

(OAR) to evaluate the AIDS research activities of the NIH. The NIH AIDS Research Program Evaluation Working Group was established by the OAR to carry out this major evaluation initiative, reviewing and assessing each of the components of the NIH AIDS research endeavor to determine whether those components are appropriately designed and coordinated to answer the critical scientific questions to lead to better treatments, prevention, and a cure for AIDS. Six Area Review Panels were also established to address the following research areas: Natural History and Epidemiology; Etiology and Pathogenesis; Clinical Trials; Drug Development; Vaccine Research; and Behavioral and Social Sciences Research.

The purpose of the meeting is to review the status of efforts of each of the six Area Review Panels and to seek input from individuals and organizations interested in the evaluation of AIDS research.

During the session from 10:30 until 12:30 p.m., each of the Chairs of the Area Review Panels will present reports on the efforts of the Panels. The afternoon session from 1:30 until 5:00 will be devoted to presentations from the public. These sessions are open to the public; however, attendance may be limited by seat availability.

Comments should be confined to statements related to the current status of NIH AIDS Research and recommendations for consideration by the panel in assessing and reviewing the major biomedical and behavioral research components.

Only one representative of an organization may present oral comments. Each speaker will be permitted 5 minutes for their presentation. Interested individuals and representatives of organizations must submit a letter of intent to present comments and three (3) typewritten copies of the presentation, along with a brief description of the organization represented, to the attention of: Dr. Robert Eisinger, Office of AIDS Research, NIH, 31 Center Drive, MSC 2340, Building 31, Room 4B62, Bethesda, Maryland 20892-2340; telephone: 301-402-8655; FAX: 301-402-8638. Letters of intent and copies of presentations must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. edt on September 8, 1995.

Individuals wishing to provide only written statements must send three (3) typewritten copies of their comments, including a brief description of their organization, to the above address no later than 5 p.m. edt on September 8, 1995. Statements submitted after that date will be accepted, but may not be available to the Evaluation Working Group prior to the meeting.

Dated: August 25, 1995.
