Equitrans, Inc.; Notice of Refund Report

November 2, 1995.

Take notice that on October 30, 1995, Equitrans, Inc. (Equitrans) tendered for filing a Report of Refunds Issued on September 29, 1995.

Pursuant to Article VII, Section 1 of the Stipulation and Agreement filed in these proceedings on January 19, 1995 and the Commission's Orders approving the Stipulation and Agreement, Equitrans made refunds to its customers on September 29, 1995 for all amounts collected in excess of the settlement rates which were subject to refund for the period from September 1, 1993 through June 30, 1995.

Equitrans states that included in the refund amount was interest through September 28, 1995 computed in accordance with Section 154.67(c)(2) of the Commission's regulations. Equitrans states that it refunded to its jurisdictional customers the principal amount of $12,312,054, plus interest thereon to the date of distribution of $1,058,971, for a total of $13,371,025.

Equitrans states that a copy of its report has been served on its customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this application should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests should be filed on or before November 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

The proposed effective date of the above tariff sheets is December 1, 1995.

Iroquois states that proposed changes are intended: (1) To implement a best bid process for allocating existing capacity on the Iroquois system when it becomes available (other than through capacity release or right of first refusal), (2) to revise the allocation procedure so that interruptible service will be allocated on the basis of the price paid, (3) to clarify the time nominations are due and explain that nominations can occur through pipeline segments, and (4) to make a number of minor ministerial changes to, for example, eliminate redundant language and indicate the person to whom requests should be made.

Iroquois states that copies of this filing were served upon all jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before November 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the public reference room.

[Docket No. RP95-30-006]

Koch Gateway Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 2, 1995.

Take notice that on October 30, 1995, Koch Gateway Pipeline Company (Koch Gateway) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff Fifth Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets:

Effective October 1, 1995
 1st Rev Second Revised Sheet No. 3904
 Effective November 1, 1995
 Substitute Third Revised Sheet No. 3904
 Substitute Second Revised Sheet No. 3905

Koch Gateway states that the above referenced tariff sheets reflect revisions to its tariff in compliance with the September 29, 1995, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("Commission") Order. Pursuant to the Commission's order, Koch Gateway revised the above referenced tariff sheets to (1) provide for a recovery period of two years from the effective date of each Account No. 858 surcharge, (2) annually adjust its Account No. 858 surcharges, and (3) refund any overrecovery of Account No. 858 costs. Accordingly, Koch Gateway has revised the above referenced tariff sheets to reflect the necessary changes.

Additionally, Koch Gateway states that, as a result of overlapping proceedings, it is filing Substitute Third Revised Sheet No. 3904 and 3905 to reflect the tariff revisions that will be effective November 1, 1995.

Koch Gateway also states that the tariff sheets are being mailed to all parties on the official service list created by the Secretary in this proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's regulations. All such protests should be filed on or before November 9, 1995.

Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 2, 1995.

Take notice that on October 31, 1995, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, Fourth Revised Sheet No. 22, to be effective December 1, 1995.

Natural states that the filing is submitted pursuant to Section 21 of the General Terms and Conditions of Natural's FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1 (Section 21), as the fifth semiannual limited rate filing under Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act and the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) promulgated thereunder. The rate adjustments filed for are designed to recover Account No. 858 stranded costs incurred by Natural under contracts for transportation capacity on other pipelines. Costs for any Account No. 858 contracts specifically excluded under Section 21 are not reflected in the filing.

Natural requested specific waivers of Section 21 and the Commission's Regulations, including the requirements of Section 154.63, to the extent necessary to permit the tariff sheet to become effective December 1, 1995.

Natural states that copies of the filing are being mailed to Natural's jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

North Penn Gas Company; Notice of Filing

November 2, 1995.

Take notice that on October 30, 1995, North Penn Gas Company (North Penn) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Seventeenth Revised Sheet No. 3A.

According to North Penn, the purpose of the filing is to fulfill the obligation, set forth in section 17.4 of the General Terms and Conditions of North Penn's tariff, to refund past overrecoveries of Take-or-Pay (TOP) costs to North Penn's FERC-jurisdictional customers, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation and New York State Electric and Gas Corporation. By order dated June 29, 1995 in North Penn Gas Co., Docket No. RP95-304, the Commission required North Penn to submit a tariff filing by October 31, 1995 to distribute such refunds as of December 29, 1995. North Penn states that the instant filing is also in satisfaction of that order.

North Penn requests waiver of any of the Commission's Rules and Regulations that may be required so that the tendered tariff sheet can be made effective as North Penn requests.

North Penn states that copies of the letter of transmittal and all enclosures are being mailed to each of North Penn's affected customers and State Commissions shown on the service list attached to the filing.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, and 214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 9, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
