be made available for the proper preparation of travel vouchers which must be itemized on an official expense summary report and stated in accordance with these regulations. The official expense summary report form is available at the Senate Disbursing Office or through the Senate Intranet.

B. Members seeking reimbursement for expenses while on official business in Washington, D.C., shall submit a monthly official expense summary report and receipts for expenses incurred, with a signature certifying that they have incurred the eligible expenses for which they seek reimbursement while on official business in Washington, D.C. Reimbursements shall not exceed the daily rate for meals, incidentals, and lodging as determined by the General Services Administration for the Washington, D.C., area.

C. Computer generated vouchers should be submitted with a signed original. Every travel voucher must show in the space provided for such information on the voucher form the dates of travel, the official travel itinerary, the value of the transportation, per diem expenses, incidental expenses, and conference/training fees incurred.

D. Travel vouchers must be supported by receipts for expenses in excess of $50. In addition, the Committee on Rules and Administration reserves the right to request additional clarification and/or certification upon the audit of any expense seeking reimbursement from the contingent fund of the Senate regardless of the expense amount.

E. When presented independently, credit card receipts such as VISA, MASTER CHARGE, or DINERS CLUB, etc. are not acceptable documentation for lodging. If a hotel bill is lost or misplaced, then the credit card receipt accompanied by a certifying letter from the traveler to the Financial Clerk of the Senate will be considered necessary documentation. Such letter must itemize the total expenses in support of the credit card receipt.

TRANSPORTATION EXPENSES

I. Common Carrier Transportation and Accommodations

A. Transportation includes all necessary official travel on railroads, airlines, helicopters, public transportation, taxicabs or other mode of transportation hired for a fee, and other usual means of conveyance. Transportation may include fares and such expenses incidental to transportation such as but not limited to baggage transfer. When a claim is made for common carrier transportation obtained with cash, the travel voucher must show the amount spent, including Federal transportation tax, and the mode of transportation used.

1. Train Accommodations

(a) Sleeping-car accommodations: The lowest first class sleeping accommodations available shall be allowed when night travel is involved. When practicable, through sleeping accommodations should be obtained in all cases where more economical to the Senate.

(b) Parlor-car and coach accommodations: One seat in a sleeping or parlor car will be allowed. Where adequate coach accommodations are available, coach accommodations should be used to the maximum extent possible, on the basis of advantage to the Senate, suitability and convenience to the traveler, and nature of the business involved.

2. Airplane Accommodations

(a) First-class and air-coach accommodations: It is the policy of the Senate that persons who use commercial air carriers for transportation on official business shall use less than first-class accommodations instead of those designated first-class with due regard to efficient conduct of Senate business and the travelers' convenience, safety, and comfort.

(b) Use of United States-flag air carriers: All official air travel shall be performed on United States-flag air carriers except where travel on other aircraft (1) is essential to the official business concerned, or (2) is necessary to avoid unreasonable delay, expense, or inconvenience.

B. Change in Travel Plans: When a traveler finds he/she will not use accommodations which have been reserved for him/her, he/she must release them within the time limits specified by the carriers. Likewise, where transportation service furnished is inferior to that called for by a ticket or where a journey is terminated short of the destination specified, the traveler must report such facts to the proper official. Failure of travelers to take such action may subject them to liability for any resulting losses.

1. "No show" charges, if incurred by Members or staff personnel in connection with official Senate travel, shall not be considered payable or reimbursable from the contingent fund of the Senate.

2. Senate travelers exercising proper prudence can make timely cancellations when necessary in order to avoid "no show" assessments.

3. A Member shall be permitted to make more than one reservation on scheduled flights with participating airlines when such action assists the Member in conducting his/her official business.

C. Compensation Packages: In the event that a Senate traveler is denied passage or gives up his/her reservation due to overbooking on transportation for which he/she held a reservation and this results in a payment of any rebate, this payment shall not be considered as a personal receipt by the traveler, but rather as a payment to the Senate, the agency for which and at whose expense the travel is being performed.

1. Such payments shall be submitted to the appropriate individual for the proper disposition when the traveler submits his/her expense account.

2. Through fares, special fares, commutation fares, excursion, and reduced-rate round trip fares should be used for official travel when it can be determined prior to the start of a trip that any such type of service is practical and economical to the Senate.

3. Round-trip tickets should be secured only when, on the basis of the journey as planned, it is known or can be reasonably anticipated that such tickets will be utilized.

D. Ticket Preparation Fees: Each Chairman, Senator, or Officer of the Senate may, at his/her discretion, authorize in extenuating circumstances the reimbursement of penalty fees associated with the cancellation of through fares, special fares, commutation fares, excursion, reduced-rate round trip fares and fees for travel arrangements, provided that reimbursement of such fees does not exceed the rates prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

E. Frequent Flyer Miles: Travel promotional awards (e.g. free travel, travel discounts, upgrade certificates, coupons, frequent flyer miles, access to carrier club facilities, and other similar travel promotional items) obtained by a Member, officer or employee of the Senate while on official travel may be utilized for personal use at the discretion of the Member or officer pursuant to this section.

1. Travel Awards may be retained and used at the sole discretion of the Member or officer only if the Travel Awards are obtained under the same terms and conditions as those offered to the general public and no favorable treatment is extended on the basis of the Member, officer or employee's position with the Federal Government.

2. Members, officers and employees may only retain Travel Awards for personal use when such Travel Awards have been obtained at no additional cost to the Federal Government. It should be noted that any fees assessed in connection with the use of Travel Awards shall be considered a personal expense of the Member, officer or employee and under no circumstances shall be paid for or reimbursed from official funds.

3. Although this section permits Members, officers and employees of the Senate to use Travel Awards at the discretion of the Member or officer, the Committee encourages the use of such Travel Awards (whenever practicable) to offset the cost of future official travel.

F. Indirect Travel: In case a person, for his/her own convenience, travels by an indirect route or interrupts travel by direct route, the extra expense will be borne by the traveler. Reimbursement for expenses shall be allowed only on such charges as would have been incurred by the official direct route. Personal travel should be noted on the traveler's expense summary report when it interrupts official travel.

G. Miscellaneous Transportation During Official Travel: The cost of public transportation, taxicabs or other mode of transportation hired for a fee when used in connection with official travel, will be allowed as an official transportation expense.

H. Dual Purpose Travel: Dual purpose travel occurs when a Senator, staffer, or other official traveler conducts both Senatorial office business and Committee office business during the same trip. The initial point at which official business is conducted will determine the fund which will be charged for travel expenses from and to Washington, D.C. Examples include:

1. If committee business is conducted at the first stop in the trip, travel expenses from Washington, D.C., to said point and return will be chargeable to the committee's funds. Additional travel expenses from said point to other points in the United States, incurred by reason of conducting senatorial business, will be charged to the Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account.

2. If senatorial business is conducted at the first stop in the trip, travel expenses from Washington, D.C., to said point and return will be chargeable to the Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account. Committee funds will be charged with any additional travel expenses incurred for the purpose of performing committee business.

I. Interrupted Travel: If a traveler interrupts official travel for personal business, the traveler may be reimbursed for transportation expenses incurred which are less than or equal to the amount the traveler would have been reimbursed had he/she not interrupted travel for personal business. Likewise, if a traveler departs from or returns to a city other than the traveler's duty station or residence for personal business, then the traveler may be reimbursed for transportation expenses incurred which are less than or equal to the amount the traveler would have been reimbursed had the witness departed from and returned to his/her duty station or residence.

II. Baggage

A. The term "baggage" as used in these regulations means Senate property and personal property of the traveler necessary for the purposes of the official travel.

B. Baggage in excess of the weight or of size greater than carried free by transportation companies will be classed as excess baggage. Where air-coach or air-tourist accommodations are used, transportation of baggage up to the weight carried free on first-class service is authorized without charge to the traveler; otherwise excess baggage charges will be an allowable expense.

C. Necessary charges for the transfer of baggage will be allowed. Charges for the storage of baggage will be allowed when such storage was solely on account of official business. Charges for porters and checking baggage at transportation terminals will be allowed.

III. Use of Conveyances: When authorized by the employing Senator, Chairman, or Officer of the Senate, certain conveyances may be used when traveling on official Senate business. Specific types of conveyances are privately owned, special, and private airplane.

A. Privately Owned

1. Chairmen of committees, Senators, Officers of the Senate, and employees, regardless of subsistence status and hours of travel, shall, whenever such mode of transportation is authorized or approved as more advantageous to the Senate, be paid the appropriate mileage allowance in lieu of actual expenses of transportation. This amount should not exceed the maximum amount authorized by statute for use of privately owned motorcycles, automobiles, or airplanes, when engaged in official business within or outside their designated duty stations. It is the responsibility of the office to fix such rates, within the maximum, as will most nearly compensate the traveler for necessary expenses.

2. In addition to the mileage allowance there may be allowed reimbursement for the actual cost of automobile parking fees (except parking fees associated with commuting); ferry fees; bridge, road, and tunnel costs; and airplane landing and tie-down fees.

3. When transportation is authorized or approved for motorcycles or automobiles, mileage between points traveled shall be certified by the traveler. Such mileage should be in accordance with the Standard Highway Mileage Guide. Any substantial deviations shall be explained on the reimbursement voucher.

4. In lieu of the use of taxicab, payment on a mileage basis at a rate not to exceed the maximum amount authorized by statute will be allowed for the round-trip mileage of a privately owned vehicle used in connection with an employee going from either his/her place of abode or place of business to a terminal or from a terminal to either his/her place of abode or place of business: Provided, that the amount of reimbursement for round-trip mileage shall not in either instance exceed the taxicab fare for a one-way trip between such applicable points, notwithstanding the obligations of reasonable schedules.

5. Parking Fees: Parking fees for privately owned vehicles may be incurred in the duty station when the traveler is engaged in interdepartmental transportation or when the traveler is leaving their duty station and entering into a travel status. The fee for parking a vehicle at a common carrier terminal, or other parking area, while the traveler is away from his/her official station, will be allowed only to the extent that the fee, plus the allowable mileage reimbursement, to and from the terminal or other parking area, does not exceed the estimated cost for use of a taxicab to and from the terminal.

6. Mileage for use of privately owned airplanes shall be certified from airway charts issued by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Department of Commerce, and will be reported on the reimbursement voucher and used in computing payment. If a detour was necessary due to adverse weather, mechanical difficulty, or other unusual conditions, the additional air mileage may be included in the mileage reported on the reimbursement voucher and, if included, it must be explained.

7. Mileage shall be payable to only one of two or more employees traveling together on the same trip and in the same vehicle, but no deduction shall be made from the mileage otherwise payable to the employee entitled thereto by reason of the fact that other passengers (whether or not Senate employees) may travel with him/her and contribute in defraying the operating expenses. The names of Senate Members or employees accompanying the traveler must be stated on the travel voucher.

8. When damages to a privately owned vehicle occur due to the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any Member, Officer, or employee of the Senate while acting within the scope of his/her employment, relief may be sought under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

B. Special

1. General:

(a) The hire of boat, automobile, aircraft, or other conveyance will be allowed if authorized or approved as advantageous to the Senate whenever the Member or employee is engaged on official business outside his/her designated duty station.

(b) Where two or more persons travel together by means of such special conveyance, that fact, together with the names of those accompanying him/her, must be stated by each traveler on his/her travel voucher and the aggregate cost reimbursable will be subject to the limitation stated above.

(c) If the hire of a special conveyance includes payment by the traveler of the incidental expenses of gasoline or oil, rent of garage, hangar, or boathouse, subsistence of operator, ferriage, tolls, operator waiting time, charges for returning conveyances to the original point of hire, etc., the same should be first paid, if practicable, by the person furnishing the accommodation, or his/her operator, and itemized in the bill.

2. Rental Cars:

(a) Reimbursements for rental of special conveyances will be limited to the cost applicable to a conveyance of a size necessary for a single traveler regardless of the number of authorized travelers transported by said vehicle, unless the use of a larger class vehicle on a shared cost basis is specifically approved in advance by the Committee on Rules and Administration, or the form 'Request for a Waiver of the Travel Regulations' is submitted with the voucher, and found in order upon audit by the Rules Committee.

(b) For administrative purposes, reimbursement may be payable to only one of two or more Senate travelers traveling together on the same trip and in the same vehicle.

(c) Government Rate: In connection with the rental of an automobile for the use in conducting Senate business it should be noted that the Defense Travel Management Office (DTMO), a division of the Department of Defense, arranges rental car agreements for the government.

(1) These negotiated car rental rates are for federal employees traveling on official business and include unlimited mileage, plus full comprehensive and collision coverage (CDW) on rented vehicles at no cost to the traveler.

(2) For guidance on rate structure and the companies participating in these rate agreements, call the approved Senate vendor (currently the Combined Airline Ticket Office (CATO)).

(3) Individuals traveling on behalf of the United States Senate should use these companies to the maximum extent possible since these agreements provide full coverage with no extra fee. The Senate will not pay for separate insurance charges; therefore, any individuals who choose to use non-participatory car rental agencies may be personally responsible for any damages or liability accrued while on official Senate business.

(d) Insurance: In connection with the rental of vehicles from commercial sources, the Senate will not pay or reimburse for the cost of the loss/damage waiver (LDW), collision damage waiver (CDW) or collision damage insurance available in commercial rental contracts for an extra fee.

(1) The waiver or insurance referred to is the type offered a renter to release him/her from liability for damage to the rented vehicle in amounts up to the amount deductible on the insurance included as part of the rental contract without additional charge.

(2) The cost of personal accident insurance is a personal expense and is not reimbursable.

(3) Accidents While On Official Travel: Collision damage to a rented vehicle, for which the traveler is liable while on official business, will be considered an official travel expense of the Senate up to the deductible amount contained in the rental contract. Such claims shall be considered by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate on a case by case basis and, when authorized, settled from the contingent fund of the Senate under the line item—Reserve for Contingencies. This is consistent with the long-standing policy of the government to self-insure its own risks of loss or damage to government property and the liability of government employees for actions within the scope of their official duties.

(4) However, when damages to a rented vehicle occurs due to the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any Member, Officer, or employee of the Senate while acting within the scope of his/her employment, relief may be sought under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

3. Charter Aircraft:

(a) Reimbursements for charter aircraft will be limited to the charges for a twin-engine, six seat plane, or comparable aircraft. Charter of aircraft may be allowed notwithstanding the availability of commercial facilities, if such commercial facilities are not such that reasonable schedules may be kept. When charter aircraft is used, an explanation and detail of the size of the aircraft, i.e., seating capacity and number of engines, shall be provided on the face of the voucher.

(b) In the event charter facilities are not available at the point of departure, reimbursement for charter from nearest point of such availability to the destination and return may be allowed.

(c) When a charter aircraft larger than a twin-engine, six seat plane is used, the form 'Request for a Waiver of the Travel Regulations' is submitted with the voucher.

C. Corporate/Private Aircraft: Reimbursement of official expenses for the use of a corporate or private aircraft is allowable from the contingent fund of the Senate provided the traveler complies with the prohibitions, restrictions, and authorizations specified in these regulations. Moreover, pursuant to the Ethics Committee Interpretive Ruling 444, excess campaign funds may be used to defray official expenses consistent with the regulations promulgated by the Federal Election Commission.

1. An amendment to Rule XXXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, paragraph 1(c)(1)(C), enacted September 14, 2007, pursuant to P.L. 110-81, states:

(C)(i) Fair market value for a flight on an aircraft described in item (ii) shall be the pro rata share of the fair market value of the normal and usual charter fare or rental charge for a comparable plane of comparable size, as determined by dividing such cost by the number of Members, officers, or employees of Congress on the flight.

(ii) A flight on an aircraft described in this item is any flight on an aircraft that is not—

(I) operated or paid for by an air carrier or commercial operator certificated by the Federal Aviation Administration and required to be conducted under air carrier safety rules; or

(II) in the case of travel which is abroad, an air carrier or commercial operator certificated by an appropriate foreign civil aviation authority and the flight is required to be conducted under air carrier safety rules.

(iii) This subclause shall not apply to an aircraft owned or leased by a governmental entity or by a Member of Congress or a Member's immediate family member (including an aircraft owned by an entity that is not a public corporation in which the Member or Member's immediate family member has an ownership interest), provided that the Member does not use the aircraft anymore than the Member's or immediate family member's proportionate share of ownership allows.

2. Prior to the commencement of official travel on a corporate or private aircraft, the traveler or the traveler's designee shall contact a charter company in the departure or destination city to request a written estimate of the cost of a flight between the two cities on a similar aircraft of comparable size being provided by the corporation or private entity.

(a) For example, if a Learjet 45 XR aircraft is being provided by the corporation or private entity, the traveler or the traveler's designee shall request a written estimate of the cost to charter a Learjet 45 XR aircraft from the departure city to the destination city.

(b) If no charter company is located in either the departure or destination city which rents a similar aircraft of comparable size, a charter company nearest either the destination or departure city which does so shall be contacted for a written estimate.

3. Following the completion of official travel on a corporate or private aircraft, reimbursement for related expenses may be processed on direct pay vouchers payable to each individual traveler, to the corporation or private entity, or to the travel charge card vendor. The written estimate received from the charter company shall be attached to the voucher for processing.

IV. Interdepartmental Transportation

A. The reimbursement for interdepartmental transportation is authorized as a travel expense pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 58(e) but only for the incidental transportation expenses incurred within the duty station in the course of conducting official Senate business. Such reimbursement would include the following expenses:

1. Mileage when using a privately owned vehicle

2. Public transportation, taxicab, parking, auto rental, or other mode of transportation hired for a fee.

B. Pursuant to S. Res. 294, agreed to April 29, 1980, section 2(1), reimbursements and payments shall not be made for commuting expenses, including parking fees incurred in commuting.

Subsistence Expenses

I. Per Diem Expenses

A. Allowance

1. Per diem expenses include all charges for meals, lodging, personal use of room during daytime, baths, all fees and tips to waiters, porters, baggagemen, bell boys, hotel servants, dining room stewards and others on vessels, laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing, and fans in rooms. The term "lodging" does not include accommodations on airplanes or trains, and these expenses are not subsistence expenses.

(a) Laundry: Laundry expenses must be incurred during the mid-way point of a trip. Reimbursable laundry expenses are for the refreshing of clothing during a trip, but not the maintenance of the clothing.

(b) Meals: Reimbursable expenses incurred for meals while on official travel include meals and tips for the traveler only and may not include alcohol.

2. Per diem expenses will not be allowed an employee at his/her permanent duty station and will be allowed only when associated with round trip travel outside his/her permanent duty station.

(a) Training: Meals in the duty station are only reimbursable when they are incurred during a training session. If the cost of the meal is included in the training session, then a meal certification form should be included with the voucher. The Committee on Rules and Administration will consider these on a case by case basis. Meal certification forms are available at the Disbursing Office or on the Senate intranet.

(1) Training is defined as a planned, prepared, and coordinated program, course, curriculum, subject, system, or routine of instruction or education, in scientific, professional or technical fields which are or will be directly related to the performance by the employee of official duties for the Senate, in order to increase the knowledge, proficiency, ability, skill and qualifications of the employee in the performance of official duties.

(2) Meetings in the duty station where meals are served, such as but not limited to Chamber of Commerce monthly meetings do not constitute training. Therefore, the meals associated with these meetings are not an authorized reimbursable expense.

3. In any case where the employee's tour of travel requires more than two months' stay at a temporary duty station, consideration should be given to either a change in official station or a reduction in the per diem allowance.

4. Where for a traveler's personal convenience/business there is an interruption of travel or deviation from the direct route, the per diem expenses allowed will not exceed that which would have been incurred on uninterrupted travel by a usually traveled route and the time of departure from and return to official business shall be stated on the voucher.

5. Per diem expenses will be allowed through the time the traveler departs on personal business and will be recommenced at the time he/she returns to official business. Such dates and times shall be stated on the voucher.

B. Rates

1. The per diem allowances provided in these regulations represent the maximum allowance, not the minimum. It is the responsibility of each office to see that travelers are reimbursed only such per diem expenses as are justified by the circumstances affecting the travel. Maximum rates for subsistence expenses are established by the General

Services Administration and are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Maximum per diem rates for Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and possessions of the United States are established by the Department of Defense and are also published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In addition, per diem rates for foreign countries are established by the Department of State and are published in the document titled, "Maximum Travel Per Diem for Foreign Areas."

(a) Per diem expenses reimbursable to a Member or employee of the Senate in connection with official travel within the continental United States shall be made on the basis of actual expenses incurred, but not to exceed the maximum rate prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Administration for each day spent in a travel status. Any portion of a day while in a travel status shall be considered a full day for purposes of per diem entitlement.

(b) When travel begins or ends at a point in the continental United States, the maximum per diem rate allowable for the portion of travel between such place and the place of entry or exit in the continental United States shall be the maximum rate prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Administration for travel within the continental United States. However, the quarter day in which travel begins, in coming from, or ends, in going to, a point outside the continental United States may be paid at the rate applicable to said point, if higher.

(c) In traveling between localities outside the continental United States, the per diem rate allowed at the locality from which travel is performed shall continue through the quarter day in which the traveler arrives at his/her destination: Provided, that if such rate is not commensurate with the expenses incurred, the per diem rate of the destination locality may be allowed for the quarter day of arrival.

(d) Ship travel time shall be allowed at not to exceed the maximum per diem rate prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Administration for travel within the continental United States.

C. Computations

1. The date of departure from, and arrival at, the official station or other point where official travel begins and ends, must be shown on the travel voucher. Other points visited should be shown on the voucher but date of arrival and departure at these points need not be shown.

2. For computing per diem allowances official travel begins at the time the traveler leaves his/her home, office, or other point of departure and ends when the traveler returns to his/her home, office, or other point at the conclusion of his/her trip.

(a) The maximum allowable per diem for an official trip is computed by multiplying the number of days on official travel, beginning with the departure date, by the maximum daily rate as prescribed by the Committee on Rules and Administration. If the maximum daily rate for a traveler's destination is higher than the prescribed daily rate, then the form Request for a Waiver of the Travel Regulations must be submitted with the voucher showing the maximum daily rate for that location and found in order upon audit by the Rules Committee.

(b) Total per diem for an official trip includes lodging expenses (excluding taxes), meals (including taxes and tips), and other per diem expenses as defined by these regulations.

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES

I. Periodicals: Periodicals purchased while in a travel status should be limited to newspapers and news magazines necessary to stay informed on issues directly related to Senate business.

II. Traveler's Checks/Money Orders: The service fee for preparation of traveler's checks or money orders for use during official travel is allowable.

III. Communications

A. Communication services such as telephone, telegraph, and faxes, may be used on official business when such expeditious means of communications is essential. Government-owned facilities should be used, if practical. If not available, the cheapest practical class of commercial service should be used.

B. Additionally, one personal telephone call will be reimbursed for each day that a Senator or staff member is in a travel status. The calls may not exceed an average of five minutes a day, and cannot be reimbursed at a rate higher than $5.00 without itemized documentation.

IV. Stationery: Stationery items such as pens, paper, batteries, etc. which are necessary to conduct official Senate business while in a travel status are authorized.

V. Conference Center/Meeting Room Reservations: The fee for the reservation of a meeting room, conference room, or business center while on official travel is allowable.

VI. Other: This category would be used (with full explanation on the Expense Summary Report for Travel) to disclose any expense which would occur incidentally while on official travel, and for which there is no other expense category, i.e., interpreting services, hotel taxes, baggage cart rental, etc.

CONFERENCE AND TRAINING FEES

I. Training of Senators' Office Staff: The Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account is available to defray the fees associated with the attendance by the Senator or the Senator's employees at conferences, seminars, briefings, or classes which are or will be directly related to the performance of official duties.

A. When such fees (actual or reduced) are less than or equal to $500, have a time duration of not more than five (5) days, and have been asked to be waived or reduced for Government participation, reimbursement shall be made as an official travel expense. However, if the fee or time duration for meetings is in excess of the aforementioned, reimbursement shall be made as a non-travel expense.

B. Reimbursement shall not be allowed for tuition or fees associated with classes attended to earn credits towards an advanced degree or certification.

C. The costs of meals that are considered an integral, mandatory and non-separable element of the conference, seminar, briefing, or class will be allowed as part of the attendance fee when certified by the registrant. The meal certification form, which must accompany the reimbursement voucher, is available in the Disbursing Office or through the Senate Intranet.

II. Training of Committee Employees: Section 202(j) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 provides for the expenditure of funds available to standing committees of the Senate for the training of professional staff personnel under certain conditions. It is the responsibility of each committee to set aside funds within its annual funding resolution to cover the expenses of such training.

A. Prior approval for attendance by professional staff at seminars, briefings, conferences, etc., as well as committee funds earmarked for training, will not be required when all of the following conditions are met:

1. The sponsoring organization has been asked to waive or reduce the fee for Government participation.

2. The fee involved (actual or reduced) is not in excess of $500.

3. The duration of the meeting does not exceed five (5) days.

B. When such fees are less than or equal to $500, have a time duration of not more than five (5) days, and have been requested to be waived or reduced for Government participation, reimbursement shall be made as a non-training, official travel expense. However, if the fee or time duration for meetings is in excess of the aforementioned, reimbursement shall be made as an official training expense. Reimbursement shall not be allowed for tuition or fees associated with classes attended to earn credits towards an advanced degree or certification.

C. If the fee or time duration for meetings is in excess of the aforementioned, advance approval by the Committee on Rules and Administration must be sought. Training requests should be received sufficiently in advance of the training to permit appropriate consideration by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

D. The costs of meals that are considered an integral, mandatory, and non-separable element of the conference, seminar, briefing, or class will be allowed as part of the attendance fee when certified by the registrant. The meal certification forms which must accompany the reimbursement voucher are available in the Disbursing Office or through the Senate Intranet.

III. Training of Administrative Offices Staff: The administrative approval of the voucher is the only approval required by the Committee on Rules and Administration. Training expenses of staff shall be limited to those fees associated with the attendance by staff at conferences, seminars, briefings, or classes which are or will be directly related to the performance of official duties. However, reimbursement shall not be allowed for tuition or fees associated with classes attended to earn credits towards an advanced degree or certification.

SPECIAL EVENTS

I. Retreats: Reimbursement of official travel expenses for office staff retreats is allowable from the contingent fund provided they follow the restrictions and authorizations in these regulations. Reimbursement of expenses for meeting rooms and equipment used during the retreat also is allowable. The vouchers for retreat expenses should be noted as retreat vouchers.

A. Discussion of Interpretative Ruling of the Select Committee on Ethics, No. 444, issued February 14, 2002

An office retreat may be paid for with either or both official funds (with Rules Committee approval) or principal campaign committee funds. Private parties may not pay expenses incurred in connection with an office retreat.

Campaign workers may attend, at campaign expense, office retreats if their purpose in attending is to engage in official activities, such as providing feedback from constituents on legislative or representational matters.

B. When processing direct pay vouchers payable either to each individual traveler or to the vendor providing the retreat accommodations, prior approval by the Committee on Rules and Administration is not required. Retreat expenses, including but not limited to per diem, may be charged to the office's official centrally billed government travel charge card and paid on direct vouchers to the charge card vendor. Any deviation from this policy will be considered on a case by case basis upon the written request to, and approval from, the Committee on Rules and Administration.

C. Spreadsheet of Expenses

1. The Member office, Committee, or Administrative office, must attach to the retreat voucher(s) a spreadsheet detailing each day of the retreat broken out by breakfast, lunch, dinner, and lodging for each traveler attending the retreat.

2. For each traveler, the spreadsheet should list his/her duty station, additional per diem expenses incurred outside of the retreat, and any other retreat attendee the traveler shared a room with during the retreat. Any non-staff members attending the retreat also should be detailed on the spreadsheet. The Waiver of the Travel Regulations form does not need to be attached to retreat voucher(s) for the sharing of rooms.

3. The per diem expenses for staff members attending a retreat within their duty station are not reimbursable but should be detailed on the spreadsheet. All expenses for non-staff members attending the retreat are not reimbursable, but their attendance at the retreat must be taken into account when computing a per traveler cost on the spreadsheet.

4. An example of this spreadsheet can be found on the Senate Intranet.

II. Funerals: Members who represent the Senate at the funeral of a Member or former member may be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses of their attendance, pursuant to S. Res. 263, agreed to July 30, 1998. Additionally, the actual and necessary expenses of a committee appointed to represent the Senate at the funeral of a deceased Member or former Member may be reimbursed pursuant to S. Res. 458, agreed to October 4, 1984.

A. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 58e, which authorizes reimbursement for travel while on official business within the United States, members and their staff may be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses of attending funerals within their home state only.

B. Examples of funerals that may be considered official business include, but are not limited to, funerals for military service members, first responders, or public officials from the Member's state.

SENATORS' OFFICE STAFF

I. Legislative Authority (2 U.S.C. 58(e), as amended)

(e) Subject to and in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Committee on Rules and Administration of the Senate, a Senator and the employees in his office shall be reimbursed under this section for travel expenses incurred by the Senator or employee while traveling on official business within the United States. The term 'travel expenses' includes actual transportation expenses, essential travel-related expenses, and, where applicable, per diem expenses (but not in excess of actual expenses). A Senator or an employee of the Senator shall not be reimbursed for any travel expenses (other than actual transportation expenses) for any travel occurring during the sixty days immediately before the date of any primary or general election (whether regular, special, or runoff) in which the Senator is a candidate for public office (within the meaning of section 301(b) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971), unless his candidacy in such election is uncontested. For purposes of this subsection and subsection 2(a)(6) of this section, an employee in the Office of the President Pro Tempore, Deputy President Pro Tempore, Majority Leader, Minority Leader, Majority Whip, Minority Whip, Secretary of the Conference of the Majority, or Secretary of the Conference of the Minority shall be considered to be an employee in the office of the Senator holding such office.

Section 3. Official expenses of $50 or less must either be documented or must be itemized in sufficient detail so as to leave no doubt of the identity of, and the amount spent for, each item. Items of a similar nature may be grouped together in one total on a voucher, but must be itemized individually on a supporting itemization sheet.

Section 4. Travel expenses shall be subject to the same documentation requirements as other official expenses, with the following exceptions:

Vouchers for the reimbursement of official travel expenses to a Senator, employee, detailee pursuant to section 503(b)(3) of PL 96-465, or individual serving on a nominee recommendation panel pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 58(h) shall be accompanied by an "Expense Summary Report—Travel" signed by such person. Vouchers for the reimbursement to any such individual for official expenses other than travel expenses shall be accompanied by an "Expense Summary Report—Non-Travel" signed by such person.

IV. Witnesses Appearing Before the Senate (committees only)

A. The authorized transportation expenses incurred and associated with a witness appearing before the Senate at a designated place of examination pursuant to S. Res. 259, agreed to August 5, 1987, will be those necessary transportation expenses incurred in traveling from the witness' place of residence to the site of the Senate examination and the necessary transportation expenses incurred in returning the witness to his/her residence.

B. If a witness departs from a city other than the witness' city of residence to appear before the Senate or returns to a city other than the witness' city of residence after appearing before the Senate, then Senate committees may reimburse the witness for transportation expenses incurred which are less than or equal to the amount the committee would have reimbursed the witness had the witness departed from and returned to his/her residence. Any deviation from this policy will be considered on a case by case basis upon the written request to, and approval from, the Committee on Rules and Administration.

C. Service fees for the preparation or mailing of passenger coupons for indigent or subpoenaed witnesses testifying before Senate committees shall be considered reimbursable for purposes of official travel.

D. Transportation expenses for witnesses may be charged to the Committee's official centrally billed government travel charge card and paid on direct vouchers to the charge card vendor. Additionally, per diem expenses for indigent witnesses may be charged to the Committee's official government charge card and paid on direct vouchers to the charge card vendor.

The designation of such staff members for certification shall be done by means of a letter to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration. "Official expenses," for the purposes of these regulations, means ordinary and necessary business expenses in support of a committee's or administrative office's official duties.

However, hotel bills or other evidence of lodging costs will be considered necessary in support of per diem expenses and cannot be itemized.

Section 4. Documentation for services rendered on a contract fee basis shall consist of a contract status report form available from the Disbursing Office. However, other expenses authorized expressly in the contract will be subject to the documentation requirements set forth in these regulations.

Section 7. Cash advances from the Disbursing Office are to be used for travel and petty cash expenses only. No more than $5000 may be outstanding at one time for Senate committees or administrative offices, unless otherwise authorized by law or resolution, and no more than $300 of that amount may be used for a petty cash fund. MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message from the President of the United States was communicated to the Senate by Ms. Ridgway, one of his secretaries.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

REPORT OF THE VETO OF S. 4199, THE "JUDICIAL UNDERSTAFFING DELAYS GETTING EMERGENCIES SOLVED ACT OF 2024", RECEIVED DURING ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE ON DECEMBER 23, 2024—PM 65

The PRESIDING OFFICER laid before the Senate the following message from the President of the United States; which was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, spread in full upon the Journal, and held at the desk:

To the Senate of the United States:

I am returning herewith without my approval S. 4199, the "Judicial Understaffing Delays Getting Emergencies Solved Act of 2024" or the "JUDGES Act of 2024."

S. 4199 seeks to hastily add judgeships with just a few weeks left in the 118th Congress. The House of Representative's hurried action fails to resolve key questions in the legislation, especially regarding how the new judgeships are allocated, and neither the House of Representatives nor the Senate explored fully how the work of senior status judges and magistrate judges affects the need for new judgeships. The efficient and effective administration of justice requires that these questions about need and allocation be further studied and answered before we create permanent judgeships for life-tenured judges.

S. 4199 would create new judgeships in States where Senators have sought to hold open existing judicial vacancies. Those efforts to hold open vacancies suggest that concerns about judicial economy and case-load are not the true motivating force behind passage of this bill now.

Therefore, I am vetoing this bill.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN, Jr.
THE WHITE HOUSE, December 23, 2024.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

INTRODUCTION OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION REAL ESTATE LEASING AUTHORITY REVOCATION ACT

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 3, 2025

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, today, I introduce the Securities and Exchange Commission Real Estate Leasing Authority Revocation Act, which would revoke the independent real estate leasing authority of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and direct the Government Accountability Office to update its 2016 report on independent real estate leasing authority in the federal government. The House passed this bill in the 117th and 118th Congresses.

While a number of federal agencies have independent real estate leasing authority, the SEC has a history of egregious real estate practices. In 2005, the SEC disclosed that it had unbudgeted costs of approximately $48 million for the construction of its headquarters near Union Station. In 2007, after moving into its headquarters, the SEC shuffled its employees to different office space at a cost of over $3 million without any cost-benefit analysis or justifiable explanation. In 2010, the SEC conducted a deeply flawed analysis to justify the need to lease 900,000 square feet and to commit over $500 million over 10 years, overestimating its space needs by over 300 percent. In addition, the SEC failed to provide complete and accurate information and prepared a faulty and backdated justification and approval after it had already signed the lease.

In August 2016, the General Services Administration (GSA) and the SEC entered into an occupancy agreement to authorize GSA to secure a new 15-year lease. In December 2016, GSA, with the approval of the SEC, submitted a prospectus to Congress for approximately 1.3 million square feet, which Congress approved in 2018.

By 2019, GSA had received final bids, resolved all protests and even selected a final bidder. A month later, the SEC canceled the occupancy agreement, citing concerns about the value of the purchase option, which the SEC refused to document to Congress. The SEC effectively vetoed the entire three-year procurement process despite not having the authority or funding to exercise the purchase option without GSA's involvement.

Finally, after much back and forth between the two agencies, GSA entered into a lease for a new SEC headquarters in September 2021, which GSA terminated in October 2024. While the SEC has said it will continue to have GSA do its leasing in the future, the SEC's history of egregious leasing conduct, squandering hundreds of millions of dollars, makes this bill necessary.

The SEC's conduct risks undermining the reputation of GSA and the federal government among developers and building owners who participate in federal lease procurements. The threat of uncertainty ultimately drives up the cost of all GSA real estate procurements.

It is time for Congress to return the SEC's leasing authority to GSA, the federal government's civilian real estate arm. As the SEC has demonstrated over three decades, it is incredibly inefficient, wasteful and redundant to have the SEC do real estate procurements when GSA exists for that very reason. Like other federal agencies, the SEC will continue to have input in the GSA's real estate decision-making process, but GSA would have the ultimate authority.

I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

REMEMBERING MOUAGE MOUANOUTOUA

HON. VINCE FONG

OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 3, 2025

Mr. FONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remember the life and legacy of Mouage Mouanoutoua.

Mouage Mouanoutoua, of Clovis, California, went home to be with his Lord and savior on December 1, 2024.

Mouage was born on November 15, 1937, in Ban Phou Nong (Mount Lake Village), Xieng Khouang Province, in the Kingdom of Laos, to Noutoua Moua and Xaab Khang. He was one of fifteen children and was the last one of that generation.

His life was a testament to his father Noutoua's teaching: "Xa quas chiv rua txuj kev ua neej, txhaj yuav muaj lub neej zoo nrug luag ua." (Discipline yourself to a life of honor, then you will have a worthy life.) He loved his elders and kept his lineage a focal point of how he lived his life.

He married his love, Rhus Hawj, on January 15, 1959. Together they had ten children, thirty-eight grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. His life was dedicated to making sure everyone was protected, provided for, cared for and loved.

Mouage and his older brother Pang Ger were the first to have formal education in Xieng Khouang City in 1952. He finished with a degree equivalent to a high school diploma. His brother Pang Ger became the Mayor of the province of Vieng Fa, while Mouage became a magistrate of the Justice Department in the Lao government. They fulfilled their father's dream of having educated children. He instilled the importance of education in all of his descendants.

Mouage loved his God and served him faithfully. Ever since his father's conversion to Christianity in December 1953, he never faltered in his belief that Jesus allowed believers to have direct communication with and be with God—both for salvation and blessings. Mouage served the Lao Evangelical Church in Laos and started the first Lao Evangelical Church in the United States. He was a prayer warrior—communicating with God was his daily purpose.

Mouage had a loving heart and was a beautiful soul. He was a son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend. He will be cherished and missed by all who knew him.

RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF CHRISTOPHER BRINSON

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 3, 2025

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor my Chief of Staff, Christopher Brinson.

Christopher Brinson, the son of Al and Lucy, is a proud son of Coastal North Carolina. He jokes he is the second most famous graduate of E A Laney High School, behind Michael Jordan. To my staff and I, he's number one.

Chris started in my office on day 1, January 3, 2003 as my Legislative Director. During this time, he also courageously served our country in the Army Reserves as a Military Police Officer. Chris deployed several times and rose to the rank of Captain.

Chris's influence on my office is immeasurable. My staff in Alabama and DC revere him, and without his help, I would not have successfully run for two Chairmanships. I have some of the longest-serving staff on Capitol Hill, and that's in part to what Chris has done for our team.

Chris's greatest accomplishment in life is not the Army nor is it his tenure on Capitol Hill. His greatest work is his family. Chris raised two smart, and most importantly, successful children, Zoe and Jack. From track practices, to wrestling, to countless apartment moves, he is as present a father as two kids could dream of. He is also lucky enough to share everything with Gina D' Andrea, the love of his life.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to recognize Chris Brinson upon his retirement.

INTRODUCTION OF THE WASHINGTON, D.C. ADMISSION ACT

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 3, 2025

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the District of Columbia statehood bill, formally known as the Washington, D.C. Admission Act. This bill, which the House passed in the 116th and 117th Congresses, is the most important bill I introduce each Congress. Senator CHRIS VAN HOLLEN (D-MD) is introducing the companion bill in the Senate.

Over 700,000 D.C. residents, who have all the obligations of American citizenship, including paying all federal taxes and serving in the armed forces, are denied voting representation in Congress and full local self-government. This bill would give D.C. residents the voting representation in Congress and full local self-government they have been denied for more than 220 years. To be content with less than statehood is to concede the equality of citizenship that is the birthright of D.C. residents as American citizens.

Congress has a moral obligation and the constitutional authority to pass this bill. This country was founded on the principles of no taxation without representation and consent of the governed, but D.C. residents are taxed without representation and cannot consent to the laws under which they, as American citizens, must live.

This bill would admit the State of Washington, Douglass Commonwealth into the Union and reduce the size of the federal district. The state would consist of the residential and commercial portions of present-day D.C., and the reduced federal district, which would remain under Congress' control, would consist of the Capitol Complex, the White House, the Supreme Court, the principal federal monuments and the National Mall.

This bill complies with the Constitution, including the Admissions Clause, the District Clause and the 23rd Amendment.

The Admissions Clause gives Congress the authority to admit new states. All 37 new states were admitted by Congress. No new state was admitted by constitutional amendment. No state would have to consent to the admission of the State of Washington, D.C.

The District Clause gives Congress plenary authority over the federal district and establishes a maximum size of the federal district. It does not establish a minimum size or a location of the federal district. Congress reduced the size of the federal district by 30 percent in 1846.

The 23rd Amendment allows the federal district to participate in the Electoral College. This bill would repeal the enabling act for the 23rd Amendment, and the 23rd Amendment would be repealed quickly. In any event, the 23rd Amendment does not establish a minimum size or a location of the federal district.

The Constitution does not establish any prerequisites for new states, but Congress generally has considered three: population and resources, support for statehood and commitment to democracy. The State of Washington, D.C. would meet each.

D.C.'s population is larger than that of two states, and the new state would be one of six states with a population under one million. D.C. pays more federal taxes per capita than any state and pays more federal taxes than 21 states. D.C.'s gross domestic product is larger than that of 15 states. Eighty-six percent of D.C. residents voted for statehood in 2016. In fact, D.C. residents have been fighting for voting representation in Congress and local autonomy for more than 220 years.

I seek statehood for the Americans I am honored to represent. At the same time, D.C. statehood is deeply personal for me. My great-grandfather Richard Holmes, who escaped slavery in Virginia, made it as far as D.C., a walk to freedom but not to equal citizenship. For generations, my family has been denied the rights other Americans take for granted. There are many other D.C. residents like me.

I strongly urge my colleagues to support this bill.
