[Docket Nos. RP96-373-000, RM96-14-001]

Boston Gas Company and Secondary Market Transactions on Interstate Natural Gas Pipelines; Notice of Filing

September 5, 1996.

Take notice that on August 30, 1996, Boston Gas Company tendered for filing in Docket No. RM96-14-001 an application to participate in the Commission's Proposed Experimental Pilot Program to Relax the Price Cap for Secondary Market Transactions. Boston Gas is a local distribution company that serves approximately 40,000 commercial and industrial customers and 480,000 residential customers in the metropolitan Boston area. Its public utility activities are subject to regulation by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities ("MassDPU").

On May 17, 1996, Boston Gas on its own initiative filed proposed tariff sheets with the MassDPU to unbundle its firm transportation service and to withdraw entirely from the merchant business. Hearings on the proposal have concluded, and the MassDPU will act on the proposal no later than November 29, 1996. Boston Gas states that it is willing to accept contingent approval of its application subject to action taken by the MassDPU.

Boston Gas submits that its unbundling proposal is consistent with the pilot program and that its phased departure from the merchant business will remove the potential to exercise market power within Boston Gas' service territory. Under Boston Gas' timetable, unbundled sales and transportation service will be available to all of its commercial and industrial customers effective December 1, 1996, and to all residential customers effective November 1, 1997. The proposal includes a capacity assignment program which will enable customers to choose their own marketers and permit these marketers to offer competitive prices for gas supply delivered to the Company's city-gate stations. Boston Gas states that thirteen gas marketers are currently competing for this business.

Any person desiring to comment on or to protest Boston Gas's application should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214 and with the Commission's notice in Docket No. RM-96-14-001. All such motions or protests must be filed within 15 days and comply with the requirements in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants a party to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of Boston Gas' application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Carnegie Interstate Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

September 5, 1996.

Take notice that on August 30, 1996, Carnegie Interstate Pipeline Company (CIPCO), tendered for filing and acceptance the following revised tariff sheet to its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet with a proposed effective date of October 1, 1996:

Ninth Revised Sheet No. 7

CIPCO states that the above tariff sheet has been revised to reflect a modification to the Annual Charge Adjustment fee. CIPCO was not assessed any annual charges this year and, therefore, reduced its ACA to zero. CIPCO reserved all rights to refile its ACA in the event that it is assessed ACA charges.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations.
