

National Flood Insurance Program; Rebating Agents' Commissions

AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration (FEMA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) gives notice that it is extending the time for submission of public comments on rebating of insurance agents' commissions to consumers under the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

DATES: Comments should be submitted on or before June 12, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Please submit your comments to the Rules Docket Clerk, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 500 C Street SW., Washington, DC 20472, (facsimile) (202)646-4536.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Charles M. Plaxico, Jr., Chief, Claims and Underwriting Division, the Federal Insurance Administration, 500 C Street SW., Washington, DC 20472, (202) 646-3422.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On December 15, 1995 the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) gave notice that it had rescinded Policy Issuance 5-95, Rebating Agents' Commissions, issued on October 4, 1995, and requested public comments on rebating of insurance agents' commissions to consumers under the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) (Published at 60 FR 64436-64437, December 15, 1995). Comments were due by March 14, 1996. We have received a large number of responses to the notice, including one requesting extension of the comment period. In order to ensure the fullest opportunity for public comment on this issue, I hereby extend the period for submitting comments on rebating insurance agents' commissions to consumers under the NFIP for an additional 90 days or until June 12, 1996. For convenience of those reading this notice, I am repeating the supplementary information included in the December 15, 1995 notice.

Where the practice is permitted by State law, licensed insurance agents may rebate a portion of the commission they earn for the sale of a given policy to the insured. This practice typically is used as a sales incentive and marketing tool. While the practice is prohibited in most States, a few States permit the practice. With more insurance producers and agents beginning to sell flood insurance policies, FIA wants the comments of as large a number of interested parties as possible in order to set policy on this issue.

During the past year, FIA received a number of inquiries from producers and Write Your Own (WYO) Companies concerning the rebating of insurance agents' commissions on NFIP policies. FIA consulted with the following three committees that advise the FIA on insurance-related issues: the Flood Insurance Producers National Committee; the Insurance Institute for Property Loss Reduction Flood Insurance Committee; and the Write Your Own Marketing Committee. The Insurance Institute for Property Loss Reduction Flood Insurance Committee did not comment as a committee, but two member companies on that committee responded as individual companies.

On October 4, 1995, FIA issued National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) Policy Issuance 5-95 which prohibited, under the NFIP, the practice of agents' rebating commissions to consumers. We now rescind Policy Issuance 5-95. Since October 4 interested parties from within and outside the insurance industry have expressed divergent views on how FIA should treat the issue of rebating agents' commissions. In light of the diversity of opinion on this issue, FIA has decided to increase the circle of its advisers and to solicit comments and recommendations from a wider audience than before on the most appropriate policy on the rebating issue.

Dated: March 1, 1996.

Elaine A. McReynolds,

Federal Insurance Administrator.
