Provided further, that if such complaint is dismissed or a federal court rules that the respondent did not violate any provision of the Order, and the dismissal or ruling is either not appealed or upheld on appeal, then the Order will terminate according to this paragraph as though the complaint was never filed, except that the Order will not terminate between the date such complaint is filed and the later of the deadline for appealing such dismissal or ruling and the date such dismissal or ruling is upheld on appeal.

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement, subject to final approval, to a proposed consent order from respondent Rick A. Rahim, individually and doing business as NBDC Credit Resource Publishing.

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take other appropriate action or make final the agreement's proposed order.

This matter concerns claims made by the respondent in his advertising, including advertising through the Internet, for his credit repair product. The Commission's complaint charges that the respondent's advertising represents, directly or by implication, that respondent's product whereby consumers create new credit files is legal. The claim is alleged to be false and misleading, and in violation of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45, because respondent's product whereby consumers create new credit files is not legal. The Commission's complaint also charges that the respondent's failure to disclose that consumers who follow respondent's product to create new credit files will violate certain federal criminal laws, is a deceptive practice in violation of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 45.

The proposed consent order contains provisions designed to remedy the violations charged and to prevent the respondent from engaging in similar acts and practices in the future. Part I of the proposed order prohibits the respondent from misrepresenting, directly or by implication in his advertising for any credit repair product the legality of the credit repair product. Part II of the proposed order prohibits the respondent from failing to disclose in any advertisement for any credit repair product that: (a) making misrepresentations to the Internal Revenue Service may be a federal crime; (b) misrepresenting one's social security number for any purpose may be a federal crime; (c) making misrepresentations for a loan application may be a federal crime; and (d) making misrepresentations to a financial institution may be a federal crime.

Part III of the proposed order requires the respondent to maintain materials relied upon in disseminating any representation covered by the order. Part IV of the proposed order requires the respondent to distribute copies of the order to certain company officials and employees. Part V of the proposed order requires the respondent to notify the Commission of any discontinuance of his present business or employment and of each affiliation with a new business or employment. Part VI of the proposed order requires the respondent to file one or more compliance reports. Part VII of the proposed order is a provision whereby the order, absent certain circumstances, terminates twenty years from the date of issuance.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed consent order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify their terms in any way.

Donald S. Clark,
Secretary.

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order to Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement, subject to final approval, to a proposed consent order from respondent Martha Clark, individually and doing business as Simplex Solutions.

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take other appropriate action or make final the agreement's proposed order.

This matter concerns claims made by the respondent in her advertising, including advertising through the Internet, for the Guaranteed Credit Doctor credit repair kit. The Commission's complaint charges that the respondent's advertising represents, directly or by implication, that consumers can remove bankruptcies, judgments, foreclosures, liens, repossessions, late payments, and other adverse items of information from their credit reports even where such information is accurate and not obsolete. The claim is alleged to be false and misleading, and in violation of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 45, because most consumers cannot remove adverse items of information from their credit reports where such information is accurate and not obsolete.

The proposed consent order contains provisions designed to remedy the violation charged and to prevent the respondent from engaging in similar acts and practices in the future. Part I of the proposed order prohibits the respondent from misrepresenting, directly or by implication in her advertising for any credit repair product any right or remedy available under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq., including, but not limited to, the ability to remove adverse information in any credit report. Part II of the proposed order requires the respondent to distribute copies of the order to certain company officials and employees. Part III of the proposed order requires the respondent to notify the Commission of any discontinuance of her present business or employment and of each affiliation with a new business or employment. Part IV of the proposed order requires the respondent to file one or more compliance reports. Part V of the proposed order is a provision whereby the order, absent certain circumstances, terminates twenty years from the date of issuance.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed consent order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify their terms in any way.
