

clinical activities. While this demonstration provides an exception to current CHAMPUS benefit limitations, the Department hypothesizes that this increased access to innovative cancer therapies will occur at a cost comparable to that which the Department has experienced in paying for conventional therapies under the standard CHAMPUS program. Results of this demonstration will provide a framework for determining the scope of DOD's continued participation in the NCI's research efforts.

Department of Defense Wage Committee; Notice of Closed Meetings

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of Public Law 92-463, the Federal Advisory Committee Act, notice is hereby given that closed meetings of the Department of Defense Wage Committee will be held on November 5, 1996; November 12, 1996; November 19, 1996; and November 26, 1996; at 10:00 a.m. in Room A105, The Nash building, 1400 Key Boulevard, Rosslyn, Virginia.

Under the provisions of section 10(d) of Public Law 92-463, the Department of Defense has determined that the meetings meet the criteria to close meetings to the public because the matters to be considered are related to internal rules and practices of the Department of Defense and the detailed wage data to be considered were obtained from officials of private establishments with a guarantee that the data will be held in confidence.

However, members of the public who may wish to do so are invited to submit material in writing to the chairman concerning matters believed to be deserving of the Committee's attention.

Additional information concerning the meetings may be obtained by writing to the Chairman, Department of Defense Wage Committee, 4000 Defense Pentagon, Washington, DC 20301-4000.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Notice of Availability

SUMMARY: The Department announces the availability of its Final Report on the Section 504 Self-evaluation (Final Report), conducted by the Department of Education under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. 794). The Final Report examines the accessibility of the Department's programs and activities to persons with disabilities.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, provides that no otherwise qualified person with a disability shall, solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity conducted by any Executive agency. The Department of Education published regulations implementing Section 504 in 34 CFR Part 105. Pursuant to 34 CFR 105.10, the Department of Education has conducted a self-evaluation of its current policies and practices, assessing how effectively they meet the requirements of Section 504 and its implementing regulations.

On April 8, 1996, 61 FR 15472, the Department published in the Federal Register a notice soliciting public comments on the draft report of its Section 504 Self-evaluation. The Department received comments from nine commenters, primarily organizations representing or involved with people with disabilities, and those comments and the Department's responses are discussed in Appendix F to the Final Report. The Final Report contains (1) an evaluation of the accessibility of the Department's programs, activities, and facilities to persons with disabilities; (2) recommendations for improving the accessibility of the Department; (3) summaries of the self-evaluations conducted by each Principal Office of the Department; and (4) summaries of the architectural survey of Departmental facilities. The Department has organized two task forces to assist in the implementation of (1) program accessibility, and (2) facility accessibility as proposed by the recommendations of the Final Report.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: A copy of the Department's Final Report is available in the Department's Public Reading Room located in Room 1333, Federal Office Building 10B, 600 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Monday through Friday of each week except Federal holidays.
