The Iron and Steel Subcommittee has created four work groups which are responsible for proposing to the full Subcommittee for its review and approval potential activities or projects that the Iron and Steel Sector Subcommittee will undertake, and for carrying out projects once approved. The Subcommittee has approved seven projects and their work plans. The purpose of the December meeting is to discuss in detail the status of projects sponsored by the Permits and the Brownfields work groups, to hear brief status updates from the Compliance and Innovative Technology work groups, to learn more about integrated industries, and to discuss the role of pollution prevention in the industry.

Resource Conservation and Recovery Act; (RCRA) Docket Information Center: Relocation

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of move and of closing of RCRA Docket Information Center during the move.

SUMMARY: The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act Docket Information Center (RIC) will move from M2616, 401 M Street SW., Washington, DC to Crystal Gateway, First Floor, 1235 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, VA. The RIC will be closed from November 14, 1995 through November 24, 1995. Closing the RCRA Docket Information Center during the move will facilitate the moving of the RIC's collection and ensure the integrity of the regulatory dockets. The move will allow the RIC to provide improved services to its patrons.

As of October 30, 1995, the public comment periods that will be open during the move are as follows:

The RIC expects the following dockets to open between October 30 and November 27:

F-95-MMP
Military Munitions
F-95-PRLP
Petroleum Listing Proposal
F-95-B5EP
Bethlehem Steel Delisting Proposal
F-95-WHWP
Hazardous Waste Identification Rule (HWIR) Waste Proposal

Special arrangements may be made to see the materials in the above dockets during the time the RIC is closed by calling (202) 260-9327.

The Docket will continue to receive mailed comments at the EPA Headquarters mailing address—RCRA Information Center (5305W), 401 M Street, SW, Washington DC 20460. During the time the RIC is closed, comments may be hand-delivered to M2616, 401 M Street, SW, Washington, DC. Beginning November 27, comments should be hand-delivered to the Virginia address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: RCRA Docket Information Center (5305W), 401 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20460, (202/260-9327). Beginning November 27, the phone number will be 703/603-9230.

Dated: November 1, 1995.

Michael Shapiro,

Director, Office of Solid Waste.

User's Guide to Federal Accidental Release Databases

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of availability.

SUMMARY: This notice announces the public availability of an EPA document developed in coordination with the 16 federal agencies on the National Response Team (NRT) titled "User's Guide to Federal Accidental Release Databases." This document was produced to address impediments to accessing the various federal accidental release databases as identified by "A Review of Federal Authorities for Hazardous Materials Accident Safety," which was required under Section 112(r)(10) of the Clean Air Act.

DATES: This report is now available at the address indicated below.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the report may be obtained by phoning the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-

Know Information Hot Line Telephone: (800) 424-9346 or (703) 412-9877 when calling local from Washington, DC area.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. David Chung, Chemical Emergency Preparedness and Prevention Office (Code 5101), U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street SW., Washington, DC 20460, Telephone 202-260-8942.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: EPA is announcing the public availability of a document titled "User's Guide to Federal Accidental Release Databases." The guide was produced to make the various federal accidental release databases more usable, available, and comparable. It addresses the problems with using the federal accidental release databases as identified by the report titled "A Review of Federal Authorities for Hazardous Materials Accident Safety," which was called for under section 112(r)(10) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7412. Issuance of the user's guide does not represent final Agency action.

The user's guide provides information on the seven major federal accidental release databases maintained by the National Response Center (NRC), EPA, DOT, OSHA, and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR) so as to facilitate data interpretation, analysis, and comparison. The guide describes the information included in each of the databases and outlines some general search strategies to assist the user in formulating a search strategy and choosing the appropriate database. Also included in the user's guide are brief, descriptive profiles of the seven federal accidental release databases and discussions of future linking of databases to enable analysis of the databases in combination.

Jim Makris,

Director, Chemical Emergency Preparedness and Prevention Office.
