Ultramar Inc. v. Gaviota Terminal Company; Notice of Complaint

May 6, 1996.

Take notice that on April 30, 1996, Ultramar Inc. (Ultramar) filed a complaint pursuant to Sections 9, 13(1), and 15(1) of the Interstate Commerce Act (ICA), Section 1803 of the Energy Policy Act of 1992, and Rule 206 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure against Gaviota terminal Company (Gaviota).

Ultramar alleges that Gaviota has (1) collected transportation charges before February 1, 1994, without filing a tariff with the Commission, (2) that the rates Gaviota collected thereafter were unjust, unreasonable, and discriminatory, and (3) that rates Gaviota collected since September 1, 1995, were in excess of the applicable indexed ceiling rates under Order Nos. 561 and 561-A without an adequate showing that such rates are justified by a substantial divergence between actual costs and the index ceiling. Ultramar seeks the refund of all unlawful charges collected by Gaviota and the establishment of lawful rates which are just, reasonable and non-discriminatory. This includes all funds in excess of variable and operating costs for the period for which no tariffs were filed.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the instant complaint should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 30, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. Answers to this complaint shall be due on or before May 30, 1996.

Young Gas Storage Company, Ltd.;
Notice of Filing

May 6, 1996.

Take notice that on May 1, 1996, Young Gas Storage Company, Ltd. (Young) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet, with a proposed effective date of June 1, 1996: Fourth Revised Sheet No. 5

Young states that the purpose of its filing is to reflect an increase in the fuel reimbursement percentage based on actual experience and a two estimate from 2.0% to 2.6% effective June 1, 1996.

Young states that copies of this filing have been served on Young's jurisdictional customers and public bodies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR Sections 385.214 and 385.211). All such petitions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Young Storage Company, Ltd.; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

May 6, 1996.

Take notice that on May 1, 1996, Young Storage Company, Ltd. (Young), tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, revised tariff sheets included as Appendix 1 to the filing, to be effective June 1, 1996.

Young states that the purpose of the filing is to comply with Commission Order No. 582 issued September 28, 1995 in Docket No. RM95-3-000. Order No. 582 requires a pipeline that is on a volumetric basis to convert to a thermal basis within one year of implementation. Young states that it is therefore converting its existing volumetric tariff to a thermal tariff using a conversion factor of 1077 Btu for each Mcf. Young states that there will be no change in revenues under the proposed revisions.

Young requests any waiver necessary of the Commission's Regulations to the extent necessary to permit the tariff sheets to become effective June 1, 1996, the start of the injection season.

Young states that copies of the filing are being mailed to all holders of its tariff.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 and Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR Section 385.211 and Section 385.214). All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
