

authorization to prioritize any of a shipper's markets.

Sea Robin also proposes to change Section 4.10 of its Tariff to lower the adjustment factor for measurement errors from 2% to 1%. Finally, Sea Robin proposes an addition to Section 27.1 of its Tariff, the Crediting Flow-through Mechanism, to include the offset to any difference for imbalance entries under an Operational Balancing Agreement which uses a make-up in-kind methodology. Sea Robin states that it has no other means to resolve in-kind imbalances on its books of accounts since it has no storage on its system and does not buy or sell gas. Sea Robin states that copies of the filing will be served upon its shippers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR Sections 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions and protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

CNG Transmission Corporation; Notice of Section 4 Filing

January 31, 1996.

Take notice that on January 16 1996, CNG Transmission Corporation (CNG) tendered for filing pursuant to Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, a notice of termination of gathering services currently being provided on specified uncertificated gathering lines. CNG states that the uncertificated lines are being abandoned in place or removed¹ and that no contract for transportation service with CNG will be canceled or terminated.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before February 5, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the
