Arbitration Panel Decision Under the Randolph-Sheppard Act

AGENCY: Department of Education.

ACTION: Notice of arbitration panel decision under the Randolph-Sheppard Act.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that on January 25, 1995, an arbitration panel rendered a decision in the matter of Robert Hill v. Michigan Commission for the Blind (Docket No. R-S/93-2). This panel was convened by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 107d-2, upon receipt of a complaint filed by Robert Hill.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: A copy of the full text of the arbitration panel decision may be obtained from George F. Arsnaw, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue SW., Room 3230, Switzer Building, Washington, D.C. 20202-2738. Telephone: (202) 205-9317. Individuals who use a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) may call the TDD number at (202) 205-8298.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Randolph-Sheppard Act (20 U.S.C. 107d-2(c)), the Secretary publishes a synopsis of arbitration panel decisions affecting the administration of vending facilities on Federal and other property.

Background

The complainant, Robert Hill, was granted a license and was assigned to operate a vending facility at the U.S. Army Tank-Automotive Command (TACOM). Following his assignment, staff of the Michigan Commission for the Blind, the State licensing agency (SLA), made routine visits to complainant's vending facility.

On one of the routine visits, the staff person alleges that certain problems were found at the facility, which included outdated products being sold, lack of cleaning and upkeep of the area, and lack of timely filing of required reports. The SLA staff person also alleges that a number of complaints from officials at TACOM had been received and that these complaints were under investigation to confirm their validity.

The SLA staff person provided technical assistance to the vendor, making numerous suggestions and attempting to assist the vendor in increasing his profit percentage, which was below the norm established by the SLA. The SLA staff person encouraged Mr. Hill to contact other experienced vendors in the vending program for assistance. When no improvement was noted by the SLA staff person and Mr. Hill rejected offers of assistance, the business counselor recommended to the SLA that Mr. Hill's license be revoked as the result of the sanitation problems, the sale of outdated products, the failure to meet profit margin standards, and the late filing of reports.

On October 16, 1991 the SLA notified Mr. Hill that he was failing to comply with the vendor's operating license and agreement requirements and that license revocation proceedings were pending. Subsequently, Mr. Hill's license was revoked, and he requested and received a State fair hearing on April 27, 1992.

On July 30, 1992 the hearing officer rendered an opinion sustaining the SLA's decision to revoke Mr. Hill's vending license. The hearing officer considered Mr. Hill's argument that there was a personality conflict between himself and the SLA staff person. Mr. Hill alleged that the conflict was due to his racial ethnicity and that this was the reason for the revocation of his license. The hearing officer ruled that this argument was not credible. Testimony at the hearing indicated that numerous attempts had been made by the SLA to provide technical assistance and training to Mr. Hill and to assist him in reaching the 25 percent profit margin requirement. Mr. Hill further stated that he was not given sufficient opportunities to bid on other locations after his license revocation.

On March 12, 1993 Mr. Hill filed a complaint requesting that the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education convene a Federal arbitration panel to review the hearing officer's decision, which was adopted as final agency action by the SLA. The complaint was heard by the arbitration panel on September 15 and 26, 1994.

Arbitration Panel Decision

The arbitration panel ruled on three issues as follows: (1) Whether the SLA discriminated against the complainant on the basis of his race. (2) Whether the complainant was given sufficient notice
