SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule contains no reporting or recordkeeping requirements subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (Pub. L. 96-511). The information collection requirements previously approved by the Office of Management and Budget under Regulations, 29 CFR parts 502 and 503 expired September 30, 1992.

II. Background

Section 302 of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-603, November 6, 1986) added sections 210 and 210A to the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), which established a special program for certain agricultural workers. Under this special agricultural worker (SAW) program, the status of a nonimmigrant worker could be adjusted during an 18-month period ending November 30, 1988 to "lawfully admitted for temporary residence" if certain resident and work conditions were demonstrated. Section 210A of INA established a framework for admitting additional nonimmigrants, referred to as replenishment agricultural workers (RAWs), if a shortage of workers in seasonal agricultural services developed during the period beginning with Fiscal Year 1990 and ending with Fiscal Year 1993, or September 30, 1992.

The regulations, 29 CFR parts 502 and 503, were promulgated pursuant to § 210A of the INS, as amended. The regulations at 29 CFR part 502 establish a reporting procedure for employers to report employment information on certain resident nonimmigrant workers employed in seasonal agricultural services (SAWs), and the regulations at 29 CFR part 503 establish the procedure to be used by the Secretaries of Agriculture and Labor in determining the number of additional individuals who could acquire status under § 210A of the INA as replenishment agricultural workers (RAWs) to replenish a shortage of seasonal agricultural workers.

The employer reporting requirements and the agricultural worker replenishment process established by § 210A ceased with the Fiscal Year ending September 30, 1992. Because the regulations at 29 CFR parts 502 and 503 do not affect the current operation of any program, the Department has decided that it is no longer necessary to continue publication of these regulations, in future editions of title 29, and the regulations are, therefore, being removed from the CFR.

Executive Order 12866/Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule is not a "significant regulatory action" within the meaning of Executive Order 12866. The regulations at 29 CFR parts 502 and 503 do not affect the current operation of any program, and their removal from title 29 will not: (1) Have an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more or adversely affect in a material way the economy, a sector of the economy, productivity, competition, jobs, the environment, public health or safety, or State, local, or tribal governments or communities; (2) create a serious inconsistency or otherwise interfere with an action taken or planned by another agency; (3) materially alter the budgetary impact of entitlements, grants, user fees, or loan programs or the rights and obligations of recipients thereof; or (4) raise novel legal or policy issues arising out of legal mandates, the President's priorities, or the principles set forth in Executive
