

this section and, if the time period of the transition plan is longer than one year, identify steps that will be taken during each year of the transition period; and indicate the official responsible for implementation of the plan. If a public entity has already complied with the transition plan requirement of a Federal agency regulation implementing section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or it has previously developed a transition plan to implement title II, the revised transition plan requirements apply only to those policies and practices that were not included in the previous transition plan(s).

Public entities are required to provide an opportunity to interested persons, including individuals with disabilities or organizations representing individuals with disabilities, to participate in the development of transition plans and they are required to make a copy of the transitions plan available for public inspection.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in State and Local Government services. (Transition Plan).

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form: None. Disability Rights Section, Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: State, Local or Tribal Government. Other: None. Under title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), State and Local governments cannot discriminate against individuals with disabilities in operating services, programs, and activities. If physical changes to existing facilities are required to achieve program access, public entities that have 50 or more employees must prepare a transition plan and make it available for public inspection. This proposed amendment to the current transition plan requirement applies only to those public entities that have 50 or more employees, that have responsibility or authority over streets, roads, walkways, and that choose to take advantage of the extensions of time provided by the proposed rule.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 10,000 responses (public entities) at 2 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 20,000 annual burden hours at $10 per hour for a total burden cost of $200,000.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

President's Committee on the International Labor Organization; Notice of Closed Meeting

In accordance with Section 10(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463), announcement is hereby given of a meeting of the President's Committee on the ILO:

Name: President's Committee on the International Labor Organization.

Date: Tuesday, January 30, 1996.

Time: 10:30 am.

Place: U.S. Department of Labor, Third & Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-2508, Washington, DC 20210.

Purpose: The meeting will include a review and discussion of current issues relating to United States' negotiating positions with member nations of the International Labor Organization. The meeting will concern matters the disclosure of which would seriously compromise the Government's negotiating objectives and bargaining positions. Accordingly, the meeting will be closed to the public, pursuant to Section 9(b) of the Government in the Sunshine Act, 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(9)(B).

Due to the furlough of Labor Department employees and other complications, we are unable to provide the full 15 days of prior notice of this meeting.

For Further Information Contact: Mr. Joaquin F. Otero, President's Committee on the International Labor Organization, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room S-2235, Washington, DC 20210; Telephone (202) 219-6043.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 22nd day of January 1996.

Robert B. Reich,
Secretary of Labor.

BILLING CODE 4510-23-M

Bureau of International Labor Affairs; U.S. National Administrative Office; North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation; Public Forum on the Effects of Sudden Plant Closings and the Impact on the Principle of Freedom of Association and the Right of Workers To Organize AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of public forum.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce a public forum on Submission 9501 filed under the North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation

Submission 9501, filed with the Mexican National Administrative Office (Mexican NAO) by the Telephone Workers of The Republic of Mexico, involves labor law matters in the United States, and was filed for review on February 9, 1995. The Mexican NAO issued a public report on May 31, 1995 requesting ministerial consultations on the matter, pursuant to Article 22 of the North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC). Pursuant to these ministerial consultations an agreement was reached on December 15, 1995, between the United States Secretary of Labor Robert B. Reich and his Mexican counterpart, Secretary Javier Bonilla Garcia. This agreement provides, inter alia, for a public forum in San Francisco, California to allow interested parties an opportunity to convey to the public their concerns on the effects of the sudden closing of a plant on the principle of freedom of association and the right of workers to organize. This public forum will be held on February 27, 1996, commencing at 9:30 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m.

Persons wishing to present their views on these matters may do so by registering their requests with the U.S. National Administrative Office (U.S. NAO) no later than February 16, 1996. Only those individuals registered in advance may address the forum.

ADDRESSES: The public forum will be held at the ANA Hotel San Francisco, located at 50 Third Street, San Francisco, California, 94103. The hotel telephone number is 415-974-6400. Registration to make an oral statement may be mailed or faxed to the U.S. NAO at the U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Room C-4327, Washington, D.C. 20210, Fax # 202-501-6615.
