OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Request for Public Comment: Deregulation Measures in Japan

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Request for written comments regarding deregulation measures in Japan.

SUMMARY: The Government of the United States plans to submit to the Government of Japan comments regarding economic deregulation measures by the Government of Japan. The United States Trade Representative (USTR) solicits written comments from interested persons regarding specific laws, regulations, or regulatory practices in Japan, the removal or modification of which would improve market access for United States products or services.

DATES: Comments are due on or before noon on November 3, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20508.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Byron Sigel, Director for Japanese Affairs, (202) 395-5070.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 31, 1995, the Government of Japan announced a package of economic deregulation measures. Before the announcement of those measures, the Government of the United States held several consultations with the Government of Japan regarding deregulation and competition policy issues. On November 15, 1994, and again on April 21, 1995, the Government of the United States, under the coordination of the Office of the United States Trade Representative, submitted to the Government of Japan specific written comments regarding the deregulation process, competition policy issues, administrative reform process, and specific suggestions for deregulation measures. The comments submitted by the Government of the United States are available for public inspection and copying in the USTR Reading Room: Room 101, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20506. An appointment to review the list may be made by calling Brenda Webb (202) 395-6186. The USTR Reading Room is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The Government of the United States plans to consult further with the Government of Japan regarding the measures announced last spring as well as additional deregulation and competition policy measures and issues. The Government of the United States plans to submit to the Government of Japan further specific comments addressing these areas. USTR will use the comments solicited pursuant to this notice in developing the comments that the Government of the United States will submit to the Government of Japan.

Request for Public Comment

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments on specific laws, regulations, or regulatory practices in Japan, the removal or modification of which would improve market access for United States' products or services. Comments need not be limited to the sectors covered by the deregulation measures previously announced by the Government of Japan, but may address any sector. Comments should identify and explain the laws, regulations, and regulatory practices in sufficient detail to allow a full understanding of the regulatory issued and market access concerns.

In addition to comments regarding specific laws, regulations, or regulatory practices, USTR is interested in receiving comments from interested persons regarding regulatory processes and procedures, for example regarding transparency or review of administrative actions, which affect market access. USTR also solicits comments regarding the specific experiences and suggestions of interested persons with respect competition laws and policies and their enforcement in Japan.

Comments are due no later than noon on November 3, 1995. Comments must be in English and provided in twenty copies to: Sybia Harrison, Deregulation Measures in Japan, Room 223, USTR, 600 17th Street NW, Washington, DC 20506.

Comments will be placed in a file open to public inspection, except confidential business information exempt from public inspection in accordance with 15 CFR 2006.15(b). Confidential business information submitted in accordance with 15 CFR 2006.15(b) must be clearly marked "BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL" in contrasting color ink at the top of each page of each copy, and must be accompanied by a nonconfidential summary of the confidential information. The nonconfidential summary will be placed in the file that is open to public inspection.

Byron Sigel,

Director for Japanese Affairs.
