Place: September 21, 1995, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Harold Washington Social Security Center, 600 West Madison, Chicago, IL 60661; September 21, 1995, 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m., The Ambassador West Hotel, 1300 North State Parkway, Chicago, IL 60610; September 22, 1995, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Harold Washington Social Security Center, 600 West Madison, Chicago, IL 60661.

Type of Meeting: The meeting is open to the public.

Purpose: In accordance with section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Social Security Administration (SSA) announces the second meeting of the Representative Payment Advisory Committee. The Committee will discuss issues related to payee selection, payee recruitment and retention, standards for payee performance and payee oversight. The Committee will focus its discussion on standards for determining beneficiary (in)capability.

SSA assumes that adult beneficiaries are capable and develops capability only if there is an indication that the beneficiary cannot manage or direct the management of benefits. For beneficiaries with mental impairments, SSA develops capability only if there is an indication that the beneficiary may not have the ability to reason properly, is disoriented, has seriously impaired judgement or is unable to communicate with others. For beneficiaries with physical impairments, SSA develops capability only if the impairment makes the beneficiary dependent upon others to meet daily needs and to make decisions. If the beneficiary can direct the management of benefits, a payee is not appointed.

Acceptable evidence of capability includes legal, medical and other evidence that describes the person's ability to understand the value of money and make decisions about its use. Other evidence is usually information from people close to the beneficiary who are in a position to know about the beneficiary's abilities through day-to-day contact. Usual sources of this information include the beneficiary, the beneficiary's custodian, friends, relatives, neighbors, landlord, and representatives of community groups.

Determinations of capability are made in SSA field offices. The determination of capability is relevant only for payment of SSA-administered funds. A determination of incapability is reviewed whenever the beneficiary requests direct receipt of payments. SSA considers making a determination of incapability when it reviews a beneficiary's disability status or redetermines his or her eligibility for SSI payments.

Agenda: The Committee will meet commencing at 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 21, 1995, with a break for dinner, and from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Friday September 22, 1995. Agenda items for both days will include, but not be limited to, a discussion concerning standards for determining beneficiary (in)capability.
