Brown and Brazilian Minister of External Relations Luiz Felipe Lampreia signed the Terms of Reference to create the U.S.-Brazil Business Development Council (B-BDC). The purpose of the BDCs, which are bilateral, public-private sector councils, is to provide a forum for cooperation through which U.S. and respectively, Argentine and Brazilian (Argentine/Brazilian) representatives can exchange information on commercial matters and encourage discussion on various themes related to bilateral business development and trade promotion.

The BDCs are comprised of U.S. and Argentine/Brazilian sections. The U.S. sections are comprised of U.S. Government officials and senior level representatives of U.S. companies with commercial interest and experience in Argentina/Brazil. The activities of the BDCs may include, but are not limited to, the following: identifying commercial opportunities, impediments and issues of concern to the U.S. and Argentine/Brazilian business communities; improving dissemination of information on U.S.-Argentine/Brazilian market opportunities; developing sectoral or project oriented approaches to expanding bilateral business opportunities; implementing bilateral trade and business development programs; and other appropriate steps to foster bilateral commercial relations.

To implement these activities, the BDCs have formed various working groups, including Standards Working Groups ("Standards Groups") in each BDC. The two Standards Groups intend to implement a program to encourage use of internationally accepted standards and conformity assessment practices and to enhance the efficiency of U.S.-Argentine/Brazilian commerce by identifying possible solutions to standards-related impediments.
