Proposed Administrative Settlement Under Section 122(g)(4) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, Regarding the Hudson Coal Tar Site, Hudson, NY

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice of proposed administrative settlement and opportunity for public comment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with Section 122(i) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, as amended (''CERCLA''), 42 U.S.C. § 9622(i), the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (''EPA'') Region II announces a proposed administrative de minimis settlement pursuant to Section 122(g)(4) of CERCLA, relating to the Hudson Coal Tar Site (''Site'') in Hudson, New York. This Site is not on the National Priorities List established pursuant to Section 105(a) of CERCLA. This notice is being published to inform the public of the proposed settlement and of the opportunity to comment.

The settlement, memorialized in an Administrative Order on Consent (the ''Order''), is being entered into by EPA and Lockwood Properties, Inc. (''Lockwood''). Under the Order, Lockwood will provide EPA and Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., a potentially responsible party currently undertaking a removal action at the Site, with access to its property in order to permit the performance of response actions there. Lockwood has also agreed, among other things, to cooperate with EPA and Niagara Mohawk in their implementation of response actions at the Site; exercise due care with respect to hazardous substances at Lockwood's property; and provide perimeter fencing to secure the portion of the Site owned by Lockwood. Under the Order, EPA, in turn, covenants not to sue Lockwood for any civil liability for injunctive relief or reimbursement of response costs with regard to the Site, pursuant to Sections 106 or 107(a) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9606, 9607(a), subject to certain reservations of rights.

De Minimis Settlements Under Section 122(g) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), as Amended, 42 U.S.C. § 9622(g), Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Site, City of St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice of the de minimis settlements under Section 122(g) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9622(g), Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Site, City of St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri.

SUMMARY: The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has entered into four separate de minimis administrative settlements to resolve claims under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9622(g). These settlements are intended to resolve the liability of Canam Steel Company, St. Louis Steel Products, Henkel Corporation, and Peerless-Premier Appliance Company for the response costs incurred and to be incurred at the Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Site, City of St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri.

DATES: Written comments must be provided on or before January 12, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be addressed to the Regional Administrator, United States Environmental Protection Agency, Region VII, 726 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66101 and should refer to: In the Matter of the Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Superfund Site, City of St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri, EPA Docket Nos. VII–94–F–0022, VII–94–F–0021, VII–94–F–0027, and VII–94–F–0023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Denise L. Roberts, Assistant Regional Counsel, United States Environmental Protection Agency, Region VII, 726 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66101, (913) 551–7559.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The settling parties are Canam Steel Company, Henkel Corporation, Peerless-Premier Appliance Company, and St. Louis Steel Products. They are de minimis generators of hazardous substances found at the Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Site, which is the subject Superfund Site. In July and August 1995, Region VII entered into four separate de minimis administrative settlements to resolve claims under Section 122(g) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9622(g).

The Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings Site (the Site) is located in St. Louis at 1265 Lewis Street, St. Louis, Missouri, approximately 1/4 mile north of downtown St. Louis in an industrial section of the city. The de minimis parties were corporations that manufactured paints. The de minimis parties sold paint sludges, paint solids, and paint liquids or semi-liquids to Peerless Industrial Paint Coatings (''Peerless''), a St. Louis corporation, at very low prices. The de minimis parties either admitted that they were disposing of hazardous substances through this arrangement, admitted that there was no other customer besides Peerless for such materials, and/or that the sales price was lower than the costs of disposal for hazardous wastes at an authorized permitted facility. Peerless was a manufacturer of paints and magazine coatings that purchased large quantities of paint materials at low prices and accumulated more materials on-site than could be used. In June 1993, the EPA began a removal action at the site. Approximately 3500 drums of hazardous substances that demonstrated the characteristics of ignitability were removed from the facility at the cost of $1,089,062.71.

The settlements have been approved by the U.S. Department of Justice because the response costs in this matter exceed $500,000.00. The EPA estimates the total past and future costs will be approximately $1,206,089.71. Pursuant to the Administrative Orders on Consent, the de minimis parties are responsible for the following costs: Peerless-Premier Appliance Company has an attributable share of 1.20% and is responsible for $13,236.45 in past costs and $1,193.24 in future costs; Canam Steel Corporation has an attributable share of 1.29% and is responsible for $14,238.45 in past costs and $1,283.55 in future costs; St. Louis Steel Products has an attributable share of 1.665% and is responsible for $18,412.20 in past costs and $1,659.80 in future costs; and Henkel Corporation has an attributable share of .30% and is responsible for $3,453.48 in past costs and $311.32 in future costs. The EPA determined these amounts to be the de minimis parties; fair shares of liability based on the amount of hazardous substances found at the Site and contributed by each of the settling parties. These settlements include contribution protection from lawsuits by other potentially responsible parties as provided for under Section 122(g)(5) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9622(g)(5).

The de minimis settlements provide that the EPA covenants not to sue the de minimis parties for response costs at the Site or for injunctive relief pursuant to Sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA and Section 7003 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1980, as amended (RCRA), 42 U.S.C. 6973. The settlements contain a reopener clause which nullifies the covenant not to sue if any information becomes known to the EPA that indicates that the parties no longer meet the criteria for a de minimis settlement set forth in Section 122(g)(1)(A) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9622(g)(1)(A). The covenant not to sue does not apply to the following matters:

(a) Claims based on a failure to exercise due care with respect to hazardous substances at the Site;

(b) Claims based on a failure to make the payments required by Section IV, Paragraph 1 of this Consent Order;

(c) Claims based on the exacerbation by Respondent of the release or threat of release of hazardous substances from the Site;

(d) Claims based on the introduction of any hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant by any person at the Site after the effective date of this Consent Order;

(e) Criminal liability; or

(f) Liability for damages or injury to, destruction of, or loss of the natural resources.

The de minimis settlements will become effective upon the date which the EPA issues a written notice to the parties that the statutory public comment period has closed and that comments received, if any, do not require modification of or EPA withdrawal from the settlements.

Dennis Grams,

Regional Administrator.
