DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Federal-State Unemployment Compensation Program: Unemployment Insurance Program Letters Interpreting Federal Unemployment Insurance Law

The Employment and Training Administration interprets Federal law requirements pertaining to unemployment compensation as part of its role in the administration of the Federal-State unemployment compensation program. These interpretations are issued in Unemployment Insurance Program Letters (UIPLs) to the State Employment Security Agencies (SESAs). The UIPL described below is published in the Federal Register in order to inform the public.

UIPL 22-96

Federal law requires that all money received in the unemployment fund shall, immediately upon receipt, be paid over to the Secretary of the Treasury to the credit of the Unemployment Trust Fund. This provision is referred to as the "immediate deposit requirement." Federal law also contains a "withdrawal standard" which, with limited statutory exceptions, requires that all money withdrawn from the unemployment fund of the State shall be used solely in the payment of unemployment
