

the State of Connecticut for a portion of their past and future response costs at the Site. Of the $503,325 generated by the settlement, $100,665 will be used for the partial funding of a non-time-critical removal action ("NTCRA") being performed at the Site by the larger-volume generator PRPs and the remaining $402,660 will be set aside for the funding of future remedial actions at the Site. The NTCRA comprises, inter alia, the installation and operation of a groundwater containment system designed to prevent further migration from the Site of contaminated groundwater. The Supplemental Early De Minimis Consent Decree also provides the settling defendants with a release for civil liability for EPA's and the State's past and future CERCLA response costs and natural resource damages at the Site for resources under the trusteeship of the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce, through the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed Early De Minimis Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, PO Box 7611, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044, and should refer to United States and State of Connecticut v. Able Marine, Inc., et al., DOJ Ref. No. 90-7-1-23E. In addition, pursuant to section 7003(d) of RCRA, 42 U.S.C. 6973(d), any member of the public who desires a public meeting in the area affected by the proposed consent decree in order to discuss the proposed consent decree prior to its final entry by the court may request that such a meeting be held. Any such request for a public meeting should be submitted within fifteen (15) days from the date of this publication and sent to the same address and bear the same reference as indicated above for submission of comments.

The proposed consent decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 157 Church Street, 23rd Floor, New Haven, Connecticut 06510; the Region I Office of the Environmental Protection Agency, Region I Records Center, 90 Canal Street, First Floor, Boston, MA 02203; and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, NW., Fourth Floor, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 624-0892. A copy of the proposed consent decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, Fourth Floor, NW., Washington, DC 20005. In requesting a copy, please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $26.25 (25 cents per page reproduction costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library.
