Zone procedures would exempt Publications International from payment of Customs duties on foreign merchandise that is used in products made for export. On its domestic sales, zone procedures would allow the company to choose the duty-free rate that applies to books. The duty rate on the sound pads (classified as electrical machines and apparatus) is 3.9 percent.

International Trade Administration

Notice of Partial Termination of Administrative Review of Antidumping Duty Order; Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products From Australia, Certain Cold-Rolled Carbon Steel Flat Products From Germany, and Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products From Korea

In the matter of: (A-602-803)—Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products from Australia; (A-428-814)—Certain Cold-Rolled Carbon Steel Flat Products from Germany; and (A-580-816)—Certain Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products from Korea.

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of partial termination of antidumping duty administrative review.

SUMMARY: In response to requests from Australian National Industries Corporation Ltd. ("ANI") of Australia; C.D. Wälzholz ("Wälzholz"), J.N. Eberle & Cie., GmbH ("Eberle"), and Röchling Kaltwalzwerk, KG ("Röchling") of Germany; and Pohang Coated Steel Co., Ltd. ("PCS"), the Department of Commerce ("the Department") initiated administrative reviews of these companies on September 8, 1994. The Department received timely requests for withdrawal on October 7 (from Wälzholz), November 3 (from ANI), November 16 (from PCS and Dongkuk), and December 7 (from Röchling). On December 13, 1994, Eberle requested the Department to extend the time limit for it to withdraw from the antidumping duty review. Based upon the consideration of the facts of this case, the Department concluded it would be reasonable to grant Eberle's request to withdraw at this point in the review process. Because there were no other requests for review of these companies from any other interested party, the Department is now terminating these reviews with respect to all of the companies listed above.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 12, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sally Gannon (ANI), Bruce Harsh (Eberle), Alain Letort (Wälzholz), Holly Vineyard (Röchling), or Lisa Yarbrough (PCS and Dongkuk); Office of Agreements Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Ave., NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-3793.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 30, 1994, the Department received requests from Wälzholz, Eberle, and Röchling, for review of the antidumping duty orders on certain cold-rolled carbon steel flat products from Germany, and from PCS for certain corrosion-resistant carbon steel flat products from the Republic of Korea, to conduct administrative reviews of the antidumping duty orders pursuant to section 353.22(a)(2) of the Department's regulations (19 CFR 353.33(a)(2)). On August 31, 1994, the Department received a request from ANI to conduct an administrative review for certain corrosion-resistant carbon steel flat products from Australia pursuant to the same regulations mentioned before.

On September 8, 1994, the Department published in the Federal Register a Notice of Initiation for these reviews (59 FR 46391). Wälzholz (October 7, 1994), ANI (November 3, 1994), PCS (November 16, 1994), and Röchling (December 7, 1994) timely withdrew their requests for administrative reviews. These withdrawals were made within the time limits established in section 353.22(a)(5) of the Department's regulations and so the Department is terminating those reviews.

Further, according to 19 CFR 353.22(a)(5), the Department may extend the 90-day time limit, from the date of publication of notice of initiation, to withdraw a request for review if the Department determines it is reasonable to do so. In this case, Eberle requested that the Department allow it to withdraw from the review six days after the deadline. According to Eberle, the Department's extensive deficiency questionnaire was received and reviewed by the company officials in Germany after the 90-day time limit had expired. In making the request to withdraw, Eberle stressed that the cost and the amount of detailed information that would be required within a relatively short period were greater than the company had anticipated when it requested a review. Additionally, petitioners did not object to Eberle's request. Due to the circumstances of this case, the relative proximity of Eberle's request to the expiration deadline, and because this decision does not encourage manipulation of the review process in an attempt to achieve lower (or higher) margins, the Department has determined that it would be reasonable to grant the withdrawal at this time.

Therefore, in accordance with § 353.22(a)(5) of the Department's regulations, the Department will terminate these administrative reviews for ANI, Wälzholz, Röchling, Eberle, and PCS.

Because we are terminating these reviews, we shall instruct the Customs Service to liquidate entries for Wälzholz, Röchling, Eberle, and PCS at the cash deposit rate established during the original fair-value investigation. With regard to ANI, we will instruct Customs to return all cash deposits to ANI which Customs erroneously collected for merchandise exported by ANI that is specifically excluded from the order on corrosion-resistant steel flat products, i.e., clad products in straight lengths of 0.1875 inch or more in composite thickness and of a width which exceeds 150 millimeters or measures at least twice the thickness. (See 58 FR 44161, August 19, 1993.)

Furthermore, because PCS (as a related company to Pohang Iron and Steel Company, Ltd.) was previously investigated, the cash deposit rate for PCS will continue to be the company-specific rate found for Pohang Iron and Steel Company in the original (for cold-rolled and corrosion-resistant flat products only). Because Wälzholz, Röchling, and Eberle were not previously investigated companies, the cash deposit rate will continue to be the "all other rate" assigned to their respective countries.

This notice is published in accordance with 19 CFR 353.22(a)(5).

Dated: April 5, 1995.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.

Determination to Revoke Countervailing Duty Order; Cut Flowers From Ecuador

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of determination to revoke countervailing duty order.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is revoking the countervailing duty order on cut flowers from Ecuador because it is no longer of interest to interested parties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 12, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Brian Albright or Stephanie Moore, Office of Countervailing Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202)482-2786.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 30, 1994, the Department published in the Federal Register (59 FR 67700) its intent to revoke the countervailing duty order on cut flowers from Ecuador (52 FR 1361; January 13, 1987). Additionally, as required by 19 CFR 355.25(d)(4)(ii)(1994), the Department served, by certified mail, written notice of its intent to revoke this countervailing duty order on each party listed on its most current service list.

Scope of the Order

Imports covered by this order are shipments of Ecuadorian fresh cut miniature (spray) carnations, standard carnations, standard chrysanthemums, and pompon chrysanthemums. This merchandise is currently classified under item numbers 0603.10.30, 0603.10.70, and 0603.10.80 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS). Daisies are excluded from the scope of the countervailing duty order. The HTS item numbers are provided for convenience and Customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

Determination to Revoke

The Department may revoke a countervailing duty order if it concludes that the order is no longer of interest to interested parties. We conclude that there is no interest in a countervailing duty order when no interested party (as defined in §§ 355.2 (i)(3), (i)(4), (i)(5), and (i)(6) of the Department's regulations) has requested an administrative review for at least five consecutive review periods and when no domestic interested party objects to the revocation (19 CFR 355.25(d)(4)(iii)).

We received no requests for administrative review for the previous five consecutive review periods and no objections to our notice of intent to revoke the countervailing duty order. Therefore, we have concluded that the countervailing duty order covering cut flowers from Ecuador is no longer of interest to interested parties, and we are revoking this countervailing duty order in accordance with 19 CFR 355.25(d)(4)(iii).

Further, as required by 19 CFR 355.25(d)(5), the Department is terminating the suspension of liquidation on the subject merchandise as of the effective date of this notice, and will instruct the Customs Service to liquidate, without regard to countervailing duties, all unliquidated entries of this merchandise exported from Ecuador on or after January 1, 1994.

This notice is published in accordance with 19 CFR 355.25(d)(4)(iii).

Dated: April 5, 1995.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.
