

management, local generation, system alternatives, transmission alternatives, and alternative routes.

Government agencies, private organizations, and the public are invited to participate in the planning and analysis of the proposed project. Representatives from RUS, Dairyland, and NPS will be available to discuss RUS's environmental review process, describe the project and alternatives under consideration, explain the need for the project, discuss the scope of environmental issues to be considered, answer questions, and accept oral and written comments. An Alternative Evaluation and Macro-Corridor Study (Study) to be prepared by Dairyland, and its consultant, will be presented for review and comment at the public scoping meetings. The Study will be made available for review and comment following the public scoping meetings at a convenient location to be announced at the public scoping meetings and in public and legal notices placed in newspapers with a circulation in the project area. Written comments will be accepted at the addresses provided in this notice within 30 days after the June 27 public scoping meeting.

Based on the Study and input from Federal, State and local agencies, private organizations, and the public, Dairyland will prepare an Environmental Analysis to be submitted to RUS for review. If significant impacts are not evident based on RUS's independent review of the Environmental Analysis (EVAL) and other relevant information, RUS will prepare an EA to determine if the preparation of an EIS is warranted. If the EVAL or the EA indicates that significant impacts may occur due to project construction, RUS will prepare an EIS.

Should RUS determine that the preparation of an EIS is not warranted, it will prepare a Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI). The FONSI will be made available for public review and comment for 30 days. RUS will not take its final action related to the project prior to the expiration of the 30-day period.

Any final action by RUS related to the proposed project will be subject to, and contingent upon, compliance with all relevant Federal environmental laws and regulations and completion of environmental review procedures as prescribed by CEQ and RUS Environmental Policies and Procedures.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The Trade Fair Certification (TFC) program is a service of the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) that provides Commerce endorsement and support for high-quality international trade fairs which are organized by private-sector firms. The TFC program seeks to broaden the base of U.S. firms, particularly new-to-market companies by introducing them to key international trade fairs where they can achieve their export objectives. Those objectives include one or more of the following: direct sales, identification of local agents or distributors, market research and exposure, and joint venture and licensing opportunities for their products and services.

The objective of the application is to make a determination that the trade fair organizer is qualified to organize and manage U.S. exhibitions at a foreign trade show.

II. Method of Collection

The collection is by mail. Applicants mail the applications to the U.S. Department of Commerce.
