

interconnection, and that the unresolved issues raised in CEI's appeal of the FERC order will be resolved in the rehearing process. I have concluded that the fourth issue raised concerning deviation charges for unscheduled power deliveries is primarily a tariff-related issue and falls clearly under the jurisdiction of FERC. The initial decision by the ALJ in this case addressed each of the concerns raised in this fourth issue. The final FERC decision in this matter will resolve these issues, and any excess amounts paid by CPP will be refunded with interest in accordance with FERC regulations. I have concluded that no enforcement action is warranted for this fourth issue. As a result of the foregoing, I have determined that no NRC proceeding should be instituted and no further regulatory action by the NRC is required.

POSTAL SERVICE

Revision of the Domestic Mail Manual Transition Book

AGENCY: Postal Service.
ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Effective August 1, 1996, the Domestic Mail Manual Transition Book (DMMT) is revised as shown in Table I. This revision reflects the transfer of many sections in the DMMT to Postal Operations Manual (POM) Issue 7, which was published with an effective date of August 1, 1996. All sections in DMMT chapter 3, chapter 5, chapter 6 (except 665), and chapter 7 (except 785) have been rescinded by new requirements published on July 1, 1996, in Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) Issue 50. These requirements were further amended by the Federal Register on August 15, 1996 (61 FR 42478-42489), for nonprofit mail standards that changed on October 6, 1996.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 1, 1996.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Patricia Bennett, (202) 268-6350.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In revising the Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) for release as DMM Issue 46 on July 1, 1993, the Postal Service identified rules and procedures in the DMM that did not govern the eligibility for, and use of, domestic mail services. The Postal Service made a determination not to include that material in DMM Issue 46 and in subsequent issues of the DMM.

The identified material chiefly fell into two categories: (1) recommendations for voluntary customer action; (2) internal instructions to postal employees. Other identified material not relating to mail classification included post office discontinuances, delivery policies, and philatelic procedures.

Pending the transfer of these rules and procedures to other documents, the Postal Service on July 1, 1993, published the identified material in a separate part of the DMM titled the Domestic Mail Manual Transition Book (DMMT). In creating the DMMT, the Postal Service provided that the rules included in that document remain in full force through June 30, 1994.

The purpose of that 1-year period was to allow the Postal Service to decide whether to rescind the rules in the DMMT or to incorporate them into other documents. As the following table shows, several changes have been made to the DMMT since its publication; however, the evaluation process is not yet complete.

The Postal Service rescinded the June 30, 1994, expiration date of the DMMT in a notice published in the June 20, 1994, Federal Register (59 FR 31655-31656) and in Postal Bulletin 21870 (6-23-94). Additional time will be required to complete the transfer of the remaining material.

Table I shows the DMMT sections removed or transferred, the effective date, and if applicable, the sections of POM Issue 7 or title 39 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) into which such material was transferred.

Table II shows the DMMT sections that are still in force until further notice. Most of these remaining sections contain internal procedures for processing mailer applications. Stanley F. Mires, Chief Counsel, Legislative.
