In situations involving violations that require immediate attention, such as when a reportable violation is ongoing, the bank shall immediately notify by telephone the appropriate law enforcement authority in addition to filing an SAR.

(c) Exception. A bank is not required to file a suspicious transaction report for a robbery or burglary committed or attempted that is reported to appropriate law enforcement authorities.

(d) Retention of records. A bank shall maintain a copy of any SAR filed and the original of any related documentation for a period of ten years from the date of filing the SAR, unless the bank is informed by FinCEN in writing that the bank may discard the materials sooner. Supporting documentation shall be identified, segregated, and treated as filed with the SAR. A bank shall make all supporting documentation available to FinCEN and any appropriate law enforcement agencies upon request.

(e) Confidentiality of reports; limitation of liability. No financial institution, nor any director, officer, employee, or agent of any financial institution, who reports a suspicious transaction under this Part, may notify any person involved in the transaction that the transaction has been reported. Thus, any person subpoenaed or otherwise requested to disclose an SAR, the information contained in an SAR or any information contained in the documentation supporting an SAR, except where such disclosure is requested by a law enforcement agency, shall refuse to produce the SAR or such other information. See 31 U.S.C. 5318(g)(2). A bank, and any director, officer, employee, or agent of such bank, that make a report pursuant to this § 103.21 shall be protected from liability for any disclosure contained, for failure to disclose the fact of such report, or both, to the extent provided by 31 U.S.C. section 5318(g)(3).

(f) Compliance. Compliance with these rules shall be audited by the Department of the Treasury or its delegates under the terms of the Bank Secrecy Act. Failure to satisfy the requirements of this rule shall be a violation of the reporting rules of the Bank Secrecy Act and of 31 CFR Part 103. Such failure may also violate provisions of Titles 12 and 15 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Whether or not a bank satisfies the requirements of this reporting rule has no direct bearing on the obligations or possible liabilities of such bank or its directors, officers, employees, or agents, under provisions of Title 18 of the United States Code.

7. Adjournment.

The meeting is open to the public. It is expected that 75 persons will be able to attend the meeting in addition to the Committee members.

Due to an unintentional mis-routing of this notice while it was being processed within the National Park Service, the notice could not be published at least 15 days prior to the meeting dates. The National Park Service regrets this error, but is compelled to hold the meeting as scheduled because of the significant sacrifice re-scheduling would require of committee members who have adjusted their schedules to accommodate the proposed meeting dates, and the high level of anticipation by all parties who will be affected by the outcome of the committee's actions. Since the proposed meeting dates have received widespread publicity in area news media and among the parties most affected, the National Park Service believes that the public interest will not be adversely affected by the less-than-15-days advance notice in the Federal Register.

The Committee was established pursuant to the Negotiated Rulemaking Act of 1990 (5 U.S.C. 561-570). The purpose of the Committee is to advise the National Park Service with regard to proposed rulemaking governing off-road vehicle use at Cape Cod National Seashore.

Interested persons may make oral/written presentations to the Committee during the business meeting or file written statements. Such presentations may be made to the Committee during the Public Participation Period the day of the meeting, or in writing to the Park Superintendent at least seven days prior to the meeting. Further information concerning the meeting may be obtained from the Superintendent, Cape Cod National Seashore, South Wellfleet, MA 02663.
