SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Implementation of the provisions of the Clean Air Act (CAA), as amended in 1990, will require regulation of many small businesses, both to provide for attainment of the national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS) in the areas in which they are located and to reduce the emission of air toxics. Small businesses frequently lack the technical expertise and financial resources necessary to evaluate such regulations and to determine the appropriate mechanisms for compliance. In anticipation of the impact of these requirements on small businesses, the CAA requires that States adopt a Small Business Assistance Program (SBAP) and submit this SBAP as a revision to the Federally approved SIP. In addition, the CAA directs the USEPA to oversee these small business assistance programs and report to Congress on their implementation.

The requirements for establishing a SBAP are set out in section 507 of the CAA. In January 1992, USEPA issued Guidelines for the Implementation of Section 507 of the 1990 Clean Air Act Amendments, in order to delineate the Federal and State roles in meeting the new statutory provisions and to provide further guidance to the States on submitting acceptable SIP revisions. This guidance specifies that the State submittal must provide for each of the
