

The Committee will meet again in open session on Friday, September 27, 1996, at approximately 9:30 AM, to discuss science and technology policies of national importance and future PCAST activities. This session will end at approximately 12:00 Noon.

Any of the morning or afternoon sessions may be interrupted for the PCAST to gather at the White House to meet with the President and/or Vice President of the United States.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: For information regarding time, place, and agenda, please call Jeanie Hall, at (202) 456-6100, prior to 3:00 PM on Friday, September 20, 1996. Other questions may be directed to Angela Phillips Diaz, Executive Secretary of PCAST, or Elizabeth M. Gunn, Senior Policy Analyst for PCAST, at (202) 456-6100. Please note that public seating for this meeting is limited, and is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The President's Committee of Advisors on Science and Technology was established on November 23, 1993, by Executive Order 12882, as amended, and continued through September 30, 1997, by Executive Order 12974. The purpose of PCAST is to advise the President on matters of national importance that have significant science and technology content, and to assist the President's National Science and Technology Council in securing private sector participation in its activities. The Committee members are distinguished individuals appointed by the President from non-Federal sectors. The PCAST is co-chaired by John H. Gibbons, Assistant to the President for Science and Technology, and John Young, former President and CEO of Hewlett-Packard Company.

Dated: August 29, 1996.
