

filing, it discovered that the revised retainage factor should have been rounded to the nearest thousandth, because Columbia's computer software programs for allocating capacity (which take into account quantities attributable to retainage) were designed to accept only a retainage factor rounded to the nearest thousandth.

Consequently, Columbia states that it is submitting the above referenced substitute tariff sheet as a correction to the tariff sheet filed March 1, 1995, in Columbia's annual filing. It reflects a retainage factor rounded at three decimal places (thousandths), instead of the factor filed in the annual filing and rounded at four decimal places. Columbia states that the filing of this substitute tariff sheet corrects the numeric presentation of the retainage factor, which is supported in the March 1, 1995, annual filing. Columbia respectfully requests that the Commission grant any waivers necessary to permit this substitute tariff sheet to be effective April 1, 1995, the proposed effective date of Columbia's annual TRA filing.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all parties known to have intervened in Docket No. RP95-194 to date, and all firm customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such protests should be filed on or before March 23, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Those who are already parties to this proceeding need not file to intervene in response to this notice. Copies of Columbia's filings are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Columbia Gulf Transmission Co.;
Notice of Filing of Corrected Tariff Sheets

March 16, 1995.

Take notice that on March 13, 1995, Columbia Gulf Transmission Company

(Columbia Gulf) tendered for filing the following tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, to be effective April 1, 1995:

Substitute Fifth Revised Sheet No. 018
Substitute Fifth Revised Sheet No. 019

Columbia Gulf states that on March 1, 1995, Columbia Gulf submitted its annual filing pursuant to the provisions of Section 33, Transportation Retainage Adjustment (TRA), of the General Terms and Conditions (GTC) of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1. In that annual filing, Columbia Gulf filed First Revised Sheet Nos. 018 and 019, which set forth revised transportation retainage factors proposed to be effective April 1, 1995 for the three Columbia Gulf zones. The Commission noticed that annual filing on March 3, 1995, and interventions and/or protests were to be filed by March 10, 1995.

Columbia Gulf states when it began planning to implement the annual filing, it discovered that the revised retainage factors should have been rounded to the nearest thousandth, because Columbia Gulf's computer software programs for allocating capacity (which take into account quantities attributable to retainage) were designed to accept only a retainage factor rounded to the nearest thousandth.

Consequently, Columbia Gulf states that it is submitting the above referenced substitute tariff sheets as a correction to the tariff sheets filed March 1, 1995, in Columbia Gulf's annual filing. The reflect retainage factors rounded at three decimal places (thousandths), instead of the factors filed in the annual filing and rounded at four decimal places.

Columbia Gulf states that the filing of these substitute tariff sheets corrects the numeric presentation of the retainage factors, which are supported in the March 1, 1995 annual filing. Columbia Gulf respectfully requests that the Commission grant any waivers necessary to permit these substitute tariff sheets to be effective April 1, 1995, the proposed effective date of Columbia Gulf's annual TRA filing.

Columbia Gulf states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all parties known to have intervened in Docket No. RP95-195 to date and all firm customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR

385.211. All such protests should be filed before March 23 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding.
