FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Ann Wilmer, Operations Officer, National Assessment Governing Board, Suite 825, 800 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20002-4233, Telephone: (202) 357-6938.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Assessment Governing Board is established under section 412 of the National Education Statistics Act of 1994 (Title IV of the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994), (Pub. L. 103-382).

The Board is established to formulate policy guidelines for the National Assessment of Educational Progress. The Board is responsible for selecting subject areas to be assessed, developing assessment objectives, identifying appropriate achievement goals for each grade and subject tested, and establishing standards and procedures for interstate and national comparisons.

On May 11, the full Board will convene in open session at 2:00 P.M. until 6:30 P.M. The full Board agenda will be devoted to review and discussion of the Board's strategic planning activities.

Also, on May 11, the Executive Committee will be in session. Agenda items for the meeting include consideration of the structure of the NAEP schedule, and the NAGB nominations process.

On May 12, 1995 from 7:30 A.M.—11:00 A.M. the Achievement Levels Committee will meet to hear a general update on the 1994 achievement-level setting process. The Achievement Levels Committee will meet jointly with the Reporting and Dissemination Committee beginning at 9:30 A.M. to discuss the anchor descriptions for the 1994 U.S. history and world geography in relation to the achievement levels descriptions. Beginning at 8:30 A.M., there will be meetings of the Subject Area Committee #1 (SAC #1) and the Reporting and Dissemination Committee. SAC #1 will discuss the progress on the NAEP civics project. Agenda for the Reporting and Dissemination (R&D) Committee includes consideration of policy on public access to NAEP cognitive and background questions, and discussion of release schedule for future NAEP reports and implementation of Board policy on background questionnaires. The R&D Committee will meet jointly with the Achievement Levels Committee as referenced above. Also, in joint session with the Design and Methodology Committee, the R&D Committee will consider separate reporting of NAEP results for Spanish-language and disabled students.

The Design and Methodology Committee will meet from 10:00 A.M. until 11:30 A.M., to continue discussions on below state level reporting, and to review policy guidance and implementation recommendations on sampling issues for 1996. The Committee will meet jointly with the R&D Committee as referenced above.

There will be a meeting of the Nominations Committee from 10:00 A.M. until 11:30 A.M. The agenda for this meeting will be devoted to the Committee's consideration of the process for soliciting nominations to prepare a list of recommended persons for the Secretary's appointment to upcoming vacancies in Board membership.

Also, on May 12, the full Board will be in session, from 11:30 A.M. until 5:00 P.M. Agenda items for the full Board meeting include an update on NAEP program, an overview of the achievement levels setting process, and continuation of strategic planning activities.

On May 13, at 9:00 A.M., the full Board will reconvene when the Board will hear reports from its subcommittees. This meeting of the National Assessment Governing Board will be adjourned at approximately, 12:00 Noon.

Records are kept of all Board proceedings and are available for public inspection at the U.S. Department of Education, National Assessment Governing Board, Suite 825, 800 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Dated: April 20, 1995.

Roy Truby,

Executive Director, National Assessment Governing Board.
