Avg Hours Per Response: 15 minutes. Needs and Uses: The Census Bureau conducts the Quarterly Survey of Residential Alterations and Repairs to collect information on real-property improvements and repairs from a sample of owners or designated representatives of rental or vacant residential housing units. We mail this survey quarterly to respondents over a one-year period. We use data gathered in this survey as a component to our published estimates of expenditures for residential upkeep and improvement. Data on improvements and repairs to owner occupied housing units are gathered in the Consumer Expenditures Survey and are also incorporated into published estimates. Estimates are used by a variety of private businesses and trade associations for marketing studies, economic forecasts, and assessments of the construction industry. They also provide all levels of government with a tool to evaluate economic policy and measure progress towards established goals. For example, the Bureau of Economic Analysis uses the improvement statistics to develop the structures component of gross private domestic investment in the national income and product accounts.

Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) Demonstration Project in Europe

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DoD. ACTION: Notice of a CHAMPUS demonstration project to be implemented in Europe.

SUMMARY: On September 2, 1994, 59 FR 45668, DoD published a Notice of a CHAMPUS demonstration project to be implemented in Europe. This notice is to exercise the first of two option years for the CHAMPUS Demonstration Project in Europe.

While the U.S. Military European Health Care Delivery System has gone through many changes and adjustments over the past eighteen months, made necessary in great part due to the military force reductions in Europe, the Department has noted significant improvement in health care delivery services for its beneficiaries since the initiation of the demonstration project. Service members and their families, particularly those in remote areas, have experienced improved access to health care service. Billing practices, once a source of major dissatisfaction among local providers, have been streamlined, resulting in far fewer payment delays.

A firm foundation has now been established for European-wide TRICARE Preferred Provider Network, and many host nation health care providers, of all specialties, throughout Europe, are interested in participating. While great strides have been made, the formalization and stabilization of the network remains to be accomplished. As earliest attention has been focused primarily on remote or underserved areas which have experienced significant reduction or elimination of military medical services, the progress which has been made to date is most encouraging. Although demonstration participation is limited to family members of active duty beneficiaries, the achievement of a sound network of providers will benefit immensely all of our beneficiaries in Europe. It is our intent to continue the great strides which have been made thus far as a result of this demonstration project and to build, during the next year, on the progress which has been made during the last.
