CORPORATION FOR NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Reauthorization of the National and Community Service Act of 1990, as Amended, and the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as Amended

AGENCY: Corporation for National and Community Service.

ACTION: Request for public comment—extension of deadline for submission of public comments.

SUMMARY: To ensure participation by the greatest number of interested parties, the Corporation for National and Community Service extends the deadline for submission of written comments from the public regarding the reauthorization of the Corporation and of programs implemented under the National and Community Service Act of 1990, as amended by the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993, 42 U.S.C. 12501 et seq., and the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 4950 et seq. The statutory authorization for the Corporation and its programs expires on September 30, 1996. However, the reauthorization process has already begun and issues are currently being discussed. In order to contribute in a timely manner to Congressional reauthorization discussions, the Corporation is reviewing its statutory provisions and programs. To ensure an opportunity for public participation, the Corporation invites public comments. As Congress may hold hearings on the reauthorization of the Corporation and its programs as early as the mid- or late-December of 1995, the Corporation encourages the public to submit written comments as soon as possible.

DATES: Only written comments will be considered. Comments must be submitted on or before January 15, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be addressed to Terry Russell, General Counsel, Corporation for National Service, 1201 New York Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20525.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Myung J. Lee, Associate General Counsel, Corporation for National Service, 1201 New York Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20525. Telephone: (202) 606-5000, ext. 548.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Corporation is a government corporation that engages Americans of all ages and backgrounds in community-based service. This service addresses the nation's education, public safety, human, and environmental needs by achieving direct and demonstrable results. In doing so, the Corporation fosters civic responsibility, strengthens the ties that bind us together as a people, and provides educational opportunity for those who make a substantial commitment to service.

Pursuant to the National and Community Service Act of 1990, as amended, the Corporation makes grants to States, subdivisions of States, Indian tribes, U.S. Territories, public or private nonprofit organizations, Federal agencies and institutions of higher education to carry out service programs as part of AmeriCorps* National, AmeriCorps* State, Learn and Serve America (School and Community Based and Higher Education), or AmeriCorps* NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

The Corporation also oversees programs implemented under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as amended, including AmeriCorps* VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) and National Senior Service Corps (Retired Seniors Volunteer Program (RSVP), Senior Companions, and Foster Grandparents) programs.

Listed below are some of the issues that have been raised in anticipation of reauthorization by both critics and supporters of the Corporation and its programs. Please note that the following list is not exhaustive and comments do not have to be restricted to these issues:

1. Ethic of service—Beyond the programs of Learn and Serve, AmeriCorps, and National Senior
