

for HUD homeless assistance programs. However, if the amount awarded under either of these two programs exceeds $100 million, then the amount awarded to any one unit of general local government (for purposes of the Shelter Plus Care program) and or city or urban county (for the purposes of the SRO program) may not exceed 10 percent of the actual total amount awarded for that program.

In addition, if the Administration budget request is enacted as the final appropriation as referred to earlier in the NOFA, the 10% number for each of the 2 programs would increase proportionately.

General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The tribal self-governance program is designed to promote self determination by allowing tribes to assume more control through negotiated agreements of programs operated by the Department of the Interior. The new law allows for negotiations to be conducted for programs operated by BIA and for programs operated by other bureaus and offices within the Department that are available to Indians or when there is an historical cultural, or geographic connection to an Indian tribe.

One of the criteria for entry into self-governance negotiations is the completion of a self-governance planning activity. For this purpose, the Congress has provided funding for planning and negotiation grants.

The purpose of this notice is to announce the availability of planning and negotiation grants in accordance with the self-governance interim rule published elsewhere in today's Federal Register.

The following types of grants are available to tribes in 1996 with the deadlines as stated below:

(1) Negotiation Grants: Up to 20 grants of $40,000 are available. As announced in the Federal Register on February 1, 1996, the closing date for submitting completed applications to begin participation in tribal self-governance in fiscal year 1996 or calendar year 1996 is April 29, 1996. Applications requesting to be included in the applicant pool to begin participation in tribal self-governance may be submitted at any time. Subject to the availability of funds, all tribes/consortia selected from the applicant pool to begin participation in tribal self-governance in fiscal year 1996 or calendar year 1997, will be eligible to receive a negotiation grant. Selected tribes/consortia will be notified by May 3, 1996, and must submit written applications for a negotiation grant no later than May 10, 1996, by indicating their intention to negotiate and annual funding agreement with any bureau within DOI for 1997.

(2) Advance Planning Grants: Up to 10 grants of $50,000 are available. The closing date for submitting applications to receive a grant to plan for future participation in the tribal self-governance program is July 31, 1996.

(3) Negotiation/Planning Grants to Negotiate Non-BIA Programs: Up to 10 grants of no more than $40,000 are available. The closing date for submitting applications to receive a negotiation/planning grant for existing self-governance tribes to negotiate for DOI non-BIA programs is May 15, 1996.

In order to provide sufficient time for tribes to effectively use the planning and negotiation grants, the following dates have been identified for the awarding of grants:

(1) Negotiation Grants: Since agreements for the 1997 fiscal year need to be signed and submitted by July 1, 1996, to allow sufficient time to prepare for negotiations, new participating tribes will be selected and awarded negotiation grants by May 15, 1996.

(2) Advance Planning Grants: In order to avoid delays in planning activity and future participation in tribal self-governance, advance planning grants must be awarded to tribes/consortia by August 30, 1996.

(3) Negotiation/Planning Grants to Negotiate Non-BIA Programs: Since agreements for the 1997 fiscal year need to be signed and submitted by July 1, 1996, to allow sufficient time to prepare for negotiation of DOI non-BIA programs, negotiation/planning grants for existing self-governance tribes to negotiate non-BIA programs must be awarded by May 22, 1996.

Submitting Applications

(1) Applications must be submitted in accordance with the interim rule published elsewhere today in the Federal Register and by the deadlines identified in this announcement.

(2) Applications may be mailed or hand-delivered.

(3) Applications which are mailed must be postmarked no later than the date given in this notice for the particular type of grant being applied for.

Dated: April 4, 1996.
