

Regulations at 7 CFR 6.33(a) provide that a fee will be charged for each license issued to a person or firm by the Licensing Authority in order to reimburse the Department of Agriculture for the costs of administering the licensing system under this regulation. The fee is to be based upon the total cost to the Department of Agriculture of administering the licensing system during the calendar year preceding the year for which the fee is to be charged, divided by the average number of licenses issued per year for the three years preceding the year for which the fee is to be assessed.

Regulations at 7 CFR 6.33(b) provide that the Licensing Authority will announce the annual fee for each license and that such fee will be set out in a notice to be published in the Federal Register. Accordingly, this notice sets out the fee for the licenses to be issued for the 1996 calendar year.

Notice

The total cost to the Department of Agriculture of administering the licensing system during 1995 has been determined to be $413,009. Of this amount, $232,508 represents the cost of the staff and supervisory hours devoted directly to administering the licensing system during 1995 (total personnel costs for the Import Licensing Group of the Foreign Agricultural Service equaled $126,734; a proportionate share of the supervisory costs devoted directly to administering the licensing system equaled $105,774); $91,367 represents the total computer costs to monitor and issue import licenses during 1995; and $89,134 represents other miscellaneous costs, including travel, postage, publications, forms, contract clerical assistance, and an ADP system contractor.

The average number of licenses issued per year for the three years immediately preceding 1996 has been determined to be 3,670. Accordingly, notice is hereby given that the fee for each license issued to a person or firm for the 1996 calendar year, in accordance with the regulations codified at 7 CFR 6.20-6.34, will be $113.00 per license.

Issued at Washington, D.C. the 9th day of August, 1995.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics uses data from this survey to assist in the benchmarking of state and local government components of its monthly employment and earnings statistics. In addition, state and local government officials, public interest groups, and professional organizations use these data for analysis and study.

Agency Form Under Review by the Office of Management and Budget

DOC has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance the following proposal for collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

Agency: Bureau of the Census.

Title: 1996 National Content Survey - Reinterview Instruments.

Form Number(s): None-computer screens.

Agency Approval Number: None.

Type of Request: New collection.

Burden: 17,010 hours.

Number of Respondents: 34,020.

Avg Hours Per Response: 30 minutes.

Needs and Uses: The 1996 National Content Survey (NCS) will play a crucial role in determining the subject content and specific question wording of the 2000 census questionnaires. In addition, the survey will provide critical information for formulating and refining decisions regarding questionnaire design, population coverage, data capture technology, and administrative records notification. The survey will also test certain race and ethnic issues. A reinterview will be conducted to assess the accuracy and reliability of the information collected in the survey. Telephone reinterviews will be conducted using CATI software with households who complete and mail back a survey form. Both simple-form and sample-form recipients will be included in reinterview. The simple-form reinterview is designed to assess whether alternative rostering techniques result in higher within-household coverage error and to analyze content of the race and Hispanic origin questions. The sample-form reinterview is designed to measure the reliability of multiple question versions by comparing responses from the 1996 NCS to responses in the reinterview.

Affected Public: Individuals or households.

Frequency: One-time only.

Respondent's Obligation: Mandatory.

OMB Desk Officer: Maria Gonzalez, (202) 395-7313.
