If no interested party requests an administrative review in accordance with the Department's notice of opportunity to request administrative review, and no domestic interested party objects to the Department's intent to revoke or terminate pursuant to this notice, we shall conclude that the antidumping duty orders, findings, and suspended investigations are no longer of interest to interested parties and shall proceed with the revocation or termination.

Opportunity To Object

Domestic interested parties, as defined in § 353.2(k)(3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations, may object to the Department's intent to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings or to terminate the suspended investigations by the last day of November 1995. Any submission to the Department must contain the name and case number of the proceeding and a statement that explains how the objecting party qualifies as a domestic interested party under § 353.2(k)(3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations.

Seven copies of such objections should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room B-099, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230. You must also include the pertinent certification(s) in accordance with § 353.31(g) and § 353.31(i) of the Department's regulations. In addition, the Department requests that a copy of the objection be sent to Michael F. Panfeld in Room 4203. This notice is in accordance with 19 CFR 353.25(d)(4)(i).

Dated: October 27, 1995.

Holly A. Kuga,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.

Certain Textile Mill Products From Argentina; Notice of Scope Amendment

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Certain Textile Mill Products from Argentina: Notice of Amendment to the Existing Conversion of the Scope of the Order from the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule.

SUMMARY: On January 1, 1989, the United States fully converted to the international harmonized system of tariff classification. On January 11, 1989, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published the Conversion to Use of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of Classifications for Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings (54 FR 993; January 11, 1989) (1989 Conversion) for all antidumping and countervailing duty orders in effect or investigations in progress as of January 1, 1989. On November 2, 1994, the Department published a proposed amendment to the conversion (59 FR 54887). Interested parties were invited to comment on this proposed amended conversion. The Department also requested the U.S. Customs Department to comment on the proposed amendment to the conversion. Based on the analysis of the comments received, the Department is now publishing an amended conversion of the scope of the countervailing duty order on certain textile mill products from Argentina.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 1, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Anne D'Alauro or Kelly Parkhill, Office of Countervailing Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, DC 20230, telephone (202) 482-2786.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In 1985, the Department issued a countervailing duty order on Certain Textile Mill Products from Argentina (C-357-404) (50 FR 9846; March 12, 1985). The scope of this order was originally defined solely in terms of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA) item numbers; no narrative product description was provided. On January 1, 1989, the United States fully converted from the TSUSA to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS). Section 1211 of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 directed the Department to "take whatever actions are necessary to conform, to the fullest extent practicable, with the tariff classification system of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule [for] all * * * orders * * *" in effect at the time of the implementation of the HTS.

Accordingly, on January 11, 1989, after reviewing comments received from the public, the Department published the 1989 Conversion for all antidumping and countervailing duty orders in effect or investigations in progress as of January 1, 1989 (54 FR 993). The notice also included the conversion of the scope of the referenced textile mill product order from TSUSA to HTS item numbers. The 1989 Conversion was based on a one-to-one correspondence of the TSUSA and HTS item numbers. In the notice, the Department stated that the conversion could be amended, as warranted, at any time during the applicable proceeding as a result of the submission of comments or new factual information.

As a result of comments submitted to the Department by the importing public and advice received from the U.S. Customs Service, the Department determined that the 1989 Conversion did not accurately reflect the scope of the countervailing duty order on Certain Textile Mill Products from Argentina and, therefore, that the conversion should be amended. On November 2, 1994, the Department published a proposed amendment to the 1989 Conversion and invited interested parties to comment (59 FR 54887). The Department also requested comments on the proposed conversion from the U.S. Customs Service.

Based on our analysis of the comments received, the Department has amended the 1989 Conversion governing the countervailing duty order on certain textile mill products from Argentina. The HTS numbers included in this order are listed in the attached Appendix.

Analysis of Comments Received

Based on comments received from the U.S. Customs Service, we are making the following changes to the HTS-defined scope, as published on November 2, 1994 (59 FR 54887) so that it better reflects the original TSUSA-defined scope of this countervailing duty order:

1. We are replacing the broader HTS subheading 6302.60.00 with the more specific HTS subheadings: 6302.60.0010, 6302.60.0020, 6302.91.0005, and 6302.91.0050.

2. We are adding HTS subheadings 5111.90.90 and 5112.90.90.

Instructions to Customs

The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to liquidate without regard to countervailing duties all unliquidated entries of certain textile mill products from Argentina not covered by the attached Appendix that were exported from Argentina on or after November 9, 1992. The Department will also instruct the U.S. Customs Service to liquidate at the appropriate countervailing duty rate all unliquidated entries of the subject merchandise covered in the attached Appendix that were exported on or after November 9, 1992, and on or before December 31, 1993. With the finalization of this scope conversion, the Department can now evaluate the merits of a standing issue affecting merchandise exported on or after January 1, 1994, which entered on or before December 31, 1994. Pending that determination, merchandise covered by the order exported on or after January 1, 1994, which entered on or before December 31, 1994, will remain suspended.

In addition, since this order was revoked effective January 1, 1995 (See Revocation of Countervailing Duty Orders (60 FR 40568; August 9, 1995)), the Customs Service has terminated the suspension of liquidation for all entries, and withdrawals from warehouse, of certain textile mill products from Argentina made on or after January 1, 1995.

Dated: October 23, 1995.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.
