BILLING CODE 4310-70-P

Notice of Intent To Repatriate a Cultural Item in the Possession of the Buffalo Bill Historical Center, Cody, WY

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 25 U.S.C. 3005(a)(2), of the intent to repatriate a cultural item in the possession of the Buffalo Bill Historical Center, Cody, WY which meets the definition of "sacred object" under Section 2 of the Act.

The Medicine Pipe Thunder Bundle consists of a calumet (eagle-feathered pipe stem) with red cloth cover; a secondary pipe consisting of a pipe bowl and wooden stem; two buffalo skin rattles; four stuffed intact bird skins with cloth wrappers consisting of a Canadian goose, hawk, duck and kingfisher; a Hudson's Bay cloth, and a wool blanket.

Authorities of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service have been contacted regarding applicability of Federal endangered species statutes to this transfer and have concurred in the conclusion that the object is not covered due to its age.

Museum records indicate that the bundle was purchased by the Buffalo Bill Historical Center in 1968 from Jim Brubaker, a dealer in the Browning Montana area. Ethnohistorical documentation gathered from Lone Wolf (nephew of Boy Chief) together with evidence submitted by the representatives of the Blackfeet Nation indicates that the known history of the bundle can be traced to the 1870's when Eagle Plume was the traditional bundle holder. The bundle passed through several bundle holders including Lone Chief in the 1880's, Wolf Plume (ca. 1896-1910), Chief Crow (ca. 1910-1915), Boy Chief (ca. 1915-1921), Raven Chief (ca. 1921-1930), and Bull Plume (ca. 1930-1960's). Descendants of Boy Chief sold the bundle to Jim Brubaker.

During consultation with the Buffalo Bill Historical Center, authorized representatives of the Blackfeet Nation and the Pikuni Traditionalists Association identified this object as necessary for the practice of traditional Blackfeet religion. These representatives, including traditional religions leaders, have verified that this object is a Medicine Pipe Thunder Bundle of the Blackfeet Nation, known as Boy Chief's bundle.

Based on the above-mentioned information, officials of the Buffalo Bill Historical Center have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(3)(C), this cultural item is a specific ceremonial object needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the Buffalo Bill Historical Center have also determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between this item and the Blackfeet Nation.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Blackfeet Nation. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with this object should contact Emma I. Hansen, Buffalo Bill Historical Center, P.O. Box 1000, Cody, WY 82414, telephone (307) 587-4771 before October 7, 1996. Repatriation of these objects to the Blackfeet Nation may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: August 29, 1996.

Francis P. McManamon,

Departmental Consulting Archeologist, Chief, Archeology and Ethnography Program.
