In the matter of: New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, 6 West Park Place, Great Neck, New York 11023.

On June 15, 1995, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. §§ 1701-1706 (1991)) (IEEPA). Specifically, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted on one count of willfully selling and causing to be exported from Louisiana to Italy, for transshipment to Libya, approximately 7670.46 cubic board meters of southern yellow pine lumber, in violation of the President's embargo on the exportation of all goods to that country.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C.A. app. §§ 2401-2420 (1991, Supp. 1993, and Pub. L. up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any export license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

Pursuant to Sections 770.15 and 772.1(g) of the Regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the IEEPA, the Director, Office of Export Licensing, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person permission to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, and shall also determine whether to revoke any export license previously issued to such a person.

Having received notice of New York & Southern Lumber Corporation's conviction for violating the IEEPA, and following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, I have decided to deny New York & Southern Lumber Corporation permission to apply for or use any export license, including any general license, issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, for a period of 10 years from the date of its conviction.
