

2. Request States to Create and File Plans

The ASC could request each State to draft and file with the ASC a plan to accomplish reciprocity with at least all contiguous States by a specific time. For States not sharing geographically contiguous borders with any other State, such as Alaska and Hawaii, those States would need to draft a plan to include States that certify or license appraisers who perform a significant number of appraisals in Alaska and Hawaii. The ASC would review each State's plan as part of its State agency monitoring function, and, wherever appropriate, work with the State and surrounding States to resolve issues and arrive at mutually satisfactory arrangements.

V. Request for Comments

A. In General

The ASC requests comment on all aspects of implementing the new legislation from interested members of the public, including appraisers, States and their State appraiser regulatory agencies, users of appraisal services and industry groups. The approaches set forth above are intended only to be starting points for discussion and comment, and the ASC welcomes variations or combinations of these approaches and the recommendation of other alternatives.

B. Specific Questions

(1) In your view, what are the most serious impediments to temporary practice or reciprocity? Please provide your best estimates of their costs in time and money, if possible.

(2) Do you believe that these impediments warrant ASC action?

(3) Are any of the alternatives presented in Part IV especially well suited to removing the impediments, and what are your reasons for your choice?

(4) Do other alternatives exist? If so, please describe them.

(5) Are there any other issues related to temporary practice or reciprocity that should be brought to the ASC's attention?

By the Appraisal Subcommittee of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council.

Dated: August 31, 1995.

Diana L. Garmus,
Chairperson.
