INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-746
(Preliminary)]

Beryllium Metal and High-Beryllium Alloys From Kazakhstan

Determination

On the basis of the record<sup>1</sup> developed in the subject investigation, the Commission determines, pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1673b(a)), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports from Kazakhstan of beryllium metal and high-beryllium alloys,<sup>2</sup> that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> The subject products are beryllium metal and high-beryllium alloys with a beryllium content equal to or greater than 30 percent by weight, whether in ingot, billet, powder, block, lump, chunk, blank, or other semifinished form. These are intermediate or semifinished products that require further machining, casting and/or fabricating into sheet, extrusions, forgings or other shapes in order to meet the specifications of the end user. Beryllium metal and high-beryllium alloys within the scope of this investigation are classifiable under subheadings 8112.11.60, 8112.11.30, 7601.20.90, and elsewhere in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTS). Although the HTS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this investigation is dispositive; e.g., subject cut-to-size blocks and drilled tubular blanks of beryllium metal may be provided for as wrought products in HTS subheading 8112.19.00.

<sup>3</sup> Commissioner Lynn M. Bragg finds that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is threatened with material injury by reason of imports from Kazakhstan of beryllium

Background

On March 14, 1996, a petition was filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by Brush Wellman, Cleveland, OH, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports of beryllium metal and high-beryllium alloys from Kazakhstan. Accordingly, effective March 14, 1996, the Commission instituted antidumping investigation No. 731-TA-746 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of March 26, 1996 (61 FR 13213). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on April 3, 1996, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on May 6, 1996. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 2959 (May 1996), entitled "Beryllium Metal and High-Beryllium Alloys from Kazakhstan: Investigation No. 731-TA-746 (Preliminary)."

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 8, 1996.

Also as requested, the Commission will focus on sector-specific commitments scheduled by Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay, and Venezuela with respect to the following industries:

- distribution services (defined as wholesaling, retailing, and franchising services);
- education services;

- professional services (defined as accounting, advertising, and legal services);
- architectural, engineering, and construction (AEC) services;

In addition, the Commission will examine horizontal commitments relevant to the specified industries, such as those regarding investment and temporary entry and stay of foreign workers. As requested by the USTR, the Commission plans to deliver its report to the USTR by December 13, 1996.

The investigation is a follow-on to Commission Investigation No. 332-358, General Agreement on Trade in Services: Examination of Major Trading Partners' Schedules of Commitments,

The initial report, USITC Publication 2940, was published in December 1995, and is available on the ITC Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov> or <ftp://ftp.usitc.gov>).
