Information Collection Under Review

The Notice Below is a Correction to the Notice on Page 54516 of the Federal Register, Vol. 60, No. 205, Tuesday, October 24, 1995.

The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register.

Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology. e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

If you have additional comments or suggestions, please include them with your written response. If a copy of the proposed collection instrument with instructions is not published in this notice please contact the agency representative listed below if you wish to receive a copy: MS. Ellen Westley, Office of Justice Programs, Room 401, Indiana Building, 633 Indiana Ave., NW., Washington, DC 20530.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, without change, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: The Parole Data Survey and the Probation Data Survey.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: CJ7—The Parole Data Survey, CJ8—The Probation Data Survey. Bureau of Justice Statistics, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Federal Government. Other: State, Local or Tribal Governments. These data will provide the Bureau of Justice Statistics with aggregate information about offenders under the supervision of parole and probation agencies across the country. Data are collected from 93 central respondents and 234 local respondents. Since over 70% of the 5.1 million offenders under correctional supervision are under parole or probation supervision it is essential for any criminal justice reporting system to include this segment.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 327 responses per year at 1.5 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 491 annual burden hours.

If additional information is required contact: Mr. Robert B. Briggs, Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Systems Policy Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: November 21, 1995.

Robert B. Briggs,

Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice.
