DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; New York & Southern Lumber Corp.; Order Denying Permission To Apply For or Use Export Licenses

In the matter of: New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, 6 West Park Place, Great Neck, New York 11023.

On June 15, 1995, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. §§ 1701-1706 (1991)) (IEEPA). Specifically, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted on one count of willfully selling and causing to be exported from Louisiana to Italy, for transshipment to Libya, approximately 7670.46 cubic board meters of southern yellow pine lumber, in violation of the President's embargo on the exportation of all goods to that country.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C.A. app. §§ 2401-2420 (1991, Supp. 1993, and Pub. L. No. 103-277, July 5, 1994)) (the Act),¹ provides that, at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce,² no person convicted of violating the IEEPA, or certain other provisions of the United States Code, shall be eligible to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act or the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR Parts 768-799 (1995)) (the Regulations) for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any export license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

² Pursuant to appropriate delegations of authority that are reflected in the Regulations, the Director, Office of Export Licensing, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Section 11(h) of the Act. Because of a recent Bureau of Export Administration reorganization, this responsibility now rests with the Director, Office of Exporter Services. Subsequent regulatory references herein to the "Director, Office of Export Licensing," should be read as meaning "Director, Office of Exporter Services."

Pursuant to Sections 770.15 and 772.1(g) of the Regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the IEEPA, the Director, Office of Export Licensing, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person permission to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, and shall also determine whether to revoke any export license previously issued to such a person.

Having received notice of New York & Southern Lumber Corporation's conviction for violating the IEEPA, and following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, I have decided to deny New York & Southern Lumber Corporation permission to apply for or use any export license, including any general license, issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, for a period of 10 years from the date of its conviction. The 10-year period ends on June 15, 2005. I have also decided that this denial period be suspended for the entire 10-year period and thereafter waived, provided that, during the period of suspension, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation has committed no violations of the Act or any regulation, order, or license issued under the Act.

Accordingly, it is hereby Ordered:
I. Until June 15, 2005, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, 6 West Park Place, Great Neck, New York 11023, hereby is denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction in the United States or abroad involving any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, in whole or in part, and subject to the Regulations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, participation, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (i) as a party or as a representative of a party to any export license application submitted to the Department; (ii) in preparing or filing with the Department any export license application or request for reexport authorization, or any document to be submitted therewith; (iii) in obtaining from the department or using any validated or general export license, reexport authorization or other export control document; (iv) in carrying on negotiations with respect to, or in receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of, in whole or in part, any commodities or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, and subject to the Regulations; and (v) in financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

II. After notice and opportunity for comment as provided in Section 770.15(h) of the Regulations, any person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to New York & Southern Lumber Corporation by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services may also be subject to the provisions of this Order.

III. As provided in Section 787.12(a) of the Regulations, without prior disclosure of the facts to and specific authorization of the Office of Export Licensing, in consultation with the Office of Export Enforcement, no person may directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (i) apply for, obtain, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to an export or reexport of commodities or technical data by, to, or for another person then subject to an order revoking or denying his export privileges or then excluded from practice before the Bureau of Export Administration; or (ii) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate: (a) in any transaction which may involve any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States; (b) in any reexport thereof; or (c) in any other transaction which is subject to the Export Administration Regulations, if the person denied export privileges may obtain any benefit or have any interest in, directly or indirectly, any of these transactions.

IV. The 10-year denial period is suspended until June 15, 2005 and shall thereafter be waived, provided that New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, during the period of suspension, has committed no violations of the Act or any regulation, license, or order issued under the Act.

V. This Order is effective immediately.

VI. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to New York & Southern Lumber Corporation.

Dated: July 26, 1995.

Eileen M. Albanese,

Acting Director, Office of Exporter Services.

[Docket No. 950628170-5170-01]

RIN 0693-AB23

Approval of Federal Information Processing Standards Publication 195, Federal Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications AGENCY: National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce that the Secretary of Commerce has approved a new standard, which will be published as FIPS Publication 195, Federal Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications.

On December 6, 1994, notice was published in the Federal Register (59 FR 62712-62714) that a Federal Information processing Standard (FIPS) for Federal Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications was being proposed for Federal use.

NIST reviewed written comments submitted by interested parties and other available material. On the basis of this review, NIST recommended that the Secretary approve the standard as a Federal Information Processing Standard (FIPS), and prepared a detailed justification document for the Secretary's review in support of that recommendation.

The detailed justification document which was presented to the Secretary, and which includes an analysis of the written comments received, is part of the public record and is available for inspection and copying in the Department's Central Reference and Records Inspection Facility, Room 6020, Herbert C. Hoover Building, 14th Street between Pennsylvania and Constitution Avenues, NW, Washington, DC 20230.

This FIPS contains two sections: (1) An announcement section, which provides information concerning the applicability, implementation, and maintenance of the standard; and (2) a specifications section, which deals with the technical requirements of the standard. Only the announcement section of the standard is provided in this notice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This standard becomes effective February 12, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties may purchase copies of this standard, including the technical specifications section, from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS). Specific ordering information from NTIS for this standard is set out in the Where to Obtain Copies Section of the announcement section of the standard.

Associate Director.

Proposed Federal Information Processing Standards Publication 195 (date) Announcing the Standard for Federal Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications

Federal Information Processing Standards Publications (FIPS PUBS) are issued by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) after approval by the Secretary of Commerce pursuant to Section 111(d) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 as amended by the Computer Security Act of 1987, Public Law 100-235.

1. Name of Standard

Federal Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications. (Former Draft Federal Standard 1093).

2. Category of Standard

Telecommunications Standard; Grounding and Bonding.

3. Explanation

This standard, by adoption of ANSI/TIA/EIA-607-1994, Commercial Building Grounding and Bonding Requirements for Telecommunications, specifies the requirements for a uniform telecommunications grounding and bonding infrastructure for Federal buildings where telecommunications equipment is installed. The standard provides the requirements for a ground reference for telecommunications systems within the telecommunications entrance facility, the telecommunications closet, and equipment room; it also provides the requirements for bonding and connecting pathways, cable shields, conductors, and hardware at
