INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-725
(Preliminary)]

Manganese Sulfate From the People's Republic of China

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigation, the Commission unanimously determines,

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports from the People's Republic of China (China) of manganese sulfate, provided for in subheading 2833.29.50 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).²

Background

On November 30, 1994, a petition was filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by American MicroTrace Corporation, Virginia Beach, VA, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured and threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports of manganese sulfate from China. Accordingly, effective November 30, 1994, the Commission instituted antidumping investigation No. 731-TA-725 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of December 8, 1994, (59 F.R. 63379). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on December 21, 1994, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on January 17, 1995. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 2848 (January 1995), entitled "Manganese Sulfate from the People's Republic of China: Investigation No. 731-TA-725 (Preliminary)."

Issued: January 18, 1995.

By order of the Commission.

Certain Recombinantly Produced Human Growth Hormones; Notice of Commission Determinations (1) Not To Review Those Portions of the Administrative Law Judge's Initial Determination Dismissing the Complaint With Prejudice and Terminating the Investigation as a Sanction for Complainant's Discovery Abuse; (2) To Take No Position on the Remainder of the Initial Determination; Termination of Investigation Based on a Finding of No Violation of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission (Commission) has determined not to review the portion of the presiding administrative law judge's (ALJ's) final initial determination (ID) in the above-referenced investigation dismissing the complaint with prejudice as a sanction for complainant's misconduct during discovery, and to take no position on the remainder of the ID in accordance with Beloit Corporation v. Valmet Oy, TVP Paper Machines, Inc., and the United States International Trade Commission, 742 F.2d 1421 (Fed. Cir. 1984). Notice is also given that the Commission has denied complainant Genentech's motion to supplement the record, and also denied Genentech's motion for leave to reply to an opposition to Genentech's motion to supplement the record.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Scott Andersen, Esq., telephone 202-205-3099, or Cynthia Johnson, Esq., telephone 202-205-3098, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 29, 1993, based on a complaint filed by Genentech, Inc. of South San Francisco, California. 58 FR 50954. The following six firms were named as respondents: Novo Nordisk A/S of Denmark; Novo Nordisk of North America, Inc. of New York; Novo Nordisk Pharmaceuticals, Inc. of New Jersey; ZymoGenetics, Inc. of Seattle, Washington (collectively, the Novo respondents); Bio-Technology General Corp. of New York; and Bio-Technology General Corp. (Israel) Ltd. (collectively, the BTG respondents). The Commission also provisionally accepted Genentech's motion for temporary relief. Id. The Commission terminated the temporary relief proceedings as to the Novo respondents on the basis of a consent order. 58 FR 60672 (November 17, 1993).

The ALJ held an evidentiary hearing on temporary relief from December 13 through December 18, 1993. On January 26, 1994, the ALJ issued an ID denying Genentech's motion for temporary relief. The temporary relief ID was adopted by the Commission on February 25, 1994.

On March 2, 1994, the ALJ designated the permanent phase of the investigation "more complicated".

The evidentiary hearing on issues concerning permanent relief commenced on April 11, 1994, and concluded on April 24, 1994. On July 28, 1994, the ALJ issued an ID delaying the issuance of his final ID on permanent relief until November 29, 1994. On August 22, 1994, the Commission determined not to review that ID.

On August 29, 1994, the BTG and Novo respondents individually moved for an order imposing sanctions against complainant Genentech for alleged discovery abuse and reopening the record for the reception of additional documentary evidence. In his final ID, issued on November 29, 1994, the ALJ granted the motion for sanctions, and denied the requests to reopen the record. In the ID, the ALJ dismissed the complainant with prejudice and terminated the investigation as a sanction for Genentech's misconduct during discovery. Additionally, the ALJ issued an opinion ruling on the merits of the investigation based on the evidentiary record as it closed on April 24, 1994.

On December 12, 1994, complainant Genentech and the Commission investigative attorney filed petitions for review of the ID. The Novo respondents filed a contingent petition for review. On December 19, 1994, all parties filed responses to the petitions for review.

On December 12, 1994, complainant Genentech filed a motion to supplement the Commission record. Responses to Genentech's motion were filed by the BTG respondents, the Novo respondents, and the IA. The Commission denied Genentech's motion on the basis that the record, as defined by interim rule 210.43(a), already includes the documents at issue. On December 20, 1994, Genentech moved for leave to reply to the BTG respondents' opposition to Genentech's motion to supplement the record. The Commission denied Genentech's motion for leave to reply as moot in view of its denial of Genentech's motion to supplement the record.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and Commission interim rule 210.53, 19 C.F.R. 210.53.

Copies of the ID and all other nonconfidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on the matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810.

Issued: January 17, 1995.

By order of the Commission.

Secretary.
