

Essentially, the capitalization of certain words (Act, custodian, civil investigative demand) was made consistent throughout the regulation, and the term "civil investigation demand" was changed to "civil investigative demand," which is the term used in the statute.

The above-mentioned interim rule included a 60-day public comment period. The Department received no comments before the comment period expired on October 24, 1995. The Department has determined to issue the rule in final form without revision to the interim rule.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

29 CFR Part 215

RIN 1294-AA14

Office of Labor-Management Programs; Guidelines, Section 5333(b), Federal Transit Law

AGENCY: Office of Labor-Management Programs, Office of the American Workplace, Labor.

ACTION: Confirmation of effective date.

SUMMARY: The Office of Labor-Management Programs published a notice in the January 5, 1996 Federal Register (61 FR 386) deferring the effective date of implementation of guidelines for the employee protection program under Title 49 U.S.C., Chapter 53, Section 5333(b) of the Federal Transit law. Pursuant to the January 5, notice, the original effective date, January 8, 1996, was extended for a period equal to the duration of the furlough caused by the partial government shutdown that began on December 16, 1995.

This document announces and confirms that the new effective date of the guidelines will be January 29, 1996. This action was taken because the temporary closing of government offices and the furlough of Department of Labor (the Department) employees responsible for the administration of this program precluded the Office of Labor-Management Programs from undertaking the necessary staff training and preparation of materials and documents to allow for implementation of the guidelines.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new effective date of the guidelines is January 29, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kelley Andrews, Director, Statutory Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room N-5411, Washington, DC 20210, (202) 219-4473.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Rationale

The Office of Labor-Management Programs, Office of the American Workplace, hereby confirms that January 29, 1996 will be the new effective date of the guidelines for the administration of the transit employee protection program pursuant to Section 5333(b) of the Federal Transit law, commonly referred to as "Section 13(c)", (FR Vol. 60, No. 235, pg. 62964, December 7, 1995).

II. Publication in Final

The Department finds good cause that public comment on the confirmation of the effective date of these guidelines to be impracticable and unnecessary because the Department is forced to take this action due to the temporary closing of Federal offices and the furlough, caused by the partial government shutdown, affecting the Department employees who administer this program. 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B).

Signed at Washington, DC this 22nd day of January, 1996.
