

respondents on the basis of a consent order. 58 FR 60672 (November 17, 1993).

The ALJ held an evidentiary hearing on temporary relief from December 13 through December 18, 1993. On January 26, 1994, the ALJ issued an ID denying Genentech's motion for temporary relief. The temporary relief ID was adopted by the Commission on February 25, 1994.

On March 2, 1994, the ALJ designated the permanent phase of the investigation "more complicated".

The evidentiary hearing on issues concerning permanent relief commenced on April 11, 1994, and concluded on April 24, 1994. On July 28, 1994, the ALJ issued an ID delaying the issuance of his final ID on permanent relief until November 29, 1994. On August 22, 1994, the Commission determined not to review that ID.

On August 29, 1994, the BTG and Novo respondents individually moved for an order imposing sanctions against complainant Genentech for alleged discovery abuse and reopening the record for the reception of additional documentary evidence. In his final ID, issued on November 29, 1994, the ALJ granted the motion for sanctions, and denied the requests to reopen the record. In the ID, the ALJ dismissed the complainant with prejudice and terminated the investigation as a sanction for Genentech's misconduct during discovery. Additionally, the ALJ issued an opinion ruling on the merits of the investigation based on the evidentiary record as it closed on April 24, 1994.

On December 12, 1994, complainant Genentech and the Commission investigative attorney filed petitions for review of the ID. The Novo respondents filed a contingent petition for review. On December 19, 1994, all parties filed responses to the petitions for review.

On December 12, 1994, complainant Genentech filed a motion to supplement the Commission record. Responses to Genentech's motion were filed by the BTG respondents, the Novo respondents, and the IA. The Commission denied Genentech's motion on the basis that the record, as defined by interim rule 210.43(a), already includes the documents at issue. On December 20, 1994, Genentech moved for leave to reply to the BTG respondents' opposition to Genentech's motion to supplement the record. The Commission denied Genentech's motion for leave to reply as moot in view of its denial of Genentech's motion to supplement the record.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and Commission interim rule 210.53, 19 C.F.R. 210.53.

Copies of the ID and all other nonconfidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000.
