

balances. In the event the limits established for that period have been exhausted by previous entries, such goods shall be subject to the levels set forth in this directive. Import charges will be provided at a later date.

The limits set forth above are subject to adjustment in the future pursuant to the provisions of the ATC and any administrative arrangements between the Governments of the United States and Uruguay.

In carrying out the above directions, the Commissioner of Customs should construe entry into the United States for consumption to include entry for consumption into the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements has determined that these actions fall within the foreign affairs exception of the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1).

Sincerely,

Rita D. Hayes,

Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority: Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, as amended; section 204 of the Agricultural Act of 1956, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1854).

A notice published in the Federal Register on June 23, 1995 (60 FR 32657) announces that if no solution is agreed upon in consultations between the Governments of the United States and the Philippines on Category 444, the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements may establish a limit at a level of not less than 74,874 dozen for the twelve-month period beginning on May 31, 1995 and extending through May 30, 1996.

Inasmuch as no agreement was reached during the consultation period on a mutually satisfactory solution, the United States Government has decided to control imports in Category 444 for the prorated period beginning on May 31, 1995 and extending through December 31, 1995 at a level of 43,983 numbers. Category 444 shall remain subject to the Group II limit.

This action is taken in accordance with the Uruguay Round Agreement on Textiles and Clothing and the Uruguay Round Agreements Act.

The United States remains committed to finding a solution concerning Category 444. Should such a solution be reached in consultations with the Government of the Philippines, further notice will be published in the Federal Register.

A description of the textile and apparel categories in terms of HTS numbers is available in the CORRELATION: Textile and Apparel Categories with the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (see Federal Register notice 59 FR 65531, published on December 20, 1994). Commissioner of Customs,
Department of the Treasury, Washington, DC 20229.

Dear Commissioner: This directive amends, but does not cancel, the directive issued to you on March 30, 1995, by the Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements. That directive concerns imports of certain cotton, wool and man-made fiber textiles and textile products and silk blend and other vegetable fiber apparel, produced or manufactured in the Philippines and exported during the period beginning on January 1, 1995 and extending through December 31, 1995.

Effective on August 28, 1995, you are directed, pursuant to the Uruguay Round Agreements Act and the Uruguay Round Agreement on Textiles and Clothing, to establish a limit at 43,983 numbers<sup>1</sup> for textile products in Category 444, produced or manufactured in the Philippines and exported during the period beginning on May 31, 1995 and extending through December 31, 1995.

Textile products in Category 444 shall remain subject to the Group II limit established in the directive dated March 30, 1995 for the period January 1, 1995 through December 31, 1995.

<sup>1</sup> The limit has not been adjusted to account for any imports exported after May 30, 1995.

Textile products in Category 444 which have been exported to the United States prior to May 31, 1995 shall not be subject to this directive.

Import charges will be provided at a later date.

In carrying out the above directions, the Commissioner of Customs should construe entry into the United States for consumption to include entry for consumption into the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements has determined that this action falls within the foreign affairs exception of the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1).

Sincerely,

Rita D. Hayes,

Department of the Treasury, Washington, DC 20229. 1

Dear Commissioner: This directive amends, but does not cancel, the directive issued to you on January 6, 1995, by the Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements. That directive directs you to prohibit entry of certain cotton and man-made fiber textile products, produced or manufactured in El Salvador which were not properly visaed by the Government of El Salvador.

Effective on September 1, 1995, you are directed to require a visa for goods in Categories 351, 651, 352 and 652 which are produced or manufactured in El Salvador and exported from El Salvador on and after September 1, 1995. Shipments of goods in Categories 351, 651, 352 and 652 may be visaed as merged Categories 351/651 and 352/652 or the correct category corresponding to the actual shipment. Goods exported during the period September 1, 1995 through September 30, 1995 shall not be denied entry for lack of a visa.

Shipments entered or withdrawn from warehouse according to this directive which are not accompanied by an appropriate export visa shall be denied entry and a new visa must be obtained.

The Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements has determined that this action falls within the foreign affairs exception to the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1).

Sincerely,

Rita D. Hayes,
