

and PRC (60 FR 52649, 52651, 52647, October 10, 1995).

In accordance with section 735(a)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, (the Act), exporters in each of these investigations requested that the Department postpone its final determination until 135 days after the date of publication of the preliminary determination. Under section 735(a)(2)(A) of the Act the Department may postpone, subsequent to an affirmative preliminary determination, if the Department receives a request for postponement of the final determination from exporters who account for a significant proportion of exports of the merchandise which is the subject of the investigation. Accordingly, we are postponing our final determinations in these investigations until February 22, 1996.

Public Comment

In accordance with 19 CFR 353.38, case briefs or other written comments in at least ten copies must now be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration not later than the following schedule:

	Case briefs	Rebuttal briefs
Taiwan	12/12	12/15
Japan	12/12	12/15
PRC	12/13	12/18

A list of authorities used and an executive summary of issues should accompany any briefs submitted to the Department. Such summary should be limited to five pages total, including footnotes. COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

New York Cotton Exchange: Proposed Amendments Relating to the Maximum Daily Price Fluctuation Limits for the Cotton No. 2 Futures Contract

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed contract market rule change.

SUMMARY: The New York Cotton Exchange ("NYCE") has submitted proposed amendments to its cotton No. 2 futures contract that will increase the contract's base maximum daily price fluctuation limit ("price limit") and make certain other changes to the contract's terms regarding the contract's price limits.

In accordance with Section 5a(a)(12) of the Commodity Exchange Act and acting pursuant to the authority delegated by Commission Regulation 140.96, the Acting Director of the Division of Economic Analysis ("Division") of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") has determined, on behalf of the Commission, that publication of the proposed amendments is in the public interest and will assist the Commission in considering the views of interested persons.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before November 24, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Interested persons should submit their views and comments to Jean A. Webb, Secretary, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Center, 1155 21st Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20581. Reference should be made to the proposed amendments relating to changes in the maximum daily price fluctuation limits for the cotton No. 2 futures contract.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Frederick V. Linse, Division of Economic Analysis, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Center, 1155 21st Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20581, telephone (202) 418-5273.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The cotton No. 2 futures contract currently specifies a base price limit of two cents per pound above or below the previous day's settlement price. The contract also stipulates that, if three or more contract months settle at the two-cent-per-pound limit for three consecutive business days, the price limit is increased to three cents per pound. In addition, whenever the daily settlement price for any single futures contract month is 95 cents per pound or higher, the price limit for all contract months on the next business day is increased to three cents per pound. Further, if three or more contract months settle at the higher three-cent-per-pound limit for three consecutive business days and the price for at least one contract month is 95 cents per pound or greater, the three-cent limit is increased to 4½ cents per pound for all contract months. The existing terms also contain provisions specifying the length of time the above-noted expanded price limits remain in effect.

The proposed amendments will (1) increase to three from two cents per pound the contract's base price limit for each contract month listed for trading and (2) specify that the price limit will increase to four from three cents per pound for all contract months listed for trading whenever the settlement price for any one contract month equals or exceeds 110 cents per pound. The proposed amendments also will delete all of the contract's existing terms that provide for expansion of the price limits.

The NYCE intends to apply the proposed amendments to all existing and newly listed contract months following Commission approval.

In support of the proposed amendments the NYCE said that they would simplify the operation of the rule regarding price limits. The NYCE also noted that a study of the cotton futures market for the most recent eighteen months indicated that a price limit of 3 cents per pound would have allowed the futures market to trade freely in at least 90% of its trading sessions.

Copies of the proposed amendments will be available for inspection at the Office of the Secretariat, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Center, 1155 21st Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20581. Copies of the amended terms and conditions can be obtained through the Office of the Secretariat by facsimile by telephone at (202) 418-5100.

Materials submitted by the NYCE in support of the proposed amendments may be available upon request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) and the Commission's regulations thereunder (17 CFR Part 145 (1987)). Requests for copies of such materials should be made to the FOI, Privacy and Sunshine Act Compliance Staff of the Office of the Secretariat at the Commission's headquarters in accordance with CFR 145.7 and 145.8.

Any person interested in submitting written data, views or arguments on the proposed amendments should send such comments to Jean A. Webb, Secretary, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Center, 1155 21st Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20581 by the specified date.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on October 18, 1995.

Blake Imel,

Acting Director, Division of Economic Analysis.
