BILLING CODE 4210-29-M

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration

[Docket No. FR-3876-D-01]

Revocation and Delegation of Procurement Authority

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration, HUD.

ACTION: Notice of revocation and redelegation of procurement authority.

SUMMARY: This notice revokes current redelegations of procurement authority to the Field and Headquarters staff. It implements the final phase of the field reorganization of procurement authority for the Office of Administration. In this phase, procurement authority in the Field is consolidated under three Administrative Service Centers. This document makes no changes to the procurement authority redelegated to the President of the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA).

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 28, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Edward L. Girovasi, Jr., Director, Policy and Evaluation Division, Office of Procurement and Contracts, Room 5262, 451 7th Street S.W., Washington, D.C. 20410, (202) 708-0294. A telecommunications device for the hearing impaired (TDD) is available at 202-708-1112. (These are not toll-free numbers.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In November of 1993, the Secretary announced the reorganization of HUD's field structure to improve HUD's performance and provide HUD's customers (members of the public and program beneficiaries) more efficient service and less bureaucracy by empowering HUD employees to serve HUD's customers more effectively. In implementing this objective, the Secretary decided to remove the Regional organizational layer and provide officials at lower organizational levels full authority to carry out program functions, with these Field Office officials reporting directly to program officials in Headquarters..

In a delegation of authority, published on April 15, 1994 at 59 FR 18276, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development revoked all delegations of procurement authority, and issued a new delegation which consolidated into a single document all delegations of procurement authority to the Assistant Secretary for Administration (the Department's Senior Procurement Executive.) On that same day, the Assistant Secretary for Administration published a redelegation of procurement authority, at 59 FR 18277, implementing the initial phase of the field reorganization of procurement authority for the Office of Administration. In that redelegation, the Assistant Secretary for Administration revoked all redelegations of procurement authority, and issued a new redelegation consolidating into one document all redelegations of procurement authority to HUD Headquarters and Field staff.

In this phase of HUD's Field reorganization, Administrative Service Centers (ASCs) will be established to consolidate and expedite contracting, personnel, accounting, facilities, management information, and other common administrative support functions. On October 27, 1994, the Assistant Secretary for Administration announced the selection of three ASCs: New York, Atlanta and Denver. Accordingly, in this notice, the Assistant Secretary for Administration is revoking the redelegation issued on April 15, 1994, including all procurement authority redelegated to Regional and Field Office officials. In this new redelegation reflecting the changed Field organizational structure, authority is redelegated to each ASC Director and ASC Contracting Division Director. In addition, this document gives HUD procurement officials increased flexibility: The Director, Office of Procurement and Contracts (OPC), at the Headquarters Office, has the authority to award and administer contracts which are national in scope or which may cover more than one ASC service area; and ASC contracting officials have the authority to meet changing workload demands by further redelegating certain procurement authority to qualified HUD field personnel, as specified.

Lastly, in this document, the redelegations to the Field staff and to the Director, OPC, at the Headquarters Office, are revised to streamline the Department's management of the Governmentwide Commercial Credit Card Program. However, this redelegation does not address the Government Travel Card Program. American Express or other credit cards issued under the Government Travel Card Program may only be used to pay for authorized travel-related services for which the individual traveler is responsible.

Accordingly, the Assistant Secretary for Administration revokes and redelegates authority as follows:

Section A. Redelegation of Authority

The Assistant Secretary for Administration, designated as the Department's Senior Procurement Executive, redelegates the following power and authority:

1. The Director, Office of Procurement and Contracts, designated as the Department's principal Contracting Officer, is authorized to:

a. Enter into and administer all procurement contracts and interagency agreements for property and services required by the Department (including the placement of paid advertisements in newspapers;)

b. Enter into and administer grants and cooperative agreements in support of the Department's discretionary assistance programs;

c. Make determinations and findings regarding the use of advance payments under FAR Subpart 32.4 and HUDAR 2432.402; and,

d. Further redelegate the following authority which has been redelegated in this notice, to the headquarters and field personnel identified below, provided they meet experience, education, and training requirements established by the Senior Procurement Executive:

(i) The authority identified in Sections 1.a. and 1.b., above, to qualified Office of Procurement and Contracts personnel;

(ii) The authority identified in Sections 1.a. and 1.b., above, to the Directors, Administrative Service Center Contracting Divisions for purposes of awarding and administering contracts or other agreements which are national in scope or which cover more than one Administrative Service Center service area;

(iii) To qualified Departmental employees, the authority to engage in the following purchasing procedures:

1. Small purchases (FAR Part 13);
2. Issuance of delivery orders under contracts established by other Government sources (FAR Part 8, e.g., GSA Federal Supply Schedules) or
